

The

VOL. IV -- NO. 7
APRIL 1916

Missouri Alumnus

ALUMNI DAY, MAY 31

Coming Home

That's what Commencement means to alumni and former students. Class reunions are being arranged so that returning to the Old Columns will be more than ever like coming home. Classmates of will meet here just as they met in their student days. Members of these classes and all other alumni and former students! Alma Mater invites you. The Columns call. Come home.

'91 '96 '01 '06 '11

Alumni Day, Wednesday, May 31

Stephens Junior College

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI

Fully Accredited as a Junior College by the University of Missouri and Other Standard Institutions

Since its standardization as a Junior College in 1912, Stephens has shown the following remarkable increase in educational standards:

The number of graduates from the literary department has increased 227 per cent.

The number of students matriculating from accredited high schools has increased 200 per cent.

One-fifth of the students in the literary department are honor graduates from accredited four-year high schools.

Over 92 per cent of the class of 1915 are teaching or are enrolled in Senior Colleges.

The enrollment for 1915-16 shows an increase of over 180 per cent over the enrollment for 1912-13. (Eighty-five per cent of present enrollment are graduates of accredited four-year high schools.)

For catalog and information address

JAMES M. WOOD, A. B., B. S., University of Missouri
A. M., Columbia University

For your letter heads—
that reliable sheet

Brother Jonathan Bond

Alumni Professional Guide

This guide is published for the convenience of Missouri alumni of the various professions who may wish to obtain reliable correspondents at a distance to transact business for them.

Alumni of all professions who are in a position to be of service to other alumni are invited to place their cards in the guide.

The charge is 33 cents a month.

LAWYERS

KANSAS

E. W. CLAUSEN, LL.B.'10
103-107 N. Fourth St. Atchison, Kansas

MISSOURI

WALKER & WALKER
Charles J. Walker, Dartmouth '70
Lee Walker, Missouri A.B.'10, LL.B.'12
Haden Bldg. Columbia, Mo.

FRED W. KELSEY, A.B.'04, LL.B.'06
Rooms 2, 3, 4 Cunningham Bldg. Joplin, Mo.

THEOPH. L. CARNS, LL.B.'86
Attorney at Law
902-903 N. Y. Life Bldg. Kansas City, Mo.

DOUGLASS & DOUGLASS
Shannon O. Douglass, A.B.'70, A.M., LL.B.'73
S. C. Douglass, Jr., LL.B.'10
814-817 N. Y. Life Building Kansas City, Mo.

VOLNEY McFADDEN, A.B.'13, LL.B.'14
Attorney at Law
With Handy and Swearingen; S. A. Handy;
O. H. Swearingen, LL.B.'97
Suite 324-8 Rialto Bldg. Kansas City, Mo.

H. W. TIMMONDS, LL.B.'97
Lamar, Mo.

JAMES F. CONRAN, B.L.'97, LL.B.'00
Attorney at Law
308 Merchants-Laclede Bldg. St. Louis, Mo.

WILFLEY, McINTYRE & NARDIN
Xenophon P. Wilfley, A.B. Central '95, LL.B.
Washington U. '99
Jos. S. McIntyre, Missouri A.B.'97, LL.B.'99
W. T. Nardin, Missouri A.B.'03, A.M.'04, LL.B.'07
1608-14 Boatmen's Bank Bldg. St. Louis, Mo.

McVEY & FREET
Edmund H. McVey, LL.B., Yale, '96
Samuel R. Freet, LL.B., Missouri, '09
Suite 306, Keith & Perry Bldg. Kansas City, Mo.

COLORADO

GEORGE W. BRUCE, LL.B.'92
Attorney at Law
Special attention given to matters before the Department of the Interior. Delta, Colo.

ILLINOIS

Weightstill Woods, A.B., Missouri, '11
J. D., University of Chicago, '13
Suite 616, 112 West Adams Chicago

OKLAHOMA

WILSON, TOMERLIN & BUCKHOLTS
W. F. Wilson, A.B.'98, A.M., LL.B.'00,
806-811 State Nat. Bank Bldg., Oklahoma City, Okla.

McCOLLUM & McCOLLUM

J. A. McCollum, LL.B.'11
C. C. McCollum, A.B.'09
Attorneys and Counsellors at Law
Pawnee, Okla.

JAY G. CLIFT, LL.B.'08
Indian Land Titles

Dawson Building Waurika, Oklahoma

G. R. Horner, LL.B.'07, A.B.'08
D. C. Monk, '07-'08, '08-'09
HORNER & MONK
First National Bank Bldg. Okmulgee, Okla.

WILMOTT & SEBASTIAN
John W. Willmott, Mich. '00
H. G. Sebastian, M. U. '13
Attorneys at law Wewoka, Okla.

OREGON

FOSTER & HAMILTON
O. H. Foster, Admitted to Bar 1884
R. S. Hamilton, LL.B.'05
U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg. Eugene, Ore.

G. F. ALEXANDER, LL.B.'05
Attorney and Counsellor
Suite 610-12 Chamber of Commerce Bldg.
Portland, Ore.

TEXAS

R. P. INGRUM, A.B., Pe.B.'91
Moore Bldg. San Antonio, Texas

INSURANCE

MISSOURI

QUINN & CONLEY
S. F. Conley, A.B.'90
Real Estate, Loan and Insurance Agents
Columbia, Mo.

HORACE R. DAVIS, A.B.'10
Personal, Corporation, Income Insurance
1001 Wright Bldg. St. Louis, Mo.

HERLEY S. DAILY, LL.B.'10
With Mr. Warren C. Flynn, Manager
Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company
Suite 1011 Third Nat. Bank Bldg. St. Louis, Mo.

PRINTING AND STATIONERY

MISSOURI

SIDNEY M. SKINNER, '12
Buxton & Skinner St. Louis, Mo.

SCHOOL EQUIPMENT

MISSOURI AND IOWA

Jno. B. Dorman, L.B., S.B., Pe.B.'91
Books, Maps, Charts, Globes, Optical Goods, etc.
Clinton, Mo. Des Moines, Ia.

These Advertisers Are Helping Your Magazine. Reciprocate.

ENGINEERSMISSOURI

Daniel W. Pike, Pres. Harry Tidd, Vice-Pres.
 C. E. (Colby College) C. E. '13 (Missouri)
PIKE-TIDD ENGINEERING COMPANY
 Consulting Engineers
 Waterworks, Sewerage Systems, Paving, Light and Power Plants, Plans and Specifications.
 Suite 416 Scarritt Building Kansas City

HIRAM PHILLIPS, C.E.
 M. Amer. Soc. C. E.
C. F. PHILLIPS, Assoc.
 Consulting Engineers
 716-25 Internat'l Life Bldg. St. Louis, Mo.

FRANK L. WILCOX
 Consulting Engineer
 Syndicate Trust Building St. Louis, Mo.

REAL ESTATEMISSOURI

ODON GUITAR, JR., '90
 Lands
 Central Bank Bldg. Columbia, Mo.

PROFESSIONAL GUIDEADVERTISERS

Desire the pleasure of your company in their columns

Advertising in the Professional Guide Pays Big Dividends

The charge, 33 cents a month, is a small insurance premium that you get your share

Baird Company Engravers

Illustrators
Designers
Engravers

Graphic Arts Building
Kansas City, Missouri

These Advertisers Are Helping Your Magazine. Reciprocate.

VOLUME IV

NUMBER 7

THE MISSOURI ALUMNUS

Published by the Alumni Association of the University of Missouri
Entered at the Postoffice at Columbia, Missouri, as second-class matter

H. H. KINYON, Managing Editor
Subscription Price $2 a Year

OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

R. B. CALDWELL, Kansas City.....	President
ISIDOR LOEB, Columbia.....	Vice-President
MRS. W. T. NARDIN, St. Louis.....	Vice-President
H. H. KINYON, Columbia.....	Secretary
S. F. CONLEY, Columbia.....	Treasurer

THE MISSOURI ALUMNUS is issued nine months each year, the first number in October and the last just after Commencement.
CHANGES OF ADDRESS of alumni should be received at the Alumni Office in Columbia before the fifteenth of the month to insure prompt delivery of the magazine for that month.
LETTERS should be addressed to The Missouri Alumnus, Columbia, Mo., or to the Secretary of the Alumni Association, Columbia, Mo.

CONTENTS FOR APRIL

	Page
Old Graduate's Recollections of Wine Cellar Raid, By Scott Hayes '73.....	193
In Cleveland, By James G. May.....	194
Plans For Alumni-Student Union, By R. B. Caldwell '03	195
In St. Louis, By Oscar E. Riley, '11	196
"I'll Be There May 31"	197
In Pittsburgh, By C. E. Betz, '13	198
M. U. Athletics	199
K. C. Alumnae Gave Party	200
Confessions of an Alumnus	201
In Washington D. C., By C. A. Briggs, '07	201
New York Alumni Goodbye to Francis	202
The News in Brief	203
Deaths—Weddings—Births	209
Engagements—From People You Know	210
Notes of the Classes	213

The Missouri Alumnus

VOL. IV

APRIL, 1916

No. 7

OLD GRADUATE'S RECOLLECTIONS OF WINE CELLAR RAIDS

*By Scott Hayes, B.S., B. Ag. '73

"We come at night,
When fleas do bite,
And profs are all a-snoring.
We seek the wine,
Have heard it's fine,
Get thru the floor by boring."

Who the author of these lines was the Dean of the Agricultural College and the public never knew. I am sure none but the author and his pals knew. Who his pals were, failed to get beyond the bounds of discretion. He may claim, if he sees them here in print, that my lining and his do not agree. His may have been a little more alcoholic, but this is as they have stuck to me since 1870.

Be that as it may, entry had been made thru an open window, a hole had been cut in the floor of a storage room next above the "wine cellar," wine had been drawn from one cask and these lines left as a challenge to detection. The episode was one of the first enlivening acts in the process of opening the Experimental Station of the Agricultural College in the University of Missouri. Everybody smiled.

The "wine cellar" was one of the large basement rooms in the west wing of the main building. The wine casks were situated about fifty feet southwest from the west member of the six majestic columns as they now stand—mute reminders of the early struggles of our Alma Mater from the chrysalis to the present state of wonderful development and marvelous flights.

Before Day of Yale Locks

Again a raid was planned. The faithful old darky janitor occupied the extreme southwest basement room of the main building and one night was entertained by two experts while

*Mr. Hayes is a member of the first class graduated from the College of Agriculture. His class numbered two—himself and Kossuth Martin Lear, who lives in Hannibal, Mo. In 1876, Mr. Hayes received the degree of M. S. and M. Ag. He lives at Brooklet Beach, Shelton, Wash. The College of Agriculture was located in Columbia in 1870. The Agricultural Building, now Switzler Hall, was built in 1871-72.

George Clinton Swallow, first head of the College of Agriculture.

experts of another sort found their way thru the labyrinth in the basement to the locked door of the "wine cellar." There were no Yale locks in those days, but a ponderous bolt-lock barred progress. What was a lock between a college boy and new wine? Only a smile. What is difficulty between the university boy and success? Only a smile, with visions of victory thru good habits and hard work well applied. The door swung open, a five gallon keg was filled, exit made and a pre-arranged signal relieved the experts in the janitor's room.

The keg was borne away and sunk in Samuel's ice-pond—a lakelet about 500 feet south of Stephens College. The submarine came to the surface on safe occasions and sampling was for those who made the raid and a favored few who "knew the password." All others were barred. Again the smile went round. Neither the dean nor the faculty nor the body of students knew who were imbibing some of "Swallow's wine." Months after, I was confidentially told how the raid was made and what became of the wine.

The next crop of grapes went into the wine casks and preparation was made for another smile to go round. Dean Swallow tried to induce his own college boys to act as guardians of the precious product. I was one of them. One night about 1 a. m. I was aroused from extra work in the main building by a dull, thumping noise. Stepping to a darkened window, I saw four persons with a scantling trying to force apart the iron bars in one of the "wine cellar" windows. I quietly appeared on the scene. The scantling was dropped and a stampede begun. Two ran west and two north toward town. I followed those going north. While crossing the second street north of the campus a slight whistle brought me to a stand.

Details of Raid Made Public

From the west up the unpaved, ungraded street came the two who had fled to the west hailing me as one of the raiders. They were quick in discovering their mistake but did not flinch. We turned the mismeet into good humor and went on together to Main Street and were joined by the others. No plea was made and no bribe tendered to induce me to "keep mum." Thinking, no doubt, I would expose them, they "stole my thunder" by making public complete details of the raid. I never mentioned their names. The next day every raider was known and nearly every detail of the escapade was in possession of the president, the dean, the faculty, the body of students and every local newspaper reporter. Again the smile went round. Dean Swallow's smile seemed to say, "I guess those boys will not try that again." It ended the "wine cellar" raids. But the smile went over the state and became a sneer by some who were unfavorable to the institution and a regret to many friends of the University.

Next year the grapes were sold and no wine was made. But the "University wine cellar" remained a laughable but in some cases a harmful joke for more than a decade.

Between trying to keep the town boys out of the vineyard and the University boys out of the "wine cellar," Dean Swallow had his first experiences in the Experimental Station of the Agricultural College. With the "wine cellar," the first experiment was closed.

This is not a reflection or a criticism on the first dean's methods or his ability in initiative. It is almost axiomatic that the beginnings of all human effort are crude and so nearly related to failure that they can hardly be classed as successes. Yet success is made up of failures.

In the '70s and Today

Those who witnessed the crudities of the '70s and those who see the Agricultural College of today and hear its work praised both near and far—as far west as Puget Sound—are tempted to indulge in one of the old time "wine cellar" smiles.

Today we are doing many things with good intent and fair judgement which in fifty years from now will seem remarkably crude, cause surprise and perhaps a smile. It is but little more than fifty years since farmers declined to use steel plows "because steel hurt the soil."

IN CLEVELAND

By James G. May, B.J. '13

Thirteen members of the Cleveland Alumni Association defied superstition February 26 and had a little luncheon at the Central Y. M. C. A. Each person present was called on for a speech and responded with a word of appreciation at being able to meet with the others. The following were at the meeting: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hanson, Miss Laura T. McGowan, Miss J. Ottilie Kahn, Mrs. W. S. Woodhull, Albert L. Jones, L. E. Knapp, Dr. Jas. R. McVay, Howard W. Price, Robert S. Mann, J. M. Gardner, Grover C. Hosford and Jas. G. May.

