Winfield prison inmate escape caught in Wichita

One of two inmates who escaped a Winfield correctional facility over the weekend was apprehended in Wichita on Wednesday.

A Canadian man has been arrested in Wichita, and authorities are still looking for the other escapee, according to Sedgwick County Sheriff Scott Dlookup.

The two escaped from the Winfield Correctional Facility in Cowley County on Sunday.

The first inmate, described as a 25-year-old Wichita man, was caught on Interstate 35 near Kansas Highway Patrol Exit 28 Tuesday.

The second inmate, a 26-year-old Wichita man, was driving north near the 45th Street exit when the crimes occurred.

The Kansas Highway Patrol is organizing the event, said Denise Dias, a family and consumer resource director for Sedgwick County.

Criminal Inquiry into house with dead cats

A Wichita police officer gets decontaminated by a member of the Wichita Fire Department after working a scene containing deceased cats after they were fed on the cats. Police then opened a criminal investigation into the case of 31 dead cats and two live cats that had been living there.

The 69-year-old woman who had been checking on the animals, according to police, had been living there without making provisions for the animals.
