THE MISSOURI ALUMNUS

Home-coming

November
Twentieth

HOMEcoming is always an important day at the University, but November 20, 1926, will be the most important Homecoming that the University has seen and perhaps undoubtedly will rank among the most important that it will ever see, because on that date we are dedicating the Memorial Tower and the Memorial Stadium, the first great gift to the University coming from the alumni body and the students who expect to be alumni.

It is of special pleasure therefore to extend a word of welcome to the alumni who will be with us on that day.

Sheldon Brooks

THE INTERCOLLEGIATE ORGANIZATION

The Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement is the result of a year's effort on the part of a Committee, the members of which have long been identified with alumni work.

The funds to insure the success of the Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement are being advanced by the designated hotels, which have been selected after a careful study of their fitness for participation.

The committee on organization, the activities of which are controlled by a special group of the members of the Alumni Magazines Associated, has incorporated a non-profit corporation known as the Intercollegiate Alumni Extension Service, Inc., which will direct the policies of the Intercollegiate Alumni Hotel movement and serve as a coordinating unit between the alumni organizations and the designated hotels.

Portraits of Dr. Jones and DeFoe Will Be Presented to University Homecoming Day

Painted portraits of Dr. John Carleton Jones, President Emeritus of the University of Missouri, and Professor Emeritus of Latin, and Dr. Luther Marion DeFoe, professor of mechanics of engineering, will be presented to the University as permanent monuments to these two men, through the courtesy of QEBH, senior honorary society. The organization, through its members and alumni, furnished the funds for the painting of the portraits which will be placed in the memorial room of the Memorial Tower as a part of the dedication ceremonies of the Memorial Tower and Stadium, Nov. 20.

A handmade sheepskin, bearing the resolution of the QEBH Society regarding the portraits, will also be presented. The pictures and sheepskin will be given to the University at the mass meeting Friday evening, Rollins Field, Nov. 19. Federal Judge Merrill E. Otis of Kansas City, an alumnus of QEBH, will make the presentation, and the gifts will be accepted on behalf of the University by Mercer Arnold a member of the Board of Curators.

The resolution of QEBH, explaining the presentation of the portraits and sheepskin to the University, follows:

"Whereas, the presentation of the Memorial Tower and Stadium to the University of Missouri is one of the most historic occasions in the life of this institution, placing before the world two appropriate memorials to the sons of Missouri who lost their lives in the Great War,

"And whereas, the QEBH Society has at all times shown active interest and co-operation in the construction of these memorials,

"And whereas, credit and honor should be, in special measure, given to Dr. John Carleton Jones, who, throughout a long period of service, has endeared himself to the hearts of all Missourians, and sacrificed well-earned rest, after a half-century of service to his University for the building of these memorials,

"And whereas, Dr. Luther Marion DeFoe, by his active loyalty to Alma Mater, his splendid and kindly assistance in connection with the Tower and Stadium, and his unforgettable and inestimable contribution to the history of the University of Missouri, has won for himself the affection of every true Missourian,

"Therefore be it resolved:

"That on this, the twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty six, the QEBH Society create a permanent monument to these two men, and present to the University of Missouri portraits of Dr. Jones and Dr. DeFoe, to be hung forever in the Memorial room of the Memorial Tower."

Two prominent members of the art faculty of Washington University, St. Louis, were engaged by the QEBH Society to paint the portraits of Dr. Jones and Dr. DeFoe. The artists are Gustav Goetsch, who is painting the portrait of Dr. Jones in the archaeology room on the third floor of Jesse Hall, and Warren Ludwig, who is painting the portrait of Dr. DeFoe at the latter's home. The pictures are being made with the men attired in academic robes. Work on the portraits was started last Saturday and there will be four sittings each week. The two artists will come each week-end and have sittings Saturday morning and afternoon and Sunday morning and afternoon. While the portraits will not be completed by Nov. 20, they will be in presentable form.

The pictures will be thirty-two inches wide and forty inches in height. They will be presented in temporary frames Nov. 20, but before they are permanently placed in the Memorial room of the Tower they will be placed in handmade frames made by one of the leading frame makers in the United States. The cost of painting the portraits is approximately $2500, the entire amount being furnished by members of QEBH.

The project of furnishing portraits of the two men was planned about a month ago by the QEBH members, and the worthy purpose of the proposition has elicited much praise from members of the University faculty and alumni. The foresight of the society in carrying through such a project was especially lauded.

In presenting the portraits to the University, QEBH is aiding in completing the mammoth project of the Memorial Union which the society suggested as a monument to the Missouri students who died in the Great War. According to A. Ross Hill, former president of the University, a member of QEBH was the first to offer the suggestion for such a memorial.

This is the second memorial that QEBH has sponsored. The tablet in Jesse Hall in memory of the Missouri students who fell in the Spanish-American War was presented to the University by QEBH. Clyde Williams of Hillsboro, a member of the 1901 chapter of the society, and recently elected to Congress from the sixteenth Missouri district, presented the tablet.

The two men honored by the society in providing for the painting of their portraits have been vitally interested in the University since their first association with it. Dr. Jones first became connected with the school as an assistant professor, while Dr. DeFoe became associated as a student and received his degree from the University. Dr. DeFoe is an honorary member of QEBH, the only honorary member of the society since its induction.

The QEBH Society was founded in 1879 by Royal Hill Switzler of St. Louis, for whose grandfather, William F. Switzler, a University building was named. The members of the first class of the society were Royal Hill Switzler, now president and general manager of the St. Louis Refrigerator and Cold Storage Company; Dr. Clarence Martin Jackson, formerly dean of the School of Medicine of the University, and now professor of anatomy at the University of Minnesota; Galus Lawton Zwick, an attorney at St. Joseph; Gurry Ellsworth Huggins, now engaged in business in New York City; Antoine Edward Russell, an attorney at Spokane, Wash.; Thomas Benton Marbut, deceased; William Frank Wilson, an attorney at Oklahoma City, Okla.; Horace Beckley Williams, an attorney at Dallas, Tex.

The present members of the society are William Scannell, Glenn Milburn, Russell Thomas, Emmett Stuber, Norwood Benning, Millard Rushton, Don Swofford, Malloy McQueen, and Kent Farley. Irvin Fane and Russell Casteel are inactive members.

Dr. Jones came to the University of Missouri in 1883 as an assistant professor of Latin. He attended Westminster College at Fulton, Mo., and Johns Hopkins University, and also studied abroad. He now holds the degree of doctor of philosophy, and the honorary degree of doctor of laws received at Washington University and the University of Missouri. In 1891 he was elected professor of Latin and head of the Latin department, upon the death of Dr. M. M. Fisher, head of the department for nearly twenty years. He was elected the first dean of the College of Arts and Science in 1896, and in 1900 was made permanent dean of this division. He held that office until 1922 when he was made president of the University. In 1918 he was made vice-president of the University, and in 1921, upon the resignation of A. Ross Hill, Dr. Jones became acting president. He was made president in January, 1922, accepting the position on the condition that the Board of Curators would continue their search for a president and relieve him as soon as a suitable person was found. In July, 1923, Dr. Stratton D. Brooks succeeded him as president of the University. The Board of Curators gave Dr. Jones the title of President Emeritus and Professor Emeritus of Latin.

Late in the summer of 1923, the committee in charge of the building of the Memorial Union, asked Dr. Jones to take charge of the campaign which was not making great headway. He took the position under advisement and attempted to ascertain the feeling of alumni toward the movement. He finally accepted the position of director of the campaign upon the condition that he be allowed to serve without compensation.

After taking charge, he was impressed with the need for a new stadium, and after consulting the president of the University, the director of athletics, and prominent alumni in various parts of Missouri, he decided to add $300,000 to the goal of the campaign for the erection of one unit of a Memorial Stadium. The original campaign goal was $500,000, and the addition of $300,000 raised the amount to $800,000 for the Memorial Union and Stadium.

In the spring of 1925, Dr. Jones was able to announce to the Memorial committee that the subscription in the drive amounted to more than $800,000. At the same time, he advised the committee that it would be necessary to continue the campaign in order to secure $1,000,000, with which to provide adequately for the effective completion of the memorials. The subscription now amounts to more than $900,000, and subscriptions are steadily being received.

Dr. Jones resides during the summer at Riverview Orchards, his 100-acre apple farm on the Missouri River, southwest of Columbia. He usually spends the winter at Daytona Beach, Fla., and will leave for Florida following the Homecoming festivities, Nov. 20. He will return to Columbia about May 1, 1927. He is married and has three children. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi, Phi Beta Kappa, Rotary Club, Columbia Country Club.

