New "Cold-Wall" FRIGIDAIRE Built on Entirely New Principle! A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

Amazing new principle saves food's vital freshness from drying out! Preserves flavor, color, nourishment for days!

• Imagine keeping even highly perishable foods vitally fresh for days on end! Now, for the first time . . . thanks to Frigidaire's astonishing new "Cold-Wall" Principle . . . it is possible to prolong food's original freshness for days longer than ever before!

This means you save not only the food, but the VITAL VALUES you pay for in food! Natural nourishment and fresh flavor stay in . . . because they don't dry out! Think what this means to health and appetite . . . particularly that of growing children!

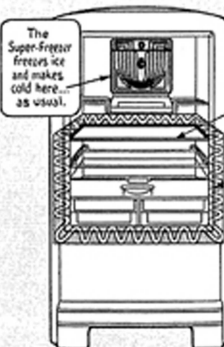

Fresh fruits and vegetables do not lose their attractiveness through wilting, shrinking, changing color! Left-over meats, peas, beans, even mashed potatoes . . . stay as delicious as when first prepared. And they needn't even be covered! For with the new "Cold-Wall" Principle, food is not dried out by moisture-robbing air currents. Odor-and-flavor transfer is also checked.

Convince yourself . . . in 5 minutes. See Proof. Only the new "Cold-Wall" Frigidaire can give you such vital advancement. Only Frigidaire gives you the famous METER-MISER for record low operating cost . . . the new MEAT-TENDER for saving fresh meats . . . SUPER-MOIST HYDRATORS for keeping fruits and vegetables crisp. Only Frigidaire gives you General Motors dependability and long life. Yet . . . the new "Cold-Wall" Frigidaire costs no more than ordinary "first-line" refrigerators! See it today. See Frigidaire's other models, too—for every need and budget. Also the new Frigidaire Electric Ranges and Water Heaters. Every one a great General Motors Value!

② THE LOWER COMPARTMENT IS REFRIGERATED DIRECTLY THROUGH THE WALLS BY CONCEALED REFRIGERATING COILS.

This provides all 3 essentials for keeping foods vitally fresh longer than ever before! 1. Uniform Low Temperatures. 2. 85 to 100% Humidity. 3. No Moisture-Robbing Air Circulation. All without adding a single moving part! ONLY FRIGIDAIRE HAS IT!

ONLY FRIGIDAIRE HAS QUICKUBE TRAYS. . . Imitated but never equalled—because they're 1. Easier to use—just lift one lever and cubes are free, two or a trayful. 2. Built Sturdier—to stand hard, constant service. 3. Faster Freezing—made of heavy gauge metal in every part. 4. Better Looking—styled trim and modern. Compare—and you'll want only genuine FRIGIDAIRE QUICKUBE TRAYS.

CUTS CURRENT COST TO THE BONE. . . Simplest Refrigerating Mechanism Ever Built—and when parts aren't there, they just can't use current or wear. Completely sealed. 5-Year Protection Plan, backed by General Motors.

THIS MONTH

Now that Commencement is just a few days off, and with prospects of the Centennial Graduating Class being the largest in Missouri history, we are reminded of some pertinent remarks made last March by A. K. Bushman at a St. Pat's student assembly. Mr. Bushman is the chairman of our Placement Committee and has had a great deal of experience in handling placement and personnel problems.

Business today, according to Mr. Bushman, demands many things of a prospective employe, but chiefly there are these three—character, personality, and ability and in that order of importance. In his opinion ability is really the least important of these three essentials, if any essential can be comparatively unimportant.

As an illustration of this point, Mr. Bushman cited a survey made among the leading business concerns of the country. In almost every case the reply came: "Discharges for inability to do the work are almost nil." On the other hand there were these statements: "To a large degree loss of jobs is confined to personality faults." "The great majority who lose their jobs lose them through personal inadaptability."

Mr. Bushman then asked: "What are we, the alumni, faculty, yes and the student body, doing to help the student with personality defects to recognize and overcome them? Do we allow him to get off in a backwater of school life and try to salve his wounded ego by becoming a superlative student to the exclusion of all other activity? It is my conception that a higher education should fit the student for a broad and active life, and I know it is the desire of every faculty member to do just that.

"Years ago it was recognized that it was not sufficient to train a man's brain and leave him a weak, ill-trained or diseased body, and physical training is now an established part of the curriculum of every school and college. I hope that soon personality training will be just as standard."

These particular statements are equally valuable to the graduate and to the youngster just entering college. In brief they emphasize the importance of social contact and of knowing how to get along with people. Extra-curricular activities on the campus may frequently be frowned upon by students, but there is simply no denying the advantages they may offer in personal development.

To new members of the Alumni Association we recommend most heartily that they affil-

"A SERVICE INSTITUTION"

40 Years Ago

QEBH Senior Society announced that the monument of David Barton, Boonville, the first senator from Missouri, would be removed to Columbia and placed near the Jefferson Monument on Francis Quadrangle.

The Board of Curators reappointed R. B. Moore instructor in chemistry, and Bert Munday was named teaching fellow in physiology. Dr. Munday later resigned to become house physician at the Woman's Hospital in St. Louis.

Missouri defeated the Nebraska baseball team, 12-to-6, on Rollins Field. The Tiger line-up was: McCaslin, right field; Feltz, center field; Atchison, left field; Cooper, first base; Hawkins, second base; Jones, third base; Mossman, short stop; Garvin, catcher, and Curtright, pitcher. Broderick umpired the game.

In the meantime Missouri debaters were defeating the Cornhusker debaters at the high school auditorium in Lincoln, Neb. The subject: "Resolved, that combinations of railroads to determine rates are undesirable and should be prohibited by law." Barnhardt, Cleary, and Johnson upheld the affirmative for M. U. Judges of the debate were William Jennings Bryan, Congressman Cochran of St. Joseph, Mo., and Dean Green of Kansas University. Governor Poynter of Nebraska presided as chairman.

