This is a map of block data from the 2000 Census. The map includes various geographic areas such as incorporated places, census designated places, minor civil divisions, corporate official boundaries, and political boundaries. The map is a county block map and it is used for statistical purposes. The boundaries shown on this map are for Census Bureau statistical data collection and do not represent legal boundaries. The plotted map scale is 1:5500. The data is as of January 1, 2000.