

Value—describes what is educationally important to me...it is something I cherish or hold dear.

Belief—describes what is educationally factual given my knowledge...it's what I think is true and accurate.

Commitment—describes what I am willing to work toward accomplishing...it's what I value and believe and desire with enough passion to invest time and energy to make it happen.