

MAY • 1955

MISSOURI

Alumni

Now . . . Order Your

M. U. SERVING TRAY

Practical and decorative . . . ideal for your home . . . ideal as a gift

Hand-etched, polished aluminum, 15 inches in diameter, this M.U. insignia serving tray also makes a beautiful wall ornament—hanging brackets are included in the $4.50 price (prepaid postage).

For your own use, and to solve your gift problems, order from:

ALUMNI OFFICE

101 Read Hall

Columbia, Missouri

MISSOURI Alumnus

THE MISSOURI ALUMNUS is published monthly except July and August by the University of Missouri Alumni Association, 101 Read Hall, Columbia, Mo. and mailed to all active members in the Association. Entered as second class matter under the Acts of March 3, 1879. Active membership $4.00 a year; life membership $80.

Editor

JACK C. TAYLOR, '30

Business Manager

WILMA BATTERSON, '30

Managing Editor

MARY PAXTON KEELEY, '10

Sports Editor

BILL CALLAHAN, '47

BUS ENTSMINGER, '49

Alumni Secretary and Executive Editor

CULLEN COIL, '33, Jefferson City
President University Alumni Association

MARVIN D. McQUEEN, '36, St. Louis
Chairman Alumni Publications Committee

Vol. XLIII

MAY, 1955

Number 9

IN THIS ISSUE

The Curators Find Their Man	2-4
Journalism Week	5
With the Alumni	6-7
Law Day	8-9
High School Music Festival	10-11
Missouri Memo	12
Missouri's Advance Registration Plan	13-15
Weddings	16
Class Notes	17-27
Letters	28

President and Mrs. Elmer Ellis stand before the mantel in the drawing room of the President's House. They will move from their home into the campus residence next fall.

The picture is by University Photo Service.

Commencement will be here before you know it and it will be accompanied by Class Reunions. All of us here in the Alumni Office look forward to these programs each year as one of our most pleasant activities.

Only the classes of '05 and '15 will hold reunions in conjunction with Commencement this year. Normally the classes of '25, '35, '45, and '30 would participate but these classes have voted to hold their reunion at a later date, preferably in the fall. Tentative plans now call for their reunion to be held on Homecoming, which will be next October 22.

Headquarters for the '05 and '15 reunion will be the Student Union Building and the program is as follows: June 7—9-12 a.m., Registration; 12:30, class luncheon; 2 p.m., campus tour; 4:30, television appearance; 5:30, class banquet; 8:30, Curators' reception. June 8—10 a.m., Commencement.

Back in the 20s, when our good friend Bob Hill was Alumni Secretary, he started the practice of sending letters of congratulations to the newlyborn children of Missouri alumni, telling them that the University was holding an entrance blank for them when they became of age. No one knew for sure what the result would be. Now we know.

A letter from Miss Barbara Mitchell, 6373 Vicland Place, North Hollywood, Calif., came the other day requesting admission to the University. She enclosed a letter written on August 2, 1937 by Alumni Secretary Bob Hill, informing her of an entrance blank the University was holding until 1955. We're happy to have another representative of a second generation of M.U. alumni.

Bus

The Curators

FIND THEIR MAN

AFTER MONTHS OF SEARCH for a new president of the University, the Board of Curators decided on April 16 that they already had the man they wanted and he was on the job.

Dr. Elmer Ellis thus was elevated from the role of acting president, which he had filled capably since September 10, to the presidency on a permanent basis.

Probably no choice for the position could have proved more popular. From the moment he took office on a temporary basis, Dr. Ellis had carried on as most people think a university president should, although some might wonder if the tremendous energy he gives his work could be better paced for the long haul.

An affable man of 53 who is easy to meet and willing to lend his efforts to any cause that benefits the University, Dr. Ellis early had committed himself to a heavy load of engagements. He has made good on these commitments as scheduled, even though the Curators' final action instantly stepped up the tempo of his work. The requests for his presence at various functions, for statements, interviews, speeches—these have increased sharply amid a flood of congratulatory messages which he proposes to acknowledge. Meanwhile the administrative duties of his office—unusually heavy in these times—are handled seemingly without a hitch.

MENTIONED FROM START

When Dr. Frederick A. Middlebush announced his resignation in January of 1954 after nineteen years as president, the man most often mentioned as his successor was Elmer Ellis, dean of the College of Arts and Science. While he appeared to be a logical selection, the impression got about that an administrator from some other campus would be brought in.

In the summer when the Curators asked him to serve as acting president, Dr. Ellis agreed to do so, with some reservations. He made it clear that he would not serve in the office beyond June 30 this year and he made a provision that he would not be required to move from his home into the president's house. The indication was that he was not a candidate on a permanent basis. Dr. Middlebush had continued in office until Dean Ellis' temporary appointment.

While the country-wide search for a successor to President Middlebush continued, Dr. Ellis went ahead with the efficient conduct of the office, gaining even more friends for himself and for the University. He was impressive with his frank and effective portrayal of the institution's problems before the legislature and various groups over the state. His presentation of the appropriations requests before the legislators was particularly skillful.

PROVED LOGICAL CHOICE

To the university community, the people of the state, and to the Curators it was becoming clearer that the search for a new president—from a list of 200 candidates

President and Mrs. Elmer Ellis inspect their future home, the President's House, on the campus.

compiled and screened by a special five-member committee—could profitably end right where it started. What man brought in from the outside could accomplish as much? But, as the Columbia Daily Tribune said editorially, "Perhaps it is just as well that Dr. Ellis' appointment was so long delayed. The delay has produced an unanimity in the board and an overwhelming enthusiasm on and off the campus which the appointment probably would not have achieved six months ago." (Other editorial comment is reprinted on page four.)

In announcing the appointment after the meeting in St. Louis, President James A. Finch, Jr. of the Board of Curators said:

"Dr. Ellis has shown great zeal for tackling the numerous problems facing the University and making and keeping the University in the forefront of state universities as it should be. The board believes that he will do an outstanding job, but in this he will need the help of all citizens of Missouri in achieving his and our goal.

"He has the confidence of the faculty, which is an important factor.

"Dr. Ellis has filled the office well as acting president and the Board has received much favorable comment from persons with whom he has come in contact."

'CHALLENGE STIMULATING'

In his acceptance statement, President Ellis said: "The challenge of leading the University of Missouri in the difficult tasks that face higher education in our state is immensely stimulating. I am accepting that responsibility because I believe the University will have a distinguished future.

"The basic factor which led me to accept the responsibility is a conviction, growing out of my experience this year, that the citizens of the state, especially the students, faculty, and alumni, are determined to maintain a great University for the education and service of Missouri."

President Ellis has been a member of the University faculty since 1930, when he joined the history department. He was made Arts and Science dean in 1946, the year

President Ellis' Message To Missouri Alumni

For the past eight months I have had the stimulating experience of associating with you as Acting President of the University of Missouri. The fine encouragement which you have given to me personally and your vigorous support of the University's program was more influential than any other factor in inducing me to accept this responsibility on a permanent basis.

I am convinced that the University of Missouri is dependent for its future development upon its alumni more than any other body. If they remain loyal to the best traditions of Missouri, and are willing to exert themselves for its good, there is no limit to our growth in value to the State of Missouri and the nation.

I expect to exert myself to the limit in that development and invite you individually and as an Association to a partnership in this endeavor. Your present Association leadership is unexcelled among the associations of the country, and with their continued cooperation and support, we will build a university in which we all will take great pride.

Cordially,

President, University of Missouri

he returned to his native state to receive an honorary degree from the University of North Dakota. He earned two degrees there and received his Ph.D. in 1930 from the State University of Iowa, where he was lecturer in history. Earlier he headed the history department at North Dakota State Teachers College for three years.

During World War II Dr. Ellis was commissioned into the army in a military government program and later took part in the army's newly organized historical program. Returning to the campus he became vice-president in charge of extra divisional educational activities in 1945-46. Then he got a call from the army to return to the historical section in a civilian capacity. In this work he supervised the completion of the historical volumes on which he had worked as a major during the war years.

He was away from the campus again in 1951-52 when, as a Fulbright scholar, he taught American history at the University of Amsterdam and participated in a seminar for Western European students at Salzburg, Austria.

Dr. Ellis is well known as historian and scholar; his first love is research. Under a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1939-40 he wrote "Henry Moore Teller, Defender of the West," and "Mr. Dooley's America, a Life of Finley Peter Dunne," both acclaimed by critics. He has held high positions with national historical and social studies organizations.

In 1925 he married the former Ruth Clapper. They have no children. Dr. and Mrs. Ellis will continue to live in their air-conditioned home through the summer and then move into the president's house next fall.

The New President . . . As Seen by the Metropolitan Press

U. OF MISSOURI KEEPS A GOOD MAN

From the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Considering these paramount factors: the man, the institution and the crisis that confronts the University of Missouri, it is clear that the Board of Curators acted wisely in making Dr. Elmer Ellis president of the State University.

A member of the history faculty since 1930, dean of the college of arts and science since 1946 and acting president from last September, the highly experienced Dr. Ellis also is young enough at 53 to provide the vigorous leadership that is so needed at the University of Missouri. Since World War II ended, the school has been faced with the problems of crowded classrooms, rapidly expanding enrollment and a low faculty pay scale. James A. Finch, Jr., president of the Board of Curators, says that one of the principal factors in the choice of Dr. Ellis was the "great zeal" he has shown in keeping the school high among state universities despite its problems.

But there is a limit to what President Ellis can do. Educators know from population projections that college and university enrollments will continue to rise. This means the load at Columbia is going to become too great unless the State Legislature does what it should do—appropriate the funds the university needs.

Only two weeks ago, Mr. Finch told the Senate Appropriations Committee that unless "the issues of better salaries and more classrooms" were met squarely "we soon will become a second-rate institution." The establishment of Dr. Ellis as head of the university is an excellent time for the legislators to come through with the funds that are so urgently needed.

Or does the State Legislature, which remained indifferent to the need at the State Penitentiary until disaster struck, intend to ignore the needs of the State University until it drops to the ranks of the second-rate institutions?

MISSOURI U.'S NEW HEAD

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Dr. Elmer Ellis assumes the presidency of the University of Missouri at a time when decisions must be made which will profoundly affect its future growth and development. If the problems which confront his administration are momentous, so also are the opportunities. In common with other institutions of higher learning, the university is faced with the problem of providing for the great influx of students, which has already begun. Buildings and faculty must be provided, and at the same time attention must be devoted to the growing role in research which the university must fill in the life of the state and nation.

