DR. STRATTON D. BROOKS
President of the University

Dr. Stratton D. Brooks, President of the University, extends a cordial welcome to the alumni, former students, parents, and friends of the University for the annual Homecoming on Saturday, November 24.

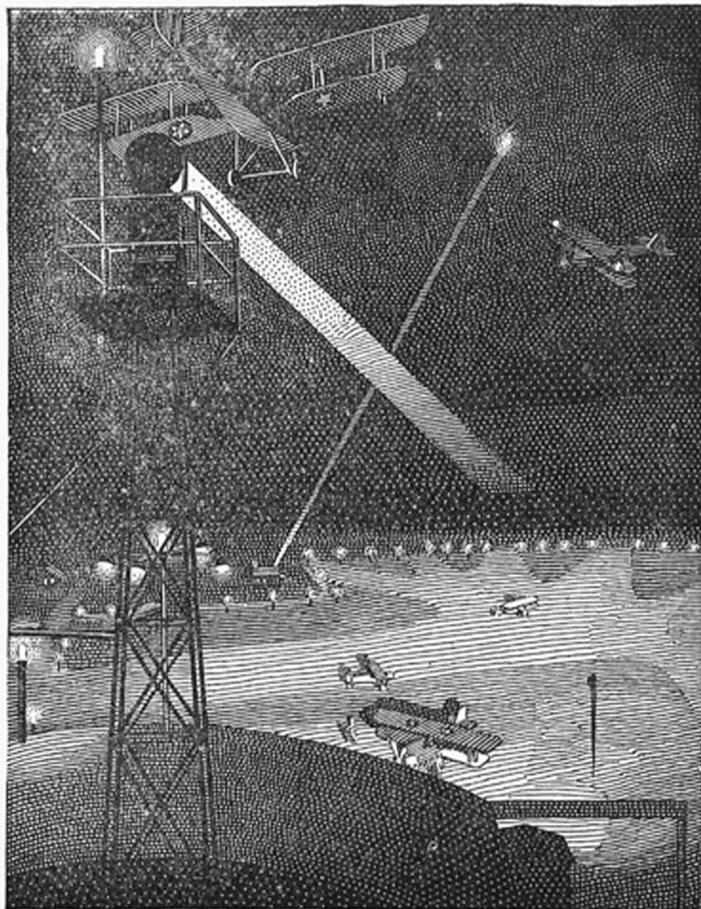

FRANK B. ROLLINS
Pres. Alumni Ass'n.

Our hope is to have back on the campus this year a record number of our alumni, who, in my opinion, are among the most loyal and liberal alumni in the world.

Welcome, alumni, to Homecoming.
FRANK B. ROLLINS,
President, General Alumni Ass'n.

Is your city on the Air Map of America?

THE air map of America is now in the making—on the ground. A few years from now, cities will have been made—or side-tracked—according to their enterprise in seeing and grasping their present opportunities.

Build now your station-stop for the increasing traffic of the air. Build as men of vision are building—not for the trickle of the pioneer air lines but for the powerful stream into which that trickle will presently swell until it bears on its current more than a score of affiliated industries and trades.

Air transportation is a night-and-day service. Night operations are essential in order that the airplane may deliver the essence of its service—speed. Above all, your airport must be lighted according to the most advanced practice. Airport lighting is a science in itself, in which General Electric has already established its leadership. Let us help you to specify the correct lighting for your airport. Write us.

The G-E monogram—whether on a 10,000-watt MAZDA lamp for your airport or a small MAZDA lamp for your home—is assurance of electrical correctness and dependability.

university library would cover the entire life of the university, because the library is the heart of the university. Without a library wisely selected and constantly used, there could be no real university. He who would truly know a university, must be familiar not only with what happens in classrooms and laboratories, but must find out whether the inspiration of these classrooms and laboratories has led the students to an intelligent and extensive use of the library."

The preface written by Mr. Severance follows: "Charles Kendall Adams once said that 'a great library has always been held to be a necessary part of a great university.' The growth of the library has depended upon the growth of the University. Scant appropriations for the University meant either a small amount or none for the library. The University received its first state appropriation in 1867 after Doctor Read became President. From that time on the University has received help from the State, and the library has received regular biennial appropriations since 1900. The nucleus of the present collection of books was the two hundred or more volumes saved from the fire of 1892. President Richard Henry Jesse, through whose efforts the University attained a rank equal to other State Universities, was an ardent supporter of the library. From 1900 to the close of his administration the library received generous State appropriations.