J. F. Conran was elected editor-in-chief of the M. S. U. Independent at the annual staff meeting of the weekly publication. E. B. Smith was named business manager and Roy Dimmitt as local editor.

The engagement of Miss Ethyl Allen and Dr. Henry M. Belden of the English department was announced. The wedding was to be held in June.

The Savitar of 1899 was hailed as a success by the campus. The staff was as follows: Editor, A. G. Ficklin; associate editor, Mont Highley; literary editor, U. S. Marshall; art editor, E. F. Cameron, and business manager, D. B. Broderick.

"The Pi Beta Phi sorority has seven members. The Misses Stone, Rippey, Lohr, Miller, Iglehart, Bayless, and Anthony."

The Tiger nine defeated the Jayhawks, 7-to-4, on Rollins Field. It was another victory for Pitcher Curtright.

Robertson and Shipley won the University tennis doubles championship. Mossman and Bassett finished second, and Catron and Jewett third.

30 Years Ago

R. E. Duffy, an assistant in the School of Engineering, left for Decatur, Ill., to take a position with the Illinois Traction Company.

The Columbia City Council decreed an 8-mile-per-hour speed limit for automobiles within the city's limits.

When the home of Dr. Mitchell Castlio, 415 Hitt street, caught fire only one fireman (the chief) and the negro janitor at the city jail made the run. There was not enough steam up to blow the whistle commonly used to summon the volunteer firefighters. When the chief attacked the blaze, students remonstrated with his technique and finally dragged him and his hose out of the house. Hardage J. Andrews, a junior engineer, climbed to the roof and put out the fire which was making some headway there. In the meantime, boys from the Sigma Nu house across the street had hauled everything removable out of the Castlio house. Those who lived in the house were Mrs. Castlio, Dwight Castlio, Lola Castlio, Charley Curry, William Curry, Bower Broddeus, Eugene Young and Dudley Sanford.

Said Fire Chief Newman: "I'm going to quit. One man can't answer calls, hitch up, drive to the fire, attach the hose, run up the ladders and light the fire all alone, and that's what I've had to do tonight except for volunteer assistance." Chief Newman reconsidered the following morning and withdrew his oral resignation.

Columbians conceded that M. U. students were the best local firefighters anyway.

Following was the staff of the "Docket," annual publication of law students: Editor-in-chief, H. G. Hunt; associates, E. W. Porter and E. W. Patterson; business managers, N. A. Cox and J. A. McCollum; artist, O. J. Miller.

E. A. Ikenberry was judged the best "spieler" at the county fair by judges H. P. Rusk, E. A. Cockefair, and F. H. Demaree. Second place went to V. J. Kleinschmidt, and third to P. M. Winzenberg.

The Mounds, junior honorary society, chose these members for the coming school year: Engineering, K. P. Gilchrist and Frank Geary; medicine, R. M. Blakely; agriculture, J. S. Clare and Earle Steele; journalism, Vaughn Bryant; law, E. M. Tipton; arts and science, A. P. Priestley and J. C. Shepherd.

The Asterisk Club decided at its final meeting that the club magazine should be expanded the next school year. Cary Griffin was chosen editor-in-chief and E. E. Chiles was named business manager.

A Columbia livery stable was awarded $40 damages from E. C. Brown, engineering student, who it was charged had driven a hired horse too hard. The case was heard in a justice of the peace court. Brown was defended by J. W. McClure, Jr., and Earnest Jones, senior lawyers. About 30 students attended the trial. Among the witnesses summoned were W. P. Harrison, Dan Hulett, Warren H. Orr, L. Y. Spragg, Robert Estes, and H. G. Hunt.

Phi Beta Kappa picked fourteen seniors from the Class of 1909 for membership. They were Benetta Maude Barkley, Edward W. Chittenden, Elizabeth Hope Clay, Gertrude Lucinda Caroline D'Aubin, Elizabeth Paulkner, Edith Geary, Homer A. Harvey, Florence Helm, Frederick C. Irion, Sheldon E. Davis, John G. Scott, Floyd C. Shoemaker, Frances Smith and W. W. Stewart.

Dr. Andrew Walker McAlester, professor of surgery and dean of the School of Medicine, resigned from the faculty. He was an M. U. graduate, class of 1865, and first became associated with the medical faculty in 1873. He served a total of 30 years at the University.

A College of Agriculture soil survey party sent to Harrison County wrote back that it was chilly for the work and that "Dobby" Knobel's M sweaters were being used to keep them warm on cool mornings. Other members of the surveying party besides Knobel were C. E. Deardorf, R. M. Watkins, and H. H. Krusekopf who was in charge.

The University Missourian board for the coming school year was announced after the annual appointments. Members were John W. Jewell, John C. Stapel, J. A. Murray, T. S. Hudson, Griffith Carpenter, Ivan Epperson, J. D. Ferguson, Glenn Babbs, and D. D. Rosenfelder. Retiring from the board were T. E. Parker, its president, Guy T. Trail, and C. M. Elliott.

Alvin J. Accola, president of the Y. M. C. A., announced the following appointments to his official cabinet. Cabinet members were chairmen of the following committees: Social, J. Carl Clinkenbeard; community service, Herbert F. Loomis; religious meetings, Harry K. Poindexter; short course, T. C. Reed; missionary, Theodore Smith; and membership, Ernest M. Staude.

On April 29 Miss Laura Louise Dille, University student from Maplewood, Mo., was crowned queen of the thirtieth annual Drake Relays in Des Moines, Ia. It was the first time a University of Missouri co-ed had been so honored.