The University of Missouri has earned an enviable position as one of the great institutions of learning of the nation. How to maintain its stature, and at the same time solve the knotty problems of raising inadequate salary schedules, securing more classrooms and expanding research and service activities is the responsibility Dr. Ellis now assumes. . . .

Selected last August as acting president, Dr. Ellis has had the opportunity to familiarize himself with his new office and to gain his first experience in presenting the university's needs to the Legislature. His selection means there will be continuity in the university's administration and full co-operation with the Board of Curators.

The Board of Curators acted only after an exhaustive study of many candidates and a careful appraisal of the university's needs. We are confident that Dr. Ellis' appointment will meet with the hearty approval of the alumni and faculty, as well as of all friends of the university, who are vitally concerned with its welfare and future development.

THE TASK BEFORE DR. ELLIS

From the Kansas City Star

Dr. Elmer Ellis assumes command in one of the most crucial periods in the long history of the University of Missouri. His appointment as president comes at a time of swelling enrollments and inadequate staff and physical plant. The job before him is tremendous.

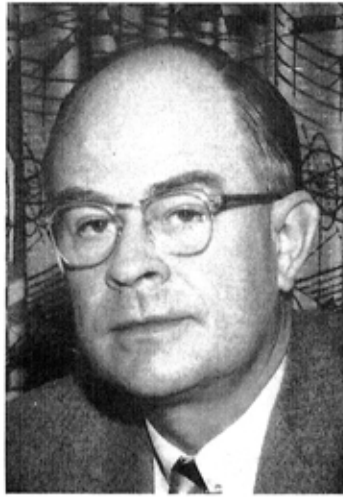

Today, a university president is expected to know all the answers and know them immediately. He must be an outstanding speaker and a genius at public relations. He is expected, almost single-handed, to finance the operations of the school and cause fine buildings to appear on the campus overnight. He must maintain a high academic standing and produce winning football teams. All this must be done in the standard 24-hour day.

Dr. Ellis brings excellent qualities to his new position. He has a fine background in history and the social sciences and he knows teaching thoroughly. He has proved himself as an administrator. As acting head of the university he now can continue as president without loss of momentum.

His immediate task lies with the Missouri Legislature where he has made a fine impression. There the thinking of thirty-five years must be changed—thinking that has brought short appropriations session after session.

In his short period of responsibility Dr. Ellis has done much to impress the state with the importance of maintaining a great university. He will do his best, which is considerable, but he cannot do it alone. Now he must have the support and active help of all the friends and alumni of the University of Missouri if the school is to take its place as one of the leading institutions of this country.

Journalism Week

HUGH B. TERRY, '30

ERMA YOUNG, '29

VETERAN FOLLOWERS of the annual Journalism Banquet report the 1955 event as one of the most enjoyable in years. The 730 persons who attended the affair in Rothwell Gymnasium were treated to an excellent program. Editor Robert U. Brown of Editor & Publisher discussed the future of the press. He was followed by William Randolph Hearst, Jr., editor-in-chief of the Hearst Newspapers, speaking on "Our Trip to the Kremlin," after introductory remarks by two of the Hearst organization's top newsmen, Bob Considine and Frank Conniff. With Journalism Dean Earl F. English presiding, the evening was a delightful highlight to Journalism Week.

Throughout the week the School of Journalism presented speakers who have won recognition in many fields. Represented were newspapers, magazines, advertising agencies, radio and television stations. Noted editors, writers, photographers and advertising personalities were on the program.

An alumnus of the School, Hugh B. Terry of Denver, was among those who received the Missouri Honor Award for Distinguished Service in Journalism. He is president and general manager of KLZ and KLZ-TV. Terry, '30, spoke at an evening session on "The Giant Infants of Journalism."

Other alumni who were speakers included Charles Barnard, '49, managing editor, True Magazine, New York; Erma Young, '29, editor of women's news, Kansas City Star; Maxwell J. Thomas, '31, president and publisher, the Crowley (La.) Daily Signal; H. D. Quigg, Jr., '34, United Press Associations, New York; Harriet Robnett, '42, film editor, KSD-TV, St. Louis; and Mike J. Flynn, '29, the Katz Agency, New York. Awards for Distinguished Service in Journalism also went to Walter Johnson, retired manager, Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, Chattanooga, Tenn.; C. B. Larrabee, chairman of the board, Printer's Ink Publishing Co., New York; and to three publications: St. Joseph News-Press, Omaha World-Herald, and Neue Zuercher Zeitung.

CHARLES BARNARD, '49

MIKE J. FLYNN, '29

H. D. QUIGG, Jr., '34

WITH THE ALUMNI

IN PHELPS COUNTY . . .

Phelps County Alumni heard Dr. Elmer Ellis in his first public appearance as permanent University President when they met in Rolla on April 18, two days after his appointment by the Board of Curators. The meeting, attended by more than 100 persons, paid tribute to President Ellis and to the University's School of Mines and Metallurgy.

The School's dean, Dr. Curtis L. Wilson, shared the speaking program with President Ellis. Both men warned of serious trouble ahead for the University at Columbia and Rolla if the state and the legislature fail to provide more funds for continued development and expansion.

Presiding at the banquet held at the Hotel Edwin Long, was the Phelps County Alumni president, Larry Leaver, who arranged for Dr. Ellis' appearance on a trip to Columbia a month before.

Among those present were Judge Cullen Coil, president of the University Alumni Association, and Bus Entsminger, alumni secretary. Entsminger spoke briefly on the growth of the alumni program.

President Ellis was presented a gavel, made by J. H. Bowen, retired MSM staff member. The gavel was hewn of cedar from Ft. Wyman and the handle was carved from mahogany which Prof. Bowen brought back from the 1903 World's Fair. The presentation was made by Edward W. Sowers, member of the Athletic Advisory Committee and editor-publisher of the Rolla Daily News.

Music was furnished by Miss June Stephens, soprano; Wells Lauffer, baritone; and Miss Marilyn Morgan, pianist, all from the University at Columbia. Group singing was led by Robert E. Carnahan of Rolla, with William Decker at the piano.

IN RICHMOND, MO. . . .

Dick B. Dale, Jr. was elected president of the Ray County Alumni Club at the meeting April 26 in the Women's Club building in Richmond. F. G. Weary III was elected secretary-treasurer.

Dale succeeds Judge Arthur Rogers who presided at the meeting attended by 66 persons, some from nearby counties.

Dr. Jack Matthews, Dean of Students, was the principal speaker, giving the audience a word picture of the University and some of its services and activities. Alumni Director Bus Entsminger spoke briefly.

GEOLOGY ALUMNI MEET IN NEW YORK

Alumni of the Geology Department of M.U. held a breakfast meeting in New York March 30 in connection with the annual convention of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists. Dr. Samuel P. Ellison, chairman of the department at the University of Texas, was toastmaster. Arrangements for the meeting, in the Town Room of Hotel Statler, were made by Chester D. Whorton.

Those present included: Ed Koester, immediate past president of the AAPG; Samuel P. Ellison and wife; Chalmer J. Roy, Cloyd K. Wallace, Hugh Looney, Max R. Hembree, Troy J. Laswell, Carl C. Branson, Ed Owen and wife, Frank Gorham, Jr., Roy Hall, Walter Wolf, Robert S. Cordell, James Steele Williams and wife, Floyd Twenter, David Reinertsen, H. K. Gault, Ivory Canty, Jack Burst, Jack Pennington, and Chester D. Whorton and wife.

—C. O'Neal photo for Rolla Daily News

Dr. Elmer Ellis, new president of the University, is congratulated by Dr. Curtis L. Wilson (left), dean of the School of Mines and Metallurgy, for his willingness to accept the heavy responsibilities of the executive office. Looking on with approval is Larry Leaver, president of the Phelps County Alumni chapter. The picture was made at the chapter's annual banquet in Rolla on April 18, two days after Dr. Ellis was appointed president following eight months' service as acting president. The banquet honored Dr. Ellis and the University's Rolla division.

Journalism alumni meet new University president during Journalism Week. Dr. Elmer Ellis, the University's new top executive, shown at right, attended the journalists' alumni reception and meeting May 5. With him, left to right, are Chester Krause, Jefferson City, new president of the Journalism Alumni Association; David M. Warren, Panhandle, Tex., outgoing president; Dr. Earl F. English, dean of the School of Journalism; and Maxwell Thomas, Crowley, La., a Journalism Week speaker and an area vice-president of the J Alumni.

Dallas' Paul Carrington Stresses Service

The Alumnus is pleased to record that a native Missourian who decided to stay in Texas after he was stationed there during World War I has recently been nominated "First Citizen of Dallas." He is Paul Carrington, '14, who went on to Harvard for his law degree in '17, served a hitch in the army, and then was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1919. His long prominence as a leader in Texas is due to his outstanding ability as a lawyer and business executive, and his devotion to community service.

Mr. Carrington, who was born in Mexico, Mo., is a member of the law firm of Carrington, Gowan, Johnson, Walker & Bromberg. He is general counsel and director of the Mercantile National Bank of Dallas, Burrus Mills, Inc., Texas Textile Mills, and other corporations.

He was president of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce in 1940-42, of the Texas Association of Commerce in 1946-49, and of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce in 1950-51. Since 1950 he has been a member of the committee on policy of the United States C. of C. Mr. Carrington as president of the Greater Dallas Planning Council has played a big role in the city's continuous development.

He is vice-president of the Dallas Boy Scouts (national councilor since 1945) and president of the Dallas Y.M.C.A. in 1946-49 (national councilor since 1951). Mr. Carrington is a member of the New York City and the American Bar Associations, heading an important committee of the ABA for the past five years; and is a director of the American Arbitration Association (since 1935) and the American Planning Association.

These are not all his activities or honors, but certainly enough to show why Paul Carrington is qualified as "First Citizen of Dallas."

PAUL CARRINGTON, '14

CHET KRAUSE HEADS JOURNALISM ALUMNI

Chester Krause of Jefferson City was elected president of the Journalism Alumni Association at its meeting in Columbia during Journalism Week. He succeeds David M. Warren of Panhandle, Tex., who presided at the meeting.

Thomas L. Yates, Fort Worth, Tex., was named vice-president and Miss Flora Holtman of the J School faculty secretary-treasurer.

