MOST PROMISING PLAYERS--Senior Prophecy

Putting on our prophet's cap, the fate and fortune of this distinguished company appear to us as follows. . . .

Senator Dennis Drake breaks the record for the filibuster in the Senate.

Judge Mike Cleaveland hands down famous decision from Supreme Court Bench.

Charles Sharp is drawing down fabulous salary as gag writer for Milton Berle Show.

Ed Rehberger has just framed his millionth dollar.

Duane Russell is appearing as guest soloist on Phil Spitalmic-and-his-all-girl-orchestra hour.

Priscilla Weston hangs up her shingle as one of Columbia's newest pediatricians.

Glenn Johns has just designed the new Student Union Building for the University of Missouri.

Bevy Beaven holds the position of private secretary to Edmund C. Rehberger.

Kay Durant accepts position as under-paid kindergarten teacher.

Elsie Braton has just finished redecorating her twelve room home in the suburbs of Kansas City.

Richard Hardin is a professor in the School of Engineering at the University of Missouri.

Phil Cramer is the Vice-President of T.W.A.

Mary Martin has just won coveted Pillsbury $5,000 award for best cook of 1960.

Ginny Carlton is the hat-check girl at New York's famous Stork Club.

Lou Johnson makes her debut as an opera star in the Metropolitan Opera House.

Ronnie Gist is now a leading artist in the world of cartoons.

Rowena Estes has just been crowned Mrs. America for 1960, Marvin and Mark being her two most avid fans.

Wyona McDowell is elected President of the League of Women Voters.

Vanita Garrard has contract with Busy Bee to keep them supplied with nature's natural confection. . . honey.

Jerry Crouch's Texan husband presents her with a Lincoln convertible in which to inspect the fences on their ranch.

Bill Meeker finally wins first-place in the Soap Box Derby.

SCOREBOARD-- Calendar

SEPTEMBER

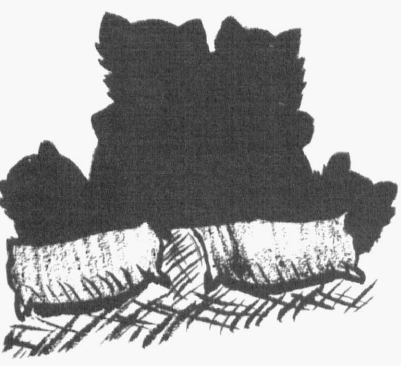

- 19. It might be --- it could be --- it is -- THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL.
- 23. First class party: the seniors have a hayride at Ginny Carlton's after the hefty boys had cleared the wagon of thirty bags of seed.
- 26. "No overnite." That is the announcement that was made at the first G.A.A. meeting of the year.

OCTOBER

- 3. The senior class gathers and elects the staff for the 1950 Tiger Claw. It could be a mistake, but Charles Sharp is already groaning over the thought of all that money.
- 6. The Tiger Claw Staff meets at Miss Green's apartment, and the yearbook is beginning to take shape.
- 10. Basketball practice starts, and we all have hopes of a bigger and better season.
- 11. Everyone starts talking about the Uesta as the candidates for Queen and Princess are elected.
- 13. Editor Elise Overholser, Mr. Ford, and the student body president meet and choose the staff for that all important literary function of the school, Tiger Tales.
- 17. Under the financial aid of Prissy Weston, the members of the S.G.O. spend a rollicking evening at the movie, I Was A Male War Bride.
- 22. Wyona McDowell entertains those constructive seniors at her home, but when her father saw a huge platter of hamburgers disappear, he decided that the seniors had a destructive side also.
- 25. The first basketball game of the season is played at Harrisburg, and most of UHS is there to see the victories for the Cubs.
- 27. Those daring senior G.A.A. girls take food in hand and tramp down to a lot on Brandon Road, where they roast weiners and drink pickle juice.
- 29. It may be Saturday, but Uesta time is here; students are seen decorating their booths in the gym. A few of those who stayed late enough were obliged to see and ride in Ed Rehberger's new green 1949 Ford. If you are interested, mileage on Ed's car at 7 P.M. -- 100 miles.
- 30. Sunday, and students gather in the auditorium to practice for the Variety Show. If you are interested, mileage on Ed's car at 3 P.M. -- 200 miles.
- 31. What a day! What a night! Mountbatten caskets! Apples! Ham! And finally the big event of the evening! Queen Jerry Crouch and her escort Mike Cleaveland are followed down the aisle by Princess Rita Hollis and her escort Danny MacLeod to music from Aida and cheers from the crowd.

