THIS MONTH

With one phase of the Alumni Association's public relations program brought to a close, we are happy to report on its success and scope. We refer here to the series of district meetings throughout the state. The series began shortly after the Christmas holidays and extended through July. In this period a meeting was held in every county of the state and in many towns and cities, each sponsored by alumni living in the respective communities.

Thousands of Missourians who otherwise have no University affiliations were made staunch friends of the school and the state's educational system as a whole. Highest praise is due Allen Oliver of Cape Girardeau, chairman of the Public Relations Committee, and to each and every district chairman and county association officer. These alumni have performed and are performing an invaluable service to the University, a service which calls for personal sacrifices but which they have rendered enthusiastically and exceptionally well.

* * * * *

While praise and congratulations are being handed out, we think a good portion is due Dean T. W. H. Irion of the School of Education for the splendid Summer Session now coming to a close. Dean Irion, as director of the session, has formulated and conducted a program which benefits a large section of the Missouri teaching profession and, by virtue of that program's merit, has brought further credit to the University.

Those in charge of the centennial alumni celebration, to be held on the campus November 3 and 4, have been conferring through the summer and will have an announcement of interest in the next issue of The Alumnus. We hope you all are planning to be with us in November.

In a recent issue we asked our readers' aid in locating "Turkey" Boman who was a campus figure at the turn of the century. We have received a few responses but we can't report anything definite right now. From Wallace Alexander, in Boy Village, O., we have:

"I noticed in the last issue of your paper that you wanted some dope on 'Turkey' Boman. I think that he spelled it 'Bowman' anyhow and he was the one and only 'Turkey' from 1899 to 1904, because I was there at the time and knew him quite well. He was my captain in the military commissary at Last month in the classnotes section we said that Walter Helmsreich's oldest boy was coming to M. U. in September. To Walter, in Jefferson City, who brought us up short on our misceus, we say it was just one of those bobbles that comes under the "Oops, we're sorry" classification. It's his second son who's coming; Merwin Rae Helmsreich, 20 years old come October.

Not long ago we were in St. Louis and took the opportunity to have lunch with the alumni gang at the Bury Bee, feeling of course that we would be the center of attraction and in a glamorous atmosphere. In short, we fully expected to be the guest of honor and to be made over so and so.

We sat (the editorial "us") at the table, all alone, for about an hour twiddling the editorial thumbs. Just about the time the sun began to set, Arnot Finley came in and the two of us lunched together. It was a great pleasure to be with Arnot, even though we did most of the talking since he was in a great rush to get away. He left in fifteen minutes. We were so lonesome we didn't even eat the dessert. We practically ran back to the hotel and took down our hair for a good cry.

Despite our disappointment we feel safe in predicting that the Missouri table will come into its own next fall, when the football begins to fly.

DESK NOTES: The new baby girl at "Hatch" Welsh's house has been named Jean Dobney. Papa rates with pride that Jean was the first daughter born on Mother's Day in Kansas City. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Paterson called at the office early in July. On their way to Boulder, Colo., where he is teaching law in the summer session. . . . "Experiences and Observations of a Long-Time Kansas City Restaur" is the title of the reminiscences of Fletcher Cowherd, a copy of which has reached our desk. It's fine reading. We especially enjoyed his account of the famous Blue Car Robbery on the C. & A. Railroad near Independence when the James boys cleaned out an entire passenger train. Mr. Cowherd was present.

Rens W. McClure, student president in 1915, has just been named president of the Kansas Electric Power Company at Lawrence. He was formerly president of the Oklahoma Power & Water Company at Tulsa. Thanks to Charlie Mastrochatt, Jr., Class of '25, for the clipping, Charlie is with the Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company in Oklahoma City. . . . A note from Harold Kirsch, B.J. '39, saying he is now working in the ad department of the Peters Shoe Company in St. Louis. Harold was business manager of The Missouri Student last year and did a long-up job.

A letter from Oscar Riley in New York City tells of Leo Sack's resignation as director of public relations for the Scherley Distillers Corporation. He will open his own public relations office in Washington, D. C., according to the N. Y. Times. Oscar also says that Herman Froese of "from Hermann" fame while in school is with the real estate firm of Hubbard, Wernervelt & Monteloy, Inc., 18 East 41st Street, New York City.