The group discussed plans for the Golden Anniversary celebration of the journalism school in '58 and voted to send a certificate of appreciation to John P. Herrick of California, donor of six scholarships for journalism students.

Area vice-presidents elected by the journalism group include: Herschel Schooley, Washington, D. C.; Maxwell Thomas, Crowley, La.; Harry Guy, Dallas, Tex.; and Paul Snyder, Eugene, Ore. Maurice E. Votaw of the journalism faculty was elected representative to the general Alumni Association, succeeding Krause.

City representatives were designated to include Mrs. Horace B. Barks III and Mrs. S. R. Stanard, St. Louis; John Colt and Miss Erma Young, Kansas City; Morris Harris, Springfield; Lawrence May and Edward Sowers, Rolla; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lynes, Jefferson City; William Mapel, New York; Raymond P. Brandt, Washington, D. C.; and Hugh B. Terry, Denver.

Among the guests at the alumni reception were President and Mrs. Elmer Ellis and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Middlebush. Dr. Ellis and Dr. Middlebush spoke briefly at the business meeting.

MORTIMER ROSECAN IS LAW ALUMNI HEAD

Mortimer Rosecan, '36, St. Louis, has been elected president of the Law School Alumni Association, succeeding Ronald S. Reed, '31, St. Joseph, who was elected representative to the general Alumni Council.

Other officers elected at Law Day activities include three vice-presidents: first, Jack Robertson, '47, Kansas City; second, William Beckett, '46, Kansas City; and third, Henry Andrae, '37, Jefferson City. The secretary is Gerald Rowan, '40, Cape Girardeau.

Law Day

ANOTHER LAW SCHOOL DAY has passed, and with it another reunion of hundreds of University alumni, among them many prominent attorneys and jurists.

Once more the event featured traditional festivities. These included the Law Foundation dinner, the Law Banquet, and the alumni dinner; ceremonies granting awards, honors, and prizes; class reunions and initiations into honor societies, business meetings and elections of officers of the Law Alumni Association and the Law School Foundation, and the annual Junior Case Club Finals. There was also the outdoor luncheon given by the School on the campus, which was attended by more than 500 persons. And, as if by special court order, perfect weather prevailed throughout.

Ethan A. H. Shepley, chancellor of Washington University in St. Louis, addressed the Law Foundation dinner April 29. The next night at the Law Banquet the speaker was Judge Luther W.

Prof. Lee-Carl Overstreet presides at this table during the School of Law's luncheon attended by 500 persons. At his left are Mrs. Ronald Reed and her husband, Ronald Reed '31, St. Joseph, outgoing president of the Law School Alumni; Robert Eastin, '31, Kansas City, turning to shake hands with a fellow Kansas Citian, Sol Wasserstrom, '35; and at extreme right, Frank C. Mann, '12, Springfield, former Curator. With their backs to the camera are Cedric Siegfried, '39, and Mrs. Siegfried of Independence.

Youngdahl, justice of the U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia, who was formerly governor of Minnesota.

Each year the Law Alumni present two awards for distinguished service in law, one to a prominent alumnus of the School of Law and one to a member of the bar who is not a former student. Honor recipients this year were Judge Roy W. Harper, '29, of the U.S. District Court of Appeals, St. Louis, and Chancellor Shepley.

Judge Henry Westhues of the Supreme Court of Missouri, and Judge Justin Ruark, '23, of the Springfield Court of Appeals, were members of the special court sitting as tribunal to hear the Junior Case Club finals. Judge Charles E. Whittaker of the U.S. District Court of Appeals of Kansas City was presiding judge.

The Order of the Coif, highest scholastic honor society in law, conferred honorary membership upon Judge Frank Hollingsworth of the Missouri Supreme Court.

Phi Alpha Delta, legal fraternity, conferred honorary membership upon Robert Hyder, chief

JUSTIN RUARK

HENRY WESTHUES

FRANK HOLLINGSWORTH

ROY W. HARPER

ETHAN A. H. SHEPLEY

PERCY A. HOGAN

counsel, Missouri Highway Department.

Percy A. Hogan, known to many alumni because of his forty years' service as librarian at the law school, received honorary membership in Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity. Mr. Hogan received his LL.B. from Harvard in 1915 and has been law librarian here ever since.

George C. Willson, '14, of St. Louis, was elected president of the Law School Foundation, succeeding Judge Norwin D. Houser, '31, also of St. Louis. Other officers elected were: Vice-presidents, Latney Barnes, '35, Mexico, and Judge Roy W. Harper; secretary, Flavius Freeman, '35, Springfield; and treasurer, R. B. Price, '02, Columbia.

ALL-COLLEGE ALUMNI GROUP IN NEW YORK

Graduates located in the New York metropolitan area are invited to join a unique YMCA-associated organization called Intercollegiate Alumni of New York.

Both men and women are eligible to join Intercollegiate Alumni, with the age limits set at thirty for men and twenty-six for women, at the time of joining. There's an annual membership fee of $5 and a nominal charge for most events to defray their cost.

Alumni in the New York area can write to Intercollegiate Alumni at 215 West 23rd Street, New York City 11, or telephone CHelsea 3-1982, Extension 13.

Missouri-Cyprus Expedition Begins Test Diggings

THE MISSOURI-CYPRUS Expedition, sponsored by the University and headed by Prof. Saul S. Weinberg, is making test diggings at an Early Bronze Age site near Episkopi, Cyprus, with a view to full-scale excavation in 1957. So far as Prof. Weinberg is aware, this is the first time a state university has undertaken to sponsor such excavations in a foreign land without special endowment. While the Early Bronze Age of the third millennium B.C. is known from tombs, no settlements of the period in Cyprus have been more than tested. The opening of such a settlement would add greatly to knowledge of the early history of the whole East Mediterranean region. In addition to Prof. Weinberg, of the department of classical languages and archaeology at the University, the party includes his wife, Dr. Gladys Davidson Weinberg, editor of the journal "Archaeology," and Miss Elizabeth Courtney, '53, a Fulbright scholar at the American School of Classical Studies in Athens.

Law Dean Glenn A. McCleary at right visits with two Springfield alumni who were on the program of the Conference on the Control of Juvenile Delinquency, which preceded Law Day. They are David B. Woodruff (left), '40, juvenile officer of the Greene County Juvenile Court, and William R. Collinson, '35, judge of Division 1, Circuit Court.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC FESTIVAL

FOR THREE DAYS each spring the campus overflows with young musicians of all sizes and in a variety of colorful uniforms. They're here for the annual State High School Music Festival—about 8,000 of them—and they come from 317 schools all over the state. During the three days you see them everywhere in groups, waiting their turn to perform, or relaxing after their performance is over.

Entries are judged against a perfect performance and are given numerical ratings, but there is no competition in the sense that a first, second, or third place winner is selected.

This year's entries included 63 high school bands, 9 orchestras, 73 choruses. There were also more than 600 small ensembles (groups of three to ten persons), including 375 instrumental and 230 vocal ensembles. There were 169 piano soloists, 521 other instrumental soloists, and 409 vocal soloists.

The University serves as host and operates the Music Festival under general policies and regulations formulated by a committee appointed by the Missouri Music Educators Association and approved by the Missouri State High School Activities Association.

Here are a few scenes that become familiar each year during the Music Festival week-end. On the opposite page, band performances in the new Jesse Auditorium take on a concert appearance, and two youngsters enjoy a soda at the Student Union. As the lad at left illustrates, it seems the tiniest musicians always tote the largest musical instruments. Before and after performances the young visitors enjoy some rest—and instrument cases, by the way, come in handy as improvised seats. The baton twirler below goes through her routine beside the Thomas Jefferson Monument, with an interested crowd and the Columns in the background.

BACK FROM BURMA, Dr. Clayton H. Johnson retains many impressions of that country, although he was there but four months into which he crammed a lot of travel and teaching. The associate professor of geology was one of a five-man team of American experts engaged to teach Burmese ministry officials the techniques of aerial photograph interpretation. The government already has photographed about one-third of the country from the air. Headquarters for the courses was at the University of Rangoon, and the trainees under Dr. Johnson had at least a bachelor's degree in one of the sciences. The Missourian, whose teaching methods call for give and take in the classroom, found the going tough at first. The tendency of students in Burma, he says, is to accept the printed word and the educator's statements without question. This trait, developed throughout the schooling of the Burmese student, becomes frustrating for the type of professor who likes to stimulate his hearers to pro and con discussion. Before he had finished, Dr. Johnson had succeeded in getting an occasional "rise" out of the trainees, and on field trips they talked quite freely. Like other University professors who fill assignments in foreign countries, Dr. Johnson has been invited by campus and civic groups to relate his experiences, which he illustrates with color slides.

GEORGE ROBB ELLISON, retiring judge of the Supreme Court of Missouri, was honored during a district meeting of the Missouri Bar in Columbia. Tributes to Judge Ellison, who served more than thirty years on the bench, were paid by C. A. Leedy, Jr., chief justice of the Supreme Court; Glenn A. McCleary, dean of the University School of Law; and John T. Barker, former attorney general of Missouri and past president of the Missouri Bar Association. "No judge on any court high or low strove more diligently to find the right," said Judge Leedy, who was associated with Judge Ellison on the bench from 1932. Dean McCleary said the University has been using Judge Ellison's opinions in teaching for 26 years and that these would live long after his retirement. Barker reviewed the background of Judge Ellison, whose family has produced Missouri judges for more than a century.

TENNESSEE WILLIAMS, whose new play, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," won the 1955 Pulitzer Prize for drama, was a student at M.U. from '29 to '32. He was enrolled as Thomas Lanier Williams, from St. Louis, in Arts and Science and Journalism. He won honorable mention on two entries in Workshop's original one-act play contests with "Beauty Is the Word" and "Hot Milk at Three o'Clock in the Morning." The 1932 Savitar used a page to display his four-line poem, "Not Without Knowledge," which went:

*"A kiss brings pain"—
Approvingly I quote
These words that sage Rodrigo wrote—
And yet I'll kiss again.*

It was signed Thomas Lanier Williams, Missouri Chapter of the College Poetry Society.