Dr. DeFoe came to the University in 1881, enrolling as a student, receiving a degree in pedagogy. He attended the University and taught school for several years during the period of 1881 to 1891. He was an assistant professor of mathematics in the University during the year, 1891-92, and in the fall of 1892 he enrolled in Harvard University and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1893. He returned to Missouri in the fall of that year, and taught mathematics from that time until 1903, with the exception of the year, 1902-03, when he was given a leave of absence to study at Cambridge University, England. In 1903 he was made professor of mechanics in engineering and is serving in that capacity at the present time.

He was named chairman of the discipline committee in 1909, and served until a dean of men was appointed in the University. He earned the name of "Daddy" DeFoe, and by that title is known by most of the students and alumni. In 1906 he was appointed tutor or advisor to University students.

Dr. DeFoe is chairman of the local Rhodes Scholarship committee, being selected for the position in 1904 when the committee was first appointed. He has been a member of the committee in charge of the University Co-Op Store since its inauguration, and has been

Oklahoma Alumni Act as Hosts to Students and Football Team

Two hundred fifty former students and alumni of the University of Missouri, who attended a booster banquet in Oklahoma City Friday night, and who occupied the Missouri section of the Oklahoma University stadium Saturday afternoon, don't feel so bad about it.

For it was a game in a hundred, replete with thrills from start to finish, in which anything could happen at any time; a game in which the Tiger team showed stuff that would make any old grad throw out his chest with pride; and a game which had the Sooner rooters trembling in their boots from the first quarter to the crack of the final pistol.

The 250 men and women who gathered at the M shaped banquet table at the Oklahoma Club and who had as their guests the members of the team, the coaches, and the visiting students came from all over Oklahoma while a few came all of the way from Texas.

Mont Highley, 1895-99, member of the board of regents of the University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma City attorney, was toastmaster. Mont's wife wasn't there. Mont remembered lots about the old Rollins spring and Lovers' leap and other famous trysting places. Felix Duvall of Ponca City, L.L.B. '13, was there too. Felix' wife was with him. Felix couldn't seem to remember much about the historic spring.

Judge J. F. Sharp, former justice of the Oklahoma state supreme court, L.L.B. '89, made the speech of welcome. Brewer replied with talk about the Memorial Tower and Memorial Stadium, the West Virginia game, campus gossip and bits of information that former students and alumni always want to hear about the old school.

Brewer introduced Captain Bacchus of the team, who in turn introduced both team members and cross country men. Bob Campbell, student chairman of the homecoming committee, described the program for that event. Vance Julien, vice-president of the student council, boosted the Turkey day game too. Sara Ann Wheeler, secretary-treasurer of the student body, was introduced.

Alumni who were called upon for speeches or were introduced by Highley were: G. C. Dodson of Tulsa; G. H. Horner of Okmulgee, former state senator; Charles Schultz, city engineer of Tulsa, whose son is in attendance at the University of Missouri this year; A. P. Priestly of Kansas City, whose football reminiscences were of the days of K. P. Gilchrist and the times when the Thanksgiving games were played in Kansas City and when the fields were gory and the casualties frequent; Ted Hackney of Fort Worth, Texas, of the Tigers in the day of Bill Roper's rule as coach and member of the team in the historic 1909 game; S. E. Oldham of Kansas City; James B. Rogers '11 and '19, Oklahoma City.

Officers elected for the coming two years were: R. W. McClure, B.S. in Agr. '15, president; E. E. Barbee '13, vice-president, and Meredith Williams '19-'21, secretary-treasurer. All live in Oklahoma City.

H. A. Snodgrass '10-'12, retiring president of the association, was chairman of the banquet committee and largely was responsible for the unusual enthusiasm which featured the meeting. Bill Scannel, senior cheer leader and Larry Brill, junior cheer leader from the university, managed to persuade the alumni to limber up their vocal chords at the banquet and inspired a surprising volume of noise from the Missouri section at the game.

Mrs. Stratton D. Brooks, wife of the President of the University, was appointed as one of the members of the women's reception committee to entertain Mrs. Coolidge, when she visited Kansas City with the President for the Armistice Day dedication of the Liberty Memorial.

chairman of the Gregory Fund Committee for several years. He has also been a member of the committee of nine in charge of the Memorial campaign since the start of the project.

He was married in 1892 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Tau Beta Pi, Beta Theta Pi, and the Round Table Club. He is also the first and only honorary member of Q E B H.

New Grand Master of the Masons Grand Lodge of Missouri

Dr. John Pickard, Professor of Classical Archaeology and History of Art, was elected Grand Master of the Masons Grand Lodge of Missouri at its annual Convention in St. Louis on October 27. Other officers elected were: Deputy Grand Master, A. F. Ittner of St. Louis; senior grand warden, B. E. Bigger, A.B. '05, Hannibal; and S. R. Freet, LL.B. '09, junior grand warden.

President Stratton D. Brooks was one of the speakers at the dedication of the Masonic Temple.

Washington University at the 1925 Commencement recently conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Fine Arts upon Dr. John Pickard:

"John Pickard, student and graduate of distinguished American and European universities; investigator of the art and archaeology of the past that you might help to promote the art and architecture of the present. For a third of a century you have helped in the work of education as a professor of archaeology and the history of art at the University of Missouri. You have shown that your interests were in the present as well as in the past, by your leadership in worthy associations of your fellow citizens, and you have further served the state with distinction as chairman of the commission in charge of the decoration of our Capitol. In recognition and appreciation of these services to education and to the public, the Board of Directors of Washington University has voted to award to you the honorary degree of doctor of fine arts, which it is now my privilege to confer."

Dr. Pickard came to the University of Missouri in 1892. He was born in Pennacook, N. H., in 1853. He was educated in Dartmouth College and the Universities of Leipzig, Berlin and Munich. He studied in the American Schools in Rome and Athens. He received his A.B. Degree in 1883 and his A.M. in 1886 from Dartmouth College. His Ph.D. Degree he received from the University of Munich, in 1892.

From 1883 to 1885, Doctor Pickard was principal of Black River Academy at Ludlow, Vermont, and principal of the high school at Portsmouth, N. H., from 1885 to 1889. In 1889 he was married to Miss Jeannie A. Gerrish.

When Doctor Pickard first came to the University in 1892, he was assistant professor of Greek and professor of classical archaeology and history of art. In 1902, when his department of archaeology, and history of art became larger and more substantially established, he was appointed professor of classical archaeology and history of art, becoming head of a new department.

But his work in this department has not been his only activity in the 30 years since he has been here. He was president of the association which built the University Club Building on the corner of Ninth and Elm streets, now occupied by the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He was chairman of the committee which built the Y. M. C. A. Building. He was chairman of the committee which arranged the University exhibit for the Omaha and St. Louis expositions.

Professor of Art and Archaeology,
University of Missouri

Over 20 years ago, Doctor Pickard and several other men established the University Cooperative Store. He was chairman of the committee which established the Graduate School of the University, and for many years he was chairman of that department.

More recently, Doctor Pickard has been one of the most influential pro-builders. He was chairman of the motors of the campaign for a Memorial Union Building for the University. He was the one who made the motion in faculty meeting which inaugurated the movement. He is at present vice-chairman of the Memorial Committee of Nine.

Dr. Pickard has always liked to work with students. He is adviser from the University chapter of De Molay, a junior Masonic fraternity, and is largely responsible for a dormitory to be erected on the campus of the University for these boys.

He is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Alpha of New Hampshire, of the American Philological Association and of the Council of the Archaeological Institute of America. For five years, from 1914-1919, he held the office of president of the College of Art Association of America. He has also been president of the Missouri Society of the Archaeological Institute.

Besides his work in connection with the University, Dr. Pickard has been one of the most influential men in the Masonic organizations.

Dr. Pickard is president of the Capitol Decoration Commission, which has been actively engaged in the decoration of the new state capitol. This has been extremely important work for the planning of the decorations of the new building and the engaging of artists to do the work, has required much skill and judgment. The new capitol when completed will probably be one of the finest in existence.

Compliment Tower and Stadium.

Alfred H. Nolle, A. B., and B. S. in Ed. '11, Dean of Faculty, Southwest Texas State Teachers College, San Marcos, Texas, writes: "I rejoice to have been privileged to view the Memorial Tower and the Memorial Stadium on the eve of their completion. The Tower is indeed a thing of beauty. I think of both the Tower and the Stadium not only as memorials to those whom they are intended to honor, but also as a great tribute to Dr. Jones, personally. They symbolize the love and devotion that the many sons and daughters of old Missouri entertain for him, without whose great and contagious enthusiasm for the cause neither structure would today be ready for dedication."

George H. Combs Elected to Congress

George H. Combs, Jr., '17-'21, Attorney and Prosecuting Attorney, of Kansas City, was elected to Congress in the recent election. George is the baby member of Congress. He is 27 years old.