Orlando Romano, who has completed requirements for an M.A. degree in journalism, came in to see us just before leaving for his home in the Philippines where he will work on the editorial staff of the D-M-H-M newspapers. Orlando, we think, is the student who popularized the shirt-tail-out fad on this campus. All the boys now, in keeping with fashion, are doing it.

This issue concludes the current publication year and we will be back with you in September with a lot of vim and vigor. To our old and faithful readers, it's been nice to have had you with us again. To our host of new friends, members of the Class of 1939, thanks for wanting to listen in. We depend on all of you for the news in these columns. Keep us well supplied.

And, finally, our sincere thanks to Columbia business and professional men and women for their continuous loyalty throughout the year. The University couldn't do without them.

Dean Tisdell Retires

ARTS AND SCIENCE HEAD TO TERMINATE POSITION NEXT MONTH — MEMBER OF M. U. FACULTY SINCE 1910 — DEAN SINCE 1922.

W. C. CURTIS SUCCESSOR

Dr. Frederick Monroe Tisdell, dean of the faculty of the College of Arts and Science in the University since 1922, will retire August 31, according to an announcement released by President Middlebach on July 5. Dr. Winton C. Curtis, chairman of the department of zoology, has been named acting dean of the division, effective September 1, to replace Dean Tisdell.

Dr. Tisdell, who received his doctor's degree from Harvard University in 1900, came to the University of Missouri as professor of English in 1910. Previously he had served as president of the University of Wyoming between 1904 and 1908, and held teaching positions in the University of Wisconsin, Oberlin College, and Armour Institute.

An author as well as a teacher, Dean Tisdell published "Studies in the English Classics" in 1904, "Studies in Literature" in 1913, and "Survey of English and American Literature" in 1915. He has also contributed to numerous magazines and literary publications.

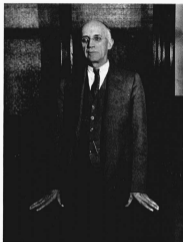

Dean Tisdell was born January 7, 1869 in Belvidere, Ill., the son of James Monroe and Amanda Clark Tisdell. He attended Northwest Academy in Evanston, Ill., in 1885-87, and then matriculated at Northwestern University from which he received his A. B. degree in 1891. He continued his studies at Wisconsin University and received a master's degree there in 1893. One year later he received a similar degree at Harvard. While attending Wisconsin he also served as instructor in elocution.

From 1895 to 1898 he was associate professor of rhetoric and oratory at Oberlin College. He then entered Harvard to gain his doctorate, which was awarded in 1900. He immediately took a position as professor of English at the Armour Institute of Technology and remained there until 1904 when he took the presidency at Wyoming. In 1909-10 he was dean of the college of arts and sciences and professor of English at Toledo University. In 1910 he joined the University of Missouri staff.

Dean Tisdell is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Modern Language Association of America. In Columbia he is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and a former president of the Kiwanis Club. He and Mrs. Tisdell have one son, Nelson Clark Tisdell, who received an A.B. from Missouri in 1920 and is now engaged in the investment banking business in Boston.

Dr. Curtis, whose appointment as acting dean to succeed Dr. Tisdell was announced at the same time, came to the University as instructor in zoology in 1901, having received his doctor's degree from Johns Hopkins the same year. Appointed as professor of zoology in 1908, he has filled a number of positions in addition to his University post.

He was scientific assistant to the United States Bureau of Fisheries from 1907 to 1910; visiting professor in Keio University, Tokyo, Japan, in 1922; member of the National Research Council in 1923-26 and again in 1929-32. His present membership on the council dates from 1935.

Dr. Curtis is a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi fraternities.

Fee Change

BOARD OF CURATORS PLACES OUT-OF-STATE STUDENTS ON RECIPROCAL BASIS—WILL AFFECT APPROXIMATELY 1000.

The Board of Curators of the University, on July 18, announced a new schedule of out-of-state tuition fees for non-resident students which will go into effect at the beginning of the fall term in September. The new schedule has been termed "a reciprocal fee basis." It replaces the $40-per-semester charge which has been in effect during the last two years.

On the reciprocal basis, a non-resident student will pay the same out-of-state fee that a Missourian would be charged to attend other state universities. In many cases the charge of $40 a semester will apply here because other states, too, are on a reciprocal basis or they charge less than the $40 fee. But in some states the non-resident fee exceeds $200 a semester and students from those states must pay an equal fee to attend Missouri.