PIERRE HUSS, who almost graduated from J School but took a job instead of a degree, has been honored by International News Service upon completing his 25th year with that organization. The chief of the INS bureau at the United Nations, known to his colleagues as "Prolific Pete" because of his heavy output of fast copy every day, was presented a comprehensive bulletin on his anniversary. It included a biography, numerous congratulatory messages from notables in this country and abroad, and reprints of some of Pierre's greatest scoops. He has received many awards and citations and war medals for his work. In 1942 he received a distinguished service medal from the School of Journalism and a few years ago appeared on the J Week program. The diplomats at the UN know Pete well and many seek his opinions because of his knowledge of world affairs. He lives, with his wife and two daughters, atop Larchmont Woods near New Rochelle, N. Y. His good friend, Carlos Romulo, former president of the UN Assembly, is godfather to both the Huss children.

THE UNIVERSITY is one of eight mid-west colleges and universities included in an engineering and commerce scholarship program started this year by the Maytag Company Foundation, Inc. of Newton, Iowa. The program provides $200 supplementary scholarships to students entering their senior year this fall, according to Robert E. Vance, Maytag Company secretary and president of the Foundation. Since the Foundation was chartered late in 1952, a total of nearly a quarter million dollars in grants has been made toward the exclusive support of educational, scientific, charitable and religious organizations. Over half of this sum, $153,000, went toward the Foundation's regular scholarship program.

REMEMBER THE PICTURE of Admiral Peary on the back page of the April Alumnus? Fred M. Dearing, '07 as of '01, returned it with this note: "This is the gentleman who was one of my first callers when I went to the Embassy in London in 1910. Now we meet again." Mr. Dearing had occasion to meet many notables during his long career as a diplomat. He was in the American Foreign Service from 1904 to 1938, was ambassador to Peru and minister to Sweden, and served as assistant Secretary of State in Wilson's administration. He had assignments with legations in Cuba, Portugal, China, Mexico, Great Britain, and Russia. A native of Columbia and a graduate of Columbia High School, he is a brother of Frank W. Dearing, '99. Fred lives at Red Hook, Dutchess County, New York.

TRIPOD'S WHEREABOUTS are as much a mystery as his ancestry. The grim suspicion is that he is no longer of this world. He has been absent from his usual haunts for weeks, but no one seems to have enough follow-through to determine whether he is temporarily in the dog pound, the clinic, or a rest home.

University holds advance registration for Fall Semester at Columbia June 27-August 31

New Students Like M. U.'s System of Enrolling Early

THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI, for the tenth straight year, is conducting advance registration at Columbia for new students during the period June 27 through August 31.

This system of "getting the details out of the way" early appeals to a larger number of enrollees each year. Today three-fourths of the University's enrollment for the Fall Semester is completed during the summer months.

Advance registration, directed by H. E. Mueller, assistant director of admissions, offers numerous advantages to the Freshman or former student. He completes the procedure in one day's time. With an early look at the campus, he "gets his bearings" and a preview of the atmosphere of which he will be a part for the next few years.

Registering at M. U. in advance provides an occasion for a family trip to Columbia. New students often are accompanied by their parents and other members of the family. They may enjoy the comfort of air-conditioned Memorial Student Union, which serves ideally as registration headquarters.

The new student reaps the best advantage of early registration when he returns to the campus in the fall. Then, during the two days allotted to regular registration, he has comparative leisure time in which to get settled in his new quarters, make friends, and become better acquainted with his surroundings.

Registration quarters are open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Saturday and holidays. Registration activities begin in the Student Union at the information desk on the main floor. Freshmen (including transfer students with less than 24 hours credit) are required to take placement tests. They should report by 8:30 a.m. in order to complete registration the same day.

The steps which the new student takes to register in advance are illustrated on the following pages.

The Student Union is headquarters for advance registration; this is a view of the comfortable Main Lounge.

1—Enters Union building.

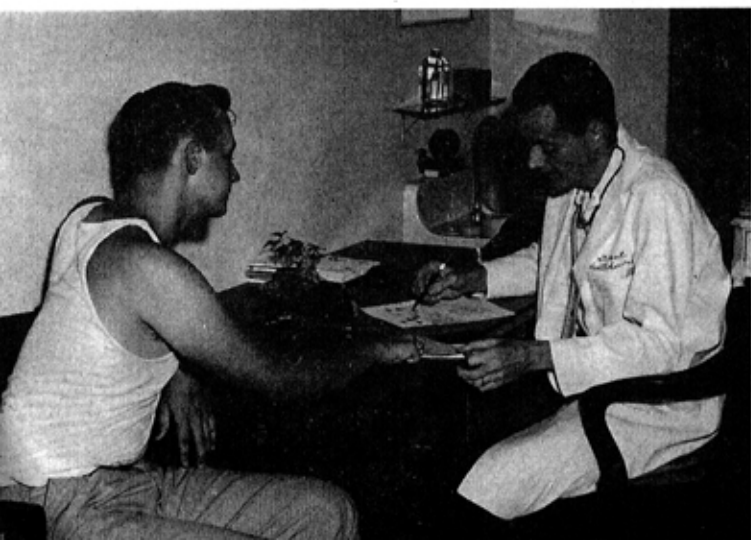

2—

Missou

These pictures follow rounds of completing advance work at the University of Missouri, typical, and the pictures articulate the usual sequence of steps in the process.

Going to the Memorial reports to the information Admissions Office on the checks his admission status tests, and picks up his permit may also apply for housing financial aid.

4—Gets physical examination.

5—Lunches at Student Union.

Receives instructions.

3—Takes placement tests.

Encourages Early Registration

... student in his
... registration at
... His experience is
... numbered to indi-
... steps in the one-day

... Student Union, he
... desk set up by the ... main floor. He
... s, takes placement
... mit to enroll. He
... g and, if needed,

He then reports to the Student Health Service for his physical. Next, after lunch, he consults his adviser at the college he plans to enter, receiving assistance in making out a study program.

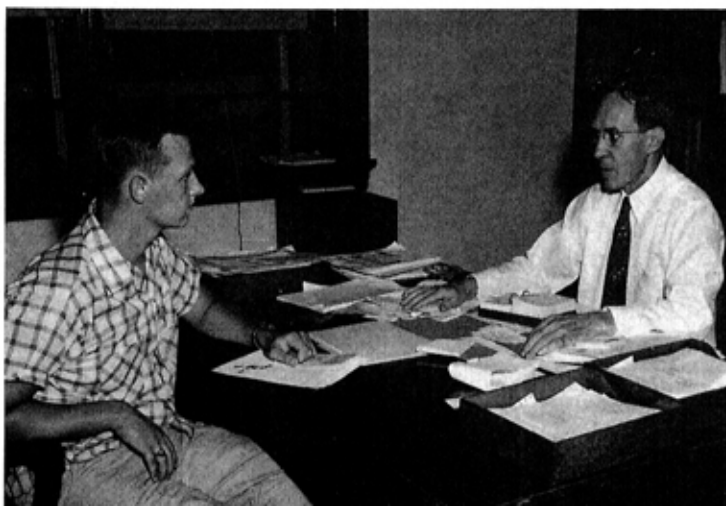

The final step is returning to the Union with the signed study program for course cards and final approval.

Advance registration is a more centralized operation than when it was originated in 1946. Two years ago 5,083 students registered in advance for the Fall Semester; last summer the number increased to 5,587.

7—Turns in study program.

6—Talks with his adviser.

Weddings

41

Miss Jeanne Lee Daniel and Dr. NOLEN LEE ARMSTRONG, March 5, in the chapel of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Oklahoma City, Okla. After receiving his bachelor of science degree, Dr. Armstrong received a degree in medicine. He has been practicing in Oklahoma City.

47

Miss Eve L. Simonyi and DONALD BLAKE, Jan. 30, at the Evangelical Congregational Chapel, Columbia. They are living in Columbia while he is finishing his studies in Veterinary Medicine.

49

Miss Challen Margaret Cody and PAUL B. KOCH, Feb. 12, in St. Louis. Mrs. Koch teaches at Hodgen school and he teaches at the Ferguson High School.

Miss Joan Bennett Reines and Lt. ALVIN H. EINBENDER, Albany, New York, Feb. 6. He is in the judge advocate general's department of the air force, stationed at Laurence G. Hanscom field in Bedford, Mass. They are living in Wellesley Hills, Mass.

Miss Gloria Annette Patterson and ARTHUR R. SELDON, at Fort Sam Houston Chapel, San Antonio, Texas on Nov. 27, 1954. He is an executive Assistant for the firm of Cage Bros., General Contractors, in San Antonio. They are living at 215 Emporia Blvd., Apt. 8.

50

ANNA MARGARET THOMAS and Norman C. Caron, Jan. 30, in the First Methodist Church, St. Joseph. Mrs. Caron has just spent the past two years in Japan with the army special service program. They are living in Kansas City.

Miss Carol June Overfield and CHARLES STEPHEN GRAHAM MOTT, in the First Christian Church, Poplar Bluff, Mo., Feb. 19. He is employed as district salesman for the John Sexton Co. They live at 848a Apple St., Poplar Bluff.

Miss Myra Jane Dettewanger and JAMES A. AMBROSE, Feb. 14, in St. Louis. He is publicity director of the St. Louis Council of Boy Scouts. They are living at 6436 Murdoch Ave.

Miss Jeannine Lachmund and Dr. JAMES E. JAMESON, in the Central Methodist Church, Kansas City, on March 11. He is serving as a resident orthopedic surgeon at General Hospital. They are living in Kansas City.

51

Miss Maxine Christensen and JOHN FITZGERALD, Feb. 3, at St. Muchin's Catholic Church, Cameron, Mo. He is employed by the Kansas City Life Insurance Co., Kansas City, Mo., where they have made their home.

Miss Ruth Elizabeth Gehl and FRANK DOUGLAS FIELD, at the Salem, Mo. Evangelical Lutheran Church, Feb. 19. They are temporarily living with Mrs. Field's parents until their home in Crestwood (St. Louis) is ready.

Miss Martha Walker and WILLIAM DONALD MERRITT, Feb. 21, at the First Presbyterian Church, Boonville. He spent two years with the Air Force, one in Korea. They live in Columbia, where they will attend the University next fall.

Miss Jacqueline Faith Thebus and THOMAS KLUCK, Dec. 11, 1954. He is employed in the laboratory at St. Luke's hospital where Mrs. Kluck is in her senior year of nurses training.

52

Miss Rosalie Powell and ROBERT HUNT, Jan. 30 in the Leadwood Methodist Church, Farmington, Mo. He is in the Graduate School and expects to receive his Master's degree in June.

Miss Patsy Louise Scott and RICHARD RALPH CRAMER, at the First Baptist Church, March 18. They are both employed by the MFA Mutual Insurance Co., Columbia, and are living at 217 W. Broadway.

