GINA (NELSON) REYLING

A story from when Mary Elizabeth (Bain) Fain McCoy would come up in the summers, and spent time with Sally and Gina Nelson: Gina was a bit younger than her sister, Sally, and cousin, Mary – and even though for the most part they always got along when Mary would come to visit, there were times they would pick on each other as all kids tend to do. One time when they were together, Sally and Mary told Gina that “BS” meant Brown Sugar, that it was a term of affection. So after lunch one day, Gina walked up to her Grandpa (Floyd Ernest Nelson) and said “Grandpa, you’re full of BS!”. All Sally and Mary heard as they were running outside before they could get in trouble was poor Gina trying to explain “But, Grandpa it means Brown Sugar”. To no avail, Gina had to stay in for the rest of the afternoon – and as Sally and Mary rode by the house on horses they waved to Gina who was looking forlornly out the window.

Gina Nelson with her horses near Glasgow, Montana. Date: early 1980s.
Dennis Lyle Krause (left) describing the strategy of the Boston Celtics in their attempt to win the 2010 NBA Championship to Joseph and Gina (Nelson) Reyling. Glasgow, Montana. June, 2010. (Courtesy of Mary Elizabeth (Bain) Fain McCoy).

SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIAL

Gina Nelson (far right) and her sister, Sally Nelson (far left), were members of the Montana Class A State Basketball Championship team during the 1980-1981 season. (Courtesy of the Valley County Historical Society, Glasgow, Montana.)

The brand used by Joe and Gina (Nelson) Reyling of Glasgow, Montana. The brand was hung on the corral in front of the grandstand at the Glasgow Fairgrounds, Glasgow, Montana. June, 2010. Following the death of Gina's Grand Uncle, Max Walter Nelson, his livestock brand, bar over JN, was registered to Joe and Gina (Nelson) Reyling.
ROSE MARY REYLING

(Written text provided by William John Krause II). Rose Mary Reyling (Rosy) was born on July 6, 1993, in Glasgow, Montana, and was the daughter of Joseph and Gina (Nelson) Reyling. Rose Mary Reyling attended Glasgow High School in Glasgow, Montana, and was active in the Tampico 4-H program.

JOLYNN MARIE REYLING

(Written text provided by William John Krause II). JoLynn Marie Reyling was born on January 20, 1996, in Glasgow, Montana, and was the daughter of Joseph and Gina (Nelson) Reyling. JoLynn Marie Reyling attended Glasgow High School in Glasgow, Montana, and was active in the Tampico 4-H program.

SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS

MICHAEL NELSON REYLING

(Written text and photograph provided by William John Krause II). Michael Nelson Reyling (Mick) was born on March 18, 1998, in Glasgow, Montana, and was the son of Joseph and Gina (Nelson) Reyling. Michael Reyling attended school in Glasgow, Montana, and was active in the Tampico 4-H program. He also enjoyed sports and fishing.

!A photograph of Michael Nelson Reyling (Mick) taken at his home in Glasgow, Montana. Date: June, 2010.

MATTHEW EDWARD REYLING

(Written text and photograph provided by William John Krause II). Matthew Nelson Reyling (Matt) was born on March 4, 2000, in Glasgow, Montana, and was the son of Joseph and Gina (Nelson) Reyling. Michael Reyling attended school in Glasgow, Montana, and was active in the Tampico 4-H program. He also enjoyed sports and fishing.

!Matthew Nelson Reyling (Matt) went to school in Glasgow, Montana, and was active in 4-H. He also enjoyed sports and fishing.