

Ben Jones, Fine Arts

Year in School: Senior

Hometown: Columbia, MO

Faculty Mentor: Dr. Jean Brueggenjohann, Art

Exploring both sides of the immigration issue, through visual communication

The topic of immigration is often a hotly contested one. I explored both sides of the immigration argument through a pair of posters. My objective was to create one poster in favor of immigration, and one opposed to immigration. Both posters are intended to be equally powerful, regardless of my personal view on the topic.