Miss Gitta Jean Kaperl and ANTHONY S. JACOBS, Feb. 5, in the Muehlebach Hotel, Kansas City. He is an account executive for Bozell & Jacobs, Inc., advertising and public relations agency. They are living at 2909 Sheridan Road, Chicago 14, Ill.

BEVERLY JOY BUSBY and Jack Edward Wilkerson, at the First Methodist Church, Aurora, Mo., April 9. Mrs. Wilkerson was formerly Garden and Home editor of the Times Picayune, New Orleans, La. They are living in Denver, Colo., where he is a staff correspondent with the United Press.

53

BETTY RABOURN LAMM and Ens. John Bancroft Dana, in the First Christian Church, Centralia, Mo., Feb. 13. Mrs. Dana has been supervisor of music in the Fulton schools. They are living in Jacksonville, Fla., where he has been assigned to the Naval Air Force Squadron.

54

Miss Shirley Ann Otto and ARTHUR McHARG BREIPOHL, Feb. 12, at the Southwest Baptist Church, St. Louis. He was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They have gone to Fort Monmouth, N. J., where he reported as a second lieutenant.

Miss Ruth McCubbin and DEAN KETCHUM, in the Calvary Baptist Church, Columbia, Feb. 13. He has left for the Lackland Air Force Base where he was commissioned as a second lieutenant.

Miss Mary Lou Skaggs and JAMES D. WELCH, Feb. 17, in the Woodside Methodist Church, Thayer, Mo. They have made their home in Thayer.

DOROTHY SCHWARZ and Ralph Eugene Munson, at the Missouri Methodist Church, Columbia, Jan. 29. They are living in Columbia until he completes his studies.

JEANNINE REILLY and Ralph B. Mayer, Feb. 12 in Independence, Mo. They live at 203 South Sixth St., Columbia, until he finishes his studies.

Miss Anita Sue Williams and Lt. ROBERT GAIL MAIN, Jan. 31, at the Old Post chapel, Fort Sill, Okla. He was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

MARGARET ANN HAMMOND and LEONARD FAHRMEIER '53, at the American Church, Caracas, Venezuela, Jan. 13. They have temporarily made their home in Caracas, where he is employed by Sinclair Oil and Refining Co. as a geologist.

JOAN COLLINS and Lt. Robert W. Cowan, Jan. 16, at the First Methodist church, West Plains. Mrs. Cowan is employed as advertising manager of the Daily Quill. He is stationed at Fordland Air Force Base. They live at 215 Maple, West Plains.

Miss Catherine Cheyne and Lt. BAXTER DUNBAR, April 3, in the First Congregational Church of Moline, Ill. He has been stationed at Ft. Still, Okla. but will leave for Germany this month, and his wife will join him later.

BABARA E. GLENN and Sgt. Darrell Waisner, at the First Baptist Church, Warsaw, Mo., June 20, 1954. He is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood where he will complete his Army career next month. Mrs. Waisner's address is Box 665, Waynesville, Mo.

Miss Patricia Sue Brown and WILLIAM STEVEN EHRlich, March 20, at the First Baptist Church, Slater, Mo. They are now living near Montgomery City, where he is engaged in farming.

MARGARET ADELLE FRY and EDWARD GENTRY BEHRENS '50, at the Centenary Methodist Church, Louisiana, March 26. They are living at 216 North Third, Louisiana, Mo.

BETTY LOU COX and William Dale Chapman, April 9, at the First Baptist Church, Jefferson City. He is a senior in the University. They are living at 903 S. Jefferson, Mexico.

55

Miss Ruth Hoar and JOHN P. UTTERBACK, July 24, 1954. Since January they have been living in Kansas City.

CLASS NOTES

88 WILLIAM R. GENTRY was presented the 1955 Award of Honor of the St. Louis Lawyers' Association at a banquet at the Hotel Chase on April 29. He has practiced law in St. Louis for 59 years and is still in active practice; in fact there is no lawyer in St. Louis today who can fight a case harder than Will Gentry. He is also active in Masonic circles and was Grand Master in 1930-31. He comes from a University family. His uncle, ROBERT L. TODD, 1845, was one of the two graduates in the first class; his father THOMAS BENTON GENTRY, 1874, his brother Judge NORTH TODD GENTRY, 1884, his son, WILLIAM R. GENTRY, Jr., 1922, are some of his kin who have received diplomas, in many cases more than one degree.

04 Dr. HARRY R. HAAS, Box 121, Disney, Okla., is now living in semi-retirement on the banks of beautiful Grand Lake in northeast Oklahoma after practicing medicine in Sapulpa, Okla. for 40 years.

07 The address of Mrs. CLAIRE HORNBY Carter is 250 Pacific Ave., Tustin, Calif.

08 D. HOWARD DOANE, Grassland Farm, McCredie, Mo., known in his campus days as "Howdie" Doane, now chairman of the Board of the Doane Agricultural Service Inc., tells us that TRUE D. MORSE, '24, now Under-secretary of Agriculture, was with the Doane Agency for 25 years, having served for eight years as president. Missouri has always been well represented among the 250 employees who make up the organization, REX R. BAILEY, '22, succeeded Morse as President; A. J. BERWICK, '32, is first vice-president, and A. DAVIS ELKIN, '18, is secretary.

09 EDMUND WILKES, Jr., 4706 Broadway, Kansas City 12, Mo., will before long have grandchildren in the University, who will represent five generations in unbroken line of alumni in one family. The first Wilkes, as far as we can run it down, was LANSFORD B. WILKES, 1850, who became president of Christian College. His son was EDMUND WILKES, Sr., '80, who was a minister, and died not long ago in Boone County, where he was active in church work until his death; EDMUND WILKES, Jr., was for some years Chief Structural Engineer for Jones Heffelsater Construction Co., but has been since 1942 associated with Black and Veatch, Consulting Engineers, as principal assistant engineer. He says that he and Mrs. Wilkes (CROWLEY F. McCLELLAND, '10) are still the happy parents of four children, three of whom are graduates of the University: EDMUND WILKES III, '42, FRANCES, '37 (Mrs. Linn Poley), and ELIZABETH, '34 (Mrs. William Higginbotham). There are fourteen grandchildren. Of course we have covered only one line in the Wilkes family who are alumni of the University, and some day we may try to straighten out the other Wilkes descendents of Lansford B. Wilkes, a severe looking old gentleman, whose portrait hangs in the halls at Christian College.

WILLIAM R. GENTRY, '88

10 HARLOW SHAPLEY, Harvard Observatory, professor of astronomy and lecturer on Cosmography, was chosen by Yale University as this year's Distinguished Visitor. In New Haven he gave six lectures on Cosmography, a newly devised "discipline" that presents an integration of modern sciences for the upper class non-science student.

11 CLARA SCHWIEDER Gentry (Mrs. Overton), lives at 114 North Byers Ave., Joplin, Mo.

OVA LEE RUPE, 2039 Webster, Topeka, Kan., retired in 1950.

12 HOLLINGTON K. TONG sent in a five-year membership in the Alumni Association from the Embassy of the Republic of China, Tokyo, Japan.

Mrs. Charles C. Byers (LOUISE STIPP), may be reached at 105 East 78th Terrace, Kansas City, Mo.

WYETH DeVILBLISS, 12 N. Arcturas Ave., Clearwater, Fla., has all the time he wants for fishing and golf since his retirement in March from the Long Lines Department of the American Telegraph and Telephone Co.

MORRELL DEREIGN is practicing law with his son, MORRELL DEREIGN, Jr., '35, at Caruthersville, Mo.

13 PHIL CONRATH is Medical Illustrator and director of St. Louis U. and president of the Association of Medical Illustrators. He is a frequent contributor to national magazines.

H. A. FOUNTAIN, 1711 Central, Joplin, Mo., is manager of Concrete Burial Vaults. He says he and his wife had a visit with STOCKTON FOUNTAIN, '12 in McAllen, Tex. on the way to Mexico in December, and with CARTER TAYLOR, '13, and GEORGE E. (Nappy) GARANFLO, '13, at Fort Worth, on the way home.

HOWARD JOHN LAMADE is secretary and vice-presidents of Grit Publishing Co., 200-222 W. 3rd St., Williamsport, Pa. He is married and has two children. He is director of the Little League, Inc. and a member of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania State University.

14 CLAUDE B. CROSS, 73 Tremont St., Boston 8, Mass., has practiced law in Boston since 1921. By court appointment, he defended Douglas Chandler, an American radio commentator in Berlin during the last war for treason, and he defended Alger Hiss in his second trial. He says he had a letter from PAUL CARRINGTON, '14, and that he has a case in which the firm of PAUL ARTHUR, '15, and MORRIS DRY, '18, represents the other side.

R. B. GALBRAITH, Rt. 3, Box 334, Vernon, Texas, continues teaching, and stays in the same place, something rare for a teacher to do in these days; however, Texas, which allocates the large income from certain products brought across the border to the schools, is able to pay its teachers better than many other states.

BOOK MANUFACTURERS • PRINTERS • BINDERS

Private Editions
Law Books
Text Books
Directories
Catalogs

Office Forms
Programs
Stationery
Circulars
Announcements

E. W. STEPHENS COMPANY
Columbia, Missouri

15 Dr. MILDRED E. JOHNSON, professor of Spanish in the University, is translator of an anthology, "Spanish Poems of Love." The book that she is working on now covers pre-modernist and contemporary Latin-American poets. She has been on the teaching staff here since 1923.

RAYMOND KESSLER has been a member of the faculty of the Hermann (Mo.) Elementary Schools for the last ten years.

16 PAUL J. REESE, 7181 Washington Ave., University City 5, Mo., is manager of development and application engineering, automotive engineering division, of the Wagner Electric Corporation, 6400 Plymouth Ave., St. Louis.