The curators established $40 a semester during the regular term and $20 a semester for the summer session as minimum fees, and said that foreign students would be admitted at this charge. To enforce fee collection the University will regard as a student's legal residence that state from which his high school transcript was issued. If parents or guardians of the student have become bonafide residents of another state, burden of proof will rest on the student.

The University auditor will work out the fee schedule which will be charged out-of-state students, but this schedule will probably not be available for some time. Some states have a higher charge for one division of the university than another and four states, at least, have no state universities in the accepted sense.

In states where there is no state university, the reciprocal fee will be based on the out-of-state fee paid by students enrolling in the university which is partly state-supported or which is regarded by the state board of education as the "state school."

The revision of these fees will probably be felt more seriously in the School of Journalism than in any other M. U. division because of the former's heavy out-of-state enrollment. Dean Frank L. Martin is of the opinion, however, that the journalism enrollment will not be lowered appreciably, chiefly because most of his students are attracted by the high reputation of the school.

Since the non-resident fee also will apply at Rolla, a lower enrollment may be expected there where many of the mining students come from other states.

Adoption of the reciprocal fee plan recalls recent attempts of Claude Arnold, Democratic representative from Stoddard County, to have the Legislature establish a non-resident fee of $100 per semester, and after this move was defeated, to substitute a reciprocal fee bill which also failed.

The number of students affected by the new measure will probably not total greater than 1000, since approximately 20 per cent of the annual M. U. enrollment is from other states or foreign nations.

• PAN-HELLENIC GRADES

Chi Omega sorority and Zeta Beta Tau fraternity, with grade averages of 252.54 and 237.08 respectively, led all Missouri sororities and fraternities in scholarship during the past year. The sorority average is based on second semester grades alone, while the Zeta Beta Tau average, as for all fraternities on the campus, represents both semesters.

Alpha Gamma Delta placed second to the leaders among the sororities while Fawn House held a similar position among the fraternities. All sororities maintained their social privileges for the coming year by having averages better than 230 points. One fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha, lost its privileges by failing to keep its average above the 190 points required by Pan-Hellenic rulings.

Grade averages are computed on a basis of 400 points for the grade of E (excellent), 300 for S (superior), 200 for M (medium), and 100 for I (inferior). Failure in a subject receives no points. Only the grades of initiated men and women are counted.

M. U. NOW HAS 3 DEAN CURTISES

With the appointment of Dr. Winerton C. Curtis as acting dean of the M. U. College of Arts and Science, effective Sept. 1, the University will have three Curtises in the deans' chairs. The others are Dr. Harry A. Curtis of the College of Engineering and Dr. Roy Emerson Curtis of the School of Business and Public Administration.

Dr. Harry A. Curtis came to the University in 1928 as dean of the faculty of engineering, director of the Engineering Experiment Station, and professor of chemical engineering. Dr. R. E. Curtis became dean of the R. and P. A. faculty and professor of economics and finance in 1935.

Patrick Resigns

ATHLETIC PUBLICITY MAN TO TAKE SIMILAR POSITION AT MISSISSIPPI STATE—NO SUCCESSOR NAMED.

Max ("Skipper") Patrick resigned July 15 as director of athletic publicity at the University to take a position as director of the bureau of public information at Mississippi State College in Starkville, Miss. He and Mrs. Patrick left Columbia July 19 for their new home.

Patrick graduated from the School of Journalism here in 1936 and was appointed director of athletic publicity at Rothwell Gymnasium the same year. He was honored at a farewell luncheon by members of the physical education department on the eve of his departure.

No successor has been named.

• READ HALL CONTRACT GOES TO COLUMBIAN

The contract for altering Read Hall, former dormitory for women on the White Campus, into a student activities building was awarded July 1 to the John Epple Construction Company of Columbia by the Board of Curators. The bid for the work amounted to $42,725. The alterations are expected to be completed by the middle of October. The building will be used as headquarters for the various student activity groups. The present dining room will be converted into a lounge, and the basement will become a recreation room which will include a soda fountain and dancing space.

Faculty Changes

PROMOTIONS AND APPOINTMENTS TO UNIVERSITY STAFF ANNOUNCED BY BOARD OF CURATORS THIS MONTH.

At its July meeting in St. Louis recently, the University Board of Curators accepted a $1500 grant from the National Research Council and approved the appointments of teachers and graduate assistants for the next school year. The $1500 grant came from the Council's Committee on Endocrinology, and will be used for a study of the influence of endocrine factors on lactation, under the direction of Prof. C. W. Turner of the dairy husbandry department.