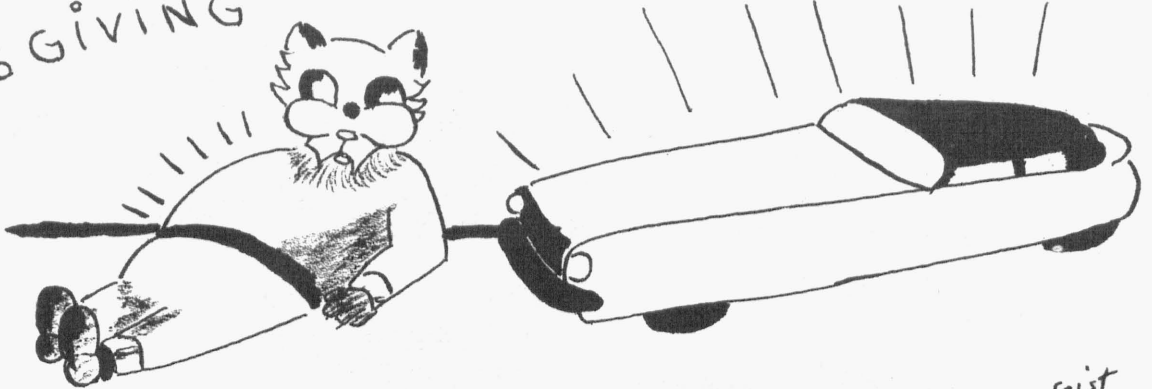

NOVEMBER

- 1. Rest for all! Even the teachers are sleepy after the big night.
- 2. Dr. Maxwell can't be outdone. He has a new green car too. His is a 1949 Pontiac.
- 3-4. The teachers go to St. Louis, while we enjoy their annual meeting.
- 7. The sophomores seem drowsy. Is this because they have had a party each night for the last five nights??
- 8. The first home game of the season is played with New Franklin. Duane Russell announces to the student body that the Student Council will sell cokes at the game. Whoopee! For ten cents that is. O-ooh!
- 9. Another new green car has come to U-High. Coach Forshee has a 1949 Chevrolet.
- 11. Weiners and doughnuts are the main attractions at a party given by Jerry Crouch for the seniors. Some of these worthies will give an eloquent speech on: "Don't have a Weiner Roast in a Cow Pasture."
- 15. Wes Hardin has a hayride for the "U" Club boys. For some strange reason all of the fellas had dates. Hmmm!
- 16. The Pep Squad steals the show with their new gold sweaters.
- 17. It might be late; nevertheless season tickets go on sale. They tell us we can save 75¢.
- 18. Boonville has a good team. Oh well, we sold a lot of cokes.
- 23. Rev. Blanchard speaks at our Thanksgiving assembly. Another attraction is the dispatching of the first issue of Tiger Tales.
- 28. Too bad Thanksgiving doesn't come twice a year.