17 CARTER L. WILLIAMS, 1805 Grand Ave., Kansas City, Mo., an insurance broker, sends us some welcome news about other alums. His son CURTIS C. WILLIAMS, '15, is in the insurance business in the Altman Building, Kansas City. JOHN S. SNYDER, '23, is Ford district manager at Charlotte, N. C. MARSHALL B. ARNOLD, '09, is a retired naval commander living at 7832 Ney Ave., Oakland, Calif. LESTER E. CADMAN, '14 represents the Hall Bros. greeting cards at Harrisburg, Pa. CLIFFORD H. JOHNSON, '09, is now with the FHA housing in New Orleans, RR 6, Box 9. JOHN KILLICK, '25, is executive secretary National Meat Packers Association, 740 11th St., N.W., Washington D. C. EDDIE ANDERSON, '12, is with the Sheffield Steel Corp. in Nebraska. Dr. RADFORD F. PITTAM, '15, may be reached at 418 Hyde Park Drive, Hutchinson, Kan. CHARLES ALLIS, '35, General Outdoor Advertising Co. in Kansas City, was married in December to Martha Page Brooks. Judge DUVAL P. STROTHER, '16, Circuit Court, Jackson County, Mo., was elected Dean of the Kansas City chapter of the legal fraternity, Delta Theta Phi. Why don't some of the rest of you alums do a little reporting for us such as Carter Williams has done!

Dr. TRAVIS POLLARD BURROUGHS is practicing medicine in San Francisco, where he may be reached at 2446 32nd Ave.

JEAN LEMMON BENSON, 69 N. Rio Vista, New Orleans 21, La., is director, Family and Child Welfare Division, New Orleans Council of Social Agencies.

18 JAMES GREENLEAF UMSSTATD is professor of education at the University of Texas. His wife was ETHEL McNUTT, his classmate, and they live at 1500 Wooldridge Drive, Austin, Tex. One of their sons, James, is a lawyer, and one, Robert, a doctor. Four grandchildren are their pride and joy.

Dr. CARL E. RICE is a physician with the Jefferson County Health Dept., Hillsboro, Mo.

OLIVE HAWKINS Wetmore (Mrs. Ralph H.) lost her first husband, C. WILSON SMITH, in 1934. She then married Prof. Wetmore of the Harvard department of biology. She has two daughters, Katherine and Jean. Olive works as a volunteer to improve the city-manager form of government. Her part-time professional interest is as director of a short, non-credit course of lectures offered to Radcliffe and Harvard graduate students on "Preparation for College Teaching." The Wetmores live at 12 Francis Ave., Cambridge 38, Mass.

19 FRANK HARRELSON is now retired and lives at 1808 Flower Drive, Harbor Acres, Sarasota, Fla.

20 WILLIAM GIBBONS LACY, after varied experience in advertising here and in the Far East, is now managing editor of the Milking Shorthorn Journal, Springfield, Mo. He is married and has two sons.

21 LEON H. ALBUS, 414 Winwood Drive, Pittsburg, Kan., retired in June, 1953 as general works manager, Spencer Chemical Co. He and his wife expect to spend a good deal of time in travel. He attended the dinner for Herb Bunker in Kansas City in March.

Dr. WILLIAM W. FELLOWS, manager of the Veterans Administration research hospital at Chicago, has been appointed assistant chief medical director for plan-

WORKER with 1,000 JOBS

That's REDDY KILOWATT Your Electric Servant

Yes, Reddy has a hand in almost everything you do today. He does your housework, runs the factories, works hard on the farms, and helps the storekeeper in hundreds of ways.

He loves it, too! Working 24 hours a day is his idea of a good time, so use him as much as you like. Flip the switch and watch him take the work out of housework.

In general, he helps make life healthier, happier and a little easier all around. It's also good to know that Reddy's hourly wage is still among the lowest items in your family budget.

Kansas City
POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

ning in the VA Central Office, Washington, D. C. In this assignment, he directs the planning of the medical care program of the VA under the chief medical director for VA's 172 hospitals, 104 outpatient clinics, and 17 domiciliarys.

E. E. BEATTY, 2060 Glass Road, N.E., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in addition to being a manufacturer's representative, has a company under his own name; this acts as industrial engineer for the feed and grain trade. It furnishes designs and layouts for machinery and equipment used in industry as well as the machinery and the equipment.

22 O. W. BOND, 1206 Harlem Blvd., Rockford, Ill. retired from foreign service with Standard-Vacuum Oil Co. in 1948 after 26 years in India. He has been director of admissions at Rockford College for the past five years. He is married and has three daughters, Barbara, Diana, and Marjorie, two of whom have graduated from college, and the youngest is a senior at Rockford.

HANNAH A. STILLMAN (Mrs. R. Bradford) is in the Far East with her son Jim and her husband. They will remain there until September, '56.

ALMA LEE HOCKER (Mrs. Ward H. Ferrill), 10511 Prospect Ave., Chicago, is busy as the wife of Dr. WARD H. FERRILL, '30, and the mother of two sons in high school, Gerald Rogers and Philip Lee, but she does manage some civic work in the PTA, High School Council, and Hospital Guild and Auxiliary. Dr. Ferrill is chairman of the department of physiology and pharmacology at the Chicago College of Osteopathy. He is a practicing physician with offices at 1808 W. 103rd St., Chicago. He took his Ph.D. in physiology at the University of Chicago.

WILLIAM V. KAHLER, president of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co., has been elected a member of the board of trustees of the University of Chicago.

23 E. LINDSEY BUSH, Box 382, Welbourne, Iowa, recently attended a 30-year reunion of the Young Men's Civic Forum at Kansas City. He says JOHN E. MILLER, the world's best master of ceremonies, was even sharper than usual. He thinks it was worth the trip many times over because he saw other M.U. grads of various years: VERNON HELMERS, BOB CLASSEN, "Cotton" LEON ALBERS, PREWETT TURNER, DUPEE WARRICK, HENRY DEPPING, and many others.

SARA SAPER Gauldin, who wrote some of the best poetry ever produced on the Missouri campus, says she is still concerned with playwriting, poetry, and literary criticism. She married T. A. Gauldin and has two daughters, Jerry Virginia and Karin Elizabeth. They live at 4266 Neosho, Venice, Calif.

24 C. W. LAPIERRE, 570 Lexington Ave., New York 22, N. Y., became a life member of the Missouri Alumni Association in March.

JANE MCGAIN, Mrs. Paul M. Bernard, 1170 Kirkham Road, Glendale 22, Mo., is a teacher in Webster Groves High School.

JOHN WEIDEMEYER COLT, 409 Englewood Road, Kansas City, 16, Mo. is now managing editor of the Kansas City Star. His six children are: Carol J., John V., Richard Z., Robert E., Linda L., and James B.

LOUISE BARTHOLD, 12588 Cedar Road, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, is in personnel work.

25 DOROTHY LEE BROWN Bolton, who was prominent on the campus in many organizations, including Mortar Board, married PAUL BOLTON, '26. She says he has become a TV news program "character." Paul is news editor and assistant manager, KTBC-TV, Austin, Tex. The Boltons have two children and three grandchildren. They live at 2212 Windsor Road, East Austin, Tex.

CHARLES CURTIS CLAYTON is executive assistant on the St. Louis Globe-Democrat since 1951. He has received many honors, among them the School of Journalism's medal for Distinguished Service in Journalism, but nothing pleased him more than when his daughter CAROL, '49, was Scoop Queen. His son, Charles, entered the School of Journalism last fall.

26 WILLIAM A. BORDERS, Clayton, Mo. has been appointed director of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines, Iowa. He is president of the Missouri Bankers' Association, a former member of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association, and director of the Clayton Federal Savings and Loan Association. He is a prominent Rotarian and heads various civic organizations.

CONSTANCE ROACH, who is with the Department of State as assistant director for program operations, will be assigned to a post in the United States Foreign Service upon completion of a six months briefing and training course. Her permanent address is 6011 Central St., Kansas City.

IRVINE JACK ENGLISH is with the Standard-Vacuum Oil Company, Serles Gardens, No. 2 Greenway Road, Adyar, Madras, India.

Dr. LAURA NAHM, professor of biology and head of the biology department at Central Missouri State College, and a former president of the Missouri division of the American Association of University Women, spoke to the Nevada, Mo. branch of the organization and in the assembly of Cotter College in March. She was a Fulbright lecturer in biology at Baghdad, Iraq, in 1953-54.

27 JOHN B. BISHOP, 2501 River Dr., Burlington, Iowa, who was on the varsity baseball team of '24, '25, and '26, is advertising manager of the Hawk-Eye Gazette, Burlington. The Bishops have one daughter, Nancy. He especially recalls the Journalism Show Bagdaddies, in which he had a small part.

MAURINE SMITH McCain is with the Owens-Illinois Glass Co., Whitehead Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. She has two children, Howard and Susan.

28 WALDO A. BERLEKAMP, 65th St., Nicholas Place, Fort Thomas, Ky., is pastor of Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church, Fort Thomas. He married LORETTA KIMMEL, '30. They have two children, Marian, who will probably be in the School of Journalism next September, and Elwyn, now in the 9th grade. Dr. Berlekamp was pastor at Sandusky, Ohio for 19 years, and came to Fort Thomas in 1949. He received an honorary Doctor of Divinity from Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio, in 1950. We will all be glad to see Marian.

HENRY EVERETT BELDEN, 11715 East 49rd St., Kansas City, Mo., is vice-president of the Hanna Rubber Co., Kansas City.

Dr. RAYMOND E. PECK, professor of geology in the University and LEONARD A. VOSS, '34, have been promoted from major to lieutenant colonel in the Columbia Air Reserve Center. Col. Peck is commander of Columbia's Flight A, and Col. Voss is chief of the Air Reserve Administration and Personnel Section.

29 Dr. FRANK T. KERR has been practicing medicine at Monett, Mo., since 1952. He has served one term on the school board. An avid sports fan, he is called on to do many things for his town. He belongs to various professional associations. His two sons, Dick and Frank, are in high school.

ROY M. BARNES, 2508 La Siesta Dr., Bakersfield, Calif. is farm adviser, University of California Extension Service.

Mrs. Loren E. Greason (VIOLA MAY ROLLINS) is a free-lance advertising writer and lives at 2512 Melvin, Brentwood 17, Mo. Her son, James Rollins Hoag, is in J School and her daughter Patricia Ann Hoag, plans to attend M.U. next fall.

BOONE COUNTY
ABSTRACT COMPANY

PHIL SIMPICH
President

*You only own your ground
When the title is sound.*

H. LAWRENCE LAUPHEIMER, 30 Fara Drive, Stamford, Conn., is National Merchandising Director, Schenley Distillers Corp., New York, N. Y. His wife is the former MAYME ELAINE HANLON, '30, and his son Garry is a prospective Tiger for the freshman class of 1956. We will certainly be glad to welcome Garry to the Alma Mater of his mother and father.