Lee Harry Tate Hall To Be Finished In March

Governor Sam A. Baker on October 22 released $61,566.61 to complete Lee Harry Tate Hall, the new law building on the campus. Work on the building was held up in September 1925, because the appropriation made by the state was not available to carry on the work. Work will probably be resumed about November 10, according to E. E. Brown, business manager of the University, and it is hoped to have it finished in March, 1927 and that the law division will be transferred next fall. The recent appropriation made by the legislature is a residue of the old appropriation of $75,000, and a new appropriation of $20,000 will be necessary to equip the building. These appropriations together with $75,000 extended by the donors will bring the cost of the equipped building to approximately $170,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Tate, 48 Van-Jeventer Place, St. Louis, gave $75,000 for this building in memory of their deceased son, Lee H. Tate, A.B. and L.L.B. '13, who was killed in an automobile accident in St. Louis on October 20, 1921, when he deliberately drove his machine into an approaching street car to avoid running down a woman pedestrian. This amount was given by the parents upon the condition that the state would appropriate a similar sum. Work was begun on the building and the amount donated by the parents expended.

The legislature appropriated $75,000 for the completion of the building, but the chief executive set aside the bill on the ground that the condition of the state funds then would not warrant expenditure of such a sum. Later, however, approximately $14,000 was released for use in construction of the building, but the remainder of the $75,000 was held up until now, four years after the plans for the Lee H. Tate Hall were laid, when Gov. Baker ordered the release of this appropriation among others amounting to $500,000.

The Lee H. Tate School of Law Building, when completed, will house the law library valued at $30,000 and donated to the university by Mrs. John D. Lawson of Columbia, widow of Judge Lawson, who for many years was a professor in the school of law.

An unexpected increase in the state income and inheritance tax collections this year, which is estimated by officials in the State Auditor's office to approximate $1,000,000, made the releases possible, it was said.

Officials in the State Treasury said that the state would finish the year in good financial shape.

Governor Baker also released $10,-

GOVERNOR SAM A. BAKER

000 for scientific laboratories, $40,000 for agricultural extension, and $2500 for outlying soils and crop experiment fields, making a total of $114,066.61 released by the Governor for the University.

A CORRECTION

Mrs. Laura Varner Clark, of Harrisburg, Tex., whose very interesting article was published in the October Alumnus, writes, "I make many mistakes and am surprised and very sorry I did not so express myself that my name would be correct in the article I wrote for The Alumnus. My name before I married was Laura Varner, instead of Clark, as I stated. I taught in Harrisonville, Cass County, Mo., but not in Harrisburg, Tex., a very natural mistake. Our pictures are very good, especially of my dear roommate, Miss Ware. When I saw her in 1913 she was very much grieved over a write-up from the University giving some one else as the first female graduate so I am glad to make this correction. Many there will remember her. Among them in the Alumnus I see the name of the Rollins boys. If I remember right three of them were students that year, Curt, Bingham and Frank, also a sister, Flora."

A. W. Douglas, member of the St. Louis Alumni Association, by adoption, and one of the staunch friends of the University, is living at 900 Spruce Street, St. Louis. He subscribes to the Alumnus and supports the University in many, many ways and has already made arrangements to attend the Homecoming game on November 20.

Miss Eva Johnston's Portrait to Be Presented to University

A portrait of Miss Eva Johnston, former dean of women of the University, will be presented to the University by Miss Louise Nardin, dean of women at the University of Wisconsin and former assistant dean to Miss Johnston here, at the alumni-faculty informal reception to be held at the Women's Gymnasium November 19, immediately after the Missouri-Kansas joint Glee Club concert in Jesse Hall. The portrait was painted by Warren Ludwig by donations from former students of Miss Johnston and other alumni. The other members of the portrait committee are as follows: Mrs. W. T. Nardin of St. Louis, formerly Mary Ellen Conway, '04; Mrs. Earl F. Nelson of St. Louis, formerly Edna Jones of '05; Mrs. J. C. Parrish, Vandalia, formerly Mary Alice Hanna '09; Mrs. George Nardin of Chicago, formerly Elizabeth Gatson '21, Miss Louise Nardin, B.S. in Ed. '07, A.M. '13, Ph.D. '14; Mrs. DR Scott of Columbia, formerly Carrie Lind Pan-coast '14, and Miss Gladys Wheat of Columbia.

The idea started at the national convention of the American Association of University Women in Chicago two years ago when money was being raised for the national headquarters at Washington, D.C. by dedicating pages to illustrious educators. Mrs. Parrish, Mrs. Nardin and Miss Nardin were at the convention and pledged a page, the amount of which was $200 to Miss Johnston. Later they gave Miss Johnston's friends a chance to contribute. As the idea grew it was suggested that a portrait of Miss Johnston be presented to the University. Then it was decided to present Miss Johnston with a four page parchment booklet at the same time the portrait was presented to the University. The first page of this booklet is the exact reproduction of the page dedicated to her of the founders of the A.A.U.W. in the National Headquarters at Washington, D.C. The other pages contain a history of the gifts and excerpts of letters sent in with some of the contributions.

Largest Crowd in History

to Attend 35th Annual

Classic of M. U. and K. U.

The thirty-fifth battle between Kansas and Missouri this year promises to attract the largest crowd of Missouri students, alumni and friends that has ever witnessed this contest.

Regardless of the season's record of the two teams they enter this game on even terms and spectators will see another such contest as has made this game the classic of the Middle West. Coach Gwinn Henry:

Just as last year, the Homecoming game with Kansas again looks like a toss-up to me. The tradition behind this game makes the two teams even. Only once in twenty years has the margin of victory been more than 14 points. We are preparing for a well-trained hard fighting band of Jay-hawkers and know that we will have to be at our best to win. Captain Carl Bacchus:

According to the season's record we ought to win, but that means little when Missouri plays Kansas. I know most of the boys on the Kansas team and have the feeling that since the Aggie game they have been holding back. With a lot to gain and little to lose they will be playing us with their best men in fine condition. I look for a hard battle, but feel certain we will win.

West Virginia Loses First Game of Season to Tigers

The Tigers defeated West Virginia at Morgantown, 27-0, in one of the greatest intersectional football games of the season or of all times. The Mountaineers had not lost a game this year and had lost but three games in the last five years, and has played some of the strongest teams in the country. It was not only a great day for the Tigers but a great day for the University, for it directed considerable publicity and prominence to the Mis-

Welcome Alumni and Former Students

We Want to See You Homecoming Day

We hope to have a large number of law alumni return Homecoming Day. We hold our annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Law School in the morning of the 20th, at 8:45 o'clock, at the law building. These meetings have been worth while and of benefit to the law school. The coming meeting will be an unusually happy event as we will have the opportunity to give expression to our pleasure because of the release by the Governor of the funds to complete Tate Hall.

Arrange your schedule to include the annual meeting of the law school alumni.

J. P. McBaine
Dean.

Welcome!

All of us in Jay H. Neff Hall greet with pleasure the returning Journalism students and alumni. We are pleased to have you with us again, even though briefly. We are glad to see you at any time but if you will come to Neff Hall at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 20th, you will find a specially organized welcome.

Walter Williams
Dean

Inasmuch as the School of Fine Arts has but a single graduate, who at the present time is studying in Harvard University, it will be impossible for the Dean to extend an enthusiastic welcome to the Alumni of this school as is being done by the Deans of the other divisions of the University.

The University has however for a long time, maintained a series of Glee Clubs, and as the chief representative of musical endeavor in the University at the present time, I wish to extend a most hearty welcome to all old Glee Club men wherever they may be, and urge them to come once more to the University for this most unusual event.

The University has at the present time one of the best Glee Clubs it has ever possessed with approximately one hundred and forty men singing. This club will appear at the dedication of the Memorial Tower on Saturday morning November 20, and on Friday night November 19, they will give a joint concert with the Glee Club of the University of Kansas in the University Auditorium. A special section of seats will be reserved for old Glee Club men, and it is hoped that they will bring their enthusiasm and their voices with them prepared to lift them in the songs of "Old Mizzou" of long ago.

James T. Quarles

TO THE ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS OF THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

November twenty will be one of the greatest days in the history of the University of Missouri. On that day our Memorial Tower, the beautiful and worthy monument to our Missouri heroes who gave their lives for the cause of freedom in the Great War and the Memorial Stadium will be dedicated. I wish every man and every woman who has ever been a graduate student in this University might be here to have a part in the dedication exercises and with the Tower dedicate himself and herself anew to the cause of higher education and the higher sacrifice of service and the knowledge of the Truth that shall make the world truly free.

Walter Miller

We shall have a hearty welcome for all alumni and former students of the College of Arts and Science. Let us make the meeting at 9 a.m. in Jesse Hall, on Homecoming Day, the best that we have had. Graduates of Arts and Science who also hold professional degrees are urged to take part in the meeting of the College of Arts and Science, as well as the meeting of their professional schools.