Announcement of her selection was made the week before by editors of the Drake QUAX. She was chosen queen of the relays from candidates submitted by yearbook editors of colleges and universities from all parts of the country.

Throughout her college career, Miss Dille has excelled in scholarship, having an average of 387 out of a possible 400 for three and a half years of college. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta social sorority, Delta Tau Kappa honorary English literature society, and Beta Beta Beta honorary music sorority of which she is president. This year she has been chosen as a member of National Collegiate Who's Who. She is accompanist of the University men's glee club, a member of the girls' trio, the string ensemble, and string trio.

Last year she was crowned premier beauty queen of the 1938 Savitar, and she has been a model in fashion shows frequently. In the summer Miss Dille designs and paints in a commercial art studio. She has displayed original oils in the Municipal Auditorium in St. Louis as a member of the Independent Artists' Guild.

An honor student, beauty, musician, model and artist, Miss Dille was a credit to the Drake Relays.

Rockefeller Foundation Grants $100,000 to M.U.

FUNDS WILL PROVIDE FOR CONSTRUCTION AND EQUIPMENT OF GENETICS LABORATORY IN COLUMBIA—WORK OF DR. L. J. STADLER COMMENDED.

Funds totaling $100,000 have been appropriated for the University by the Rockefeller Foundation for the construction and equipment of a genetics laboratory on the campus at Columbia. The announcement of the gift was made May 13 by President Frederick A. Middlebush.

The executive board of the Board of Curators, at its meeting in Columbia this month, formally accepted the $80,000 grant for the laboratory building and an additional fund of $20,000 for the continuation of research projects in genetics now being carried on at the University. The $20,000 grant is to cover a five-year period from July 1, 1939 to June 30, 1944.

University architects have already started work on plans for the research laboratory building. The building is to be located on the East Campus but the exact spot has not yet been selected. Construction will get underway by fall.

The research in genetics will be conducted under the direction of Prof. Lewis J. Stadler of the department of field crops in the College of Agriculture. Dr. Stadler is an M. U. graduate, having received an A. M. in 1918 and a Ph. D. in 1922.

Warren Weaver of the Rockefeller Foundation commended the program in genetics when he advised the University of the gift. Weaver said: "It is a matter of real gratification to the officers of the Rockefeller Foundation that it has been found possible to extend this additional assistance for the general program in research in genetics in the University of Missouri. This work has been developing in a way, which I am sure, is a matter of considerable and legitimate pride to the University.

"I feel sure that the bringing of this group together and providing them with suitable facilities will constitute an increase in their effectiveness. We shall be looking forward with more than usual interest to the future reports of this development."

In announcing the grant, President Middlebush stated that this is the first such donation from one of the large foundations ever granted to the University. Most of the donations by the foundation have been granted for buildings abroad. Donations for buildings have been made to few institutions in the United States.

The grant, in the main, is essentially in support of a research program although it was given to the University for a building.

The Rockefeller Foundation was impressed by the work of Prof. Stadler and Dr. Barbara McClintock, assistant professor of botany, and their associates. The research projects which this group has been carrying on have been financed jointly by the Rockefeller Foundation, the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station, the United States Department of Agriculture, and from general University funds.

The work has attracted considerable attention in the professional field. Dr. Stadler is the only member of the University faculty to be elected to membership in the Academy of Natural Science. He received this honor in 1938. Several other faculty men are members of the academy but they were elected to membership before joining the Missouri faculty.

The Foundation made an additional grant of $4,000 to the University to be used in connection with research now being carried on by Prof. Mary J. Guthrie of the zoology department. Her project deals with the cytological effects caused by different pure vitamin preparations on the endocrine and reproductive system of the bat.

Alumni Speakers at Journalism Week

The 30th annual Journalism Week of the School of Journalism came to a close Friday evening, May 12, with a "Missouri Ozark Banquet" in Rothwell Gymnasium. More than 600 students, alumni, and guests were present. It was a fitting finish to an eventful week of programs of which were studded with names of brilliant journalists and writers from all over the globe. Pictured at the right are alumni of the School of Journalism who featured this year's program.

1—BEN ROBERTSON, B.J. '26, prominent young free lance writer whose articles have been appearing in such publications as The Saturday Evening Post. Ben has also recently completed a novel. His home is in Clemson, S. C. In ten years following his graduation Ben has worked on newspapers in Honolulu, Australia, Java, and New York, and has been with the Associated Press in Washington, New York, and London. He quit active newspaper work in 1936 and turned to free lancing.

2—HOMER CROY, former student in 1903-07, of New York and Hollywood, needs no introduction to Missourians. Newspaperman, novelist, screen writer, and humorist, Mr. Croy has been a prolific writer since his early campus days when he was an editor of the Savitar.

3—JOE ALEX MORRIS, B.J. '26, is now cable editor of the United Press Association in New York. He has been with the U.P. since 1929, working between New York and Washington, D. C. He has also done newspaper work in Tulsa and Denver.

4—F. M. ("JACK") FLYNN, B.J. '24, is now secretary and business manager of the New York Daily News with which he has been associated since 1932. Jack's work has been chiefly in New York with the exception of excursions to Japan in 1926-29 and to Detroit in 1931-32.

5—VERNON C. MYERS, B.J. '32, with the research and promotion department of LOOK Magazine, came to explain the principle of the Brandt Magic-eye Camera. Vern quit as head of the promotion department of the Des Moines Register and Tribune last year to take his present position with the sister publication. We're sorry the light was too bright for his eyes in this picture.

6—BARRY HOLLOWAY, former student in 1923-24, for a young man has a long career in the public relations field behind him and is now directing that phase of Stephens College's program in Columbia. Until coming here in 1938 Barry was special events director for the National Broadcasting Company in New York.