LYNDEN E. ANDERSON, 212 Wilson Ave., Kirkwood, Mo., is an account executive for H. George Bloch Adv. Agency, Clayton, Mo.

SAMUEL I. MAJOR, 111 W. Lowden St., Fort Worth, Texas, is with Major Industries, real estate and general investment.

RALPH E. PAUL, Lexington, Mo. has a son, Larry Lee, who is a freshman in the University. Ralph is instructor of vocational agriculture.

MARVIN J. SNIDER, a senior engineer of the Missouri State Highway Commission's division of construction, assumed duties on March 1 as engineer for the Commission's District 9, with headquarters at Willow Springs. He has worked for the commission since his graduation.

BEVERLY T. MOSS, moved in August from Los Angeles to 816-A South Norman Ave., Evansville, Indiana.

STEPHEN G. LAMAR, a guidance and attendance counselor at Maryville (Mo.)

High School says he is glad for this opportunity to say "Hello" to the many fine teachers and fellow students he has known at the University. Mrs. Lamar, a home economics teacher, and he live on a farm at old LaMar Station, RFD 2, Burlington Junction, Mo., with their five daughters, Marylyn, Barbara, Dixie, Jane, and Judy. The two oldest are in college and the other three go to school near home. All five play musical instruments, sing and tap dance, and the family is quite often called on to put on programs. Their father at one time was the youngest superintendent of a county-seat school system in the state.

WILL DAVIS, chief clerk in the office of Secretary of State, was featured speaker on March 3 at the meeting of the St. Francois Democratic Club in Flat River, Mo. He is a member and publicity director of the Democratic state committee. Davis is active in veterans' organizations and holds 16 combat decorations awarded him as a crew member of a B-26 during the last war.

30 Dr. RALPH BEDELL has gone to New Caledonia to serve as secretary-general with the South Pacific Commission. He taught at the Teachers College of the University of Nebraska until he went to the State Department in 1950. Mrs. Bedell accompanied him. They were guests of honor at a number of affairs given by old friends when they were in Lincoln, Neb. on a visit.

Mrs. JENNIE ALICE LOGAN Milster (Mrs. Ben) of the Home Builders Class, National City Christian Church, was chosen as the outstanding Bible Class worker of Washington for 1954. The award was sponsored by the Organized Bible Class Association of Washington. Mrs. Milster taught for some years in the schools of Missouri. She lives at 13 W. Del Ray Ave., Alexandria, Va.

MARIE BRENNECKE, chairman of the mathematics department at Washington High School, East Chicago, Ind., is the new chairman of the Northwest Division in charge of planning the convention program to be held in the Lake County area next October. She has been a teacher in Indiana since 1944. She has held office in numerous professional organizations. In addition to school activities, she has taken part in civic organizations and for five years has served as counselor at Camp Shoshoni, near Boulder, Col. She is a native of Sedalia, Mo.

RALPH MARCELLUS has been county superintendent of Phelps County (Mo.) for many years. He has also been active in civic affairs and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Missouri State Teachers Association.

What's New With You?

your MISSOURI ALUMNUS wants to know!

Here's a ready-to-use form we want you to fill out with current personal news of yourself, your family or about other classmates you've recently seen or heard from.

Date.....

Name Class

Mailing Address

Occupation

What is news? Change of address, or occupation, marriage or addition to the family. News of yourself or other members. (Use space below.)

Please enter my membership in the Alumni Association and bill me.
Mail to 101 Read Hall

HAROLD G. GARNER has been appointed district engineer in charge of the Kansas City, Mo. office of the Portland Cement Association. For ten years after his graduation he was a division soils engineer for the Missouri Highway Department and then joined the Portland Cement Association. He is a registered professional engineer in the state of Missouri and a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, as well as other professional organizations.

31 FRANCIS LINVILLE, at present assistant chief of International Resources Division of the State Department, has been appointed a Foreign Service Officer by the President. He entered the State Department in 1941. Previously he was on the faculty at Dartmouth College. Mr. and Mrs. Linville with their two daughters live at 8904 Woodhaven Blvd., Bethesda, Md.

We thought it was the most delightful thing when MARGARET SMOKE married David Ash, an instructor in the English department. She is now co-owner and editor with her husband of the Anita Tribune, Anita, Iowa. A column entitled, "Smoke and Ashes" written by them both appears on page one of their paper. They have two daughters, Mary Margaret and Deborah Anne.

AMOS H. EBLEN, Frankfort, Ky., lawyer, was honored by his state bar association as the lawyer who performed outstanding service during the year for a study that resulted in the revision of the state laws pertaining to grand and petit jurors. He is secretary to the Judicial Council and the Judicial Conference. His award was a silver pitcher. His wife is the former MARGUERITE GEORGE, '32.

32 ANDREW J. BERWICK as vice-president of the Doane Agricultural Service Inc., is in charge of all field operations of this company, and this includes farm management, rural appraising, appraising for tax equalization and related activities. He lives at 420 Marion Ave., Aurora, Ill.

CARL A. UFFERS, Jr. has been appointed general commercial manager of the Southwestern Bell at Topeka, Kan. He has been assistant vice-president of the company in St. Louis. He is married and has one daughter, Jean, 12.

Mrs. Frederick Blauth (HAZEL J. WHEELER), Tower Hill, Ill., retired to her home after eight years as classroom teacher and eight as superintendent of Tower Hill Community High School.

CHARLES J. BECHTOLD, 310 Homewood Ave., Libertyville, Ill. is head of the social studies department, Libertyville-Fremont H. S. He has a daughter in college. He lost his wife three years ago. Once a year he says he receives a card from his classmate, LENUAL REIHM, Texas City, Tex.

HAROLD GARNER, '30

W. O. BARROW, Box 104, Rogersville, Mo. is teaching vocational agriculture.

J. H. BRAND, Steelville, Mo., is county superintendent of schools. He is noted for his program to improve teaching in his county and has included workshops for teachers in improvement of teaching of reading, arithmetic, speech correction, fine arts, and other subjects as one method of accomplishing his aim. His work has received wide recognition outside Crawford Co., and he has been called on to take part in discussions at meetings of the Missouri State Teachers Association, and other groups.

33 DEE C. BLYTHE, P. O. Box 829, Clovis, N. M., a newspaperman turned lawyer, recently won an anti-trust suit in the Supreme Court of the United States. The case was Moore vs. Mead's Fine Bread Company. A classmate, WINDSOR BOOTH, of the National Geographic Society, sat in on the oral arguments in the Mead case.

Mrs. Walter O. Barrow, (MARY E. STAUBER), Box 104, Rogersville, Mo., has been teaching for the past two years in the high school. Her husband WALTER, was of the class of '32.

BEN FREIBERGER of Fulton, Mo., who has been connected with the schools of Callaway County since 1910, is now county superintendent. He has long been active in the work of the Missouri Association of County School Superintendents and is at the present time a member of the legislative and research committees of the Kirksville district of the organization.

MAZIE L. BLEDSOE, 5018 25th Road, North Arlington, Va., is on the staff of Sen. Stuart Symington. She has just been elected secretary of our Washington, D. C. Alumni Association. Mazie was especially happy when her sister, Mrs. Paul J. Hazur (DORIS BLEDSOE, '36) recently returned to this country with her family from San Jose, Costa Rica, where her husband spent four years with the Institute of Inter-American Affairs. The Hazurs and their four children are now at home at 5018 25th St. North, Arlington.

ROBERT S. BEACHY, Jr. has just bought a home at 6450 Sagamore Rd., Kansas City, Mo. He is president of the Temperature Industries, 1338 McGee St.

34 Capt. MARTHA GLENN FLESHER, USA, 2701 S. Wayne, Apt. 4, Arlington 6, Va., is army public information officer at the Pentagon.

Mrs. Ruth A. Lee (nee MESSMER, also Mueller), 256 Monica Drive, Kirkwood 22, Mo., is physical therapist, VA hospital, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

FRED JONES, 169 West First St., Galesburg, Ill., is a high school mathematics teacher. He is married and has a granddaughter.

GEORGE D. RICHARDSON has had 30 years of teaching experience in rural, grade, and high schools, 20 of which he served as grade school principal. At this time he is principal of the Hermann, Mo. high school.

35 BOWN ADAMS, who was known on the campus as president of Workshop and author of one-act plays, many of which were produced, and one of which ("The Pilgrim and the Dairy") won first place in the local one-act play contest of '35, has kept right on doing what his heart dictated, and this year his play "Saga," written in verse, was awarded a prize for the best original off-Broadway play for the 1954-55 season by two theater publications, "Show Business" and "Off Broadway Magazine." "Saga" has been running since last July in the Adams' Professional Studio Little Theatre, which Bown and his wife, Virginia Daly, conduct to train for stage, movies, radio, and TV. Many successful professionals have been graduated from this school.

BOWN ADAMS, '35

PAUL ZILLMAN has joined the staff of the American Meat Institute's Department of Livestock. His field is agricultural education and animal husbandry.

HELEN MOSLEY Dix (Mrs. William M.), 8 Homer St., Mobile, Ala., has a son, Stephen.

36 SAMUEL E. SEMPLE was appointed on March 15 judge of the ninth judicial circuit to succeed Judge Lawrence Holman who was sworn in as a Supreme Court Commissioner. He was sworn in March 17 in the circuit court room at Moberly. The Randolph County Bar Association held a special meeting for the ceremonies. He is married and has two children.

BARNETT G. GOODMAN is vice-president and secretary of the Federal Paper Stock Company, St. Louis. He says he hopes his four children will all be Missouri alumni some day, and we do too. They are Douglas, 12, Barbara, 9, Ellen Sue, 5, and John, 1 1/2. The Goodmans live at 533 Warren, University City 5, Mo.

Dr. IRVING S. VOGEL, 55 Adam St., Tonawanda, N. Y., is engaged in dental practice.

GORDON F. KING, 807 W. Ash St.,

Columbia, is in his 19th year with Houghton Mifflin Company, representing their high school and elementary field in eastern Missouri. His daughter is in the ninth grade and his son is a high school senior.

37 GEORGIA BOWMAN, 454 N. Missouri, Liberty, Mo., is director of forensics and assistant professor of journalism, William Jewell College. Georgia has had wide experience in speech, radio, teaching and journalism.