F. M. Tisdell
Dean.

Welcome Alumni and Former Students

We Want to See You Homecoming Day

A most cordial welcome is extended to all Alumni and Former Students of the College of Engineering who may find it possible to attend the 1926 Homecoming on November 20.

The attendance at the College this year shows a marked increase in numbers and the spirit is fine. Make your plans sufficiently elastic to give an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and to learn something of the present conditions in your old College.

Looking forward with pleasure to the opportunity of giving you a personal welcome, I remain

Sincerely yours,

E. T. McCaustland

Dean.

A large number of former students and alumni of the School of Medicine have indicated their purpose to be in Columbia on Homecoming day. All members of the Medical faculty are looking forward with great pleasure to seeing them and will welcome them in their offices and laboratories in the Hospitals and Medical Building in the morning. Dean and Mrs. Noyes will be at home to members of the Medical Faculty, alumni and former students of the School of Medicine immediately after the game in the afternoon of Homecoming day.

Guy L. Noyes

TO THE ALUMNI OF THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Homecoming Day this year will be an important milestone in the history of your school as well as in the history of the University. As alumni of the University we want you to return to your Alma Mater in order that you may take your important part in the dedication of the Memorial Tower and Stadium. As alumni of this School, we want you to return in order that you may participate in the formation of the permanent organization of the School of Business and Public Administration Alumni Association.

The meeting will be held Saturday morning, November 20. The Committee on Constitution will have ready for discussion and action the draft of the constitution for permanent organization, and the officers for the ensuing year are to be elected. Aside from the transaction of these formal business matters, we shall have time for a real reunion. I am sure that I am expressing the unanimous desire of the faculty when I say that we want to see everyone of you at the Commerce Building, Saturday morning, November 20. Write me that you will be here.

Frederick A. Middlebush

Graduates and former students of the School of Education, we invite you back. The faculty and student body of the School of Education will be glad to welcome you. You will want to meet your old friends and you will want to take part in the dedication of the Memorial Tower. What is perhaps still more important, you will want to participate in the final act of dedicating the stadium which will consist in the walloping of Kansas by the Missouri Tigers. Be sure to come back and help make it a big day.

M. G. Neale

The Faculty of the College of Agriculture, resident alumni, and students extend to former students and alumni a cordial and hearty welcome to return to the Homecoming celebration on November 20. This will undoubtedly be the greatest gathering of Missouri alumni and former students in the history of the institution. Every member of our faculty is anticipating this opportunity of again greeting you personally. Let us demonstrate, as alumni, the same spirit that has always characterized the students of this division. We are expecting a very large representation of former students and alumni of the College of Agriculture.

F. B. Mumford
Dean and Director.

M. U. Professor's Geographical Reader to Be Used in Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Grades.

Sam T. Bratton, Associate Professor of Geology and Geography, B.S., A.M. University of Missouri, Ph.D. University of Chicago.

This alumnus of Missouri is the author of several articles of a geographical nature, and of two books dealing with the geography of Missouri. His latest book, "Missouri," A Geographical Reader, is to be used in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. Throughout the book human activities of the people of Missouri are stressed rather than facts of the physical environment, and the many illustrations not only add considerable interest but help make clear the author's purpose "to teach pupils the essential facts of human activities in Missouri."

The general nature of the book is indicated by the titles of some of the stories, such as, "Our Bird Life," "The Story of the Meat Packing Industry," "Farm Gardens," and "The Playgrounds of Missouri."

M. U.-IOWA GAME A THRILLER

The Tigers defeated Iowa State, 7-3, at Ames on October 23 and in the rain. The Missouri Tiger line up included: Bacchus (c), Lucas, Walker, G. Smith, Miller, W. Smith, Lindenmeyer, Stuber, O'Sullivan, Clark, Flamank.

Ames scored early in the first quarter when D. A. Anderson intercepted a Missouri pass on the Tigers 26-yard line. Ames made 8-yards on three downs when Thomas made good a place kick from the 32-yard line.

Ames had the ball on her 26-yard line as the second quarter started. Fisher got 11 yards around Missouri's right end for first down on Ames' 36-yard line. Holman hit center for a yard. Morgan replaced Glenn Smith who was injured. Fisher hit the line for a yard. Coe punted out of bounds on Missouri's 24-yard line. Clark got seven yards at right tackle. Tuttle got 11 yards through left tackle. Clark smashed center for a yard. O'Sullivan got two yards at left tackle for first down on Ames' 48-yard line. Stuber passed to Clark, who ran for a touchdown. Tiger interference was perfect for Clark's zig zag run. Stuber added the extra point for a 12-yard place kick. Score—Missouri, 7; Ames, 3.

The game was a thriller throughout. There was a small crowd due to bad weather and roads.

The Tiger cross country team lost the meet at Ames, Ia., on October 23, to Coach Bob Simpson's Cyclones. Iowa State won with 19. Billy Fallon's Tigers were second with 36 and Drake was third with 54. Captain Conger of Ames was first with 27 minutes, 15 seconds, for the five-mile run. Captain Steele of Missouri was second, forty yards behind. The other Missourians finished as follows: Lemar, seventh; Lewondoski, eighth; Harper, ninth; Morningstar, eleventh; Godwin, thirteenth.

TIGERS AND MUSTANGS

BATTLE A 7-7 TIE.

The Tigers and the Southern Methodist University Mustangs battled to a 7-7 tie in the Memorial Stadium here, October 16. It was a forward passing afternoon, full of thrills, and Ohs, and Ahs, and Goshes. The school children and Boy Scouts, about three thousand strong, were guests at the game. S. M. U.'s fine band was present with about one hundred student supporters from Dallas. Harry D. Guy, '13, assistant advertising manager of the Dallas News, President of the Dallas Alumni Association, and Don Jones, of the Dallas News, attended the game with the McCauly twins, Sloane and Leake, now in the insurance business in Dallas.

The Mustangs put up a real battle and furnished plenty of excitement for the Tigers and their rooters.

All the scoring was in the first quarter.

First Quarter.

Flamank kicked off to the 20-yard line. Hume touched the ball and fumbled it, and it was Missouri's ball on the Mustang's 24-yard line. Flamank ran out of bound for no gain. Flamank failed to gain through the center of the line. O'Sullivan got three yards around the Mustang's right end on a faked pass play. Stuber threw a pass to Lindenmeyer and it was first down for Missouri on the S. M. U. 7-yard line. Flamank dived through center for a yard. On a double pass play Flamank gained three yards. Flamank gained three more yards on a double pass play. Stuber passed to Clark for a touchdown. Stuber made good the extra point on a 12-yard place kick. Score—Missouri 7, Mustangs, 0. Hume kicked off over the Missouri goal line. O'Sullivan gained five yards through the Mustangs' line. Flamank gained two more through the line. Missouri was off-side and penalized five yards. Stuber failed to gain around left end. Stuber punted to the Missouri 46-yard line and the ball rolled dead. Mann passed 18 yards to Wade for first down on Missouri's 30-yard line. The crowd was estimated at about 6,000. Mann passed to Hume who got away around Missouri's left end, carrying the ball to Missouri's 12-yard line. Cortemeglia hit the line for three yards more. Mann was thrown for a two-yard loss. Mann passed to Dawson who fell across the goal line for a touchdown. Hume's try for the extra point was a drop kick. It was good. Score—Missouri, 7, S. M. U. 7.

The rest of the half was nip and tuck.

In the third quarter Missouri threatened to score several times. Once they failed to put the ball across 4 yards for a touchdown on four downs, and were held on the Mustang's 1-ft. line. In the last quarter Stuber tried a field goal from the 35 yard line but the bloomin' ball hit the bloomin' goal post and bounced back to the 20 yard line and a few minutes later Stuber missed another place kick from the 37-yard line. Stuber displayed wonderful generalship.

Coach Henry's Tigers put up a mighty good game. It was a great afternoon of football.

With The Alumni Association

NEW YORK CITY

The good ship Carmania came into the port of New York on Sunday morning, October 24th, and gave the finishing touch to the first dinner and meeting of the Alumni Association of New York for the year 1926-27. The Carmania brought back from Europe Dean Walter Williams of the School of Journalism and a party of Missouri newspaper people who had been traveling with him after attending the Convention of the Press Congress of the World in Geneva, at which Dean Williams presided as president. The Missouri party included Mr. and Mrs. Omar D. Gray of Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. William Southern of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stapel of Rockport and Edwin Williams, son of the Dean.