"During the administration of President Albert Ross Hill the library developed more rapidly. The appropriations were most liberal, the staff was largely increased, the service became more efficient, the annual accessions were increased and the new library building became a reality. In 1923 while Doctor John Carleton Jones was President, the General Assembly approprinted the largest maintenance fund in the history of the University. This enabled the Board of Curators, upon the recommendation of Doctor Stratton Duluth Brooks, President of the University, to make a larger appropriation for the library for 1924 than it had ever received before for any one year—thirty thousand dollars.

"The story of the library was first written in 1910 but so many facts have been found since from the records and so much information obtained from those professors who have been connected with the University for many years that it has been necessary to rewrite the history. The material has been collected from manuscript and printed records indicated in the 'List of works consulted' in the appendix and from the lips of men who have been associated with the University and the library for years.

"I am indebted to former librarians for much information which could not be found in official records, and especially to Scott Hayes for the description and diagram of the library room as it was in 1871, to the late Doctor Paul Schweitzer who was connected with the University from 1872 to 1911, to the late Doctor William George Brown, who was a member of the library committee for many years and editor of the University of Missouri studies, for many facts bearing on the history of the library and for a description of the Library book plate.

"I am under great obligation to the late Doctor Richard Henry Jesse, President of the University from 1891 to 1911, for the inside history of the University and the library during his presidency."

Alumni may secure copies of this publication, known as Library bulletin No. 15, by writing Mr. Severance.

THE 1928 FOOTBALL NEWS Team Prospects Okeh

By George Edwards

All members of the "Big Six" officially opened the practice season for their first series on Monday, September 17. More than sixty men reported to Coach Gwynn Henry on that day, and signal practice was resumed where the close of spring practice workouts left it.

A check of the eligibles for the season shows fifteen winners of the M again ready to play. Of this number Merhle, Rosenheim, Deimund, Byars, Kennedy, and Schaff are back field players. Veteran linemen are Brown, Smith, Hawkins, Huff, Maschoff, Lyons, Hursley, Waldorf, and Willner.

There are no changes in the coaching staff. Coach Henry for the third season is assisted by Jack Crangle and Harry Lansing.

In addition to the lettermen returning, there are about twenty first string substitutes who saw some game experience last season as well as about thirty boys from the freshman squad who are good enough to break into many contests.

While perhaps not as heavy as last year the squad has plenty of weight with about a dozen good players near the 200-pound mark. Three of the thirty boys from the freshman squad brunt of the play last year, still show the great speed which made them so dangerous. They are Mehrle, Deimund, and Rosenheim. The balance between weight and speed is actually better than it has been for several years.

Following is the complete roster of Missouri's varsity candidates:

Backfield—Mehrle, Deimund, Byars, Rosenheim, Schaff, Cox, Kennedy, Reese, Oldham, Gilbert, Garner, King, Buchholz, Nash, Bittner and Dills.

Centers—Ray Smith, Waldorf, McCaulley, Lyons.

Ends—Brown, Hursley, Post, Morgan, Lindenmeyer, Campbell, Gladden, Terwilliger.

Tackles—Bill Smith, Huff, Willner, Baker, Warden, Kilgore.

Guards—Hawkins, Maschoff, Brayton, Hudgens, McGirl.

Several departments look a little weak now, and the staff is working hard to develop men who can fill special jobs. There is no capable punter, a new forward passer must be trained, and another field general must be developed to take the places of Gorman and Tuttle. Gorman is an assistant coach.

The schedule is a tough one. Without exception our opponents are teams with enviable reputations. At home Missouri will be host to Centre College of Danville, Kentucky, Iowa State College, Drake University, and Kansas. Three of the trips are long ones with tough opposition awaiting the Tigers at the end. New York University is played at the Yankee Stadium in New York; Nebraska is met at Lincoln, and the season is closed with Oklahoma at Norman.

The schedule is considerably better arranged than that of a year ago when the Kansas Aggies were met in two weeks after practice started. Stankowski's Freshmen were defeated 34-0, on Oct. 6. This year the coaches had four weeks to prepare for the 'Praying Colonels' from Centre, who were defeated 60-0 on Oct. 13 before a record-breaking opening crowd.

Organization of the new conference adds greatly to the general interest, as each of the six members meets all of the others and the picking of a definite champion is made possible. All of the six teams promise great strength, and the race should be greatly improved over the years when the conference was larger.