Robert S. Mann who recently came from the Cincinnati Post to the Cleveland Press said he felt very much at home when he took up his abode in a room in which he found a picture of the Missouri Columns. The mystery of the picture was cleared up when it was learned that the room was occupied formerly by Miss Stella E. Steele. Miss Steele has gone to New York City.

J. M. Gardner, who saw an account of a former meeting of the association, wrote in and wanted to know more about it. He received an invitation to the last meeting. He is with the Canton Bridge Company, of Canton, O.

Howard W. Price, M.E., said he was not much of a talker to a company of people, but that he could certainly pound the left ear of the purchasing agent or chief engineer when he could find them in their office alone.

While there was nothing definite decided upon for the next meeting, the general opinion was voiced that meetings would be held at some of the homes in the city. The women are certainly loyal to the organization. They suggested the house meetings.

Wants Mail Course for Merchants

The trade extension committee of the Hannibal Commercial Club has passed a resolution asking that the University enlarge its extension instruction to include the retail merchants of the state. The resolution, which will be sent to the Board of Curators, urges that an attempt be made to get financial aid from the state legislature to institute a course patterned after the department maintained by the State University of Iowa. The Hannibal organization will ask other Commercial Clubs of the state to cooperate by taking similar action.

PLANS FOR ALUMNI-STUDENT UNION

By R. B. Caldwell, A.B. '03, LL.B. '07

The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association has consulted and corresponded with many members of the association, and from the expressions received, believes that a large majority of them favor some organization whose membership will be open to all graduates, former students and undergraduates of the University. The committee is now working on plans for such an organization and expects to submit them to the association at Commencement this year.

The details of the plan have not been worked out, but in a general way the committee favors some such scheme as that adopted by the Michigan Union at the University of Michigan. It has the customary officers, including president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, and an executive board with a stipulated number of members, each from the alumni, former students and undergraduates. The secretary gives all his time to the work and is paid a sufficient salary to attract a high class man to the office. This furnishes a central working organization which is at all times prepared to give prompt and proper attention and consideration to the affairs of the union.

Local Associations Broadcast

In addition to having a strong executive force in Columbia, there should also be local associations in every county in the state and in all places outside of the state where any considerable number of University people are located. We already have many of these associations, but only a small percentage of what we should have. Those already organized and others to be organized should keep in close touch with the general association, should be constantly informed on all matters of general interest pertaining to the University, and should at all times be ready to help in working out the University's problems.

The proposed union should also maintain on the campus a central meeting place for students and alumni. This would furnish an opportunity for close contact of the students with each other and with returning alumni and would foster a real spirit of democracy which no university should be without. All of us, when we go back to Columbia, realize the misfortune of being without some such meeting place and its establishment should not be longer delayed.

There have been many suggestions that we should immediately undertake the erection of a union building on the campus. The Michigan Union has begun a campaign to raise $1,000,000, part of which is to be used for a building. In a very short period of time they have raised $750,000. Whether we should undertake to erect a building, and if so what kind of building, can be determined when the union is established. It is everywhere conceded, however, that we must have some sort of headquarters on the campus. What Michigan has done is suggested merely to show what we can do whenever we determine to do it and go about it with concerted effort.

Will Mean United Front

If the plan suggested, or some similar plan, can be adopted—and it can—it will bring together under the intelligent guidance of one organization all of those friends of the University who should be pulling together in its behalf. The mere adoption of some plan or scheme will not, of course, accomplish anything, but if the plan or scheme furnishes the means of appealing directly to every man or woman who already has the inclination to help, it will get results.

The next business meeting of the Alumni Association will be held at Columbia May 31. In the meantime the plan of the proposed union will be explained in The Alumnus and presented to the students for consideration. The columns of The Alumnus will be open to a full and free expression of opinion regarding it or any other question affecting the welfare of the University which is a proper subject of action by the association.

Write the secretary of the association what you think about it and come to Commencement prepared to discuss it and ready to act on it to the end that alumni and undergraduates may become a real factor in the future development of the University, and in making the people of the state realize that it is their foremost servant.

R. B. Caldwell

President of the Alumni Association

UNION TO THE FORE IN COLUMBIA

The Missouri Union idea is being strongly agitated among students and alumni in Columbia. The union is the issue in student politics. Three of the four candidates for president of the student body have announced that they favor the organization of a Missouri Union. They favor plans looking toward an adequate union building on the campus of the University to serve as a "get-together" place for homecoming alumni and for students at all times—headquarters for the business and recreational activities of all graduates, former students and undergraduates.

The union proposition has been given considerable publicity by local newspapers. It is a popular subject for discussion among students and local alumni, and expressions of opinion are unanimously favorable. The only differences are in regard to details of the scheme.

Closer Alumni-Student Ties

It is urged that such an organization would mean much in bringing about closer ties between alumni and students, thus increasing the interest of alumni and former students in their old school and increasing the activity which will prevail among present students after they become "grads" and "formers."

Following are two statements, one by a graduate and the other by a student, which show how M. U. men think concerning an alumni-student union at the University. The first is by George Wilson, A.B. '11, LL.B. '14, former student president, who is now practicing law in St. Louis:

"I have heard something of the alumni-student union, and I think it is a proposition well worth working out. It has occurred to me that your object could be accomplished by inducing the present Alumni Association to broaden its scope and enlarge its membership so that students might be included therein. That will, of course, necessitate a sincere desire on the part of the student for admission into the association and the consent and cooperation of the officers of the association in this movement.

"It has been the result of my brief experience with things of that kind that you can get better work if you have some tangible and desirable goal in sight. In this case that need is supplied by the plan of some day erecting a student clubhouse, something along the lines of the institution which we all once hoped the Y. M. C. A. would be, but which I am afraid it has not been, although this latter was probably not the fault of the association.

Appeal of Big Propositions

"This seems rather a big proposition, but I find that men work better for big propositions than for little ones, and I think you would receive substantial and willing assistance from the alumni everywhere, for Missouri's traditions of democracy are as dear to the alumni as to active students, and this movement would certainly do a great deal to strengthen and perpetuate them.

"It might be possible that this issue could be raised in a desirable form at the coming elections. You can count on me for any assistance I can give."

L. C. Lozier, a student in the College of Arts and Science and the School of Law, who is a candidate for the office of student president, wrote recently as follows in the "Open Column" University Missourian:

"At the University of Michigan, the women were ahead of the men in establishing a social center, for Barbour Gymnasium is more than a gymnasium. Today the campaign by Michigan men for a million dollar union building has brought in subscriptions to the amount of $700,000. The 'U' at Ann Arbor has become the dominating factor in student activity, and, in a few years' experience in rented quarters has shown to Michigan the wholesome results for university students of a clubhouse standing as the concrete expression of organized 'Michigan Spirit.'

Students Must Work for Union

"Here at Missouri there is likelihood of a building in the near future for the University women which will undoubtedly become to them what Barbour Gymnasium is to the women of Michigan. The men of Missouri University, however, must look to the alumni for their building, as did the students of Michigan and other schools with union buildings. Now, a number of Missouri's alumni are already in favor of a 'Missouri Student-Alumni Union' and a union building on or near the campus, and are ready to carry on a campaign among the alumni for its adoption. No doubt loyal men willing to finance such a campaign can be found. But a few enthusiastic alumni cannot get us a building unless they receive in their work the cooperation of the student body to whom the benefits will, in the main, accrue. Then the proposition comes to this: Do the present students of Missouri University want such a union and a union building, and if so, are they willing to do their share toward gaining these ends?

"If we find that alumni support the plan, we should at least give it much consideration and discussion. The desirability and advantages of the building are apparent but, after all, this building would be but the tangible expression of the one University enterprise upon which the students and alumni are united for the making of a better Missouri—namely, a broad and democratic organization through which student ideals can better be developed, student activities better carried on, and student cooperation with alumni better effected. The splendid work of the unions of Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Chicago and other schools shows the possibilities for such an organization at Missouri."

IN ST. LOUIS

By Oscar E. Riley, B.J.'11, A.B. '12

A concert to delight the hearts of old grads and high school students will be given in Soldan High School Friday night, April 28—and their will be no speeches. The University Glee and Mandolin Clubs, forty real University of Missouri boys, will give the concert. The concert arrangements are being made by the Glee Club Committee of the University of Missouri Alumni Association in St. Louis.

The election of the Missouri Alumni Association is scheduled to be held in the University Club some night the week of April 23, according to Pres. Tom K. Smith. There will be a smoker as accompaniment.

Forrest C. Donnell, as chairman of the Missouri Taxation Committee of the Business Men's League, is in the limelight because of his committee's work in seeking to obtain the same basis of assessment of property in all the counties of the State, including the city of St. Louis as a county.

L. H. Keller, who has been in charge of the Chicago branch of the Moloney Electric Company for two years, returned to St. Louis April 10 to become sales manager for the company at its head office.

Alfred H. Lageman, who has been teaching in the Philippines for three years, it acting as an instructor in the Webster Groves High School.

The April meeting of the Missouri Alumnae Association will be held in the Club Room of Cabanne Library April 22, at 2:30 in the afternoon. It will be a Shakespearean pageant meeting.

"I'LL BE THERE MAY 31," THEY SAY

"I was glad to hear of plans for the reunion of the class of '01, to be held May 31 this year.

"I shall certainly make every possible effort to be there, and I hope that the class will be well represented. A large percentage of the class, I am sure, have not seen each other since they left Columbia in '01.

"Here's hoping that they will all be there."

So writes E. D. Smith, chief engineer for the United Railways Company of St. Louis in response to a letter such as was sent from the Alumni Office to each member of the class of '01. Nor is Mr. Smith the only member of '01 to get enthusiastic about the proposed reunion. There are other names as evidence that see the new plant, meet new members of the big family, and try to seize and comprehend the University life today."

And so it shall be. Members of the older and the newer classes will step from the cars to mix with the mass of happy, enthusiastic students and Columbians just as when they came as students themselves. Their renewed impressions of the old University town will be impressions of coming home. The whole University will be their home; the older parts, all will remember, the newer additions they will at once accept with pride.

The reunion spirit is dominant not alone in those who expect to be around the Old Columns

"Just as when they came as students"

Mr. Smith's hope "that they will all be there" is not going to be altogether in vain.

Here's a word from a member of the class of 1911:

"No prevention on the part of Providence or some desperate old maid who thinks 1916 is her last chance, I shall be with the class of 1911 around the Columns on May 31. I feel as if I will be going home."

Thus Lloyd E. Thatcher, Mound City, Mo., expresses himself. "It will be going home." That is the feeling of all prospective class reunionists. The same feeling is turning the faces of the older men and women of '91 toward the Columns, the cherished remains of the main building of the University they knew.

"I Want to See Old Friends."

"I do not want to be treated as a guest who has to be overmuch entertained, but rather as a member of the family who has been away from home for a while and who, upon returning, and after the usual friendly greetings is left pretty much to shift for himself." This is the way John S. Brown, '91, feels about it. He is coming from Chicago to meet his classmates.

"I want to see old friends and old scenes," he continues. "Quite as important, I want to

May 31. Letters from some who cannot come are full of reunion enthusiasm. Here is what R. P. Ingrum of the class of '91 writes from his law office in San Antonio, Tex., about the "get-together" plan.

"I appreciate very much the proposition and were my position different, I would enter into it heartily with a promise to be there. But, as has been the case ever since I entered into the practice of law here, our trial courts do not adjourn until July 1; and, as I am alone and have no one to look after my affairs, it is impossible for me to be absent during the court session.

Saw University Last in 1891

"It has been one of my ambitions sometime to return to my Alma Mater and enjoy Commencement exercises. If someone had told me when I was graduated in '91, that twenty-five years should pass without my returning, I would not have believed it. Nor can I realize that so many years have passed, as it seems to me not much more than yesterday that I stood up in line with others, chest expanded and head erect and felt that I was receiving that which would enable me to go out and conquer the world.

"My best wishes are with you. I hope that all the other boys will be there, even if I can't."

From the first crack of the gun in the preliminary event of the Ninth Annual Track and Field Meet of the Missouri Valley Conference, Friday, May 26, to the time of gathering around the Columns and the singing of good-byes into the words of "Old Missouri," the Seventy-fourth Annual Commencement will be a series of events of sufficient variety to satisfy the grave and the gay among alumni, former students and other University visitors. Details of the Commencement program are to be arranged later, but these principal events are already fairly definitely placed:

The Commencement Program

Friday, May 26—Preliminary events of the Ninth Annual Track and Field Meet of the Missouri Valley Conference, Rollins Field.

Saturday, May 27—The Ninth Annual Track and Field Meet of the Missouri Valley Conference, Rollins Field.

Sunday, May 28—The baccalaureate, University Auditorium.

Monday, May 29—Open house and demonstrations by students of the various schools.

Horse Show under the auspices of the students of the College of Agriculture, Rollins Field.

Tuesday, May 30—Horse Show under the auspices of the students of the College of Agriculture, Rollins Field.

Wednesday, May 31—The Alumni address. Class reunions of '91, '96, '01, '06, '11. Annual business meeting of the Alumni Association, University Auditorium.

Thursday, June 1—Commencement Day. Academic procession. The Commencement exercises. Announcement of prizes and honors; conferring of degrees; address to the graduating class by President A. Ross Hill, the University Auditorium. Class Day exercises of the graduating class, at the Columns. The Alumni luncheon. Reception by the President and the Curators of the University to the Alumni and graduating class and the guests of the University, Rothwell Gymnasium.

Does the program appeal to you?

IN PITTSBURGH

By C. E. Betz, Ch.E.'13

On Friday evening, March 17, the Alumni of the Pittsburgh district gathered to commemorate this day which is full of memories to all Missouri students. A happy crowd of twenty sat down to the festive board at the Fort Pitt Hotel. Though the majority of the Pittsburgh alumni are engineers, the remaining departments were not unrepresented, and the minority played a large part in the evening's entertainment. A. L. Carter, '05, a successful Pittsburgh lawyer, and Dr. Clyde Brooks, '05, of the University of Pittsburgh Medical School, vied with L. N. Crichton, '06, and C. A. Laffoon, '14; of engineering faith, in helping with stories and reminiscences to make the evening a pleasant one.