Dean Williams and the members of his party, also Captain F. G. Brown of the Carmania, were guests of the New York alumni at their dinner on Monday evening, October 25th, at the Fraternity Clubs Building. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Wright Brown of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Tisdell of Boston. Mr. Brown is editor of "Editor & Publisher" and secretary of the World's Press Congress.

The dinner was one of the most interesting ever held by the New York Alumni, with an attendance of seventy of the alumni and guests. The chairman and toast-master was Morris E. Dry, President of the New York Alumni Association.

Among the alumni present was Homer Croy who recently returned from England where he spent several months obtaining material and atmosphere for a companion volume to his "They Had to See Paris." Silas Bent of the staff of the New York Times and formerly Professor of Journalism at the University attended as an "adopted" Missourian and spoke briefly of his experiences in traveling by airplane over the Balkans during the summer.

Dean Williams gave a most interesting and inspiring talk in which he outlined the increasingly important position of our country in the affairs of the world. Captain Brown of the S. S. "Carmania" told of several interesting experiences when he was serving on sailing vessels in the earlier days. One of his stories featured a vast fish which he estimated at 120 feet long and which he classified as between a whale and a shark. It was a good fish stork which added not a little to the general enjoyment of the occasion.

Brief talks were made by the other guests and "Jawn" Stapel took occasion to extend a hearty invitation to all New York alumni "to come out and see us." Frank Birch, past president of the Alumni Association, led the singing in his usual charming manner. Birch seems determined to keep at it until he teaches the New York alumni to sing.

The alumni attending the dinner included: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Anderson, Silas Bent, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Birch, James W. Brown, Jr., Miss Hazel E. Collins, Miss Lela Cox, James E. Craig, Emil H. Eisentrager, C. H. Heckler, Wm. E. Helmkamp, A. G. Hinkler, Herbert L. Houchin, G. E. Huggins, W. Harvey Johnson, V. C. Kline, C. H. Killian, Mr. and Mrs. H.

H. Kinyon, Paul S. Lomax, Marquis H. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Loeb, David G. Loth, Paul M. Miller, R. S. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Volney McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Patterson, Lester Penn, Gladys Rinehart, Oscar E. Riley, Miss Susie McD. W. Rabourn, Dr. H. A. Reisman, J. F. Rooker, J. M. Rose, William Resor, Miss Ruth Sanders, O. E. Saylor, H. M. Stephens, Russel S. Sims, Claire G. Sifton, Paul F. Sifton, Ralph H. Turner, Miss Arretta L. Watts.

Beach, California, on Friday, September 3, as guests of Dean Hollis Kirk, former Tiger, and now live wire realtor of Bell, California. Through Mr. Kirk's generosity and true Missouri hospitality, guest cards carrying with them all the privileges of the club were sent to local alumni, with an urgent invitation to bring family and friends, spend the day swimming, lounging, and acquiring a becoming coat of tan, —then to remain for an evening of music, dancing, and good fellowship under a mellow September moon. Needless to say, the response was instant and enthusiastic, and a goodly number of Missourians came, stayed, and enjoyed the outing to the full.

Among those present were: Porter H. Albright (past president), Mrs. Cora Albright, E. J. Baumel, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bolton and daughter, Elizabeth, Mrs. W. S. Brotherton, Florence Farrer Broughton, Leland S. Davidson, L. S. Copelin, R. W. Elliott, Anna E. Foglesong, Clara M. Foglesong, Mary Fisher, Louise M. Forrester, Phil S. Weymann, and Dean Kirk of 505 Baker Ave., Bell, genial host. (This is only a partial list, as most of the guests were having far too jolly a time to stop and sign the roster.) It is to be hoped that similar gatherings may occur in the future, for surely none could devise more potent ingredients for a day of complete enjoyment than a combination of old and loved friends, luxurious surroundings, and an opportunity to rest and relax in the great out of doors.

ATTENTION ALUMNI

The Annual University of Missouri dinner for graduates and former students will be held at the Baltimore Hotel at 6 p. m. on Thursday, November 11, during the week of the annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association in Kansas City. A. H. Monsees, Principal of the Southwest High School, Kansas City, is president of the School of Education alumni and will act as general chairman and toastmaster of the meeting. Those who remember the performance of Mr. Monsees two years ago know that he is unexcelled as a program manager.

Chas. S. Parker of the Kansas City Public Schools will act as general factotum and song leader. Mr. Parker is a hundred per cent University of Missouri supporter and under his leadership there is no question but that everybody will sing.

In addition to various local celebrities the program will consist of talks by former Missourians who are on the program of the State Teachers' Association. Dr. S. E. Davis, President of the Normal School at Dillon, Mont., will speak on "What the Wild West Does to a Missourian." Dr. Shelton Phelps of Peabody College at Nashville, Tennessee, will talk on "Missourians who have gone South."

The University of Missouri booth will be maintained in the corridors of the Baltimore Hotel. Miss Christine Hauschild, secretary to Mr. Leslie Cowan will be in charge.

KANSAS CITY

Miss Hazel Smith, Y. W. C. A., student secretary, with a group of her girls, and Mrs. Lockwood, and Mrs. Kempster of Columbia, came up to Kansas City for the week-end, and participated in our program. They "sold" their work enthusiastically with short talks and songs. We were so interested in the splendid report of their membership drive, which resulted so successfully.

With other alumnae groups, we are going to help by contributing toward their budget, and plan a benefit bridge party, November 27, at our University Women's Club House.

We postponed the picture probably until that time, as we will be more representative, many regretting for this meeting but promising to come out for the party. Some of our little sisters on the Campus plan to join us then, too.

Miss Smith was entertained by Mrs. Pemala Shackleford Parsons (Irving Parsons) the girls at various Kansas City homes of friends. We plan to come out at the Alumni banquet during the State Teachers' Convention here November 13.

And we are coming to The Game-

Carl Bauer, Chillicothe, Given First $400 University Scholarship by Association.

Carl Bauer, Chillicothe, has been awarded the Missouri Bankers' Association agricultural college scholarship. The scholarship amounts to $400 and provides for a two-year course in the College of Agriculture at the University.

This is the first time this scholarship has been awarded, but hereafter it will be given every year. Edward Buder, vice-president of the Mercantile Trust Company, St. Louis, has provided a $400 fund known as the Missouri Bankers' association agricultural scholarship fund for the purpose of paying the expenses of a 4-H Club member for the full period of the two year short course at the Missouri College of Agriculture. The course will begin Nov. 1.

A committee of five will award the scholarship each year. This year the committee was so favorably impressed with two of the candidates for the scholarship, that they increased the fund to $600. Gerald Marding of Meadville was awarded a scholarship of $200. This will provide for a year's course in the College of Agriculture.

M. U.-K. U. Glee Clubs To Give Joint Homecoming Program.

The first public appearance of the University of Missouri Glee Club for the season of 1926-27 will be the Homecoming concert on the night of Nov. 19, when Missouri and Kansas give their annual joint program.

This is the third joint concert which these two clubs have given. The first was in Columbia in 1924, the night before the K. U.-M. U. Homecoming game and the second concert was given last year in Lawrence.

Most of the men who sang in the Missouri Glee Club in the valley contest in Wichita last February have returned, including several who also went to New York to the national contest in 1925. In addition to these, many new men have tried out this year, and Missouri will have more than a hundred men on the stage on the night of Nov. 19.

Kansas will bring forty men from Lawrence for this program.

Both clubs are Missouri Valley champions,—Missouri in 1925 and Kansas in 1926. The fact that Missouri and Kansas are old rivals, and that the concert comes the night before the annual valley football classic between the two institutions adds zest to the occasion.

The Missouri club gave more than forty concerts last year. The first trip of the season was to Lawrence. The Southeast Missouri trip in December included Flat River, Kennett, Caruthersville, and Cape Girardeau. The first home concert was given in January, and this was followed by the contest in Wichita on February 5.

During the Easter holidays the men sang in Trenton, Chillicothe, St. Joseph, Kansas City, Mexico, St. Charles, and St. Louis. During the spring they also gave programs in Sedalia, Warrensburg, and Jefferson City.

Too much credit cannot be given to Herbert Wall, head of the voice department, who has directed the Glee Club the past two years. His excellent directing and inspiring leadership have done much to put the Missouri Glee Club in the front rank.

Mr. Wall is assisted in directing by A. D. Otto, a senior in the School of Fine Arts. Otto directed the men last winter in the contest in Wichita. The club officers are Glenn Milburn, Oklahoma City, president; William Scannell, St. Louis, business manager; Lee S. Montgomery, Sedalia, accompanist.

Board of Curators Meet In St. Louis

The Board of Curators met in St. Louis on October 30 and considered appropriations to be asked at the next state legislature.

The board voted to purchase a water-proof cover for the university's football field in order to insure a dry gridiron for the remainder of the home games on the Tigers' schedule this season. The Bengals have not played on a dry field at Columbia in the last two years.