THANKS GIVING

DECEMBER

3. Did you ever spend 10 hours in New Franklin? Well, six members of the Pep Squad did--two freshmen, two sophomores, and two seniors. They were happy though, because they saw the Cubs win two games and receive the Consolation Trophy.
8. Glenn Johns, Elsie Braton, Jerry Crouch, and Duane Russell go to the Braton estate and get a Christmas tree for the dance. Say fellas, how did all of those cedar branches get in the girls' locker room??
9. With the help of a spray gun and aluminum paint the Christmas tree is the main attraction of the Frosty Frolic, which is held in the library. Have you no heart, Miss Lang? There is plenty of light.
15. This time the senior G.A.A. decides to let the boys have some fun too. They ask the boys to accompany them to a roller-skating party.
16. Before the eyes of Fayette and U.H.S., Ann Klinefelter is crowned Queen of our Homecoming. As if this isn't enough, the basketball boys give her a bracelet too.
17. Those lucky senior girls get to go to the Town Hall dance at Stephens.
19. The chorus and orchestra entertain us with some Christmas music.
20. The high school students attend the grade school Christmas play. This is followed by another issue of Tiger Tales and VACATION.

JANUARY

4. That short sleep which started late on the morning of January 1st is interrupted by a school bell at 12:30.
6. Icy roads can't keep some U-High rooters at home. They journey to California to see the Cubs win again.
20. The Pep Squad finally manages to sponsor a bus to a basketball game. Traveling in cars certainly fascinates U-High fans. Anyway, we win our game in the Fulton tournament.
21. No bus! Yet scores of U.H.S. students see the Cubs walk off with first-place honors at the Fulton Tournament.
24. California is the victim of the Cubs. The Cubs now have 16 straight wins, and Walt Melton breaks the record of the school by scoring 29 points in one game.
25. U.H.S. makes the front page of the Missourian. Walt, Wes, and Duane are shown presenting the first-place trophy to the school. The juniors and seniors have a big party for themselves. True, it is Wednesday, but that winning ball team makes the faculty feel good too.
26. That long-looked-for day finally arrives. Pictures for the Tiger Claw are taken.
27. The semester ends. Mr. Ford assures us that the semester should not end until next week, but--- the University knows best.