One chance guest was with us—A. F. Porzelius, C.E.'09, with the American Water Works and Electric Company of New York, who was passing through town on his way to New York.

Our next meeting—the big meeting of the year—will be held on April 20 at the Fort Pitt Hotel, with Dean McCaustland of the School of Engineering as guest of honor and speaker of the evening. Come all ye alumni who are within walking distance of Pittsburgh on that day and make merry with us.

Managed Big Road Project

W. C. Davidson of Waco, Texas, who received his degree from the School of Engineering in 1909, visited in Columbia recently after having completed the task of managing the construction of a million dollar roadway out of Fort Worth. When the road was started in 1913 he was placed in charge of the bridges and culverts but was later promoted to the office of engineer in charge. Mr. Davidson personally directed the expenditure of over $500,000 in the work.

Mr. Davidson was formerly an instructor in the School of Engineering in the University and was later assistant state highway engineer of Missouri. After his visit here, he returned to Waco, where he conducts an engineering office of his own.

M. U. ATHLETICS

Tigers Took Baseball Opener

By Robt. W. Jones, A.B.'06

It took an extra inning to do it, but the Tigers celebrated the opening of the 1916 baseball season Tuesday afternoon, April 11, with a 2-1 victory over Westminster College of Fulton. Bryant pitched and Bumgarner caught for Missouri. For Westminster, Christian pitched and Mueller caught.

The first three innings nothing happened to the score board. In the third inning George Bryant singled, Hogg was on with another, Bryant stole third, and Woody immediately singled, loading the bags. Bumgarner bunted, and Bryant came home. Hogg was caught at the plate, making the third out.

Not till the eighth could Westminster tie the score. Then C. Fisher singled and brought home Christian, who had previously got on through Farmer's error following Bumgarner's bum throw to second.

The first half of the tenth resulted in three outs for Westminster, with nobody reaching first. Then the Tigers went to bat with the heavy end up, and Hogg doubled, and stretched it to third, making a fast steal on a slow throw. Captain "Ozark" Woody sledged a grounder and got to first, as Hogg scored. This ended the game.

Bryant, of Missouri, got two hits, one a single and the other a slashing double.

The Tiger baseball squad this year looks better than for several seasons past, and while a championship can scarcely be prognosticated just, after the opening game, the fact remains the squad looks unusually good. The ordinary squad has from ten to a dozen men who know baseball, whereas the 1916 squad has eighteen or twenty players of varsity caliber.

Missouri 45—Kansas 40

Missouri beat Kansas 45-40 in the annual dual indoor meet March 17, at Kansas City. With the score tied, 40-40, the indoor meet went to the relay race for decision, as it has so many times in the past. In this last crucial test, the Missourians came cleanly through.

Radford Pittam, the anchor man on the Tiger relay team, that night defeated Rodkey, the Kansas marvel, winning by a foot. On every turn, Rodkey sought to pass the rangy Tiger; but Pittam showed staying power, for despite the game fight Rodkey made, Pittam won the relay, and the meet, for Missouri. One-fifth of a second was trimmed from the dual relay record when the Missouri quartet romped home in 3 minutes, 29 1-5 seconds.

A World's record was made by Simpson of Missouri, officials of the meet declared, when the Tiger won the 50-yard low hurdles in 5 4-5 seconds, lowering the former record of 6 seconds, tied by him last year in the same meet.

Four dual records were smashed, including the world's record by Simpson. Rodkey of Kansas took the 880-yard run in 1:58 4-5, lowering the record from 2:02 2-5, and trotted across the line at the finish, thirty yards ahead of his field. Daggy of Missouri lopped off two-fifths of a second from the dual record in the 440-yard run, negotiating the distance in 52 4-5 seconds.

Following are the summaries of the meet:

50-yard dash—Won by Simpson, Missouri; second, Davidson, Kansas. Time, 5 3-5 seconds.

One-mile run—Won by Herriott, Kansas; second, Sproul, Kansas. Time, 4:58.

16-pound shot-put—Won by Reber, Kansas; second, Warren, Missouri. Distance, 42 feet 1 inch.

50-yard high hurdles—Won by Simpson, Missouri; second, Renick, Missouri. Time :6 1-5.

440-yard dash—Won by Daggy, Missouri; second, Wyatt, Missouri. Time, :52 2-5, breaking dual meet record of :52 4-5 made in 1908 by Shannon Douglass, Jr., of Missouri.

50-yard low hurdles—Won by Simpson, Missouri; second, Renick, Missouri. Time :5 4-5. This lowered the dual meet record of six seconds made in 1915 by Simpson.

880-yard run—Won by Rodkey, Kansas; second, Fiske, Kansas. Time, 1:58 4-5, breaking dual meet record of 2:02 2-5, made in 1911 by Bermond of Missouri.

High jump—Won by Treweeke, Kansas; second, Pittman, Missouri. Height, 6 feet 1 5-8 inch, breaking dual meet record of 6 feet 1 inch, made in 1912 by Nicholson of Missouri.

Two-mile run—Won by Stateler, Kansas; second, Grady, Kansas. Time, 10:10 3-5.

Pole vault—Won by Powell, Missouri; second, Pattinson, Missouri.

Mile relay—Won by Missouri (Eaton, Daggy, Wyatt and Pittam) from Kansas (Elliott, Campbell, White and Rodkey) in 3:29 1-5, breaking the dual meet record of 3:29 2-5, made by Missouri in 1909.

Memorial to Shuck Chosen

The memorial to Captain "Jimmie" Shuck has been chosen and will be in place in the trophy room at Rothwell Gymnasium within a short time. The memorial will be in the form of a bronze plate, of a football and of the dates of Shuck's service on the Tiger teams, mounted upon a mahogany plaque. It will cost about $100. The bronze plate bears this inscription:

Captain

JIMMIE SHUCK

Track '09, '10

Football '09, '10, '11

Football Captain 1911

Died June 5, 1915

This tribute to the memory of the Tiger star will cost about $100. The money has been contributed by classmates and teammates of Shuck. Members of the class of 1912, to which Shuck belong, were instrumental in starting the fund and completing it.

Tigers Went to M. A. A. Meet

The "sign was right" for the Jayhawkers at St. Louis, March 25, and they took the relay from the Tigers despite the fact that Radford Pittam was in the race. Pittam and Rodkey started the last lap on even term but the Jayhawker pulled away and won by inches. Eaton had lost ground on the first quarter, but Daggy and Wyatt managed to overhaul the racing Kansans, and gave Pittam an even start with Rodkey. Rodkey, however, was not to be denied, as he was fresh and had not been used in previous races as much as at the K. C. A. C. meet.

Simpson won the 50-yard high hurdles in 6:1. Minton was third in the 600-yard race. Floyd, under M. A. A. colors, took second to Kneurek, of the Illinois Athletic Club, who made a vault of 12 feet 6 inches. Loomis, of Chicago Athletic Club, set a new world's record indoor fifty yard dash record of 5:1. In this race all Tiger entrants were withdrawn. The Missourians also pulled out of the 440-yard race giving Ted Meredith, the Pennsylvania marvel, a clear road and no competition.

K. C. ALUMNAE GAVE PARTY

Alumnae of the University in Kansas City gave an entertainment for the senior high school girls April 8. Miss Iva Thomas and Miss Emma Bee Mundy took leading parts in making arrangements for the entertainment. Following is the story of the "stunt" as told by the Kansas City Times:

"Did Cromwell have a mustache?"

The stage manager wanted to know.

The Missouri University Alumnae Association was almost ready to present a farce at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday afternoon. The curtain couldn't go up until a decision was made. The leading lady had arrived late, anyway. Besides there wasn't a mustache handy. Someone said Cromwell hated mustaches. It was a tense moment. The curtain bell rang—Cromwell was clean shaven—or, at least, smooth of face even if not shaven.

The alumnae entertained more than three hundred senior girls of the Kansas City high schools and told them all about the University of Missouri. How to dress, what college girls pay for clothes, and—most important—what not to wear, were interesting subjects discussed at information booths.

Miss Mary Leitch, a teacher at Westport High School, believes time will bring a standardized dress for business women as well as college women. Miss Margaret Corbin told how girls at Columbia dress.

"You should be sure to have these things," she said, "when you go to Columbia: Plain, durable suit, low-heeled, comfortable shoes, a raincoat, a sweater and a middy for gymnasium use, an afternoon and an evening dress. And remember, it is more important to know what not to wear. Too many girls appear on the campus wearing clothes not meant for campus."

Miss Rowena Campbell told of the expense to girls at Missouri University. "Any girl ought to be able to attend the University a year on $375, including clothes," she said. "Two-thirds of the students, according to college authorities, are paying part or all of their expenses by working out of college hours."

Miss Isabel Barnhart told of social life, hikes and picnics, athletics, Y. W. C. A. and religious work. Miss Helen Ross, a teacher in Independence High School, explained "date rules," and said: "Don't think when you go to college you must learn to become school teachers."

Four Fraternities Plan New Homes

Four fraternities at the University are planning to build new chapter homes. The Phi Delta Theta Fraternity will begin work on its new home on the same lot this month. Special efforts will be put forth to have the building completed and ready for occupancy by the opening of school next fall. Harvard brick in four shades will be used. The cost of the house is expected to be $30,000 or $35,000. It is planned to accommodate twenty-two men and a chaperon.

The Phi Kappa Psi's have bought a lot in the southwest part of Columbia, on Providence Road, and will build a $15,000 chapter home during the summer. Final plans for the structure have not been completed. Sigma Phi Epsilon is making plans for a house to be built a year from next summer. The K. A.'s are looking for a new location but nothing definite has been decided upon yet, it is said.

Many Offers to R. S. Besse

That the Northwest appreciates the University graduate is shown by the record of R. S. Besse, who was graduated from the College of Agriculture in 1913.

Mr. Besse did not leave the University until a year ago. After graduation, he remained with the College of Agriculture to assist D. H. Doane, state leader of farm advisers. From Columbia he went to Wyoming to become state leader for the University of Wyoming. Since going there, he has received many offers from various places in the Northwest. Two of these offers were from states which would pay as much as Missouri. South Dakota offered him the position of state leader. North Dakota wanted him for boys' and girls' club work.

Lieut. Lloyd Jones in Luzon

Lieut. Lloyd Jones, son of Dean J. C. Jones of the College of Arts and Science, is now in the northern part of Luzon making a topographical survey of that part of the island. Lieutenant Jones was stationed on the Mexican border until last fall, when he was transferred to the Philippines.

Two '97 Men Got Together

W. C. Hawkins, of the law class of 1897, recently visited C. E. Covert, also of the class of 1897, at Houston, Mo. While there Mr. Hawkins addressed a Republican mass convention, and, according to Mr. Covert, "made one of his most eloquent speeches which proves him to be a wonderful campaign speaker." Mr. Hawkins is a lawyer and banker at Buffalo, Mo. Mr. Covert is practicing his profession and also engaged in abstract work.

Moss to Run Big Ranch

D. D. Moss, a former track man in the University, left recently for Encinal, Texas, where he will take charge of a ranch of 100,000 acres belonging to T. A. Coleman of San Antonio. Mr. Moss received his B. S. in Agriculture in 1914.

CONFESSIONS OF AN ALUMNUS

Mountain Home, Ark.

Editor of The Alumnus:

I look always to see what the class of 1900 is doing, but it is so little I hear from these classmates in the paper I wonder if they are too modest or careless to tell what they are doing. I wish they would talk out about themselves just the same as if we should happen to meet up.

I am going to illustrate by making myself an example. After leaving the M.S.U., I followed my profession for eleven years, living in the following cities and earning per year as follows:

Buffalo	$ 780
New York City	1560
Toledo	2000
Pittsburgh	2100
Cleveland	1500
Port Hope, Canada	3000

During this time I was always on the lookout for something better in position and salary but no difference what I received I did my level best. I improved the plant of the last concern I worked for so that they realized $50 net per day in one plant from my efforts. The salary was good but if I could make them that much why could I not do as well for myself. After three years of economical living I accumulated my necessary nestegg and made my plunge. I am doing better than I expected.

Here are my medals, not for vain boasting, but to draw out some intimate information from some of the 1900 class:

Steward in the M. E. Church, South.

Teacher of a class of boys in S. S. (18 to 20 years).

President of Baxter County Commercial Club.

President of Mountain Home School Improvement Association.

Director of the People's Bank.

Owner of Mountain Home Roller Mill.

Owner of Mountain Home Cotton Gin.

Owner of Mountain Home Lumber Yard and Planing Mill.

Owner of Mountain Home Electric Light Plant.

Now, as we say in prayer meeting, let us hear from others.

Yours truly,
DILLEN UNDERHILL.

Political Clubs at University

Young Democrats and Republicans, students in the University, have formed clubs for the members of the two political parties now in school. The Democratic Club has gone on record as commending Woodrow Wilson's administration and especially his preparedness policy and his dealings with the European countries now at war. A message was sent to the President telling of the club's action and in answer a letter was received from the White House. The chief object of these student political clubs is to prepare the students to take advantage of the absent voters' law at the general elections in November. At the last general election 500 votes were sent out of Columbia.

Two M. U. Men Back as Editors

Houston Harte, a graduate of the School of Journalism last June, now editor and owner of the Central Missouri Republican, at Boonville, and A. E. Snyder, assistant editor of the Republican and former student of the School of Journalism, spent a recent Sunday in Columbia at the Dana Press Club.

"Jimmy" Stowers Now a Major

"Jimmy" Stowers, A.B.'10, A.M.'11, who has been doing medical relief work in France, has been promoted. He has been transferred to Marseilles and ranks as a major of the first class. Until his transfer he did surgical work at St. Valery-en-Caux.

Savage to Toledo Steel Plant

Phil S. Savage, a member of last season's football team and graduate of the School of Engineering, was in Columbia recently for a short visit at the Pi Kappa Alpha house. He was enroute to Toledo, Ohio, where he is foreman in a steel by-products plant, in which another Missouri football man, former Captain Thatcher, is also employed. Savage was formerly with the American Bridge Company at Gary, Ind.

IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

By C. A. Briggs, B.S. in E.E. '07, A.M. '10

I am sending a report of the organization of an Alumni Association at Washington, D. C. Occasionally we find ourselves the surprised victims of our own moral abstractions. As a member of the committee on the constitution, I warmly supported the clause making it incumbent on the corresponding secretary to send a letter or report to The Alumnus each month. As a result of subsequent events, it now devolves upon me to send this report.