Dr. John Pickard, professor of archaeology and the history of art at the university was granted a sabbatical leave from December 1 until June 1, 1927, with the condition that he continue to act during that period as the head of the archaeology department.

Authority was given contractors of the university to proceed immediately with the completion of Lee H. Tate law building, appropriations for which recently were released by Governor Sam A. Baker. Work on the half-completed building ceased when funds, appropriated by the last legislature were held up by the chief executive.

Upon recommendation of officials of the university's medical school, the board voted that, effective September 1, 1918, all students entering the medical school must have had three years of college work, instead of two, as now required. The action was taken with a view toward raising the standards of the medical profession.

All employes of the administrative office of the university and the entire staff of agricultural extension workers in the Missouri College of Agriculture were re-appointed for the year beginning January 1, next.

The board also set the dates of the Thanksgiving holidays for noon, Wednesday, November 24, to Monday morning, November 29, and the Christmas holidays from Tuesday, December 21, to January 3.

Previously it had been planned to dismiss students this year for Thanksgiving Day only, but under the new schedule they will receive four and one-half days vacation. They will, however, receive two less days of vacation at Christmas time, under the new arrangement.

The board also decided to change the date of closing the first term of the two-year winter course in agriculture from noon Saturday, December 19, to 4 o'clock Tuesday, December 21.

Dates for events in next year's summer session were announced as follows:

- June 9, Thursday, registration.
- June 10, Friday, 8 a. m., class work begins.
- July 4, Monday, Independence Day, holiday.

July 31, Sunday, 11 a. m. baccalaureate address.

August 5, Friday, 4 p. m. summer session closes.

August 5, Friday, 8 p. m., commencement exercises.

The board recommended the appointment of four new members of the faculty and accepted the resignations of eight present members.

The appointments included Paul H. Teal, county extension agent in Mississippi county; Harold E. Gove and Samuel P. Graham, student assistants in mathematics and Dorothy Patton, general duty graduate nurse.

Those whose resignations were accepted are Roger Q. Brown, county extension agent in Mississippi county; Marjorie Melchert Miller, county home demonstration agent; Robert S. Bayse, and Wilfred Bell, readers in mathematics; Mary T. Shapiro, stenographer in the department of geology; Carolyn Keller, general duty graduate nurse; Thelma Buckler, information clerk in the university hospital, and R. B. Coggon, assistant agricultural editor. Ora Vaughn also was appointed general duty graduate nurse for such portion of the year ending June 30, next, as her services may be necessary.

Anna F. Jeffers was made assistant from November 1 to January 31, 1927, in charge of the engineering library.

Leaves of absence without salary were granted to Doris I. Browning, stenographer in the department of poultry husbandry, October 1, for three months, and to Jane A. Hurty, in charge of the engineering library, for three months beginning Nov. 1.

Charles E. Fisher was appointed wrestling and boxing coach for the coming season and Edna Rhoads, was employed in the home economics department, beginning October 13, last.

Helen Jo Scott, Shandon, Ohio, William James Menteer, Columbia, and Arthur E. Horst, Sanger, Tex., were awarded the John W. Jewell scholarships which previously had been awarded to Samuel B. McCool, Clay B. Pettus and Edward H. Weatherly, who did not return to school this fall. The scholarships are effective during the school year of 1926-27.

Zelma L. House, Knox City, Mo., was awarded the second Volker scholarship, and Earl N. McCubbin, Monett, Mo., was awarded the agricultural scholarship in horticulture. Miss House received her B.S. in education degree, and McCubbin received his B.S. in agriculture last June.

The board recommended to call the attention of the Columbia city officials to the fact that several houses of more than two stories, occupied by students, were not equipped with fire escapes, as required by law, and request the officials to see that the owners of the buildings comply with the ordinance.

Recommendation was made that the allotment to the dedication of the Memorial tower and stadium be increased from $1,000 to $2,000 and that $500 be allotted to the dedication ceremonies of the Japanese lantern, given to the university by the American-Japan Society of Tokyo. The ceremonies will take place in Columbia on November 9, at which time Tsuneo Matsudaira, Japanese ambassador to the United States, personally will present the gift to the university.

Recommendation also was made to allot $500 for expenses of Farmers' Week, which will be held in Columbia from January 17 to 21.

The board voted to establish extension courses at St. Joseph, Montrose, Taberville, Carrollton, Carthage, Flat River, Marthasville and Salem, and appoint instructors to fill the positions in each of those cities.

Decision was reached to grant the request of the Laclede county court for a right-of-way deed for road purposes across certain agricultural college lands in that county.

The board also considered the recommendation that the university bring suit against 20 former students, who borrowed money from the student loan funds and have not wiped out their indebtedness. The suits approximate $2,400.

Recommendation was made to allot an additional $2,000 to the university library.

The board also recommended that the university secretary be authorized annually to offer to each of the six winners in the state in the annual prize essay contest conducted by the American Chemical Society, a scholarship covering the library, hospital and incidental fee for such portion of the school year following the close of the contest as the student may be in attendance at the university.

Judge Kimbrough Stone, A. B. & L. B. '95, of Kansas City, Mo., was commended by the Kansas City Star in an article on October 16 as follows:

Judge Stone's Receivership.
With the ending of the street railway receivership a public expression of gratitude is due to Judge Kimbrough Stone, under whose supervision the receivership has been carried out. There have been frequent appreciations of the receivers, Colonel Fleming and Senator Wilson, for the far-sighted and public-be-pleased policies that they inaugurated. But it must

E. A. Trowbridge, chairman of the department of Animal Husbandry in the College of Agriculture, and a member of the committee on Intercollegiate Athletics, writes to the Alumnus as follows: "In a recent trip through Idaho, Washington and Oregon, I find that Howard Hackedorn, Professor of Animal Husbandry, Washington State College, Pullman; E. V. Ellington, Professor of Dairy Husbandry at Pullman; C. W. Hickman, Professor of Animal Husbandry, U. of Idaho, Moscow; C. E. Atkinson, Professor of Dairy Husbandry, U. of Idaho; P. M. Brandt, Professor of Dairy Husbandry, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis; Ernest Weigand, Oregon Agricultural College; Professor Paul Morris, Director of Extension, Oregon Agricultural College, and O. E. McConnel, county agent, Gooding, Idaho, are all interested in what is going on at the University of Missouri. The work that these men are doing makes a man glad to acknowledge his associates with the University of Missouri. They are getting results.

In Arkansas recently I found H. K. "Big" Thatcher, Heartsill Banks, Claude Woolsey, M. W. Muldrow, and Dean Dan T. Gray and several other Missourians from the College of Agriculture and elsewhere rendering real service. Gus Oehm, I am told, is one of the best college journalists in America. Dean Gray seems to be doing a wonderful piece of work in Arkansas.

W. R. Hechler, B. S. in Ag. '11, Dalton, Mo., President of the Agricultural Alumni Association and P. F. Schowengerdt, secretary, Columbia, have announced that the annual Ag. Alumni banquet will be held November 15, at six p. m., at the Dreyfus Hotel, located at the Kansas City Stock Yards. Reservations costing one dollar per plate, should be made with W. T. Angle, Live Stock Exchange Bldg., Kansas City. The American Royal Live Stock Show will be held that week.

This annual Ag Alumni banquet is one of the big parties of the year in alumni circles and will be largely attended this year. Members of the faculty of the College of Agriculture will attend.

E. A. Ikenberry, B. S. in Ag. '11, is chairman of the committee on arrangements

The Alumnus desires to give praise and commendation to the former students of Miss Eva Johnston, who so thoughtfully have had a portrait painted of her to present to the University. It is fine that these former students of Miss Johnston have thought of this ideal way to recognize her outstanding service. All praise to them and their Committee, composed of: Mrs. J. C. Parrish, Vandalia; Mrs. W. D. Nardin, and Mrs. Earl F. Nelson, St. Louis; Miss Louise Nardin, Madison, Wis.; Mrs. DR Scott and Miss Gladys Wheat of Columbia.

QEBH, senior honorary organization, is to be commended for having a portrait painted of Dr. J. C. Jones, president emeritus, and Prof. L. M. (Daddy) Defoe, and presenting them to the University. What can be finer than for this organization to adopt a constructive and worth-while program of this kind. Praise is due the following QEBH members who are now enrolled in the University: Irvin Fane, Russell Castell, Abe Stuber, Milard Rushton, Russell Thomas, Don Swofford, Kent Farley, Glenn Milburn, William Scannell, President; Norwood Benning, Malloy McQueen, and to Earl F. Nelson, Wm. T. Nardin, and George C. Wilson, alumni representatives of St. Louis, who so greatly encouraged the QEBH boys in their plans and under wrote their whole proposition.