The game at Lincoln with the nationally known Nebraska Cornhuskers is attracting unusual interest. For three years Missouri has beaten the Nebraskans, a record which no other team can boast. Nebraska is pointing for the game with the Tigers and it is expected that Lincoln's largest football crowd will see the contest. Coach Bearg of Nebraska saw the Centre-Mo. game.

The final game of the year against Oklahoma on Thanksgiving Day will be the first one that Missouri has played in the Southwest at the close of the season. The Oklahoma alumni under the leadership of R. W. McClure, Okla. City, are making big plans for this occasion.

For the first time the Missouri Tigers will be seen on the Eastern seaboard when New York University is played on November 17. The New York Alumni Association, G. E. Hugkins, Pres., and Oscar E. Riley, Secy., is making big plans for a Missouri reunion there, and will attempt to have all of the Eastern alumni present. A special train will be run from Columbia and the Middle West which will carry the team and its local supporters.

Homecoming this year will be at the time of the game with Kansas, November 24. In view of what happened at Lawrence last year, the coaches and players, as well as all loyal Tiger followers are awaiting the day.

Coach Henry has announced the election of T. Miller Brown, All-Valley end, third year veteran, Albany, Mo., senior, School of Journalism, as the 1928 football captain. Francis Lucas, 220-lb. tackle, who was elected by the squad last season, is ineligible for football this year.

Coaches in all sports ruled last year against the election of Captains until the starting of the next sports season.

George H. Flamank, Captain of the football team last year and prominent in football, basketball and track, has been appointed assistant coach of freshman and varsity teams, succeeding Edgar Lindenmeyer and Jack Matthews. Lindenmeyer is freshman coach at Centre College and Matthews at St. Joseph (Mo.) Central High School.

Glenn Smith, famous football player of Sapulpa, Okla., who made his letters in 1925, '26 and '27, is coaching the Columbia High School football team. Glenn is a brother of Clyde Smith, who played three years of Missouri football. The third Smith brother, Raymond, is playing his first year with the Tigers.

Roy Harper, captain of last year's cross country team, has been appointed to succeed Billy Fallon, as cross country coach.

Larry Brill, Sedalia, is the senior cheer leader again this year. Karl Goetz, St. Joseph, and Barney McCray, Kansas City, are the junior cheer leaders.

NOTIFY ALUMNI OFFICE WHEN YOU MOVE

It is no little task with a list of forty thousand alumni and former students to keep their addresses and occupations listed correctly. The task is made much more difficult when the alumni and former students themselves fail to cooperate and notify the alumni office when a change is made in their residence or business address, or change is made in their occupation. Such changes should always be sent to the alumni office. Every alumnus and former student is listed at least three times in a card index file in the alumni office—in an alphabetical file, a geographical file, and in a class file. Then there is the detailed record on the data blank for each one. Mention was made of these four records of each individual to remind you of the importance of notifying the alumni office when you change your address or occupation. Then if the individual alumnus or former student is a Memorial subscriber, he is listed again in the Memorial file, and if he is an Alumnus subscriber he is listed again under the Alumnus subscription file, and then if he is a subscriber to the Alumni Fund he is listed again separately in that record.

The members of the regular and summer session classes of the last few years are those who will be most likely to move and it is our hope that they will read this reminder and help us to keep their addresses and occupations listed correctly. The alumni office and their friends as well will be interested to have this news.

ELLIFF RESIGNS AS SUMMER SESSION DIRECTOR

Dean Neale Appointed Director

J. D. Elliff, A.B. '03, A.M. '05, who has been director of the summer session since 1922, has resigned from that position. He will continue his work on the faculty as professor of High School Administration.

Professor Elliff has been on duty during the regular session and the summer session every summer for twenty-five years. His work with the summer session has been a labor of love. He has given it his best efforts and often under adverse conditions. He increased the enrollment in the summer session from 300 to 1400, increased its popularity and has caused it to make substantial and constructive progress.

Dean M. G. Neale of the School of Education was appointed to directorship of the summer session to succeed Mr. Elliff, by the Executive Board of the University at a meeting in St. Louis recently.

3934 STUDENTS ENROLLED

Fall semester enrollment at the University on October 15 was 3934 resident students, and exceeds by eighteen the record established on the corresponding date in the last scholastic year. Men students enrolled number 2638 and women 1296. Forty-two states other than Missouri are represented, and nine foreign countries contributed twenty-four to the student body.