February 17, in response to a general call, fifteen alumni of the University of Missouri met in Washington, D. C., at the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of effecting an organization. Thos. H. Summers acted as temporary chairman and introduced the subject of organizing by giving an account of an informal meeting which had been held by a number of alumni connected with the United States Department of Agriculture. At this earlier meeting it was decided to issue a general call for a meeting to effect a permanent organization, and the result was the present meeting.

Following this, nominations were called for and officers were elected. These officers including those elected under the provisions of the constitution at a later meeting are: H. P. Davis, president; Miss I. M. Bailey, vice-president; J. H. Patrick, secretary and treasurer; C. A. Briggs, corresponding secretary; and F. C.

Hilder, P. H. Dorsett, E. B. Smith and Thos. H. Summers, directors.

On a motion, a committee of three consisting of F. C. Hilder, C. A. Briggs and Thos. H. Summers was appointed by the president to draw up a constitution for presentation at the next meeting; and an entertainment committee consisting of J. A. Roth and Miss I. M. Bailey was appointed. Communications were read from Charles Thom and W. J. Spillman expressing their regret in not being able to attend the meeting. The meeting then adjourned to meet again at the same place March 6.

Met in Spite of Car Strike

The meeting of March 6 was held under unusual circumstances. Washington was just then experiencing a street car strike. No cars were running, and the City of Magnificent Distances was living up to its name. However, in spite of the transportation difficulties, the interest in the meeting was such that the membership was well represented.

Before taking up the business of the meeting, the effect of the strike was discussed. It was concluded that while the strike doubtless kept some from attending it was not desirable to postpone the matter of perfecting the organization. The report of the committee on the constitution was presented, discussed and the proposed constitution was adopted. The roll of officers was then completed by the election of a corresponding secretary and four directors.

Names of Alumni Present

The interest shown at the meeting was very encouraging and prospects are now bright for an active and effective association. Those who attended the meeting, or who have already expressed their desire to attend are as follows: Miss I. M. Bailey, B.S. in Ag.'12; C. A. Briggs, B.S. in E.E.'07, A.M.'10; O. C. Bruce, B.S. in Ag.'13; A. A. Bryan, B.S. in Ag.'15; Miss Sara J. Davenport, B.S. in Ed., A.B.'10; H. P. Davis, B.S. in Ag.'11; Charles Dearing, B.S. in Ag.'09; P. H. Dorsett, B.A.'84; W. R. Hale, B. S. in Ag.'12; F. C. Hilder, B.S. in C.E.'04, C.E.'07; L. Moomaw, B.S. in Ag.'15; Melvin Moss, B.S. in Ag.'09; S. B. Nuckols, B.S. in Ag.'11, A.M.'12; J. H. Patrick, A.B.'12, B.S. in Ed.'12; J. A. Roth, B.S. in Ag.'14; E. B. Smith, B.S. in M.E.'03, M.E.'05; W. J. Spillman, B.S.'86, M.S.'90; Thos. H. Summers, B.S. in Ag.'12; Charles Thom, Ph.D.'99; P. A. Wright, A.M.'13; Miss Margaret A. Wulfert, B.L.'99; Carl M. Wynne, A.B.'13.

In reference to routine matters of the association, it was suggested by Mr. Summers that all members of our association fill out in triplicate a page form giving in considerable detail their history, one copy to be filed with the secretary, one with the corresponding secretary to aid him in preparing his reports, and one to be sent to The Alumnus to assist it in keeping its records up to date. At the next meeting I will urge this be taken up as soon as possible.

Talk by Doctor Spillman

Dr. W. J. Spillman, '86, gave a talk before the Washington Philosophical Society April 1. In his discussion he brought out the interesting and important fact that the variations from year to year in the lowest winter temperatures follow what is known as the law of probability. This makes it possible to study the weather history of a locality and predict with confidence the percentage of years in which the temperature will go below any given value. This is of great practical value to truck gardeners and to greenhouse men.

Social Meeting Held April 3.

The first social meeting of the association was held April 3 at the Y. M. C. A. parlors, Which had been decorated with Missouri pennants for the occasion. Twenty-five members and guests were present.

Thanks to the entertainment committee consisting of J. A. Roth, '14, and Miss I. M. Bailey, '12, the matter of getting acquainted and of recalling mutual friends was expedited by the making and remaking of conversational groups in a systematic way. This was followed by interesting reminiscences by E. B. Smith, '03, Charles Thom, '99, E. A. Boeger, '84, and T. J. Heldt, '10. Copies of the Alumnus, Missourian, and a brand new Shamrock had been brought to the meeting and were in demand at all times. Greetings from members who were unable to come to the meeting were read by the secretary. Refreshments consisting of doughnuts, apples and cider were served after which came songs and yells. The meeting adjourned at a late hour.

N. Y. ALUMNI GOODBYE TO FRANCIS

The New York Alumni Association of the University of Missouri gave a farewell dinner to Ambassador David R. Francis at the Hotel Martinique before he departed for Petrograd.

Ambassador Francis delivered an interesting talk on his connection with the University. According to a New York dispatch, the speaker complimented his hearers upon their maintaining an organization in honor of their alma mater and said there was no state institution in the land whose faculty excelled that at Columbia and he doubted if any of the richly-endowed universities could boast better.

When the ambassador asked the question, "Do you know what the roster of Columbia at Columbia is today?" and answered it with: "There are 4,000 on the rolls against 600 in 1889," cheers and handclapping came from all quarters of the house.

Mr. Francis confided to the alumni that he had not yet decided whether he would resign as president of the Board of Curators. He had been assured by Doctor Hill, he said, that the constitution of Missouri expressly provides that since his office was not one of profit he could retain his position. Since his office was not one of profit he could retain his position.

In order to have a good attendance at the dinner, M. D. Hunton, L.B. '82, wrote to the Alumni Office in Columbia for the names and addresses of all alumni and former students in New York and vicinity. Dr. R. H. Jesse, former president of the University, and President A. Ross Hill sent letters of greeting, which were read at the dinner.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

High School Day, May 13

High School Day at the University will be Saturday, May 13. This year, plans for the entertainment and instruction of the "high schoolers" are more extensive than ever in the twelve years the meets have been held. In fact, the program will extend over several days. Thursday and Friday before the high school meet the University of Kansas baseball team will battle with Missouri's team, the Tigers. Friday night the visitors will be entertained by the University women. Saturday morning the Kansas track team will attempt to defeat Missouri. Then on Saturday afternoon the athletic field will be turned over for the thirteenth annual high school meet to the 500 Missouri youths representing academies, military schools and high schools.

Last year about 400 competed in the big meet. Many more are expected this year by C. L. Brewer, director of athletics, who has charge of the high school meet arrangements. Prof. C. H. Williams, A.B., B.S. in Ed. '07, secretary of University Extension, and Professor J. D. Elliff, high school visitor, are the other members of the High School Day committee.

H. W. Smith, '11, Author of Bulletin

"Making the Printed Picture: A Treatise on on Photo-Engraving Methods" is the title of a bulletin soon to be issued in the journalism series of the University of Missouri. The author is Herbert W. Smith, B.S. in J.'11, instructor in illustrative art and director of the photo-engraving laboratory in Switzler Hall.

In non-technical terms, Mr. Smith describes the process of making a printing plate from a photograph or drawing. Trade terms are explained and suggestions given on the correct preparation of "copy" for the engraver. The bulletin is copiously illustrated with half-tone and line engravings, the latter reproducing drawings by the author.

Former M. U. Man Leaves K. U.

Robert M. Ogden, professor of psychology at the University of Kansas, has announced his resignation, to become professor of psychology at Cornell University next fall. Professor Ogden was formerly a member of the University of Missouri faculty.

Lieut. Eby in the Villa Chase

A letter from Lieut. C. McH. Eby, formerly commandant of cadets at the University, says he is leading a troop of cavalry in the pursuit of Villa. Lieutenant Eby, with the pursuing columns, is deep in Mexico, penetrating the mountain fastnesses to which Villa has fled with his trusted adherents.

Bryan and Daniels Journalism Week

Williams Jennings Bryan, editor of the Commoner, Lincoln, Neb.; Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy; and Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Journal, chief of the Hearst newspapers, are three of the most distinguished journalists on the program of Journalism Week, May 1 to 5, at the University of Missouri at Columbia.

Mr. Bryan will speak twice, in the University Auditorium the closing day of the week and at the Made-in-America banquet for visiting editors the closing night. Other speakers of national and state fame will deliver addresses at the morning, afternoon and evening sessions in Switzler Hall and the University Auditorium. Three hundred editors and publishers from Missouri and other states and a hundred merchants and advertising men are expected to be present. It is expected that the attendance for the week will be larger than that of any year since Journalism Week was originated at the University.

To Organize Soccer Teams

In order that athletics may be made a part of every student's daily routine at the University, Chester L. Brewer, athletic director, is planning to organize leagues in two lines of sports which have heretofore been confined only to a few. The new students' leagues will be in baseball and soccer and are to be organized within a short time.

Soccer has been started and is to be in charge of Prof. H. McC. Burrowes, who has played the game at Yale. He will be assisted by several other instructors who have played at other universities. The league is formed especially for the benefit of faculty members and students who would not take up any line of athletic work under ordinary conditions. Eleven men are needed for each soccer team, and if enough prospective soccer players enter the league there will be exhibition games later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hill Here

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson D. Hill of Eldorado Springs visited friends in Columbia recently. Mr. Hill was graduated from the School of Law of the University in 1912 and is now practicing law at Eldorado Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were married March 2.

Frazier on "Military Education"

Major Joseph Frazier, who received the Pe.P. degree from the University in 1885 and is now of the Twenty-sixth U. S. Infantry, has published a pamphlet in which he outlines a system of military training for the youth of the country. "Military Education" is the name which Major Frazier has given to his work. He urges that every man student of land-aided and money-aided institutions be required by the government to take military training. Major Frazier is now stationed at Harlingen, Tex.

Writes of Revisiting M. U.

Judge J. D. Carney, B.L., Pe.B. '87, LL.B. '88, spoke as follows to the Clinton Democrat after returning home from a recent visit to his Alma Mater:

"It brought back the old days to see the crowds of boys and girls hurrying with their arms loaded with books." It made me feel somehow that I should be with them. And when the old bell in the tower of what is now Switzler Hall pealed forth its summons, it seemed to tell me the story of a thousand happy students who have come and gone since the days when it spoke its personal message to me.

"The old college has changed beyond my realization; the Columns to me were truly monuments to a vanished edifice; while Switzler Hall remained to remind me of the mathematics and other things that were drilled into me within its vine-clad walls. And I am proud also of the fact that of my old class, three are now members of the faculty, and I was indeed glad to renew such school friendships."

Can Two Live on $500 a Year?

It may be a leap year move. Again it may not be. Every man is entitled to his own opinion. At any rate it looks a bit suspicious. A girl in a home economics class at the University has figured it out that a couple can live comfortably on $500 a year. An unfortunate thing about the figures of the home economics girls is that they do not agree. While one young woman would be willing to undertake the management of a man's household on $500 a year, another thinks that $2,000 a year is necessary. The ideas of other members of the class range all the way between these two sums.

Glee Club in Only M. U. Concert

"Mid the Hills of Old Missouri" and "Old Missouri." Thus began and ended the only concert which the University Glee and Mandolin Club gives at the University this year. The concert was the night of March 20. The Mandolin Club, composed of twelve players, is a feature of the organization. During the Easter holidays, the combined club will make a tour of several towns and cities of the state.

Faculty Room in Library Building

A large room in the new Library Building has been set aside for the use of the faculty members of the University faculty as a room of their own, where they can meet in a body or in groups. This room will serve as a faculty headquarters, as the Alumni Room in Academic Hall serves as a gathering place and lounging room for alumni and former students. With some assistance from the University, the faculty will furnish the room in an attractive manner.

Stephens on "The Monroe Doctrine"

Prof. F. F. Stephens of the department of history of the University has written a bulletin on "The Monroe Doctrine, Its Origin, Development and Recent Interpretation" which is of more than the usual interest just at this time, in view of the peculiar position of the United States with reference to other nations. Professor Stephens' bulletin settles many questions concerning the rise of the Monroe Doctrine and its development. President Wilson's stand against the revolutionary governments of political adventures is the Monroe Doctrine modernized, he says.

Seeks Attorney-General Nomination

Ernest A. Green, attorney-at-law in St. Louis, who was graduated from the School of Law and the College of Arts and Science of the University in 1905, has announced that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for attorney-general of Missouri.

Ernest A. Green, '05, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for attorney-general.

Mr. Green began practicing law at Poplar Bluff immediately after his graduation, was elected prosecuting attorney of Butler County in 1906 and was re-elected in 1908. He continued his law practice at Poplar Bluff until he was appointed assistant attorney-general in the office of Governor Elliott W. Major, then attorney-general in 1912. He was re-appointed assistant attorney-general under John T. Barker, but resigned in May, 1914, to practice law in St. Louis. Mr. Green's office is in the Central National Bank Building. He was in Columbia April 13 to attend the Jefferson Day banquet.

A. J. Kline to Sedalia

On his way to take up concrete construction work in Sedalia, A. J. Kline, B. S. in C. E., '14, stopped off in Columbia for two days to visit his three brothers, B. G., V. C. and J. R., who are students in the University. Mr. Kline has been working for the government in railroad evaluation work.

Olson is for Missouri Union

C. A. Olson, B. S. in M. E. '12, brought his genial smile to the Alumni Office one morning recently. Mr. Olson was stopping in Columbia a short time while on his way from St. Louis to Kansas City on a business trip. He is sales manager, representing six states, for the General Fire Extinguisher Company of Chicago. His Chicago business address is 108 South La Salle Street. He lives at 4541 North Campbell Avenue.

Mr. Olson expressed himself as being heartily in favor of the proposed Missouri Union, the plan for a central organization of alumni and former students and present students of the University, with a splendid Union Building on the campus as recreational and business headquarters for present and past students.

"I hope I'm not broke when you ask for money," he said. Mr. Olson has been in Chicago since graduation.