RAYMOND P. BRANDT, B.J. '18, was the recipient of one of the five medals presented by the School of Journalism for distinguished service to the profession at Journalism Week exercises this month. Mr. Brandt is now head of the Washington bureau of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The citation reads: "For brilliant correspondence as a nationally recognized authority on news of the United States Supreme Court; for persistent and unusually discerning questioning at the White House press conference, and for unusually informative, constructive reporting from the national capital; for interpretative articles of more than ephemeral value contributed to the Sunday editorial title page of the Post-Dispatch, and for the three distinguished articles on the Soviet Union; for uniformly thorough, accurate, and entirely dependable Washington correspondence."

Other recipients were H. J. Blanton of Paris, Mo.; Wallace Crossley of Warrensburg; The Times of India, and the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Appropriations

FINAL APPROVAL OF FUNDS FOR 1939-40 BIENNIUM NEAR—STATE SENATE RECOMMENDS $100,000 FOR MEN'S DORMITORY; DROPS FAIR TRIPS FOR BAND.

On May 17 the Missouri Senate passed the University appropriation bill as recommended by the Senate appropriations committee. Certain Senate amendments and deductions from the bill originally passed by the lower House will now go to inter-assembly conference committees for final action.

The senate appropriations committee of the Missouri Legislature reported a recommendation of $3,874,747 for the University appropriation for the 1939-1940 biennium early this month. The allotment represents a cut of $123,116 from the amount originally approved by the lower house.

The funds, as finally approved by the senate committee, were:

For personal services ...	$2,605,060
(intramural and extramural)
For additions	221,650
For operations	1,048,037
	$3,874,747

The total appropriation was approximately $200,000 more than was voted by the Legislature in 1937 for ordinary expenses of the University for the two-year period.

Major addition by the senate committee was $100,000 for a men's dormitory. The agricultural extension service allotment was increased from $225,000 to $275,000.

These additions almost balanced the major reduction in the bill which came in general University funds. The house had voted $3,275,000 for University salaries, additions, and operations. This was stripped by $175,000.

The reductions were: University salaries, from $2,300,000 to $2,200,000; additions, from $125,000 to $100,000; and operations, from $900,000 to $850,000.

Items approved by the lower house but eliminated altogether by the senate committee amendments were: Agriculture short courses, $2,500; funds to participate in World Poultry Congress, $10,000; expense of sending Cadet Band to San Francisco Fair, $9,135, and to New York Fair, $7,285.

These and other changes will be embodied in the amendments which will be offered on the senate floor. If the senate adopts the amendments, the bill will go back to the house where a conference probably will be asked to iron out the differences.

President Middlebush has told the committee at recent hearings that any cut in the salary funds might result in the University continuing to lose outstanding faculty members. The sum for salaries approved compared with $2,075,000 appropriated for the 1937-38 period.

The University had requested a total of $4,046,443 for the 1939-1940 biennium. The governor approved $3,713,595. The appropriation for the preceding biennium was $3,963,155, of which $3,653,491 was expended.

The $75,000 student labor appropriation was not reduced by the committee. All except four of the appropriations for extramural purposes were trimmed. The single addition was for the agricultural experiment service which operates in every county of the state. The sum for that purpose, at $275,000, still was $25,000 below the amount requested.

The greatest cuts came in appropriations for salaries, this category amounting to more than 50 per cent of the total drop from the house figure. However, as the committee left the items, they are virtually all in excess of the same items appropriated for during the last Legislature.

The following table shows the changes in the University of Missouri appropriation bill as passed by the State Senate in Jefferson City on May 17.

Farmers' Fair Parade

The 34th annual observance of the "greatest student stunt in the world" was held May 5-6 by College of Agriculture students and, in keeping with tradition, got underway with the "mile-long" parade down Columbia's Broadway the morning of the first day.

(1) The Ags took their annual crack at law school students with this "float" in the parade. An old spreader, properly identified, seemed sufficient.

(2) Co-eds, in bathing suits, tossing snowballs at the crowd are a standing feature of the parade. And they weren't passed up this year.

(3) Candidates for the "Goddess of Agriculture" crown got a free ride in this ancient tally-ho. Later that evening Miss Katherine Westmoreland, Pi Beta Phi, was accorded the honor by Dean M. F. Miller.

(4) This natty cadet, trousers down and puttees missing, symbolized the relief of the entire R. O. T. C. department now that annual inspection is over.

Farmers' Fair was exceptionally well attended. Crowds packed the livestock pavilion both nights for the horse show which featured riders from the campus, Christian and Stephens colleges, and from over all central Missouri. Another highlight was a dog show under the supervision of the American Kennel Club. Entries for the latter came from as far as Hollywood.

Student Elections

COALITION OF INDEPENDENTS AND GREEKS SWINGS LAST MONTH'S POLL—CHAUNCY STANBERRY OF MEXICO IS NEW PRESIDENT.

At the annual student government elections held April 21 the Independent-Coalition Party, made up of the majority of the fraternities and sororities on the campus with strong backing by College of Agriculture students, swept the reigning Union-Independent Party out of office. The latter party consisted of the balance of organized houses together with a bloc of Independent students.

Chauncy Stanberry of Mexico, Mo., will be the next president of the Student Government Association. He piled up 2158 votes against the 1412 votes polled by Dudley June Bidstrup, his opponent. Riding into office with Stanberry were John Lobsiger, Tiger basketball captain, who was elected vice-president over Frank Havel, and Joan Johnson, who defeated Ruth Hope for secretary-treasurer.

Only one senator avoided the landslide. Tom Fagan topped William Raidt in the School of Journalism by one vote. In the Graduate School Florilla Sides and James Ridgway each received sixty-five votes. A flipped coin added Sides to the Coalition list of winners.