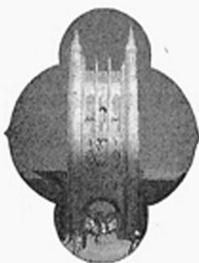

Of the 594 students from other states, Oklahoma leads with 89, Illinois is second with 75. Texas third with 62, and then follow Arkansas, 58; Kansas, 51; Iowa, 36, and New York State, 30. From South America came 9 students, 3 were from Canada, 3 from China, 1 from Japan, 1 from Mexico, 2 from Korea, 1 from Hawaii and 4 from the Philippine Islands.

In addition to the resident enrollment, the registration includes 3325 students who are taking correspondence work in the extension division. There are 1050 in extension class work, and more than 500 students are enrolled at the Missouri School of Mines, an outlying division of the university. Summer session enrollment was 1861, most of them schoolteachers who are unable to attend the fall and winter sessions.

Total enrollment for the year would approximate 10,000, counting the extension, summer and mine school students.

Of the resident enrollment, 653 gave their legal address as Columbia. Kansas City furnished the second largest delegation with 411, and St. Louis sent 348. From St. Louis County came 97, and from Jackson County 33.

THE MEMORIAL TOWER

The Memorial Tower is one of the most beautiful memorials in the world! That's taking in lots of territory, but it's a true statement. The Tower indebtedness amounts to approximately $18,000. Notices going to Memorial subscribers this month indicate that this debt could be paid off immediately if everyone paid the amount now due on his pledge. What a wonderful thing it would be if everyone who owes on his Memorial Pledge would pay right away! The Memorial Committee could pay off all Tower indebtedness and proceed at once to purchase the bells!

The Memorial Committee deserves cooperation.

Missouri Advertising Men in New York

A few years ago, the advertising agencies of New York centered about Madison Square, but now they are mostly in the zone surrounding the Grand Central Railway Station.

In the new Graybar Building, a skyscraper at 240 Lexington avenue, connected by corridors with the station, are four alumni. Earle Pearson is general manager of the International Advertising Association, formerly at 383 Madison avenue. Frank H. Birch is president of the Criterion Advertising Company. William E. Resor is an account executive with the J. Walter Thompson Company, one of the three largest advertising agencies in America, and Duke N. Parry is publicity director of the Erwin-Wasey Advertising Agency and also in charge of the radio broadcasting for its clients.

Across the street from Grand Central Station, at 110 East 42nd Street, is O. G. Carpenter, member of the Lyddon & Hanford Advertising Agency, while at 181 Madison avenue works Russell M. Bandy, Eastern advertising representative of the Merchants Trade Journal of Des Moines. Walter G. Bryan is president of the W. G. Bryan Organization, 475 Fifth avenue.

George E. Quisenberry is secretary of the Business Publishers International Corporation and editor of El Automovil Americano, both at 460 West 34th Street. Thomas S. (Tommy) Hudson, formerly associated with Quisenberry after leaving the Kansas City Star, is now prospering at 409 Richmond avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

Downtown, at 133 Cedar street, Russell S. Sims is a member of the firm, and George K. Knott, staff member,

BEQUESTS TO UNIVERSITY

At the request of several alumni we are publishing a suggested form for alumni and former students and friends of the University to use in making bequests to the University of Missouri. In this connection you will be interested to know that not only alumni and former students but friends of education and the state University are greatly interested in making bequests to the University and these are becoming more numerous all the time. May it be said that the bequests are all welcome regardless of the amount. The suggested form follows: "I hereby give, devise and bequeath to the Curators of the University of Missouri, as trustees, the sum of $..... to be used by the Curators according to their best judgment for some necessary or desirable purpose in connection with the conduct of the University of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri." (Should it be desired to name some specific purpose for which the Curators are directed to use the bequest such purpose may be indicated in proper terms.)

Here,
Gentlemen of the Committee, is the answer
of one industry

No. 6 of a series inspired by the report of the Secretary of Commerce's Committee on Elimination of Waste

LOOKING OVER vs. OVERLOOKING

IT is the broad conception of industrial responsibility that overlooks no small detail of manufacture.

Is a ten-thousandth of an inch in the thickness of a mica condenser sheet important? Does a time-interval of a thousandth of a second matter? A thousandth of an ampere of electric current?

That Western Electric thinks so is manifested in its rigid inspections. Defects are detected at the source. Waste is confined to the stage of manufacture in which the defect occurs; and its cause soon discovered and removed.

Not only that. The principal user of Western Electric telephone apparatus—the Bell system—is safeguarded against cumulative operating difficulties. With the ever-growing complexity of the nation's telephoning machinery, the tendency of mechanical errors to multiply must be compensated for by greater accuracy in manufacture—and, in terms of inspection, by ever-increasing vigilance.