Lieut. King Into The Field

President A. Ross Hill recently received a letter from Mrs. Joseph C. King, written in El Paso, stating that her husband, first lieutenant of the Seventh Cavalry, who was recently appointed to take the place of Charles McH. Eby as commandant of cadets in the University, had been ordered "into the field." Mrs. King did not say where her husband was. Lieutenant King was to have been in Columbia by March 18. It is thought here that he is with the troops commanded by Col. George A. Dodd in pursuit of Villa.

More Proof About St. Pat

St. Patrick was an engineer. As the years go by there is less and less doubt about it. March 17 the students of the School of Engineering presented their proofs again and dispelled some of the remaining doubt. The parade started from Hillcrest Avenue, back of the Gymnasium, and wound its way over several streets to the Old Columns. There were the faithful engineers in all their numbers and the products of their genius—their armored motor car, steam shovel, their pile driver, their idea of the Ford Peace Expedition worked out into a great make-believe dove on wheels.

F. W. Floyd was St. Pat. He superintended the kissing of the sacred stone, which added about fifty knights to the loyal list. And then the old saint invited all the lookers-on to sojourn to the engineering laboratories and see still other wonders the engineering genius and still other proofs that St. Patrick was indeed and in all truth an engineer. F. A. Heileman and R. M. Lotz, both of the class of 1914 and past grand knights, headed the parade as St. Pat guides.

Neither did the alumni, far from the Old Columns, forget the day of the old saint. The Pittsburgh association, following its usual custom, heeded the call of March 17 and gathered together to commemorate the day. March 17 is the date of one of the four annual meetings of the Pittsburgh association.

Alumni in various other places celebrated the day by their lone selves. But they celebrated, for during many days following letters came avowing that "St. Patrick was an engineer, he was, he was." Of course he was.

Satterlee in M. U. Office

Henry G. Satterlee, A. B. '14, has accepted the position of chief clerk in the business office of the University. Mr. Satterlee will continue to manage his stationery store downtown.

Happy End for University Romance

A University romance which began last fall, while C. H. Apple, Jr., was living next door to Miss Mame B. Tate, ended in the marriage of the principal characters March 18. Mr. Apple is a sophomore in the College of Agriculture. His bride is a teacher in the Benton School here. They will make their home in Columbia until Mr. Apple has received his degree. At the close of the school year they will go south for the summer.

Foreign Students in M. U.

Out of the 3,475 foreign students listed in a directory lately issued by the Y. M. C. A. Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students, ten are registered at the University of Missouri. The 3,475 students are divided among 342 schools.

According to this directory, the 10 foreign students in the University here make up almost the right proportion for the 3,475 students divided among the 342 schools. These ten students come from six countries—two from the British Indies, four from China, one from Japan, one from Korea, one from the Hawaiian Islands and one from Sweden.

Hayes to Texas A. & M.

Maurice E. Hayes, assistant in horticulture, has accepted the position of extension assistant entomologist in the Texas A. & M. College. Mr. Hayes received his B. S. in Ag. in 1915 and for the last year has been doing research work in addition to his duties as assistant in horticulture. He will remain here until September.

Phi Mu Alpha Initiates

Phi Mu Alpha, the honorary musical fraternity, held an initiation in the apartments of Prof. Chester Murray recently. Jacob L. Ellman and Virgil Kline were initiated. After the initiation, the fraternity held its regular monthly meeting at the Beta Theta Pi house.

Making Good in New York

A letter from a member of the New York Herald staff tells of the success of two former Columbia boys, the Talley brothers, both of whom attended the School of Journalism here. "Both Victor and Truman are very clever boys," he writes, "and made good on the copy desk of the Herald right from the start." The brothers worked on St. Louis newspapers before going to New York.

Press Agent for Opera Singer

Paul H. Conlon, a former student in the School of Journalism, has recently become press agent for Mme. Caroline White, an opera singer. Conlon left the University in 1913 and has since been employed by the Universal Film Company at Los Angeles, Cal. He is a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Gets Drury College Position

Russel S. McFarland, a graduate student in geology, has been appointed instructor in geology at Drury College, Springfield, Mo. Mr. McFarland was graduated from Park College last June.

Pledged to Mystical 7

Members of Mystical 7, honorary senior society, entertained its pledges with a dinner recently. The new pledges are Harry Lansing, "Bob" Simpson, Don D. Patterson, Clay Brown, Frank H. King, Gerald Oven and Byron Spencer.

Japanese Journalist in M. U.

W. Midzuno of Osaka, Japan, who arrived in Columbia recently, has enrolled in the School of Journalism of the University. He is a graduate of Kyoto Imperial University and is a member of the staff of the Osaka Daily Mainichi, one of the leading newspapers in Japan. He was sent by his newspaper to take work in journalism in America and to serve as American correspondent.

Mr. Midzuno says he is most interested in literature. He has a scrapbook in which he keeps translations from English into Japanese. He expects to take work in the English department of the University. Mr. Midzuno intends to remain in America two years and will then return to his work in Japan.

Reppy Second In Oratorical Test

Alison Reppy, a senior in the University, ranked second in the state prohibition oratorical contest held at Fayette, April 11. His subject was "The White-Plumed Knight," referring to Richmond P. Hobson. The contest was won by Frank C. Tucker of Central College with an oration on "Frances E. Willard, Benefactress and Reformer."

Astronomy Bulletin by C. C. Kiess

C. C. Kiess, who was formerly in the astronomy department of the University, is the author of Laws Observatory Bulletin, No. 22, on the "Visual and Photographic Light Variations of RR Lyrae." Mr. Kiess is now at the Pomona College Observatory, Claremont, Cal.

Rob Roy Godsey Was Here

Rob Roy Godsey, a former student of the University, was one of the first to arrive in Columbia to attend the Jefferson Day political meetings and banquet, April 13. Mr. Godsey was a reporter on the Columbia Tribune while a student. He is now editor of the Webb City Daily Register. He is secretary of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Missouri.

Mr. Godsey noticed the sign over the door of the new Alumni Room which says: "All graduates and Former Students, Welcome."

"I'm glad you put 'former students' there," he said, "for I know that many who did not remain at the University long enough to receive degrees feel that they have not had the right treatment. In many cases, they can vie with the best in loyalty and enthusiasm."

Ad Club Had Yearly Carnival

The annual Carnival of the Ad Club of the University was held in Rothwell Gymnasium Friday night, April 14. The Ad Club is organized of representatives from the various county and state clubs and of students from the various divisions of the University for the purpose of advertising the school among the people "back home." The Carnival is given to raise money to finance the club's work. Ten vaudeville stunts, dancing and refreshments made the evening a gay one.

Just before the dancing began, the queen of the Carnival was crowned. This year a silver loving cup was awarded the winning candidate for queen. There were seven candidates.

Y. M. C. A. Held Annual Banquet

The Seventh Annual Banquet and installation of officers of the Y. M. C. A. at the University was held April 12. Dr. E. S. Ames, assistant professor of philosophy at the University of Chicago, was the principal speaker of the evening. His subject was "Christianity and Social Service." Prof. J. W. Hudson of the philosophy department of M. U. was toastmaster. President Hill made a brief talk in which he commended the Y. M. C. A. for doing its work for the best interests of the students and not for its own magnification. About 130 were present. Gardner Smith, a student in the School of Law, heads the new cabinet as president.

Miss Sturtevant Found Not Guilty

Miss Mabel Sturtevant, a 1908 graduate of the School of Law of the University, was recently found not guilty of using the mails to defraud. In her trial in Chicago, some of the most prominent society women of the city appeared against her. They charged that she solicited money from them to help needy girls through colleges, but that the money was not applied to the purposes for which it was given. The organization through which Miss Sturtevant worked was the Association of College Women Workers. She was president of the association. She emphatically denied using for herself any of the money which she solicited or that she had any intent of defrauding either the donors or the girls.

Miss Sturtevant came to the University from Brookfield. She and her mother had worked that she might attend high school, and through their labor she not only finished her University course but made a scholastic record which gave her the name of "the best student in the world." A traveling scholarship was awarded her. When Miss Sturtevant began her activities for needy girls, she said that she wished to save them some of the hardships which she had endured.

Students Vote to Abolish Hazing

By a large majority, a resolution of the Student Council to abolish hazing at the University was adopted at a recent mass meeting of the students in the University Auditorium. The vote was taken after the four candidates for student president had spoken in favor of the resolution. Some of the speakers, however, favored retaining the custom of requiring first-year men to wear caps, keep off the grass and out of pool halls.

Finds M. U. Popular in South

P. M. Brandt, B.S. in Ag. '10, A.M. '13, assistant to the dean of the College of Agriculture, recently returned from a trip to Alabama. Mr. Brandt says that the College of Agriculture of M. U. is becoming the preferred college for graduates of Southern schools. At Auburn, Ala., Mr. Brandt helped establish a chapter of Gamma Sigma Delta, an honorary agricultural fraternity, in the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. He says that the courses in animal husbandry here especially appeal to students of the South, for greater interest is being shown in live stock.

C. R. Longwell a Yale Fellow

Chester R. Longwell, assistant in geology, has been elected to a fellowship in geology in Yale University. This is the first fellowship granted by Yale to a graduate of the University of Missouri in recent years. Mr. Longwell was graduated from the University in 1915, with an especially high scholastic record.

Refused Good Agricultural Job

D. C. Wood, B.S. in Agr. '15, now assistant professor of farm management in the Montana Agricultural College at Bozeman, recently refused to accept the position of state leader of county agents in New Mexico. The reason he gave was that he wanted to make good at his first job before accepting a better one.

Two Offers for Hutchison

C. B. Hutchison, B.S. in Ag. '08, professor of farm crops in the College of Agriculture, has been offered the leadership of the farm crops department at Ohio State University, Columbus. He has also been offered the professorship of plant breeding at Cornell University. Mr. Hutchison admits that he is "considering" the two offers.

Wood to Large Stock Farm

M. D. Wood, B.S. in Agr. '15, was in Columbia recently on his way to Bristol, R. I., to work on the farm of Russell G. Colt, of Colt revolver fame. Mr. Colt is the proprietor of a large stock farm, and Mr. Wood will help in carrying for the purebred draft horses on the estate. For the last few months, Mr. Wood has been on the Corsa farm, White Hall, Ill. He expected to stop there and at his home in Shelbina, Mo., on his way to the East.

Davis Would Be Attorney General

Joseph T. Davis, who was graduated from the School of Law of the University in 1904, is seeking the Democratic nomination for attorney general of Missouri. After graduation from M. U., Mr. Davis began the practice of law at Union, Mo., in his native county of Franklin. Later he moved to St. Louis, where he now has a law office in the Pierce Building. In the year of his graduation, he was nominated for prosecuting attorney in Franklin County, and ran 1,300 votes ahead of his ticket.

Mr. Davis was in Columbia to attend the Jefferson Day banquet, April 13. One of the other two candidates for the attorney general nomination is an M. U. Graduate—Earnest A. Green, who received the A.B. and LL.B. degrees in 1905.

Mexico Not For McCoy

"It's the United States of America for me," says A. W. McCoy, C.E.'12, A.M.'14, formerly with the geology department of the University of Oklahoma, who recently accepted a position at a big salary to do field work in Mexico. After spending a month enduring the dangers and privations of the Mexican interior, Mr. McCoy resigned his position with the London firm to accept a better one with Marland Oil Company of Ponca City, Okla. He declares that Mexico is no place for an American to live at present.

Military Fraternity Makes Fun

Scabbard and Blade, the honorary fraternity of commissioned officers in the University Cadet Corps, recently initiated the following new members: Capt. B. B. Moore, Lieut. G. C. Black, Merle and Earle Duffield, F. C. Hussey and W. E. Galligan. As pledges, these six men had a miserable time of it. They were required to guard the Columns and to perform many ludicrous "stunts" while on duty. One feature of the initiation was the cavalry charge by Lieutenant Galligan, who rode across the campus on a spirited and bucking broomstick.

May Work in Oklahoma Geology

Charles W. Honess, assistant in geology in the University, probably will accept the position of assistant field geologist recently offered him on the Oklahoma Geological Survey. Mr. Honess was a graduate fellow in geology in Columbia University in 1913-14 and has had experience in field work with the Wisconsin and Minnesota geological surveys.

Shakespeare Week Program Made

Shakespeare Week at the University, April 25 to 29, will be a week of many interesting lectures and exhibits, all illustrative and interpretative of the Shakespearean and Elizabethan era. An exhibit of Shakespeareana will be arranged in the faculty room of the new Library Building. Valuable volumes owned by Columbians and some lent by libraries elsewhere will be shown. While the books are on exhibit, informal explanatory lectures by Prof. A. H. R. Fairchild and other members of the English department will be given. The principal lectures of the week will be the following: "Shakespeare the Man," Professor Fairchild; Shakespeare and English History, Prof. N. M. Trenholme; "The Elizabethan Theatre," Prof. R. L. Ramsay. Prof. W. H. Pommer's chorus and the Columbia Choral Society will give "Cupid in Arcady" in the University Auditorium the night of April 29. This is a selection of Elizabethan songs set to music by Professor Pommer. About 150 persons will have parts.

History Students Favor Preparedness

Classes in American history under Prof. F. F. Stephens have gone on record as favoring preparedness for the United States. Preparedness was defined as an army of 250,000 trained soldiers, a fleet second only to that of Great Britain and an aerial force second to that of no nation. The results of the straw vote showed fifty-eight for preparedness and only seven against it.

Briggs Sells Interest in Paper

Frank P. Briggs, a graduate of the School of Journalism in 1915 and for the last six months half owner of the Fayette Democrat-Leader, has sold his interest to his partner, Wirt Mitchell. He was managing editor of the paper, a weekly. Mr. Briggs probably will become connected with some larger paper. He gives this desire as his reason for selling.

Sigma Delta Chi Meet Here

The April number of the Quill, a magazine devoted to the interests of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, has two illustrated stories telling of work in the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri and the plans of the Missouri chapter to entertain the national convention May 5 and 6. Delegates from thirty schools of journalism in the United States will attend the convention.

C. G. Wynn to Arkansas Paper

Chauncey G. Wynn, a former student in the School of Journalism, left Columbia recently for Fort Smith, Ark., where he is to be assistant advertising manager of the Fort Smith Times-Record. While in the University, Mr. Wynn was a member of the board of directors of the University Missourian and a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, a national advertising fraternity, and Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity.