Dean F. M. Tisdell has collected some interesting statistics regarding the amount of teaching done by the members of the faculty of the College of Arts and Science. 1,836 students are enrolled in the College this semester; approximately half of the number of students in residence. In addition to these, there are 1,554 students in other divisions who are taking subjects taught by the faculty of Arts and Science, or 3,390 resident students studying with the Arts and Science faculty; approximately seven-eighths of the entire student body. The 1,554 students from other schools are taking, on an average, two classes each under the Arts and Science faculty. There are in addition, 1,113 enrollments in college courses by correspondence, and 301 enrollments in extension courses in Arts and Science subjects, all under the general supervision of the faculty of Arts and Science.

The Intercollegiate alumni hotel plan, as outlined on four pages of advertising in the October Alumnus and again in this issue is meeting with unusual success. Favorable comment from the alumni indicates that this plan will be an outstanding one in alumni affairs not only for the alumni themselves, whereby they have an official hotel in each of the prominent cities of the U. S. but for the hotels too. Participating hotels are going to reap benefit and profit as a result of this Intercollegiate alumni hotel plan. Reports from alumni already indicate that they have entered into the spirit of the plan and are seeing to it that the participating hotels receive alumni business. One hotel reports that it is going to try to get alumni to indicate their institutions after their signatures on the hotel register. It will be fine if our alumni would get in touch with hotel people in cities where an alumni hotel has not been designated and ask them to join in this splendid plan. The unstinted cooperation on the part of our alumni is helping to bring about the success of the whole enterprise.

It is a great pleasure to the alumni who are working to make THE MISSOURI ALUMNUS a publication worth while and a force for good in University and alumni circles to know that the advertisers are heartily in accord with the plans of the magazine and that they will receive benefit from the money that they spend for advertising space in the Alumnus. It has been but a few months ago when it was hard to even solicit advertising for the Alumnus, to say nothing of getting a contract. There were a few very liberal and loyal advertisers who stayed with us. However, they are still with us and they help tremendously in building up our advertising space. As the advertising grew the circulation grew and with the growth of the circulation the managers of the magazine began to urge the subscribers to trade with the Alumnus advertisers and thus show their appreciation and the cooperation given the Alumnus by the advertisers. The alumni entered into the spirit of this idea and they are trading with the Missouri Alumnus advertisers to the extent that the advertisers report that their advertising is proving decidedly profitable. Let us continue this.

Wharton, secretary of the engineering alumni association, that he has resigned from the General Electric Co., and is now with the Department of Electrical Engineering, S. D. State College, at Brookings. He writes that he and Mrs. Fisher enjoy their new home. All of us believe that when he writes that he caught 72 perch in an afternoon we begin to wonder if St. Pat was that kind of an engineer.

Oklahoma Dedicates Her New Stadium By Defeating Tigers

The Oklahoma Sooners held their Homecoming on November 6 and dedicated their Memorial Stadium by defeating the Tigers 10-7, stopping the winning championship streak of the Missourians. The first quarter was a punting duel between Arbuckle of the Sooners and Stuber of Missouri. Three times Oklahoma had the ball within scoring distance by two attempts at field goals and a forward pass was grounded over the line. Two long runs, one by Clark for 23 yards and one by Haskins for 38 were first quarter features.

The Tigers opened up in the second quarter with a baffling air attack and outplayed the Sooners practically all the way. One pass, Stuber to Clark gained 48 yards, placed the ball on Oklahoma's 13 yard line, then advanced to the 6 yard line, where Stuber's attempt to kick a field goal was blocked. Then followed Missouri's touchdown, when much to the surprise of everyone, Flamank, the big Tiger fullback, who seldom passes, shot a short pass to Clark for a touchdown and the extra point was added. Substitutes were then made for Missouri was in the lead seven points. Oklahoma got the ball. Potts attempted a forward pass but seeing all his men covered and about to be tackled, he zig-zagged over, across and down the field for a 60 yard run and a touch down. The whistle blew, ending the half, just as Potts crossed the goal line. Their try for the extra point was good and the half ended 7-7, making one of the most spectacular scenes in Missouri valley football history.

Oklahoma blocked a punt early in the third quarter, LeCrone recovered on Missouri's 27 yard line and two minutes later Haskins kicked goal from placement from the 32 yard line. The kick was against the wind. The score 10, Missouri 7. Then the Tigers went to work, fighting and charging down the field to lose the ball on the 3 yard line and this in the last few minutes and seconds of the game. It was a thriller from start to finish, and Missouri lost to a great team, on a great day for Oklahoma. Congratulations to them and to our good friend, Bennie Owen and Dick Cloyd, and their fellow workers.

Coach Gwinn Henry had figured this as a crucial game. It must be remembered, however, that the Tigers have had a most difficult schedule this season.

souri campus. Coaches Henry, Lansing and Crangle are to be congratulated on the fine showing by Captain Carl Bacchus and his men. The Tigers played a brilliant, smashing game and the Mountaineers were powerless to penetrate the Missouri line and their forward passes did not work.

Upon the return to Columbia the Tigers were advised that a canvas cover had been purchased for the playing field of the Memorial Stadium, which was welcome news to them and to football followers. The field was covered with the canvas on November 7. There are four sections of waterproof canvas, supported in the middle so that the water drains to the sides of the field, each section weighing about 1500 lbs. The total cost was $3500.00.

1:55 p.m. The Memorial Stadium. A very brief dedication ceremony will be held at the Memorial Stadium at this hour, the Presentation by Frank B. Rollins, the Acceptance by Mercer Arnold, the raising of the Colors with "The Star Spangled Banner," the salute to the flag of twenty-one guns, and the salute to the Heroic Dead, to whom the Stadium is dedicated. This salute will comprise the firing of a giant bomb over the center of the new playing field, the bomb to contain an American flag for each of the University boys who lost their lives in the World War. The floating of these flags over the new Memorial Field will complete the formal dedication ceremonies.

2:00 p.m. The annual Homecoming football game between the University of Missouri and the University of Kansas.

A Message from the Governor

Governor Sam A. Baker is enthusiastic about the activities of the alumni in building the Memorial Tower and the Memorial Stadium and is anxious to see the early completion of the entire Memorial Union. He will be here for the dedication ceremonies on the morning of November 20th and will be one of the speakers. In commenting upon the greatness of the Memorial Tower and Memorial Stadium, he said:

"Too often it occurs that young men and young women who have finished the college course get out into the world and forget all about the institutions and the state that has made their educational training possible, and when the Alumni of a great educational institution like the University of Missouri, in grateful remembrance of the instruction and training they have received, decides to build and present to the University and State a great Memorial Tower and Memorial Stadium, certainly some commendation is due them.

"I wish to commend all who have had anything to do with this great movement. The Memorial Tower and Memorial Stadium will be a credit to the State of Missouri and an honor to those who made their erection possible."

Football Fans:—

Where Are You Going to Sleep?

To you from St. Louis and all points east of Columbia who plan to drive to Columbia this fall for one or all of the football games in the new Memorial Stadium, this service is offered:

The Palace Hotel at Fulton will be glad to reserve accommodations for you for the Friday nights before and the Saturday nights after the games. Drive to Fulton, spend the night, drive to Columbia the next morning, see the game in the afternoon, drive back to Fulton and spend the night, and then drive home.

A very good and practical thing to do! By so doing you'll enjoy a dandy weekend and not arrive home tired out as a result of all-night driving.

The rooms and meals at The Palace Hotel are excellent. The proprietor is Waldo F. (Cap) Smith, one of the most hospitable and best liked hotel men in Missouri.

Fulton is a dandy town and visitors who spend the night there will enjoy a drive in this "Kingdom of Callaway" and see Westminster College, Synodical and William Woods Colleges for girls, the State School for the Deaf, and the State Hospital there.

Write, wire or call "Cap" Smith for reservations—better do it now, for the thirty thousand persons who will see every game in the new Memorial Stadium this fall will tax the capacity of all hotels. And think what a crowd will be in Columbia Nov. 20, Homecoming Day, for the formal dedication of the Memorial Tower and Memorial Stadium and the Kansas-Missouri football game! Whew!

Here Is Real Campus News for the Alumni.

The annual Valley glee club contest will be held in St. Louis on February 4, at the Field House of Washington University, according to Prof. Herbert Wall, director of the Missouri glee club and treasurer of the Missouri Valley Glee Club Association. At the contest last year in Wichita, Missouri won second and at the first contest held in Kansas City two years ago, Missouri won first and represented the Missouri Valley at the Nation-Wide Contest in New York City, where they won third.

Prof. Wall is working diligently with this year's glee club and making every effort to win first in the contest in St. Louis next February. The St. Louis alumni are making plans to have a fine representation at the contest and to assist the glee club in its efforts to win the championship.