Miss Geneva Youngs
directs the Women's Glee Club

Women's Glee Club
Deserves Substantial Encouragement

One hundred and fifty voices were heard last week in the try-outs for the University Women's Glee Club. Miss Geneva Youngs of the School of Fine Arts, who is the director of the club, was very much pleased with the quality of the voices and the ability of the girls who were accepted for membership for the coming year. This is the third year under the direction of Miss Youngs, who has made a special study of choral singing for women and she has spent part of the summer in New York City selecting interesting music for the club. During the year there will be three concerts on the campus, besides various dates for concerts out of town in which the Glee Club will be assisted by soloists and a sextette of its members.

The Men's Glee Club has been so prominent for such a long time that the women have had much to accomplish to become recognized. The growth of the Women's Glee Club has been most remarkable, considering the fact that there is no credit given for the four hours rehearsal each week, it is held together entirely by the "love of serving together." This year the club is three times the size it was three years ago.

Let us give our whole-hearted support to Miss Youngs and the members of the Women's Glee Club.

1928 Homecoming Sa

KANSAS vs.

Chester L. Brewer, Director of Athletics

Do not miss the 1928 Homecoming. Missourians will be here in greater numbers than ever before. The battle of the Tiger and the Jayhawker always makes a good homecoming—for Missouri—and this year will be no exception. We need you, we want you and we expect you. We will be prepared for a capacity crowd of 40,000 people. Fifteen thousand temporary seats will be added in addition to the twenty-five thousand permanent seats.

C. L. BREWER,
Director of Athletics

HOW TO GET TICKETS

Tickets this year may be obtained by writing Chester L. Brewer, director of athletics, Rothwell Gymnasium; Bob Hill, Alumni Recorder; or Leslie Cowan, secretary of the University. Orders sent to any of these men will get your tickets at once.

Apply now for your Homecoming tickets. Don't delay.

The Missouri-Kansas game, always a gridiron battle to be long remembered, will be an unusually contested game this year with Missouri trying to wipe out last year's unexpected defeat by Kansas. The largest crowd of the season will be on hand to see this game and the stadium will be packed to capacity. Therefore, orders for tickets should come in at once.

Undoubtedly the Homecoming is the most enthusiastic one in the history of the school. Expecting and hoping all alumni will be here on Nov. 23, for the annual Homecoming. Plans are made to make it the very personable course following that there will be a dance at the Gymnasium. Saturday morning graduates will be given. Then also the annual meeting of the school of Law will be held in the Grand Hotel of Kansas City, president of Law School. The yearly meeting of the Alumni Association of Public Administration will be held in the Hotel Royal D. M. Bauer of St. Louis. The faculty will hold their annual meeting.

Frank Knight, Joplin, Student President

Pi Lambda Theta and other honorary organizations will have dinners and receptions on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Then the game itself! The Tiger and Jayhawk will meet Nov. 24 at 2 p. m. in the Memorial Stadium. The Tigers say they'll win, that they'll get revenge for that defeat at Lawrence last year and that they will keep the Columbia record clear by not permitting a Tiger team to lose in the Memorial Stadium.

If there is anything you want to know

Saturday, November 24

MISSOURI

The City of Columbia, its citizens, the city officials,— everybody—extends a real old-fashioned Boone County welcome to the alumni and our host of friends in this and other states, and to our friendly enemies from Kansas to attend Homecoming here on Nov. 24, when the Tigers are scheduled to defeat the Jayhawks.

Men's Glee Club Has Great
Prospects Under
Prof. Bryant

The Men's Glee Club has already started rehearsals and there is no question but what this organization should have a fine and successful year. Over 125 men were candidates for membership in the club in the tryouts which were held September 15th. Sixty-five were chosen from among the applicants and this number in addition to the returning men from last year's club will place over one hundred men on the roster to start the season.

Some unusually fine voices were discovered among the new men and they should prove a splendid addition to the organization. Plans are already under way for many appearances, the first being at the annual Parent's Day celebration Oct. 20th. There is also a joint concert with Kansas University Glee Club at Columbia the evening before the M. U.-K. U. game. Various trips have been planned, details of which will be announced later. The club will again compete in the Missouri Valley Glee Club Contest.

The Club this year is under the direction of Prof. Marshall F. Bryant, professor of voice in the school of Fine Arts.

Entering College

THOUSANDS of young men and women this fall begin their college careers. Many of them will be able to finish. Others may not. It is a good time to call attention to the fact that a LIFE INSURANCE POLICY can be a guarantee that they will finish.