Miss Parker Spends Busy Furlough

Miss Edith Parker, B.S. in Education, '08, who is here on a year's furlough from her position as teacher of home economics in the Margaret K. Long School for Girls at Tokio, Japan, returned recently from a three months' visit through the East and in Canada.

During the three months, Miss Parker attended lectures in home economics at Columbia University Teachers' College at New York City, Simmons College of Boston, Cornell University, Toronto University, the MacDonald Institute at Guelph, Ontario, Chicago University and the Bloomington (Ill.) State Normal College. She also inspected the equipment in the home economics departments of the various schools in preparation for equipping the new building now being completed at the school in Tokio. Miss Parker will return to Tokio next August.

J. W. Wilkinson to Louisiana U.

John W. Wilkinson, L.B., S.B., B.P., '93, editor of the Oklahoma Farmer, Topeka, Kan., has been selected to have charge of the Farm and Home Study Clubs of the Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College. W. R. Dodson, B.S. '90, is dean of the College of Agriculture and director of the experiment stations of Louisiana. These schools will cooperate in offering the advantages of the new clubs. Mr. Wilkinson has had a long experience in agricultural work and he is the author of several books on agricultural and domestic science subjects. Officials of the Louisiana school expect the new club work to be of great benefit to farmers in every part of the state.

O. E. Riley to Tokio Newspaper

Oscar E. Riley of St. Louis, a graduate of the School of Journalism, 1911, and the College of Arts and Science, 1912, has been appointed a member of the staff of the Japan Advertiser, Tokio, Japan, to succeed Prof. F. L. Martin, who will return to Columbia in September.

Riley has been with the Globe-Democrat in St. Louis most of the time since his graduation, and is now covering the real estate and financial news "run" for that paper. He writes the St. Louis notes for The Alumnus. He will sail from San Francisco June 10 on the Tenyo Maru, the same steamer that will take another School of Journalism man, Ralph H. Turner, to Tokio. Riley, Turner and Glenn Babb, A.B. '14, who is already in Japan, will compose a trio of Missouri graduates in editorial work on the Advertiser.

DEATHS

William Jayne, M.D.'49

Dr. William Jayne, a graduate in medicine of the University of Missouri in 1849, died at his home in Springfield, Ill., March 28. Doctor Jayne was 89 years old and had been prominent in Illinois for half a century. He was the first territorial governor of Dakota and was a personal friend of Lincoln.

William Harrison Brown, A.B.'83, A.M.'87

William Harrison Brown, who was a member of the law firm of McCune, Harding, Brown and Murphy, which was recently dissolved, died at his home, 435 West Thirty-Fifth Street, Kansas City, Mo., April 6. Mr. Brown had been ill a long time. In 1883, the A.B. degree was awarded him by the University and four years later he received his Master's. Mr. Brown was born in Kansas City, February 26, 1864.

WEDDINGS

Miss Marguerite Jackson, A.B.'14

O. J. Raiffeisen, B.S. in C.E.'10

Columbia friends have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Marguerite Jackson, A.B.'14 and O. J. Raiffeisen, B.S. in C.E.'10, March 18, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. A. Dohrer, in St. Joseph. Among the former Missouri students who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duval Smith, Miss Margaret Biggerstaff, Miss Elizabeth Kiskaddon and Mrs. William Hanny of St. Joseph, Miss Eleanor Asdale of Sedalia, Mo., Miss Mabel Hurst of Tipton, Mo., Miss Lummie Lynch of Lockwood, Mo., and Vernon Nash of Maryville, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Raiffeisen will make their home in Tulsa, Okla.

Miss Fannie Murray

Francis Stewart, A.B., B.S. in J.'11

The marriage of Francis Stewart of Muskogee, Okla., and Miss Fannie Murray of Kansas City, Mo., took place at the home of the bride April 10. Mr. Stewart studied law at the University and was graduated from the College of Arts and Science and the School of Journalism in 1911. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Phi. He is now practicing law in Muskogee.

Miss Jean Cox

Ray Bond, LL.B.'07

The marriage of Ray Bond, LL.B.'07, and Miss Jean Cox, both of Joplin, Mo., took place February 4. Mr. Bond was twice city attorney of Joplin and is now assistant prosecuting attorney of Jasper County. He will make the race on the Democratic ticket for prosecuting attorney. Mrs. Bond is a graduate of Kirksville Normal and is a sister to H. Charles Cox, B.S. in Ag.'13. The couple will reside in Joplin.

Miss Jean Noe McGregor

John Jewell

John Jewell, former student in the School of Journalism and business manager of the University Missourian, married Miss Jean Noe McGregor of Springfield April 12. Mr. Jewell is associated with his father in the publication of the Springfield Leader. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jewell left for Kansas City, whence they departed for an eight weeks' trip to Chicago, New York and by boat to New Orleans.

While in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell will attend the Annual Publishers' Convention and the Associated Press dinner. They will return to Springfield about June 1.

BIRTHS

A son, Charles, Jr., was born March 21 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins of 3103 Eads Avenue, St. Louis. Mr. Collins, who was graduated from the University with an A.B. degree in 1903, is a teacher in the Soldan High School. Mrs. Collins, formerly Miss Madeline Branham of Columbia, received an A.B. from the University in 1905 and a B.S. in Ed. in 1906.

A daughter, Alice Barbara, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Jones of Columbia, March 2. The little girl is a birthday gift to her brother Robert W., Jr., who is 4 years old. Mr. Jones, who writes the athletic news for The Alumnus, is news editor of the Columbia Tribune. He received the A.B. degree from the University in 1906 and the LL.B. in 1913.

A son, Oswald Aaron, Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Herzog, April 2. Mr. Herzog, who received a C.E. from the University in 1912, has been levee inspector at Memphis, Tenn.

A son, David Earle, Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. White of Norborne, Mo., January 22. Mr. White, who is now engaged in farming, received a B.S. in C.E. degree from the University in 1910. He writes that he wants "D. E. Jr., to read The Alumnus and get familiar with the Columns."

A daughter, Mary Rodes, was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leaphart of Missoula, Mont., March

5. Mr. Leaphart, A.B.'05, A.M.'06, is professor of law at the University of Montana. Mrs. Leaphart was formerly Miss Mary Rodes of Lexington, Ky.

A son, John Edwin, was born to Dr. and Mrs. Clyde P. Dyer of St. Louis February 17. Doctor Dyer received an A.B. degree from the University in 1909 at the same time completing the first two years of his medical course. He finished at Washington University in 1911. After two years as interne in the city hospital of St. Louis, Mr. Dyer entered medical practice in St. Louis and has continued that work. His office is in the Century Building.

ENGAGEMENTS

Miss Pearl Cover

Bennett J. Lay, B.S. in Ag.'12

The engagement of Bennett J. Lay and Miss Pearl Cover of Detroit, Mich., was announced March 25, at a party given in honor of Miss Cover by one of her friends. Mr. Lay is a graduate of the College of Agriculture in 1912 and is now in charge of the landscape gardening of the Chalmers Motor Company of Detroit. Miss Cover is in charge of the statistical department of the Michigan Drug Company. The wedding is expected to take place in November in Detroit where the couple will make their home.

Miss Helen Wray

Frank R. Eversole

Announcement has been made of the coming wedding, April 25, of Frank R. Eversole, who attended the University in 1909, and Miss Helen Wray of St. Louis. The ceremony will be performed at the Church of Ascension, St. Louis. Miss Ruth Wray, sister of Miss Helen Wray, will be maid of honor, and Miss Ruth Eversole, sister of the bridegroom, and former teacher in Columbia High School, a graduate of the University, will be bridesmaid. Henry Eversole, brother of the bridegroom and also a graduate of the University, will be best man. The couple will live at 814 Hamilton Avenue, St. Louis.

Miss Shirley Ruth Moore, A. B.'14

Harry A. Martin

The Alumnus has received an announcement of the engagement of Miss Shirley Ruth Moore of St. Louis and Harry A. Martin of Columbia. Miss Moore formerly lived in Columbia. She received the degree of A.B. from the University in 1914 and is now living at Forest City, Ark. The wedding will take place in early June.

FROM PEOPLE YOU KNOW

"Am passing time down here teaching in the high school and explaining to the coming generation how much more they will amount to if they attend M. U. than if they should enroll with the Sooner bunch at Norman.

"The basketball and track boys have my everlasting gratitude, for life was almost unbearable here after the defeat Oklahoma handed us in football until the score was evened up at Columbia and Kansas City.

"Will be back to see Missouri win the Missouri Valley Conference Meet."—George T. Murphy, A.B. '15, Beaver, Okla.

"Just recently there was formed an engineers' club at St. Joseph with Carl Hoff, B.S. in C.E. '06, as president. The majority of the club are graduates or past engineers of Missouri.

"Yours for a larger and better 'Old Missouri.'"—R. E. Riddle, B.S. in C.E. '08, St. Joseph Structural Steel Co., St. Joseph, Mo.

"Tho not belonging to the 'millions for defense' class, I must do 'my bit' to prevent the 'war' which threatens you. Oh, no, we do not want war! We had several skirmishes before we caught the 'Villa' who cashed the check which I supposed had gone to you until I received voucher from the bank showing it had been cashed here.

"I find St. Paul a very pleasant place in which to live, but I often look out on the 'Father of Waters' which I can see from my office and wish that I might glide with its current down to Old Missouri.

"I read The Alumnus eagerly and would not be without it. Until the March number arrived I knew only two other M. U. graduates here (Miss Ecel Hays and Frank Capp) so I get St. Paul news from The Alumnus."—Hubert M. Harvey, A.B., LL.B. '09, legal editor, West Publishing Co., St. Paul, Minn.

"By the way, will you please change my address from 1701 Hinkson Avenue, Columbia, Mo., to care Interstate Commerce Commission, Interstate Building, Thirteenth and Locust streets, Kansas City."—Edwin R. Fleming, A.B. '06.

"I am very much pleased with The Alumnus this year."—Walter B. Roberts, A.B. '14, Fort Hays Kansas Normal School, Hays City, Kans.

"My temporary address is Lovington, Ill., and my permanent address, or home, is Salem, Mo. At present I am engaged as teacher in the Lovington Township High School, and coach of athletics."—W. B. Heller, B.S. in Ag. '14.

"In the recent issue of The Alumnus I note an article to the effect that I am going to Arkansas. This is not correct. I did have some negotiations to that effect and a misguided local newspaper editor published a yarn on the strength of street rumor. This notice has been reprinted elsewhere until it was accepted as true.—Walter Stemmons, B.S. in J. '12, editor of publications, Oklahoma A. and M., Stillwater.

"The Alumnus is good."—T. T. Tucker, B.S. in Ag. '12, A.M. '14, Hallsville, Mo.

"Am glad to be able to keep in touch to some extent with the good old school."—M. L. Clint, M.D. '08, Meadville, Mo.

"Will you please change my address from Princeton, Mo., to the Office of Corn Investigations, Washington, D. C., where I have a position as scientific assistant."—Arthur A. Bryan, B.S. in Ag. '15.

"Tho I still have friends in the University, The Alumnus is my most regular source of information and is eagerly looked for each month.

"I have been teaching in Benton High School, St. Joseph, Mo., for three years, and we succeed in sending many of our graduates to Old Missouri. Emily Wyatt, 1913, and A. R. Troxell, 1915, are the other Missouri graduates in our school."—Miss Lulu May Winn, A.B., B.S. in Ed. '10, 604 North Eighth street, St. Joseph, Mo.

"I find The Alumnus a great companion each month, and a reminder of the happy days spent at Columbia.

"In my capacity as instructor, I quite often have occasion to send students to Old Missouri."—Louis A. Bell, B.S. in Ed. '09, A.M. '14, 3216a S. Dakota Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

"I am very much interested in all phases of your news, but the personal notes are news that cannot be obtained through any other channel and I welcome them especially. I have two real, genuine Bengal "Tiger" cubs. Their sire was a Tiger '96. Their parents weigh 460 pounds. The cubs are 5 and 8 and weigh sixty and seventy-five pounds respectively. I want to file application for positions for each of them on four football teams. I am still in the game myself. I have been coaching for the last three seasons in the Gardena Agricultural High School, one of the Los Angeles schools."—J. H. Norton, B.Agr. '97, B.S. '99, M.S. '07, Gardena, Cal.

"I'm sure glad to get The Alumnus, and I find it very interesting from the front cover to the rear coach of the Wabash, advertisements and all."—R. E. Dudley, B.S. in M.E. 1910, 27 Clarion Street, Johnstown, Pa.

"The Alumnus means more to me every year, and I hope it will continue to do so in years to come. Let every alumnus help to keep the good work going."—Miss Chlo Fink, A.B., B.S. in Ed. '11, 727 Park Avenue, Sikeston, Mo.

"I am always glad to get the paper and hear the news from the University."—Hugh Mossman, LL.B. '08, Vinton, Iowa.

"For some time I have been intending to write to The Alumnus to express my appreciation of the magazine and also to tell where I am and what I have been doing.

"The first semester of this year I was in the University taking graduate work in mathematics and now I am one of two mathematics teachers in the Kirkwood, Mo., High School.

I enjoy The Alumnus more than any other publication I get and can scarcely wait for classes to dismiss before I read it from cover to cover."—Lulu Turner, B.S. in Ed. '12, A.B. '13 529 North Clay Avenue, Kirkwood, Mo.

"The magazine I could not get along without. It is my only means of hearing from the old students."—Mrs. Laura D. Jesse, A.B. '02, St. Michaels, Md.

"It is with great pleasure that I sit down in the evening after supper and read that book—advertisements and all.

"I am at present on a roadway valuation party of the Interstate Commerce Commission making a physical valuation of the Santa Fe Railroad. I very often run across Missouri alumni."—Jas. J. Gallagher, B.S. in C.E. '14, care of Interstate Commerce Commission, Interstate Building, Kansas City, Mo.

"Please change my address from 1716 Fisher Building, Chicago, Ill., to care of Maloney Electric Company, St. Louis, Mo.

"It may interest my friends to know that I am being promoted from the position of manager of the Chicago office to general sales manager of the Maloney Electric Company, a million dollar corporation engaged in the manufacture of transformers at St. Louis, Mo."—L. H. Keller, B.S. in E.E. '13.

"I am working for the Boyle Robertson Construction Company of this city and am at present stationed here. Will you please change the address to 837 Twenty-second Street, Washington, D. C., so I may receive The Alumnus as soon as possible."—J. F. Brittingham, B.S. in C.E. '15.

