Reunion Weekend held Sept. 18-19. A 1966 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Platteville, Gengler completed a master of science degree in ruminant nutrition at MU and then went on to earn his DVM.

He initially worked in a small animal practice in Newburgh, New York, with a rotating internship at the Animal Medical Center in New York City. He went on to become the co-owner of a small animal and equine practice in Blue Springs, Missouri. In 1978 he founded the Animal Hospital of Verona, which he owned for the next 20 years. After selling the hospital, he stayed on as the chief of staff through 2005.

In 1998 he became a diplomate of the American Veterinary Dental College after completing a specialty board examination in veterinary dentistry and oral surgery. He served as the section head of the Dentistry and Oral Surgery Service at the University of Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital from 1990 until 2010, and from 2003 until 2010, he also served as the associate dean for Clinical Affairs and as director of the Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital. He is now an emeritus associate professor in Wisconsin's School of Veterinary Medicine.