New senators, besides Fagan and Sides, are: Arts and Science man, Sam Walton, Kendall Palmer, George Evans, and Francis Barnes; Arts and Science women, Sue Wells and Dixie Larrabee; College of Agriculture, Joe Raine, James Cain, and Virginia Slusher; College of Engineering, Robert Geauque and Russell Bryant; School of Business and Public Administration, Russell Jacobs and William Hickerson; School of Education, John Hogan.

Hedy Lamarr took two votes in the College of Engineering. Her closest competition was from Marie Hansen, whose name was written in for Journalism senator because of her goldfish gulping.

Despite increased vigilance by election officials, ghost voting was reported to have accounted partially for the record of 3570 ballots cast. Both sides did their share.

● CAPTAIN MUNSKI

John Munski, of Lewistown, Mont., outstanding Tiger miler during the last two years, was chosen captain of the 1940 Missouri track squad by lettermen this month. Munski is enrolled in the School of Journalism.

● THETAS, KAPPA SIGS WIN SING CUPS

Kappa Sigma fraternity's glee club regained the Lawrence Tibbett Fraternity Sing Cup from Phi Gamma Delta, last year's winner, at the sixth annual fraternity sing held in the University Auditorium April 27. Phi Gamma Delta placed second and Sigma Chi gained third.

In the fourth annual inter-sorority sing held April 20, Kappa Alpha Theta won the Nelson Eddy trophy. Second and third places went to Delta Delta Delta and Delta Gamma, respectively.

● SAVITAR QUEENS

Seven girls, chosen by "Cholly Knickerbocker," New York society columnist, from 32 candidates, were crowned queens of the 1939 Centennial Savitar at the annual Queens' Ball held in Rothwell Gym last month. Jane Williams of St. Petersburg, Fla., Kappa Alpha Theta, was awarded first place. The six beauties in order after Miss Williams are: Isabel Danskin, Des Moines, Ia., Delta Gamma; Eleanor Vagnino, Kansas City, Gamma Phi Beta; Emilee Burnett, Salt Lake City, Utah, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Dorothy Carr, Oak Park, Ill., Pi Beta Phi; Marilyn Buescher, Columbia, Delta Delta Delta; and Ruth Hope, Doniphan, Independent.

COAST GROUP ELECTS HUBBARD CHAIRMAN—COMMITTEEMEN SELECTED TO WORK ON PLANS FOR M. U. DAY AT FAIR.

Former University students living around San Francisco reminisced at a dinner at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel on May 6. To further plans for celebrating Missouri Week, July 16-22, and University Day at the Golden Gate International Exposition, the following officers were elected:

Chairman, H. R. Hubbard; vice-chairmen, Major Edgar A. Jarman, Prof. J. P. McBaine, Berkeley; Dr. W. L. Howard, Davis; Dr. Joseph Marr Gwinn, San Jose; Milton Matthews Dearing, Fresno; secretary-treasurer, Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, San Jose; chairman of publicity, Moss Gill; and chairman of social affairs, Mrs. Alice Johnston Foster.

DINNER NOTES

by Moss Gill

Col. Robert J. Foster came from Cornell University to assist Dr. Conna-way of hog cholera serum fame. The colonel's lady, Miss Alice Johnston, '08, was selected from the Boone County aristocracy. They married and lived happily ever after at various army posts—Panama and the Philippines included. Mrs. Foster always wanted to live in San Francisco. Seemingly the only way to have her husband stationed at the Presidio was for him to become chief of his division and order his own transfer there. That was arranged.

Major Edgar A. Jarman, '10, preferred the army and remained after the war. Arising before the sun to receive reports of first sergeants that "all were present or accounted for" became tiring. Recalling that he had studied law at M. U., he transferred to the bugle-less judge advocate's department.

Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, '15, may be M. U.'s champion plane rider. Pacific Clippers have carried her to China; she has flown down to Rio de Janeiro and back and barked only at sailing over the Andes Mountains. She studies air travel folders between lectures at San Jose Teachers College.

Dr. W. L. Howard, '01 and '03, nearly forgot to mention that he won a decoration from the French government for discovering and identifying a disease of fruit trees while on a mission in France for the California Almond Growers' Association. He also added, as an afterthought perhaps, that his son was piloting the 74-passenger California Clipper, latest and largest addition to flying boats spanning the Pacific Ocean.

Above is Robert W. Black, of Kansas City, who has served as president of the Student Government Association during the school year just coming to a close. He is enrolled in the School of Law and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Early this month he presided at the centennial celebration staged by the students on the campus. (See next page.)

William T. Cross, '08, lives in Palo Alto and builds boats in Berkeley. Mrs. A. E. Shepperd is a nurse in San Jose who remembers Columbia with pleasure. James E. Dunn, '11, a Ford agent in San Jose, was embarrassed when his wife, who is not a Missourian, recalled not being able to find the promised beautiful bluegrass around Columbia. That may have been when the campus was plowed.

● $240,000 BUILDING PROGRAM STARTED

The University embarked on a $240,000 building program on May 22 which will include a low-cost housing dormitory for women designed to accommodate 150 or more girls. It will be financed with federal and state funds. In addition work was started on remodeling of the animal house of the medical school, repairing Read Hall, present women's dormitory, and laying a water line to the site of a proposed men's dormitory south of Rothwell Gymnasium.

There were no outward indications of difficulties with local labor unions which have been picketing the campus sporadically for the last six months. Contractors for the new projects will employ union labor, but there has been some speculation as to whether the work could progress if picket lines should be re-established.

● LLOYD JONES TO RETURN AS R. O. T. C. HEAD

Lieut.-Col. Lloyd Edmonston Jones, son of Dr. John Carlton Jones, former University president and dean, has been ordered to Columbia by the U. S. Army to take charge of the University's R. O. T. C. unit next fall. He will replace Col. Robert C. F. Goetz, present commander.