Board action changed the title of William J. Young to Director of University Publications. Formerly Young's title was Director of the Bureau of Public Information.

Below are listed the names of those who received either promotions or appointments at the July meeting.

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Promotion: Ernest M. Fosh, assistant professor of poultry husbandry, to rank of associate professor.

Appointments: Victor E. Ellis, Benson Harbor, Mich., appointed instructor in agricultural chemistry.

COACH JACK MATTHEWS AND JOHN MUNIKI

John Muniki, Tiger star miler, hung up his spikes for the last time this season after the National A.A.U. track and field championships held early in July at Lincoln, Neb. He brought the year to a close successfully when he shattered the Junior 1500-meter mark, finishing in 3:56.1. The old mark, held by Ray Mahonak of Drake University, was 3:57.8 made in the 1937 meet. John has been attending the M. U. summer session during June and July.

Band's Trip

STUDENT MUSICIANS RETURN TO COLUMBIA JULY 24 AFTER TOUR OF WEST COAST—LEDED BY SAN FRANCISCO ALUMNI.

By TOMMY WOLFF

Member of the M. U. Cadet Band and student in the School of Journalism.

A four-course dinner, complete with four show, for the 58 members of the University of Missouri Cadet Band and members of the Missouri delegation to the San Francisco Golden Gate International Exposition was given by the Northern California University of Missouri Alumni Association, July 19, in the Royal Hawaiian Club in San Francisco.

H. L. Hubbard, president of the California association, presided at the banquet, and Mrs. R. J. Foster, the former Miss Alice Johnson, served as one of the hostesses. William Strava, a member of the railway commission in California and a graduate of the University, also served as host.

"We gave this dinner because we're proud of the University of Missouri, and want to 'show you' we haven't forgotten our good old Missouri hospitality even though we do live in California now," Mr. Hubbard told his guests.

There are about 1500 Missouri alumni living in California now, Hubbard explained, of whom 110 are active in the Northern California Association.

Guests at the banquet, besides members of the University Band, included Col. Claude C. Eary, chairman of the Missouri Fair Commission and director of the western tour, and Mrs. Eary; Nat Milgram of Kansas City, father of one of the Tiger bondsmen, Rep. John D. Taylor of Keosauqua, Mo., an honorary member of the alumni association; Supreme Court Judge Albert M.

22 BENGALUMNI WITH MEXICO FIRM

Following is the revised list of University of Missouri alumni now employed by the A. P. Green Fire Brick Company in Mexico. Revision was called for when three members of the Class of 1919 were added. Our thanks to John Wagoner for supplying the information.

J. Hamilton Brown, '14; Art Bond, '25; Roland Brantly, '27; J. D. Ceras, former student; S. C. Carter, '35; Edwidge Cox, former student; Ralph J. Dutton, '32; W. D. Kiefer, former student; James Kiefer, '35; Maxine Kirk, '18.

Orin Lancaster and J. C. Potts, former students; Lois Langenbach, '18; L. J. Miller, '14; Eustace Pollard, '30; Elmer Rauch, '38; Jack W. Swank, '34; John Wagoner, '27; C. J. Yarnes, '34; John L. Gardner, '39; Fanchon Barlow, '39; and Robert Thomason, '39.

Twenty-two names in all—and we're proud of them!

Clark of Richmond, Mo., and other state dignitaries.

Missouri alumni were especially honored on Missouri Day at the Exposition, July 16, when they appeared on the platform with Gov. Lloyd C. Stark to sing "Old Missouri" accompanied by the University Band. Approximately thirty graduates of Old Missouri sang their school hymn, led by Miss Mary Esther Long, B.S. in Ed. '39. They were later introduced to Governor Stark.

The alumni party at San Francisco was the high point of an eventful three-week western tour which the band made with funds provided for that purpose by the State Legislature. Under the leadership of Director George Verble the Tiger musicians departed from Columbia July 9 and made their first stop in Kansas City the same day when a brief concert was played in the Union Station. At Denver they played over a radio network hook-up arranged in advance by Alumni M. E. Bernet and E. L. Board. The party then moved on to Spokane, Wash., and Portland, Ore., where brief appearances were made. The visit in San Francisco lasted from July 14 to July 19, ending with the banquet described above by Tommy Wolff. From there the Missouri Special journeyed down to Los Angeles for a two-day appearance which included a tour of the Warner Brothers studios. The party left Los Angeles on July 21 for the homeward trip.