Prof. L. M. (Daddy) Defoe, chairman of the Rhodes scholarship nominating committee for the University of Missouri has announced the following five University students who are applicants for that scholarship:

Claud C. Clapp, Kansas City, a graduate student and assistant instructor in English.

David H. Cunningham, Columbia, enrolled in the school of engineering.

Lynn M. Ewing, Nevada, student in the school of law.

Louis J. Needles, Clarksburg, enrolled in the school of medicine and the graduate school.

Charles S. Parker, jr., Kansas City, student in the college of arts and science.

The five men will appear before a committee on selection of Rhodes scholarships for Missouri, which will meet in St. Louis on December 11, and decide the Rhodes scholar for this state. President Stratton D. Brooks is chairman of the committee.

Each college of the state is entitled to send a certain number of nominees before the committee, depending on the enrollment of the institutions.

The scholarship entitles the student to three years of college work at Oxford, with a stipend of $1,946.40. The University of Missouri now has two students in that institution on Rhodes scholarships. They are:

Arthur Bond, Perryville, Mo., who went to England in 1925, after successfully competing for the Rhodes award, and Florein P. Goss, of Kansas City, the successful candidate in 1924.

TO QEBH

Commendation! Irvin Fane, Russell Casteel, Abe Stuber, Millard Rushton, Russell Thomas, Don Swoford, Kent Farley, Glenn Milburn, William Scannell, President; Norwood Benning, Malloy McQueen, the active members of QEBH deserve a world of credit and commendation for their thoughtful, constructive and successful plans of having portraits painted of Dr. J. C. Jones, president emeritus and Director of the Memorial Union and Stadium Campaign, and Professor L. M. (Daddy) Defoe, the University's own, and presenting these portraits to the University.

Alumni of QEBH share alike in the credit of this fine work, especially the guarantors: Earl F. Nelson, Wm. T. Nardin, and George C. Wilson, of St. Louis.

We, like everybody interested in University affairs, are delighted and happy that QEBH has opened the way for doing things worth while. More power to QEBH. We hope they do something exceptional for the University every year.

SHORT COURSE!

Congratulations to Sam B. Shirky, who has charge of the second semester winter courses in Agriculture. The Miller Shoe Company sends congratulations on the good work he is doing.

The first term of the Two Year Winter Course in Agriculture began November 1 and closes December 18.

This course offers a large amount of practical agricultural training in a short time and at a low cost. All of the courses deal with strictly agricultural subjects and are offered at the time of year when farm work is least pressing.

It is not necessary that students be graduates of high schools in order to enroll in this course. They must be at least 16 years of age.

Since the course was organized, approximately 4,000 students have been enrolled. There are 67 separate courses offered in the Short Winter Courses. These courses offer training in the various kinds of farming commonly practiced in Missouri: live-stock raising, grain growing, orcharding, poultry raising, and dairying.

The entire equipment of the College of Agriculture is available for the instruction of students in the Short Courses.

A special illustrated Announcement and a View Book of the College of Agriculture have been published and will be sent to anyone who is interested in the Short Course.

Miller's is headquarters for Short Course students.

When being examined for insurance I found the examining physician to be no other than Dr. Coffey, who graduated about '14, then came east where he received his M.D. from the U. of Pa."

Pem Shackleford Parsons joined us there—Pem

In September, informal committee luncheons preceded the regular meeting, the 25th, at Mrs. Miller's home at tea. Seventeen were

What is SERENITY Worth?

BUDDHA, who was born a prince, gave up his name, succession, and his heritage to attain serenity.

But we are no Buddhas; for us the serenity of mind is the happiness of human beings who are secure in the enjoyment of what they possess, whether it is much or little.

We do not have to give up the world; we have only to see a life insurance agent, who can sell us security for the future, the most direct step to serenity of mind.

The next John Hancock agent who calls on you may be able to put you on the road to serenity.

Isn't it worth while to see him?

REAL NEWS FOR THE ALUMNI!

Congratulations to Columbia! The Missouri State Teachers' Association voted at their meeting in Kansas City on November 10 to locate their permanent headquarters here. Their building will cost $48,000 to go on the site of the old prep school on the west side of 6th street, just across from Parker Memorial Hospital. Welcome Secretary Carter and Editor Tom Walker.

The Missouri debate team was awarded the decision in the University of Sidney, Australia, debate on prohibition by Jean Paul Bradshaw, student president, and George Wise, President of the Athenaeum. The University of Sidney was represented by J. D. McIntosh and John Godsall. Missouri upheld the affirmative of "Resolved: That Prohibition is Desirable and Should be Retained." The efficiency test was applied, showing Missouri 17 per cent efficient and Sidney 9.7. The final vote was 287 for Missouri and 125 for Sidney.

Hugh Williamson has been elected varsity debate captain. He will succeed George Wise. This is Mr. Wise's second year on the varsity squad.

J. D. Elliff, A.B. '03, A.M. '07, Director of the Summer Session, was elected President of the Association of Summer Session Directors, at their annual meeting held recently in Chicago. Very few of his friends know that he is a native of Council Grove, Kan. He attended Central Missouri State Teachers College, Warrensburg, in 1893, and has done graduate work in the University of Chicago and at Columbia University. He married Jean Cumming. They have one son, Joseph C. Elliff, A.B. '14, B.S. in Ed. '15, on the advertising staff of the Saturday Evening Post, Chicago.

The Journalism Play Commission, consisting of George Knott, Elmer Taylor, Tom Mahoney, Chesley Manley, Fred Ayer, Grace Saltmarsh and Donald Reynolds, have announced that the annual Journalism play will be presented at the Hall Theater, December 6 and 7. The play will be directed by Mrs. Hollis Edwards.

So often receiverships are disastrous to properties. Judge Stone has the satisfaction of seeing a prolonged management under his court carried on

Another Sentinel to Serve You ~ an Extension Telephone at your bedside insures your mental comfort

Aside from its everyday usefulness in the conduct of the business of life, the telephone stands always ready, day and night, as a guardian of your security. In case of accident, illness, fire, burglars, or other emergency you can use it to quickly summon aid. With it nearby, your mental comfort is assured.

Your telephone may be located in the most convenient place in the house, but this may be beyond reach in times of alarm. An extension station in another part of the house, the bedroom for example, insures its accessibility.

This extra "sentinel" in your home costs only $0.75 per month.

Four millions of the best man-power of Europe perished in the Napoleonic conquests. Military conquest is non-creative, while industry is always creative.

The laboratories and shops of industry are the sources of many of the enduring attainments of our times. In the General Electric organization is an army of 75,000 persons, co-operating to make electricity do more and better work for you.

In the last ten years one American manufacturer—the General Electric Company—has created machines having a man-power forty times as great as that of all the lives lost in the Napoleonic wars.

NEW LONG DISTANCE SCHEDULE IN EFFECT

Changes Provide Added Conveniences for Subscribers

Station-to-station long distance service is proving more popular than ever since the new long distance schedule went into effect on October 1. As is known to most telephone subscribers, station-to-station service is quick, easy, and economical, and with the new schedule in effect, it offers several added advantages.

EARLIER REDUCED RATE PERIOD

You can now place a reduced rate station-to-station call as early as 7 p. m. Formerly if you wanted to take advantage of the reduced rates, you had to wait until 8:30 p. m. Now, from 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. there is a 25 per cent reduction on all station-to-station calls.

This earlier reduced rate period was inaugurated for the convenience of subscribers. Under the old schedule, many a call placed at 8:30 p. m. received the report, "they don't answer;" the called party had gone out for the evening. Under the new schedule, you may call at 7 p. m., an hour when most people are at home.

ADDITIONAL DISCOUNT AT 8:30

Starting at 8:30 p. m. and continuing until 4:30 a. m. there is a 50 per cent reduction on station-to-station calls. There is no further reduction at midnight, as was the case under the old schedule.

Using station-to-station service is just like placing a local call. When the operator asks, "Number, please?" you just give the name of the distant town and the telephone number you wish to reach. If the day station-to-station rate to that point is $1.60, a call placed between 7 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. will cost you but $1.20, and if placed after 8:30 p. m. will cost but $0.80.

DIVIDENDS

Almost 400,000 people received dividend checks of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company on October 15th.

A large percentage of these shareholders are women, and about 65,000 are Bell System employees.

You Can Call "Collect"

The privilege of reversing the charges on a long distance call, or "placing the call collect," has always been a great advantage to those away from home who wished to have the charges for their call placed upon their own telephone bill.

Under the new long distance rules, this reversal-of-charges privilege has been extended to include station-to-station calls, which, of course, cost considerably less than person-to-person calls.

The charges may be reversed on station-to-station calls at any of the day or night, as long as the rate is 25 cents or more.