Lieutenant-Colonel Jones is now connected with the army war college at Ft. Humphries, Washington, D. C. Several years ago he was connected with the field artillery corps in Columbia. His father was acting president of M. U. from 1921 to 1922, and president from 1922 to 1923.

Colonel Jones attended the University from 1907 to 1911, but did not graduate. After leaving school he entered the army, attaining his present rank recently. His son, Lloyd E. Jones, Jr., is now enrolled in the College of Arts and Science.

● BOYER NAMED DEAN OF K. C. LAW SCHOOL

Benjamin F. Boyer, associate professor in the school of law at Kansas City University, has been named to succeed Edward D. Ellison who will retire as dean of the school next fall. Mr. Boyer, who is 34 years old, received an A.B. degree from Missouri in 1926 and an LL.B. in 1928. He was an assistant attorney in the state highway department in Jefferson City from 1928 to 1933, and engaged in private practice in Washington, Mo., from 1933 to 1937, when he went to Kansas City to join the faculty of the old Kansas City School of Law. In June, 1938, that school became a division of the new Kansas City University. Prof. Boyer is married, lives at 5424 Main Street, and has one daughter.

● JOURNALISM ALUMNI

W. J. (Jack) Young, B.J. '30, director of the University bureau of public information, was elected president of the School of Journalism Alumni Association on May 12 at the annual luncheon held in Columbia in connection with Journalism Week exercises. He succeeds G. E. Staples, B. J. '29, of St. Louis.

Other officers selected included H. R. Long, B.J. '30, first vice-president, publisher of the Crane (Mo.) Chronicle; second vice-president, Raymond P. Brandt, B.J. '18, head of the Washington bureau of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch; third vice-president, F. M. (Jack) Flynn, B.J. '24, business manager of the New York Daily News; treasurer, Marion R. Lynes, B.J. '29, St. Louis Globe-Democrat; and secretary, Adelaide H. Jones, B.J. '24, of Springfield, Mo.

Tiger hopes for a third major conference championship during the current school year were dashed May 22 and 23 at Norman, Okla., when the hard-hitting Oklahoma Sooners took a brace of baseball games, 10-to-4 and 8-to-1. Up until those two engagements the Tigers had breezed through conference play without a defeat.

The double victory also gave the Sooners top honors in the conference. Missouri won a greater number of games throughout the season than did Oklahoma, but the Sooners turned in a better average of wins and losses. Although Missouri stood a fine chance of winning the last two games on its schedule, with Kansas on May 26 and 27, the possible two victories would have no effect on the final standings.

The Tigers' successful season was due largely to the effective pitching of the veteran Carl Miles and Lafayette Howard, newcomer to the staff.

● MISSOURI FOURTH IN TRACK MEET

John Munki took firsts in the mile and half-mile to account for nearly a third of Missouri's scoring as the Tigers finished in a tie for fourth with Kansas in the Big Six track and field meet at Ames, Ia., May 19 and 20.

Nebraska regained the championship which she lost to Missouri last year. Oklahoma was second, Kansas State third, and Iowa State last.

Besides Munki's ten points, other scoring for Missouri was done by Sol Schumitzky, who took second in the broad jump and fifth in the 100-yard dash; Bob Waldram, second in the javelin; John White and John Baldwin, second and fifth respectively in the high hurdles; Frank Hilton, fourth in the high jump; Wilbert Berg, fifth in the quarter mile; Dean Brown, fourth in the 880-yard run; and the mile relay team finished third.

PRESIDENT MIDDLEBUSH ADDRESSING STUDENTS AT CAMPUS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION ON MAY 2.

Students Observe Centennial

Fifteen hundred University students gathered at the foot of the Columns on May 2 to honor faculty members and students in a centennial celebration program. The teachers honored were those who had been associated with the University longest in point of service.

In the principal speech of the celebration, President Frederick A. Middlebush traced the growth of Missouri from the student point of view, citing amusing and antiquated customs in practice during the school's early days.

From the old records he gathered interesting and humorous passages concerning the regulation and discipline of the student body, which included the forbiddance of such actions as entering billiard and drinking saloons, carrying concealed weapons, using intoxicating liquors, sending or receiving a challenge, smoking in buildings around the campus, and leaving town without the permission of the president of the University.

Dr. Middlebush pointed out the comradeship which exists between the students and faculty members of the University, saying, "It is a great Missouri institution of long standing, and I hope it will continue throughout the ages."

He closed by acclaiming the high rank of the University, and expressed the hope that the traditions and ideals which have formed its foundation will be continued in the future.

Robert W. Black, president of the student body, took charge of the meeting following an introductory number by the University Cadet Band. He introduced Dean Albert K. Heckel who, after a short talk, introduced new members of the senior honor service societies, Mortar Board, Q.E.B.H., and Mystical Seven.

Mortar Board

Elizabeth Florence Crow, Hematite; Bobby Jane Geisert, Washington; Mary Elizabeth Hinman, Orange, N. J.; Katherine Johnson, Carrollton; Frances Kerr, Webster Groves; Marian Virginia Miller, Webster Groves; Ruth Morgan, Columbia; Ruth Safran, Perth Amboy, N. J.; Ortrude Schnaedlebach, St. Louis; Ellen W. Stine, Columbia; Mary Jane Yates, Sheridan, Wyo.; and Elizabeth Ann Hartley, Savannah.

Q.E.B.H.

Mystical Seven

Dwayne Smith, Kansas City; Christopher Joseph Kersting, Poplar Bluff; Dudley June Bidstrup, Beaman; Joe Capps, Liberty; A. H. Rolph Fairchild, Columbia; August Elbring, Clayton; Robert Sight, Kansas City.