The cost of putting a boy or girl through college at the present time is estimated to be between four and five thousand dollars.

Nowadays parents are learning how to provide this educational fund through insurance taken out when the children are very young.

But here we are considering only the youth just entering college, with high hopes for the future which may be thwarted by the sudden loss of the breadwinner. Small would be the additional cost in premium for sufficient insurance to secure the family against needless disappointment.

Just another way of purchasing security. The father will know that he has done his full part. The mother will be assured that whatever happens she can see her children through.

Ask us for details as to costs, forms of policies, etc. Please give applicant's date of birth.

A Spalding Golf Shoe of tan calf, with a saddle of the same, reinforcing the instep. Leather lined. Oak Leather sole, with a layer of waterproof rawhide specially sewed around the margin—and through the center of the sole—a Spalding patent.

Blunt spikes, not screwed in, but riveted inside the outer sole by an exclusive Spalding process. They can't work loose. They can't "press up" and make foot-torturing bumps on the inner sole. A thoroughbred that discreetly proclaims the excellence of your choice of a golf shoe.

Imported Golf Hose at Domestic Prices

We're justly proud of these fine Scotch and English hose. Full-footed, with ample length of leg, and knitted to fit snugly around the ankle without slack or pucker. These fine imported hose cost no more than you would ordinarily pay for the domestic kind. We have them in a host of the season's smartest colors and patterns, mostly at $2.50—some at $3.50 and up.

News About the R. O. T. C.
for 1928-29

Col. M. C. Kerth
In Charge of R. O. T. C.,
U. of Mo.

The registration in the Military Department this fall has been very satisfactory. There are 562 students taking freshman and sophomore field artillery (basic course) and 585 students taking the corresponding course in the infantry. In the advanced course field artillery 95 students are enrolled and in the corresponding infantry course 111 students.

Lewis H. Kensinger, of Clinton, has been named colonel of the field artillery and E. H. Adrance, Booneville, colonel of the infantry.

Other field artillery officers are: lieutenant colonel, Sanford W. Stuck, Kansas City; major, Joseph H. Cooper, Hallsville; major, Chas. D. Gleason, Kansas City; major, Donald W. Ingle, Jasper; major, Vinell Q. Harmon, Odessa.

Infantry: lieutenant colonel, Lyle C. Riddle, Columbia; major, J. G. Baker, Columbia; major, Lawrence Brill, Sedalia; major, Joseph G. Brinkley, Earlinton, Ky.

There have been several important changes made in the uniform which will add both to the appearance and comfort of the students. The basic field artillery students will continue to wear the cadet gray cap, coat and riding breeches, but instead of the uncomfortable roller puttee leggins, a soft black leather leggin lacing up the outside has been substituted.

The basic infantry students will wear long trousers of cadet gray with a black stripe along the outer seam in lieu of the riding breeches and leggins.

The advanced course students of both the field artillery and infantry will wear caps, coats and breeches of olive drab whip cord with either cordovan leather leggins or boots. These uniforms become the property of the students on completion of the advanced course and with proper changes in insignia and buttons may be used by them as officers in the Organized Reserve Corps.

THE NATION'S BUILDING STONE

Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Boston, Mass.
Built entirely of Indiana Limestone

More Than Ever in Demand

ALTHOUGH the use of Indiana Limestone for buildings of monumental character is so well established as to be practically standard, yet recent years have seen an amazing increase in popular demand. Today this fine-grained, light-colored natural stone from the hills of southern Indiana constitutes more than 65% of the building stone of all kinds used in this country.

The modern production methods of the Indiana Limestone Company have reduced costs. Indiana Limestone is now practicable not only for large buildings, but for clubs, fraternity houses, residences, apartments, and all kinds of so-called medium-cost structures.

We will gladly send you an illustrated booklet showing a fine collection of collegiate buildings constructed of Indiana Limestone—or a book on residences if you prefer. Address Box 827 Service Bureau, Indiana Limestone Company, Bedford, Indiana.

This Is a Great Football Year

Note the schedule the Tigers have this year. Also the 60 to 0 score the Tigers made against Centre Oct. 13 should be proof enough. If you were only here you'd realize it. More than a full team of letter men back, a good bunch of graduates from last year's freshman squad and a freshman squad now that looks like a 1928 All-American. You can get back here once this fall probably—Homecoming—but that isn't any reason why you can't know every man on the Varsity by his first name, follow every game play by play and get in on the same ground as the fellows in school. Get busy.