FEBRUARY

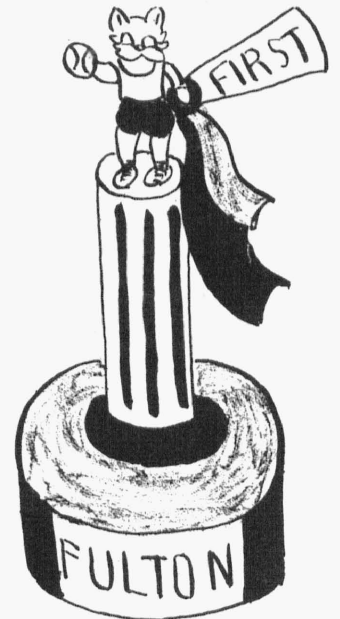

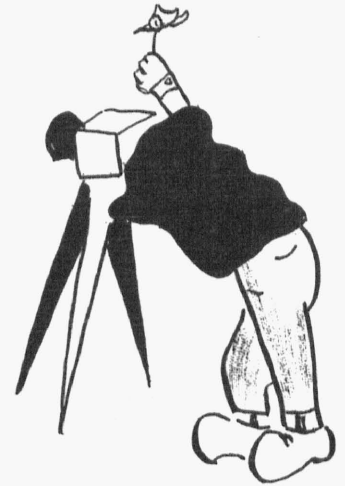

1. Tiger Claw sales start.
3. The juniors are the first to have 100% sales. Think of the big party the Tiger Claw Staff will give them.
8. The polls are open and all senior high students are asked to vote for the most versatile and popular boys and girls in high school.
9. The junior high picks their most popular and versatile too.
10. Those popular and versatile kids get out of school for a whole hour, while the Missourian and the Tribune photographers take their pictures. The Cubs made their twentieth straight win in full glory. With Mexico for an opponent and resplendent in their new gold uniforms.
14. Voting for Claude and Claudia is held. The outcome of this election is supposed to be a secret, but anyone who does not know that Ronnie and Ginny were the lucky kids by next week should go to Gaebler's more often.
17. Game with New Franklin. Enough said.
20. Wha' appened!! Dr. Maxwell generously lets several Cub rooters leave school at 2:30 in order to see the first game of the sub-regional tournament at Centralia. Mokane is down and only three to go.
22. Ashland is down and two more to go.
23. Huntsville is not down, but she is defeated 30-31. Only one more.
24. We won, by golly, we won!! The Cubs take first place at the sub-regional after defeating Sturgeon. The Freshmen have a class party and have the honor of being the first ones to use the P.A. system.

MARCH

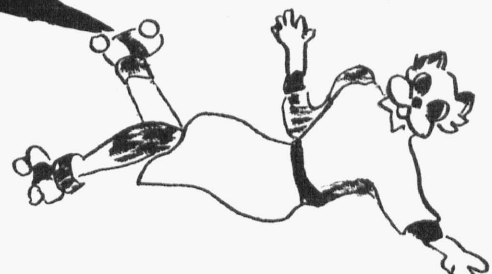

1. The Cubs make their first appearance in the Marshall Regional tournament. Is it true that eleven boys attend Amity High School and ten of them are on the basketball team?? Well, we won.

U CLUB PLEDGE

XMAS

Gust

2. State tournament hopes are smashed as Osage defeats the Cubs.
3. Norman Benedict makes a hit by singing "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy" in an all-school assembly. When the student body sees how the new P.A. system can be used, they forget about those ten-cent cokes.
4. The basketball season ends with a victory. The Cubs whip Tipton to take third place in the Regional Tournament.
6. What is this? A siren sounds and Ginny Carlton is taken to the hospital. False alarm! The siren did sound and Ginny did go to the hospital, but the two incidents have no connection.
7. Final payments are made on the P.A. system. Three cheers for the Student Council.
17. The Student Council sponsors a St. Pat Party for the entire student body. Dancing, ping pong, cards, cokes, cakes, and a Blarney Stone from the Hinkson all add to make a successful party. Walt Melton is knighted St. Pat, and John Heinberg wins a box of candy.
29. A few selected scenes from Mother Is a Freshman are presented to the student body in a teaser assembly.
30. Opening night! Mr. Ford breaks the strain of the play cast as he announces that this is his birthday. They all sing "Happy Birthday" to him just five minutes before the opening curtain.
31. U.H.S. is extremely proud of its spring play, of Mr. Ford, of the cast, and of all others who helped make the play a success. After the final curtain everyone rushes to the home of Tony Ranck, where they happily talk about the play.
U.H.S. sends six delegates to the U.N. meeting at Fulton. We represent Russia!