● GOV. STARK RELEASES FUNDS FOR UNIVERSITY

A total of $5,820,475 for the University's next biennium was released by Gov. Lloyd C. Stark on July 12. The appropriation, a portion of the governor's final budget figure, represents a reduction of $305,021 from the amount previously approved by the Legislature.

University officials and members of the Governor's force must now work out the reductions to be made to meet the total amount approved.

The governor agreed to the $300,000 appropriation for a men's dormitory at the University, and the $7000 allotment which was used for taking the Cadet Band to the San Francisco International Exposition this month. Gov. Stark held up $50,000 of the crippled children's fund which is administered by the University. He released $300,000 of the original $150,000 grant approved by the Legislature.

The men's dormitory, for which bids will be opened shortly, will be erected on a section of the University's agriculture experimental field just south of Rothwell Gymnasium. Water lines are now being laid to the proposed site. State funds for the project will be augmented by a federal grant.

HAL HALSTEAD, B.S. in Ed. '30, has taken a position as coach at the Lebanon, Mo., consolidated high school. Hal was an outstanding guard on the Tiger basketball team during the last two years. He is now spending the summer of his home in St. Joseph.

FOREKSTINE SMITH, B.S. in Ed. '30, has accepted a teaching position in the elementary school at Harrisonville, Mo. Miss Smith is the daughter of Ernest Smith, state auditor in Jefferson City.

WILLIAM STONE, B.S. in 2nd '30, has a job as riding instructor this summer at a dude ranch near Lake City, Colo. In the fall he will leave for Chicago to attend Rush Medical College.

BARBARA WHITE, B.S. in Ed. '30, recently accepted a position as a teacher in one of the elementary schools in Marshall, Mo.

DOORPHY ANN SOWELL, A.B. '30, returned to her home in Columbia this month after a three weeks' trip which included visits to the New York Fair and to Bermuda.

RUTH FIENUP, B.S. in Ed. '30, secretary in the M. U. psychology department during the last four years, has resigned to take a similar position at the University of Iowa. She will be secretary to Dr. John A. McIntosh who was formerly head of the M. U. department.

Mary Elbert Condon, of Austin and Ft. Worth, Tex., and ARTHUR C. POPKATH, B.E., L.L.B. '30, were married in Ft. Worth on July 6. They are now living in Kansas City where Mr. Popkath is practicing law.

News has been received in Columbia of the marriage of FREDERICKA SPINOT, B.L. '30, of Shelby, Miss., to Lester Nelson of Greenwood, Miss. The wedding was held July 5.

WALT KEHL, B.L. '30, is doing newspaper work in Orlando, Fla.

ARNOLD DIRBLE, B.L. '30, has been transferred from the Kansas City office of the United Press Association to the Post Worth, Tex., bureau.

ALUMNI TO FETE PROF. KEMPSTER

Dear MISSOURI ALUMNI:

You may have heard that the poultry industry is staging a World's Poultry Congress and Exposition this summer.

You may have heard that the Missouri Alumni are planning a meeting at a special breakfast in honor of "Professor Kempster." If not, then for Mrs. Kempster has promised to have Harry up and bring him to:

Strauffer's Restaurant
1365 Euclid Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio

on Tuesday, August 1, 1939, from 7:30 to 9 a. m. (Cleveland is using daylight saving time so it won't seem early.)

Since 1915 Professor Kempster has been training students for the poultry industry and it is expected that a large number of them will be attending the Congress.

Sure we will serve "EGGS." The price of the breakfast is 55 cents. No frills or reservations.

Sincerely,

H. L. SCHWABE, Chairman
Entertainment Committee
Washington, D. C.

SUMMER GRADUATION SPEAKERS CHOSEN

Commencement and Baccalaureate speakers for closing Summer Session exercises were announced early this month by President Frederick A. Middlebach. Dr. George R. Throop, chancellor of Washington University in St. Louis, will make the Commencement address on August 4 in Brewer Field House. The Rev. James Lichtner of the Episcopal Church in Columbia will speak at Baccalaureate services on Sunday, July 30. Both services will be held in the evening. Weather permitting, baccalaureate services will be an open air ceremony on the University campus, back of Jesse Hall.