"For the information of the Alumni Recorder I may say that I am at present with Du Pont de Nemours and Company as assistant quartermaster, Carney's Point, New Jersey, having come here from the Canal Zone on March 2."—H. F. Sedwick, A.B. '08.

"Just recently I noticed in the 'New Northwest,' a Missoula, Mont., publication, an article stating that Prof. Charles W. Leaphart had resigned his position as professor of law at the University of Montana to accept a similar position at Missouri, his alma mater. I am sure that Missouri has selected wisely. It was my good fortune to take a course in constitutional law under Mr. Leaphart at Montana during the summer of 1915; and, though I realize fully the limited worth of my endorsement, I want to say that he is one of the very best instructors with whom I have come into contact.

"While in Spokane last week, I met another Missouri alumnus, Prof. E. V. Ellington, B.S. in Ag. '10, who is now connected with the College of Agriculture of the University of Idaho, at Moscow.

"Wallace, Idaho, is the residence of one other Missouri alumnus besides myself, M. A. Corner, B.S., Pe.B. '89, a merchant here. L. D. Votaw, A.B. '10, is principal of the high school at Wardner-Kellogg, Idaho, eleven miles from here."—Elmer L. Breckner, A.B., B.S. in Ed. '13, Wallace, Idaho.

"You may be interested in knowing that R. F. Moss, B.S. in C.E. '04, has returned to his work in Tokio, Japan, after spending the winter visiting with his wife and son in the U. S. A. He is accompanied by his sister, Margaret Moss, a senior in the University, who will make a six months' visit there."—Miss Juliette Moss, B.S. in Ed. '09, A.B. '10, 310 West Seventh Street, Sedalla, Mo.

"Needless to say, the magazine—there is only one, the magazine—gets the right of way on arrival."—O. N. Edgar, B.S. in M.E. '11, 5949 Washington Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

"I am a farmer and that means that I don't have time to think and write about my Alma Mater as often as some fellows. But nevertheless I sure enjoy every copy of the paper. Hid away on this old farm of father's, I feel cut off from the rest of the world. But The Alumnus brings me back to days that have been."—B. M. Dehoney, ag.'10-11, '11-12, Hickman Mills, Mo.

"The Alumnus is a real letter from home once a month."—E. H. F. Hupe, ag.'10-11, Ballard Station, Seattle, Wash.

"The Alumnus is the only bond there has been for several years between Alma Mater and myself; the big Alumnus envelop with its treasure of news of the old and the new days at Missouri is opened as soon as I catch sight of it, I assure you."—George A. Underwood, A.B. '05, B.S. in Ed., A.M.'06, department of French language and literature, Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

"Another welcome issue of The Alumnus came yesterday reminding me that I still owe that two bucks. I'm not sure whether it is a case of procrastination of Old Bill Oversight or merely the result of a few extra steep places on this western trail of the lonesome dime. What I really ought to have done was to send in enough for next year's subscription, too.

"I am still plugging steadily on with this orchard. It is just beginning to bear now and things will soon be more prosperous with me."—H. C. Greene, B.S. in Ag. '05, Superintendent of the Mt. Adams Orchard Company, Husum, Wash.

"I look forward to the coming of The Alumnus, and read every line, including the advertisements, of each number."—J. H. Ward, B.S. in C.E. '13, principal of high school, Desloge, Mo.

"Mrs. Goodson and I always enjoy The Alumnus. With best wishes for its future success."—Walter C. Goodson, LL.B. '99, Macon, Mo.

"All in on three for The Alumnus."—Lee Smith, Eng. 1909-12, Maitland, Mo.

"How memory carries us back!
The Missouri Alumnus is calling,
She surely needs a few.
For fear she gets to rolling,
Will check her with a two."

—H. W. Houf, M.D. '08.
Bell Sanitarium, Arkadelphia, Ark.

"No one appreciates the magazine more than I. There are no Missourians in this part of Mississippi to chat with about Missouri, so The Alumnus is the only link with the Quad. This is my second year here. I am teaching German and History in the high school."—Miss Arlie Salmons, A.B. '11, B.S. in Ed. '12, Amory, Miss.

"I am always glad to get The Alumnus, and especially enjoy the items concerning M. U. friends that I know. I received my B.S. in Ed. in 1914. This is my second year of teaching domestic science in Nevada High School, with girls' gymnasium work after school hours. Our girl's basketball team made a fine record this season, winning seven out of seven games played."—Miss Helen Lee McGregor, B.S. in Ed. '14, Nevada, Mo.

"I appreciate the paper very much and would not have it stop for the sake of $2. We fellows that are now on the firing line have not much time to read but have time to read The Alumnus containing the news of the college and college men."—E. A. Ikenberry, B.S. in Ag. '11, county agent for Jackson county, Independence, Mo.

"The alumni directory, recently mailed to me, upon page 65 shows that Pryor C. Miller, Pe.B. '83, is dead. This is incorrect. He lives at Pine, Ariz., is very much alive, has ten kids and many cattle and the best horse in Gila county, valued at $3,500. I want this mistake corrected because it is a shame to list a 'live one' like old P. C. Miller as dead."—Norman Johnson, LL.B. '07, Globe, Ariz.

"The Missouri bunch gets together now and then. We had a little informal, unexpected meeting at the LaSalle Hotel Saturday night. Among those present were Morgan Bell (Arts, '07-'08, ('11-'13); Machir Dorsey (LL.B. '05); Earl C. Fuller (Arts, '10-'12); Max Miller, Linn

McBride (A.B. '11); and Victor Hornback (B.S. in Ag. '13).—F. A. Morgan, B.S. in Ag. '13, Picher Lead Company, Tacoma Building, Chicago, Ill.

"I had two years of 'war' while at M. U. and was 'in the trenches' as 'volunteer' at the Jamestown Exposition in '07 in company with such notables as Lieutenant Denslow, Sergeant Sedgwick, and about 300 other M. U. cadets. Since then I have sworn off on corned beef, pork and beans, and other military canned goods, and consequently I am not interested in 'war.' But I am very much interested in The Alumnus."—H. J. Wobus, B.S. in E.E. '08, E.E. '10, 1005 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo.

"After eight years' service with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh, I have left them and am conducting an Electric Research Laboratory in Wilmington, Del., in connection with the Wilmington and Philadelphia Traction Company and the American Railway Company. The work consists in originating new ideas on electrical apparatus and developing them for commercial purposes.

"I miss the good rousing alumni meetings we used to have at Pittsburgh, where the alumni association has some fifty-five members. As far as I know there are no other alumni in Wilmington. I would like to get in touch with the alumni association in Philadelphia, if there is any and if not then I would like to be listed with the New York alumni where I could attend the meetings occasionally."—J. Albert Reeves, B.S. in E.E. '07, 603 Market Street, Wilmington, Del.

"I received The Missouri Alumnus this morning, and it brought me back to the dear old campus with its magnificent elms and venerable columns. I am glad to be able to keep in touch with so many friends and acquaintances through the pages of our magazine.

NOTES OF THE CLASSES

Notes will be run each month, grouped by classes. These abbreviations are used: College of Arts and Science, ac.; School of Law, law; School of Engineering, eng.; School of Education, ed.; School of Medicine, m.; College of Agriculture, ag.; School of Journalism, j. Graduate degrees are set in capital letters.

'61

James A. Gordon, S.B., recently wrote the Alumni Office from Marshall, Mo., where he lives at 342 East North Street. Mr. Gordon is president of a bank at Marshall.

'68

W. H. Lynch, ac., A.M.'72, was recently at Seneca, Mo., where he visited the high school. Mr. Lynch is visitor for the Springfield Normal. Proof of his ability in this work is evidenced in the school's enrollment of 2,043 last year.

'77

J. G. Babb, ac., law., '81, A.M.'90, secretary of

"My graduate work in German and English at the University of Pennsylvania is delightful. I have had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Frank P. Graves, formerly of M. U., but now dean of the School of Education at 'Penn.' He is as popular here as he used to be at Missouri. So far as I know there are very few M. U. graduates studying at this university at present."—Armin L. Saeger, A.B. '13, B.S. in Ed. '12, A.M. '15, 122 South Thirty-third Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

"It has been so long since I saw any one from the old Alma Mater that I have nothing to say, except that I am unable to know the reason why more graduates do not come to the Great Panhandle of Texas. There are wonderful opportunities here for any that want to come. Our eyes may be blown full of sand while in the midst of a shower at times, but we get used to that, and there are many things to off-set the undesirable features.

"The firm of Hill & Clark was dissolved on the first of March, and from that time on each of us will be taking cases against each other. (If we can get them.) J. B. Clark took the degrees of A.B. and LL.B. in 1914."—Herman B. Hill, A.B. '10, LL.B. '12, Shamrock, Tex.

Spring Basketball Practice Now

The efforts of C. L. Brewer to produce a championship basketball team do not cease with the end of the season and the approach of warm weather. Under the direction of Fred Williams, captain-elect of next year's team, a spring basketball squad has been organized. Shirley and Campbell, the remaining members of last season's team, will assist Williams.

"This is the first time we have attempted spring basketball practice," said Director Brewer, "but the more training the men receive now, the better prepared they will be for the winter schedule. This squad is open to anyone."

the University, proved himself the champion speller of Columbia recently at a match at Stephens College. The spelling match was open to all comers. Volley after volley from the old blue-back spelling book mowed down the ranks until only Mr. Babb was left.

'80

Hiram Phillips, T.E., C.E.'91, recently addressed the Engineer's Club of St. Louis on "The Collection, Removal and Disposal of City Waste." Mr. Phillips was formerly assistant professor of engineering in the University. He is now a consulting sanitary and hydraulic engineer in St. Louis. He lives at 6248 Waterman and his offices are at 716-21 International Life Building.

'82

George C. Husmann, ag., M.Ag.'85, still lives at 1308 Q Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., according to a recent letter. Mr. Husmann is pomologist in charge of Viticultural Investigations, United States Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Husmann, Pe.P.'89, was formerly Miss Nellie Dorsett.

'84

It is the belief among politicians of Jefferson City that N. T. Gentry, ac., of Columbia, will be nominated by the Republicans for Congress from the Eighth District. Mr. Gentry made the race once before against Congressman Dorsey W. Shackelford. Mr. Gentry was non-committal on the subject when seen. He also has the degrees of Sur.'86 and LL.B.'88 from the University.

'86

Prof. L. M. Defoe, Pe.P., of the mechanical engineering department of the University, was recently reelected president of the Columbia Commercial Club by a unanimous vote. With the leadership of Professor Defoe, the Commercial club has achieved some conspicuous work. The raising of the $20,000 bonus which assures the $100,000 Daniel Boone Tavern for Columbia was largely due to the campaign of the club.

'88

W. G. Haydon, law, after a recent visit to his brother, Forest Haydon of Columbia, returned to his home at Las Vegas, N. M. Mr. Haydon was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. He was away from New Mexico visiting about three weeks.

'93

W. F. Randolph, law, is in the law department of the Missouri Pacific Railway, with office in the Central National Bank Building, St. Louis. Mr. Randolph gives his home address as 5722 Vernon Avenue.

'96

Mrs L. L. Burkhead, B.L., formerly Miss Anne D. Hinde, tells of the Villa raid on Columbus, N. M., in a recent letter to her mother, who lives at Mexico, Mo. Mrs. Burkhead is the wife of the postmaster at Columbus. She and her husband escaped the raiders by running about three miles down the railroad track and boarding a freight train which backed away from town. After all was over, they returned to Columbus to find that their nearest neighbor had been killed.

'99

J. W. Major, ac., A.M.'06, indicates by a recent letter that he is still superintendent of the St. Louis Industrial School, Osage and Virginia avenues.

'01

Charles L. Henson, law, is a candidate for circuit judge of the Twenty-fourth Circuit of Missouri, subject to the Democratic primary, August 1. Mr. Henson is an attorney at Mount Vernon, Mo.

'02

L. H. Frey, law, is credit man for the Third National Bank of St. Louis. Mr. Frey's home address is 4132 McPherson Avenue.

R. H. Jesse, Jr., ac., head of the chemistry department of the University of Montana, Missoula, has just finished a manual of laboratory exercises in general chemistry. Professor Jesse is the son of Dr. R. H. Jesse of Columbia, former president of the University.

'04

B. C. Brous, ac., ed.'08, A.M.'12, indicates that he is still at Central High School, St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. Brous is assistant principal and director of physical education.

Judge M. A. Romjue, law, of Macon County, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the First District of Missouri.

'05

C. G. Ross, ac., associate professor in the School of Journalism, was the guest of honor at the first annual banquet of the Quills, honorary pre-journalist society, April 17. Mr. Ross will leave Columbia at the end of the school year for Melbourne, Australia, to spend his year's leave of absence in newspaper work.

'07

W. E. Price, eng., who is associated with the A. O. Campbell Company, general contractors, has changed from the Little Rock office of the company to its Oklahoma City office.

A. R. Hardy, eng., who is now an architect in the firm of Greenbaum and Hardy, 214-16

ALUMNI ROOM

ALL GRADUATES
AND
FORMER STUDENTS
WELCOME

This is the sign over the door of the New Alumni Room, 114 Academic Hall—your room—meet your classmates and friends there at

Commencement

MAY 28—JUNE 3

Scarritt Building, Kansas City, Mo., wants more "notes" of members of the class of '07. Doubtless other members of the class have a similar desire. The Alumnus has no ill feeling against '07. Speak up, mates, and your voices shall be heard.

C. A. Briggs, eng., A.M.'10, is assistant physicist in the Bureau of Standards of the United States Department of Commerce. Mr. Briggs was elected corresponding secretary of the M. U. Alumni Association of Washington, D. C., at its recent organization. His report of the meeting may be found elsewhere in this issue of The Alumnus.

W. R. Benson, Jr., eng., is farming at Duncan's Bridge, Mo.

'08

Mrs. Lydia Woodson, ac., ed., formerly Miss Lydia Stickerod, gives her address as Dr. C. R. Woodson's Sanitarium, St. Joseph, Mo.

'09

E. C. Brown, eng., writes to have his address changed on alumni records from Albay, Albay Province, Philippine Islands, to Clifton Hill, Mo. Mr. Brown has been in civil engineering work in the Philippines. He does not say in what work he is engaged at Clifton Hill.