APRIL

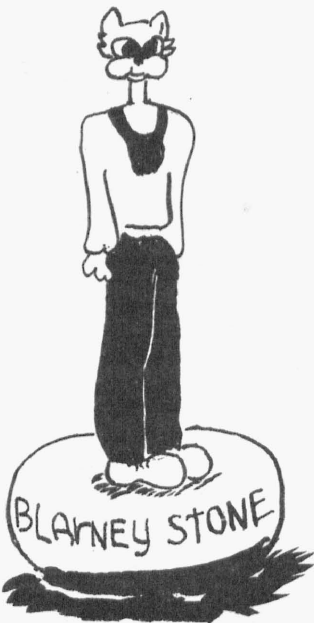

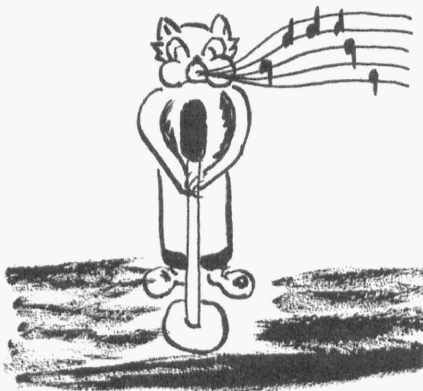

3. The Student Council meets at 2:30. They must be important to get out of a class like that.
4. Announcement--the 2:30 class, which has been meeting at Gaebler's for the last two weeks, has been discontinued for the remainder of the school year.
5. The student body is asked to vote upon four new amendments to the constitution of the school.
6. Coach Forshee presents letters to all the basketball boys. Once again we all cheer for our mighty team. (win: 30--losses: 5) Easter vacation begins.
10. Tortures begin at 12:30 instead of the usual early hour.
11. The juniors have waited a long time for their party, but the Tiger Claw Staff takes them to see Battleground at the Varsity, Columbia's best movie-zoo house. After walking back to school, they are given hot dogs and cokes.
12. Our hats are off to Mr. Conner. He puts his warblers and whistle tooters through their paces and comes up with one of the finest Spring Concerts in the history of the Music Department.
18. Busy day. The Junior and Senior Skating Party causes sudden boom in pillow sales. Seniors lose all pretense of sophistication and hold Kid Day. Students flock to see Ronald Coleman in Beau Geste. This movie was presented by the Student Council.
20. "The Night of April 20." IT shall go to the press.
21. IT has gone to press.
25. "U" Club initiation. That is all we can tell. That is all we know. The members will tell nothing. The initiates are unable to tell.
26. The G.A.A. gives another weiner roast complete with boys. Were you bored at the weiner roast held on October 27, girls?
27. The S.G.O. really creates a sensation as it gives a hayride and picnic with real boys. Student teachers show their skill outside the classroom as they give us a swell assembly.

MAY

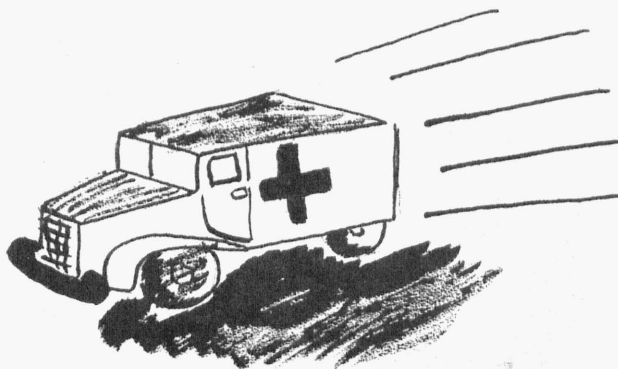

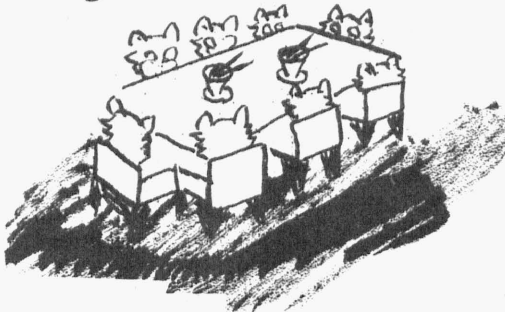

2. The Junior G.A.A. tries to sneak (?) away from school for their hike without the boys.
5. "Swing your partner and promenade, boys." G.A.A. gives a bang-up square dance.
12. The Student Council and the Pep Squad sponsor the big formal dance of the year. On the roof all of the students are seen dancing to the music of Gene Beckman and his orchestra. The girls are still in a daze 24 hours later.
19. Leaving all cares behind, the seniors gaily set out on their retreat while underclassmen await 11:25.
24. G.A.A. looks back over a very successful year at their annual banquet. Presentation of awards makes everything complete.

JUNE

2. If you are interested. Mileage on Ed's car -- 8,196 miles.
5. Seniors turn out at the crack of dawn and enjoy a luscious repast at their annual breakfast.
6. It might be --- it could be --- it is -- THE LAST DAY OF SCHOOL.