Black then introduced the sixteen members of the faculty who had been associated with the University longest in point of service. Dr. J. W. Conaway, member of the faculty of the College of Agriculture, was to be given the first introduction in this group, since he has been associated with the University fifty-one years, but was unable to attend because of illness.

Other faculty members honored include: B. F. Hoffman, T. J. Rodhouse, J. D. Elliff, W. C. Curtis, F. B. Mumford, M. F. Miller, C. W. Greene, H. M. Belden, Walter Miller, Sidney Calvert, O. M. Stewart, H. M. Reese, Jonas Viles, A. H. R. Fairchild, and Hermann B. Almstedt.

town of Homer Croy, etc." During one of our chinfeasts the conversation turned toward the old University Dining Club. "The mad dash that followed the dinner bell," said Mr. Croy, "made the Cherokee Strip land rush look like a pink tea."

While doing some harking back with Mr. Croy several names of alumni were brought up. One which figured in the conversation was that of "Turkey" Boman who was on the campus between 1899 and 1904. "Turkey" is completely lost as far as our records are concerned and we'd like to make this appeal to our readers for aid in finding him. About all we can find is that he graduated with an A.B. in 1902 and was a native of Carroll County. Incidentally, there are two "Turkeys." One spells his name "Bowman" and now lives in Des Moines. We have his address. But it's the "Turkey" who spells it "Boman" that we're looking for right now. Any help will be appreciated.

When asked why he abruptly gave up the ancient and honorable game of golf, Lindsey Nickell, president of the Boone County alumni group, will tell you it was because he was insulted out at the Columbia Country Club one day by none other than Prof. Sam T. Bratton. We investigated and have the following report to make. Lindsey had been driving and putting around the local course for several years, rather aimlessly we gathered. Finally he remarked to Professor Bratton that he personally didn't think much of the game. Whereupon the professor scored: "You would, if you played golf."

Barton Robnett, also of Columbia, tells this one. Last winter he, along with Tom Allton, Curt Rollins, and Haden Bright, junketed down to Florida to dabble in deep-sea fishing. All are men of considerable civic prominence in our town but the fact remains that basically they're still a bunch of country boys. Here's a forinstance. Mr. Bright got a heavy strike but lost his fish. Spinning about in his seat he shrieked to the skipper: "Turn around right quick and come through that draw again. I'll get him this time."

Our nomination for the coolest customer of the month goes to Roscoe Goslin, University graduate student and also the son of Willard E. ("Goose") Goslin, superintendent of schools in Webster Groves. Recently

Roscoe was announced the winner of a $1000 college scholarship, one of five major prizes offered by the Parker Pen Company in a series of weekly contests. The first news of his prize came when a local newspaper called him to come down and read the letter which announced him the winner. "You'll have to wait until later," answered Roscoe. "I have a 3 o'clock class." That's being cool, brother.

Last month in this column we were the victim of one of those maddening typographical mis-cues which make life interesting and sometimes unpleasant. We were speaking of the Cadet band and wrote, "no Missouri band program is complete without a rip-roaring presentation of Dixie." Of course, as luck would have it, the word "without" was turned into "with" somewhere between our pen and the presses. Palmer Oliver, of St. Louis, was the first to call us on the slip but he did it so nicely that we've rationalized the whole affair into a compliment for ourselves. At least our stuff is being read closely!

ELECTRICITY

of Americans

Electricity makes possible the machinery that it takes to make the fairs go . . . the vivid color displays that turn night into a fairyland.

However the greatest importance of electricity is not in the spectacular but is in the daily use of electricity. Millions of lives are made easier and more healthful because of low cost electricity and more millions of jobs in factories and offices are lightened because electricity has taken the place of hand toil.

ARE YOU LETTING ELECTRICITY DO ALL IT COULD FOR YOU?

Alumni, Feared Lost, Show Up

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, B.J. '30, steered their 27-foot sloop "Show Me" into port at Balboa, Canal Zone, on March 29 after having been reported missing for more than two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. King (Betty Logan, B.J. '33) set out from Los Angeles several months ago on what was to be strictly a pleasure cruise, going where they wanted to go, and staying as long as they wished.

Anxiety for the Kings' safety became so great at one time that U. S. Senator Bennett Champ Clark asked the naval operations department to start a search for the roving "Show Me." Mr. and Mrs. King were surprised to learn of the sensation their little pleasure cruise had caused.

Charley, a former Tiger track star, worked on a St. Louis newspaper before he and his wife went to the west coast, purchased the sloop, and started out on their trip.

ON TRAIN FROM BOSTON TO NEW YORK, May, 1939—George, the waiter, has just brought in an S. & S. to help me get a few ideas for this monthly pillar. I hope it works, because news concerning "Missourians on Manhattan" is pretty scarce. I guess the reason can be attributed to the fact that your correspondent has been missing from New York for three weeks.

Zuzulo

I was just wondering how many alumni miss good ol' Mizzou as much as I do—especially at this writing. With the help of Ben L. Balbo, who is traveling with me, the feeling is jotted down and expressed in poetry:

—Oh! How I Miss "Mizzou" Tonight—
I miss six columns I knew so well,
And all the Frosh who treated us swell,
I miss the fun at the picnic points,
The happy hours at the Jelly Joints.

I miss the Frat, and its darling mother,
I miss the socks I "loaned" a brother.
I miss the Jay School's awful din,
I miss the thrill of a Tiger win.
I miss the games with their cheers and hisses,
But most of all, I miss the Misses.

Surprise! — The 6-to-0 win the Tigers eked out over the alumni footballers.

