

IN THE MIDDLE AGES, THE DANCE OF DEATH WAS COMMONLY DEPICTED IN CHURCH FRESCOES AND WALL PAINTINGS. ITS PURPOSE WAS TO REMIND PEOPLE OF THE IMPENDING ENDS OF THEIR OWN LIVES, THEREFORE SERVING AS A MORAL WARNING OF GOD'S JUDGEMENT AND A CALL TO OBSERVE CHRISTIAN VIRTUES.