From the Chair...

I wish you and your families a safe, healthy, and happy holiday season. Having been brought up in an international community, and having many friends and family who have different religious beliefs, I am always aware that the "holiday season" means different things to different people. People have various reasons for celebrating the season. Since my home country has been in the midst of a civil war for over a decade, my wish every holiday season is for peace throughout the New Year.

As always, if you have any suggestions, comments or questions, please let one of your UM-SAC members know. You can reach us by phone or e-mail.

Happy Holidays to everyone!