S. N. Erwin, ac., law, '11, formerly of Houston, Mo., is now superintendent of Hamilton Special School District, Hamilton, N. D.

Paul Bayliss, eng., assistant engineer with the Public Service Commission of Missouri, writes that his address has been changed from 514 Main Street, Jefferson City, and he may now be reached by addressing, Public Service Commission.

George H. Simpson, law, who is now engaged in the practice of his profession at Wahoo, Neb., warns us "on no account neglect to send the next number of The Alumnus to me on time."

'10

Miss Mary Gentry Paxton, j., is a student in the University of Chicago. Her address is 62 Foster Hall, University of Chicago.

'11

T. C. Van Cleve, ac., A.M.'12, is now teaching in the department of history of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me. Mr. Van Cleve was connected with the department of history at M. U. after graduation and later became instructor of history at the University of Wisconsin.

Clyde Busby, ac., is superintendent of public

THE OFFICIAL

Missouri Alumni Pin

The Column Pin made up with your class date on the base. The official Missouri Alumni Pin. Either in brooch or scarf $2.00. For Charms $2.25.

You have wanted one. You need one, so send your order today to

The Missouri Store Co.

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI

(Money refunded if you are not satisfied.)

We Specialize In

Flowers

For All Occasions

Koeppen's

COLUMBIA, MO.

1005 Broadway.

Phone 70.

ALUMNI REMEMBER

my tailoring work. This is proved by the great number of out-of-town orders I receive for spring suits.

If I haven't your measurements, mail them with a request for samples.

When in Columbia send your pressing to

Chris. O. Ehinger

"Where clothes are really tailored"

1011 Broadway.

Columbia, Mo.

Central Bank

G. B. Dorsey, U. of M. 1869-70, President
W. E. Farley, U. of M. 1882-83, V.-President
Ira T. G. Stone, U. of M., A.B.'03, Cashier
J. W. Sapp, U. of M. 1880-81, Asst. Cashier

With every facility for handling your general banking and collection business.

Columbia, Missouri

These Advertisers Are Helping Your Magazine. Reciprocate.

Little Visits to the Home of Barth

Wherein the Writer Finds Some Trade-Building Policies in Use

By a Grad

—I heard that Mr. Barth is now president of the Missouri Retail Clothiers' Association. I determined to find for what this organization stands.

—Upon my next visit to Columbia I went to the Barth store and, after receiving a cordial welcome, I asked Mr. Barth what benefits he secures through membership in the Missouri Retail Clothiers' Association.

—"It teaches us how better to serve our trade," he said. "Satisfaction to our customers means greater business for us.

—"All stores that are members of this association can be relied upon for four things: They will always give their customers adequate service; they will always demand courtesy from their clerks; they will carry clothes of quality; their prices will be fair.

—"Upon these principles," concluded Mr. Barth, "I have built this business and have caused this store to be known as 'Quality Corner.'"

—I congratulated Mr. Barth upon his election to the presidency of the association.

Victor Barth Clothing Co.
THE BIG CLOTHIERS

You'll like to trade at Barth's schools at Canton, Mo. He formerly held a similar position at Quitman, Mo.

G. C. Haas, ac., shows by his letterhead that he is still editor and owner of the Worth County Times published at Grant City, Mo.

Miss Elizabeth Hinote, ac., whose address is given as Gentry, Mo., in the Alumni Directory, writes that she is now at 624 West Street, Stillwater, Okla.

R. G. Houston, eng., wrote recently from Rathdrum, Idaho. He asked that he be addressed, Interstate Commerce Commission, 731 Wells Fargo Building, San Francisco.

'12

Stanley Stokes, E.E., is an electrical engineer with the Electrical Company of Missouri, Webster Groves. Mr. Stokes lives at 934 Goodfellow Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Arretta Watts, ac., ed., formerly of Elsberry, Mo., is teaching English in the high school at Redlands, Cal. Miss Watts has a class in journalism which supplies news for a page in the Redlands Review, a local daily paper. A staff of editors and reporters is made up of the members of the class. Before going to California, Miss Watts taught at Hannibal, Mo., and one of her classes there put out a small periodical.

The April number of the Review of Reviews has an article by H. K. Tong, ac., upon "American Money and Japanese Brains in China." Mr. Tong is now editor of the Peking Daily News, Peking, China.

Miss Era S. Darnall, ac., is teaching English and Latin at Edgerton, Mo. Last year Miss Darnall taught at Meriam, Kan. She has given the Alumni Office her Kansas City address, 2632 Olive Street, for use in mailing the magazine the rest of the publication year.

L. Vincent Davis, ag., may be reached by addressing Bureau of Soils, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

'13

H. B. Erkman, ac., is at Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky, Louisville, according to a recent letter from him.

Francis I. Kemp, eng., is connected with the Omaha office of the Henry R. Worthington Pump Company of Kansas City. The Alumni Office has been able to put Mr. Kemp in touch with his M. U. roommate, J. H. Patrick, who is living at 1736 G Street, Washington, D. C.

24 Gilt Chair Mfrs. & 19220 Plumbers in the U. S

Exact count on any other class of names required, and other valuable information, together with our remarkably low prices for preparing accurate lists, shown in new catalog, sent free upon request. Ask for it now!

Ross-Gould, N. 9th Street, St. Louis.

Ross-Gould
Mailing
Lists St. Louis

Gifts—

For those friends who are quitting "Old Mizzou" this year, you will want some nice gift you can give to show your appreciation of their efforts and to remind them of your friendship when they get out in this "World of Care."

We have the choicest, best and most suitable gifts to be found anywhere, from the lowest price to the highest. See us before buying. We can help you.

Goetz & Lindsey

Reliable Jewelers
COLUMBI, MISSOURI

J. J. Donnohue, eng., formerly of Appleton City, is now power dispatcher for the Utah Power and Light Company of Salt Lake City. Mr. Donnohue gives his address as 133 South West Temple Street.

'14

John W. Creasey, eng., is still living at 2517 Forest Avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

F. W. Anderson, E.E., has changed address from 5143 West Twenty-Fourth Place, to 2318 South Fiftieth Avenue, Cicero, Ill.

Miss Hulda Z. Rollman, ac., ed., 3446 Shendoah Avenue, St. Louis, was in Columbia recently spending the week-end at the Alpha Phi House. Miss Rollman is teaching domestic science and manual training.

C. E. Allred, grad. 1913-14, is now connected with the division of extension of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Mr. Allred was formerly at Minneapolis.

R. F. Tickle, eng., has given up his work in Kansas City and gone to St. Louis, where he is connected with the Berger Manufacturing Company, makers of sheet metal products.

James J. Gallagher, eng., is now with the railway valuation party of the Interstate Commerce Commission which is making a physical valuation of the Santa Fe Railroad. Mr. Gallagher is connected with the office of the commission at Kansas City.

C. R. Magee, ag., A.M.'15, now connected with the department of agriculture at Missouri Wesleyan College, returned to Cameron after a few days' visit to Columbia recently.

W. H. Howell, ag., of Athens, Ga., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Howell, in Columbia recently. Mr. Howell now has a position with the extension department of the agricultural college at Athens. He is also science assistant of the United States Department of Agriculture in Georgia.

Ladies Shampoo Parlor

809a Broadway Phone 779 Green

J. E. BARNETT
Columbia, Missouri

General Book and Job Printers

HERALD-STATESMAN

Publishing Company

Columbia, Missouri

Where Students Go

This is the store with the spirit and atmosphere that draws college men. Everything worn by the well-dressed man (except his shoes.)

S
Sand B Clo. Co.
SYKES & BROADHEAD

Columbia, Missouri

These Advertisers Are Helping Your Magazine. Reciprocate.

No. KJ10. Price $1.00
Keen Kutter
Junior Safety Razor
with extra package
of blades.

No. K1. Price $3.50
Keen Kutter
Regular Safety Razor, silver-plated, with extra package of blades.

That's Quick Shaving All Right

—and you'll say the same thing after you've used a Keen Kutter Safety Razor for the first time. You'll find it will meet your face squarely and at such an angle that shaving will be second nature to you. Keen Kutter Safety Razors are set to the correct cutting angle. They shave close, clean, and in jig time with the diagonal sliding stroke. These Keen Kutter Safety Razors are chock-full of the quality that marks all pieces bearing the name

KEEN KUTTER

The blades are made from the best Swedish steel, tempered to hold their fine edge—and they do. The toughest and most wiry beard yields quickly to the light Keen Kutter stroke. Every Keen Kutter Safety Razor must do all claimed for it. If it doesn't give perfect satisfaction, we are authorized to give back the price. Come in and take a look at the Junior that costs $1.00; if you want a silver-plated, long-handled Keen Kutter Safety Razor, the Regular, at $3.50, is just the one to buy. Ask us to show them to you.

"The Recollection of Quality Remains Long After the Price is Forgotten."

Trade Mark Registered.

—E. C. SIMMONS.

NEWMAN HDWE. & STOVE CO.
904 Broadway

KNIGHT & ROSSE, DRUG SHOP

These Advertisers Are Helping Your Magazine. Reciprocate.

Miss Fannie Marie Schute, j., is a student in Northwestern University. Her home address is 205 Hamilton Street, Evanston, Ill.

R. M. Graham, ag., is an assistant in veterinary medicine and is doing graduate work at Missouri.

C. E. Carter, ag., is teacher of science on the faculty of the Liberty High School, Liberty, Mo. George H. Beasley, Pe.P.'87, B.S., P.B.'94, is superintendent there.

A. C. Baltzer, ag., is manager of the Edge Park farms at Union, Mo. Dairy cattle and Poland-China hogs are the chief products.

J. L. Gartner, ac., who has been at Tulsa, Okla., in geology work, is now a student in the Graduate School of the University. Mr. Gartner's home is in Kansas City, Mo.

Miss F. G. Love, ac., was here on a visit to Miss Nettie Woods and to her brother, Arthur Love, a freshman in the College of Agriculture, recently. Miss Love is teaching at Centralia.

Former Students

Miss Frances Haire, who is now instructor in physical training at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, recently visited at the Delta Gamma House. Miss Haire attended a meeting of the junior college athletics instructors at Centralia.

Archie B. Klein, a quarterback on last season's football team, made a four days' visit in Columbia recently. Mr. Klein is employed by the G. H. Walker Brokerage Company in St. Louis.

Loren J. Meade recently came from Ithaca, N. Y., for a visit at the Pi Kappa Alpha House. He left Columbia for Shanghai, China, to accept a position with the Standard Oil Company.

Joseph C. Moore, of Charleston, Mo., visited his brother, Ben B. Moore, at the Phi Delta Theta House recently. Mr. Moore is now manager of a farm of several hundred acres in Mississippi County.

Cyrus N. Johns, a former student in the School of Engineering, was in Columbia recently visiting friends. He expected to go to Pittsburgh, Pa., to inspect steel wire plants. Mr. Johns will resume his work in the University next September.

Rex Magee, a former student in the School of Journalism and editor of the 1914 Savitar, was in Columbia for a recent visit. Mr. Magee is doing trade investigation work for the Merchants' Trade Journal of Des Moines, Ia.

The Columbia Telephone Company

Has Long Distance Copper Lines to All Points. Try Them by Talking to the Folks.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO, Boulder, Colo.
Thirteenth Summer Session, June 26th to August 5th, 1916

In the foothills of the Rockies. Ideal conditions for summer study and recreation. Courses in thirty departments, including Medicine, Ophthalmology and Engineering. Able Faculty, Eminent lecturers. Attractive courses for teachers. Tuition low. Living expenses reasonable. Catalog on application to Registrar.

The Column Pin

comes in only one official size and is sold by the CO-OP. This pin was officially accepted and years of usage has standardized its size.

Wear the mark of a Missouri graduate and be sure you have the official size.

CO-OP

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI

The Marquette

St. Louis, Missouri

A refined hotel for your mother, wife and sister.
Rates $1.50 to $3.50

T. H. GLANCY
President

COME OUT WEST WHERE IT PAYS TO TEACH!

WE DO NOT TELL YOU TO "GO AFTER" RUMORED VACANCIES.

WE SEND EMPLOYER BOUND REPORTS SHOWING YOUR PREPARATION, PERSONALITY, EXPERIENCE.

IT COSTS US MONEY, BUT PLACES YOU.

SEND FOR BOOKLET

A PLACING AGENCY FOR TEACHERS

THE WAY IT WORKS

BUSINESS MEN'S CLEARING HOUSE

DENVER, COLORADO

These Advertisers Are Helping Your Magazine. Reciprocate.

Service that serves!

When you board the Katy Flyer or the Katy Limited for Oklahoma or Texas, you know that you are going right through to your destination in a Katy train and on Katy tracks, for it's

"Katy all the way"

These four words assure you of a quick and comfortable trip.

The Katy Limited The Katy Flyer

are limited trains of unlimited comforts with chair cars, sleepers and dining cars that represent the best in railway equipment. They run on schedules that are fast and on tracks that are solid and smooth. For any travel information, write

W. S. St. George, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

In Columbia—Ask Mr. Wilson

It's Still Two-Dollar Time In Alumnus Town

Only two more numbers of The Alumnus—May and June—remain to publish. This is the seventh number of the year 1915-16.

There are yet many subscribers who owe for subscription and Alumni Association dues.

The Alumnus is YOUR OWN MAGAZINE. It is entirely your property, Alumnus readers. Its success is up to each of you. It depends on your support.

Won't you send check, money order, or currency NOW and thus assure a bigger, better year for The Alumnus and The Alumni Association.

The Missouri Alumnus
The Alumni Association
Columbia, Missouri

Foundation of Steel!

The luxurious limited trains of the Wabash are steel from headlight to rear coupling.

This picture shows the underframe of a Wabash steel car—notice the center piece; a solid, continuous backbone of steel—indestructibly strong. Enjoy a trip on one of the

WABASH

Steel trains to Chicago

Leave St. Louis at 12:05 noon and 9:17 p. m. (Delmar Station at 9:32 p. m.) Reach Chicago at 7:45 p. m., and 7:00 a. m. Other fine Wabash trains leave St. Louis at 9:01 a. m. (Delmar Ave. 9:15 a. m.) and 11:55 p. m. (No Stop train.)

TICKETS: 309 North Broadway and Union Station

J. D. McNamara, Passenger Traffic Manager, St. Louis