CLIFF TAYLOR, Jay Schooler a few semesters ago, is doing free-lancing in the celluloid city of Hollywood . . . LEN INGLIS is with the Ward exhibit at the World's Fair . . . LOS ANGELES, May, 1939—Three Los Angeles alumni from Mizzou were feeling considerably pleased with themselves on April 15, after one of the Tigers' most successful L. A. parties. They were Virginia Dwyer, Mrs. Laura Magruder, and Wilmer Hudson, comprising the committee in charge of the dinner and dancing party which drew 44 congenial Missourians and friends to the Jonathan Club in downtown Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kirby, on hand regularly at alumni meets, were the real hosts as club members, with President Don Wren wielding an imaginary gavel at the head table.

The party was notable for those first-comers it drew. One was Mrs. Belle Quigley, at Columbia in 1907. She told of her daughter, now enrolled at U. C. L. A., who met Provost E. R. Hedrick when she enrolled. A former classmate of her father's, Dean Hedrick, recognized Miss Quigley from both the family name and resemblance. Mrs. Quigley described her Hollywood apartment residence as an old lady's home, and said the atmosphere is all very sedate—until she was coaxed into admitting that Mr. and Mrs. George

"A Name Known to Missouri Men Since 1868."

Arbiss, Robert Montgomery, and other such prominent Hollywood people live there.

Attending his first local alumni meet as a regular member was W. H. Chandler, head of the U. C. L. A. ag department, with Mrs. Chandler and their daughter. He admitted that his associate, and head of University of California's extension ag service, Dean C. B. Hutchison, is a Mizson graduate of '08. Hutchison's headquarters are at Berkeley. Dean Chandler graduated with the 1905 class. His M. A. came from M. U. in '06, where he also taught until 1913. At Cornell that summer, he returned to Missouri for his doctor's degree, then taught at Cornell until 1923, at U. C. in Berkeley until 1938, and came only last year to U. C. L. A.

Another newcomer was Neva Cornelius, in Los Angeles most of the time since securing a B. S. in Ed. at Mizson in '37. Fred H. Crone of Santa Paula, bank head and attorney there, was on hand for the first meeting in some time. In the class of '09, he and C. A. Griffin, a graduate of the same year, made the Jonathan Club the scene of their first reunion since they graduated together. Griffin is now in the printing and publishing business in Glendale. His son, Cary, will graduate in Journalism at Mizson in June. His and Mrs. Griffin's guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Oliver, also of Glendale. Another publishing family were W. Burrwood Jones, '26, and Mrs. Jones.

In for his third meet was Alex Monce, a former Tiger prominent among L. A. theater men. He described a new show-house of his which is building at Vermont and Santa Monica here. Also on hand, with the many others who make these monthly meets part of the regular program, were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kirk of Huntington Park. Kirk is busy mainly with building construction work, operating in real estate and insurance as well.

With Don Wren and Jim Hudson, club secretary, working for it, the alumni chapter members are expecting announcements shortly regarding organization of a San Francisco chapter; and with it, probably something on a Missouri Day at the Golden Gate Exposition, now completed and in full swing. (ED. NOTE: Missouri Day has been set for July 16. Mr. H. R. Hubbard of San Francisco, 703 Loew's Warfield Building, is in charge of alumni arrangements.)

Meantime, by Mail:

That Ellery Holt, B. J. '38, is at home in El Monte after the Oklahoma daily for which he was working folded up. Suzanne and Kay Brown, both married now, are in L. A., but can't be located for alum meet purposes. Beth Hodgson, also B. J. '38, has an article coming up in Ken Magazine on her experiences in Turkey the past several months . . . we don't think we've missed it. Jim Padgett, formerly your local correspondent, plans to be in Columbia in June when they pass out those M. A.'s, returning to his Portland, Ore., I. N. S. job via home in Long Beach and San Francisco. More mail and locals next month!

• STUDENT EDITORS

Martin Umansky, junior in the School of Journalism from New York, has been appointed editor-in-chief of The Missouri Student for the 1939-40 school year. Joseph Gusky, McKeesport, Pa., also a junior journalist, was named assistant editor.

By L. J. McEnnis, Jr.

CHICAGO, May, 1939—Had an exasperating experience the other day. Was riding down Michigan Avenue with the boss and saw a boy just before getting on a bus. Although we were in school together, his name has slipped my mind completely. Hope I run into him later under more favorable circumstances.

"Mac"

presence and his many friends up here are anxiously awaiting his arrival.

Hirst Sutton, '33, who recently resigned his position as assistant to the city manager of Saginaw, Mich., is now with Public Administration Service. Hirst is now down in Peoria conducting a survey of the city government, but we hope to get him into Chicago for several week-ends this summer. Had a couple of nice visits with him before he left for Peoria.

Our office (National Safety Council—unpaid adv.) ping-pong team played a group of dentists the other night who call themselves The Chiselers. They had a "ringer" on their team who turned out to be an old Missourian, C. E. Betz, technical director of the Magnaflex Corporation. His class is 1913.

Ralph W. Kummer, B. J. '37, of St. Louis, dropped into town last week and we had a very pleasant chat.

A week-end trip to St. Louis last month established one thing in your correspondent's mind—that the Coal Hole and The Jug at the Coronado are still hangouts for M. U. folk.

A letter from Ed King in Joplin with a letterhead that proclaims him "Chairman of the Young Democratic Clubs of the Seventh District." A budding Jim Farley?

Memory's Lane

Russell G. Thompson, a senior electrical, received two scholarships in engineering, one from Wisconsin and one from Princeton. He said he would accept the latter offer.

The Fifth Annual Journalism Week got underway with an imposing list of guest speakers. Dorothy Dix was the most publicized visitor.

Following eliminations for the annual Stephens Oratorical Contest these five students were selected to appear in the final round in June: Paul H. Arthur, "Our National Executive;" Paul Carrington, "Abraham Lincoln;" Rush H. Limbaugh and W. G. Simrall, both speaking on "Daniel Webster, the Orator;" and Horace Weltmer, "Helen Keller."