ALDEN A. STOCKARD, who was appointed commissioner of the Supreme Court of Missouri in December, is a native of Republic, Mo., attended elementary school in Springfield, and completed high school and two years of junior college after moving to Jefferson City in 1929. Upon leaving M.U. he was with the law office of Francis M. Curlee in St. Louis until 1942, when he began four years of Army service and was attached to the judge advocate's office of the European Theater of Operations. For a short time in 1946 and from mid-1951 until his appointment as commissioner, he was associated in the practice of law with his brother, GREGORY STOCKARD, '30, in Jefferson City. In the interim he was administrative assistant to Senator JAMES P. KEM, '10, in Washington. Mrs. Alden Stockard is the former MARY SIMS, '39. They have a daughter, Robyn, 7.

HERBERT VOLKENING, 4418A Morganford Rd., St. Louis, Mo., is chemist for the National Lead Co. He has been with this company since his graduation.

ALDEN A. STOCKARD, '37

He is building a home in St. Louis County.

Mrs. Donald Voorhies (ELIZABETH D. ULMAN) lives now at 1018 Buckingham Way, Morrisville, Pa.

38 BROWN R. RAWLINS has been elected assistant general auditor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. He has been employed at the bank since 1947, and formerly was senior economist.

R. T. JONES, 1525 Hyde Park Ave., Waukegan, Ill., is elementary principal at the Hyde Park and Central Schools.

LAWRENCE FARRANT, except for a two-year hitch with Editor & Publisher, has been a financial writer since 1946. He is now with the New York World-Telegram and Sun, and previously was on the staffs of the New York Journal of Commerce and the Providence Journal and Bulletin. He married BETTY WILSON, '37, and they have a son, Richard. The Farrants live at 12 Monroe St., New York City.

JOHN C. REICK, who had an orchestra in school that played at Harris' and Gaebler's, in 1942 organized the Phillips-Reick-Fardon Advertising Agency, 101 W. 11th St., Kansas City, Mo., which recently opened a Chicago office. He is married and has three daughters, Rebecca Luann and twins Martha Eva and Melinda Jane. The home address is 143 E. Pacific, Independence, Mo.

MAX A. KOERNER is editor and publisher of the Missouri Restaurant at 210 W. 8th St., Kansas City, Mo. His wife is the former FRANCES I. MORRIS, '37, and they have a daughter, Barbara Irene. Their home is at 204 W. Dartmouth Rd., Kansas City.

MILTON MANGUM, information officer with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, lives at 1011 Columbia Dr., Alexandria, Va.

Mort P. Strawn, center, after thirty-one years as a technician in the Department of Pathology in the School of Medicine, is shown with an engraved silver tray presented him by the department upon his retirement. A reception was given for Mr. Strawn at the home of Dr. Joseph E. Flynn (left), department chairman, who made the presentation. At the right is Dr. M. Pinson Neal, former chairman of the department under whom Mr. Strawn served for thirty years. Older alumni of the medical school will remember the veteran technician for his good humor and flaming red hair; the good humor remains, but the hair has faded to silver.

CLARENCE L. MURPHY, associate professor of guidance, Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, was guest speaker at the Hannibal Woman's Club on March 15. He spoke on Mental Health.

Dr. FRANK HEAGERTY has been elected governor of Rotary District 195. He is superintendent of the Lebanon, Mo., schools. Dr. and Mrs. Heagerty live at 416 Adams St. and their daughter Mary Ann is a student in the University.

39 A. O. HARDY has given 29 years to the service of the schools of St. Francois County, Mo., 22 years of that time as coach and teacher of history and social studies in Elvins High School. He was secretary-treasurer of the St. Francois County Teachers' Association for 8 years. His wife, LOUISE MEYER, '33, is a teacher in the Elvins elementary schools. Their daughter Marilyn is in high school, and their son Stanton is a junior in the university.

RICHARD H. BUELL, 7148 Maryland Ave., University City, Mo., who is a salesman, announces that they had another addition to their family on Feb. 25, when a second daughter, Nina Jane, joined them.

Mrs. Walter Benedict (BEULAH GRAHAM), 316 Alta, San Antonio 9, Tex. is a primary teacher at Alamo Heights.

NELSON RUSSELL for the last 4 1/2 years a veteran's on-the-farm training instructor at Bowling Green, Mo. high school, started work in March as Extension Service associate agent at large. At present he is located at Paris, Mo. He is a third-term councilman for the Louisiana city council. He is active in other civic affairs, including the Boy Scouts. The Russells have two married children.

Mrs. SALLY ANNE CARL (Mrs. William Crawford), head of the speech department of Carthage, Mo. High School, is completing her third year there. Whenever anyone in her neighborhood wants a play directed, they contact Sally, who can't resist. She belongs to various professional organizations, and with her husband and thirteen-year old son, lives at Jasper, Mo.

40 JANE C. BELCHER is assistant professor of biology and chairman of the biology department at Sweet Briar (Va.) College.

Mrs. Clayton M. Askins (MARY ROSALIE BOEHNER) taught five years after her graduation until her marriage. She and her husband have just built a new house at 1450 Young St., San Mateo, Calif. Their child, Beverly Joanne, is two and a half. Her sister Barbara is a sophomore in the University. She sends us news of her classmate, RACHEL BIBENS (Mrs. Kenneth Watkins), who has two children, Dale and Diane. She helps her husband in his grocery business and is quite active in PTA and Scout activities.

Mrs. BONNIE LEISINGER BARRUGH, 27 Jackson Blvd., Terre Haute, Ind., is associate professor of home economics at Indiana State Teachers College, Terre Haute.

LOYD G. KELLY, P.O. Box, 7172, Clewiston, Fla. has become a life member of the Missouri Alumni Association.

ELMER ARNSPERGER, Salisbury, Mo., is farming. His two children are Donald, 4 1/2, and Cecelia, 2 1/2.

HENRIETTA E. ENGLISH Baker (Mrs. Alvin) is the mother of two girls, 4 1/2 and 2, but she did not tell us their names. The Bakers live at 8510 Everett Ave., Richmond Heights 17, Mo.

HARRY D. BARGER is an account executive, Wherry, Baker, Tilden Advertising, with offices at Room 2110, 919 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

ROBERT L. BALFOUR, 224 Ellis Ave., Wheaton, Ill., is chairman of the board, Crown Chemicals Corp., Lemont, Ill.

41 ROBERT HAVERFIELD was advertising manager, Missouri Power and Light Co., before he came to the School of journalism faculty in 1948. He married BETTY ANN LUKE, '42, and they have two children, Judith Ann and Robert David.

JOHN H. BAILEY is superintendent of schools at Aurora, Mo. He lives at 141 W. Locust, Aurora.

Dr. HENRY A. TURNER, assistant professor of political science of the University of California, Santa Barbara College, is the editor of a newly released book, "Politics in the United States," the product of four years work. The 516 page-book was published by the McGraw-Hill Book Co., one of a series in political science.

42 ROBERT P. HARDIN has become editor of the Lockheed Aircraft, employee publication of the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation's 30,000 California employees. He served for more than five years as news editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin and was later public relations director of the Office of Price Stabilization in the Territory of Hawaii, and more recently head of promotion and advertising for the western division of the American Broadcasting Co. with headquarters in Hollywood.

IRA E. GRUBB, for 13 years superintendent of schools at Tipton, Mo., has been elected to fill the vacancy of the schools at Slater, Mo. He is married and has three children, his oldest son a freshman in the University.

Maj. BARTLETT R. ANDREWS is with the 802nd Operations Sq., Smoky Hill AFB, Kan. He is base communications officer, and has three children, Edmund Russell, 7, Robert Tillman, 4, and Richard Bishop, 3.

43 G. BERNARD SMITH has served for five years as county superintendent with headquarters in West Plains, Mo. Before his appointment to the superintendency, he taught in the schools of the county. He lives on a farm near Peace Valley with his family consisting of his wife and four children, Carrol, Kenneth, Marjorie, and Marilyn.

Here are four alumni who are now managers of bulk fertilizer mixing plants under construction by the Missouri Farmers Association. They are, left to right: William Ballew, '41, Slater plant; Don J. Fitzgerald, '42, Rolla plant; Curtis E. Grace, '26, Albany plant; and Victor E. Wardlow, '49, Lockwood plant. They were photographed in Columbia where they were making plans for the opening of the various plants.

VERNON C. and JEANNE TAYLOR BARR, '43, are teachers of vocational agriculture, Spanish and Latin at Willow Springs, Vernon in the high school and Jeanne in the junior high school. They live on their own farm with their four children, Carolyn, Bonnie, David, and Jayne.

WARREN H. BECK, Marshfield, Mo., is a captain in the 283 FA Bn, USAR, with headquarters at Springfield, Mo. Lt. Col. KARL WICKSTRON, '40, is his battalion commander. Warren is mayor of Marshfield and operates his own business, retail and wholesale bottle milk, between listening to the complaints of his fellow citizens.

44 Alice Kay, a quite lively young person when we visited her at eight days, was born to Dr. and Mrs. KIRK LEEPER on April 3. He is on the staff of the pathology department of the Medical School.

W. MANION RICE is joining the Record-Herald, Arcola, Ill. as city editor and advertising manager. The paper's co-owner is PAUL LINDENMEYER, '27. Mrs. Rice is the former BENNIE CHRISTINE ROGERS, '46.

MARGO (MARY MARGARET MEAD) Lupberger, 4905 E. 22nd Ave., Denver 7, Colo., says that they have just built a house. Her husband, Ed, is head of the accounting department of the National Farmers Union. They have one son, David Field, a year old in February.

45 LESTER TILDEN TOMPKINS, 1699 Hopkins St., Defiance, Ohio, who has worked with the Associated Press, the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, is now with the Crescent News at Defiance. He is married and has two daughters, Suzan Beth and Lucinda Ann.

46 Mrs. Barret Heddens, Jr. (KATHRYN SUE ROGERS), 1210 W. 67th Terr., Kansas City, Mo., keeps busy with her husband and two-year-old son. (How well we know that any two-year-old is a full time job! Young Nickie has just paid us a visit with his puppy, a dauschund named Reggie).

JOE W. McGLOTHLIN, 236 S. 9th St., LaCrosse, Wis., is a civil engineer for the C.M.St.P. J.P. R. R. (No doubt those letters are just as mysterious to most of you as they are to us.)

Dr. DONALD HARVEY ALTMAN, 2751 Coral Way, Miami, Fla., has completed a three year residency in Radiology at the Jackson Memorial Hospital. He is attending radiologist in Variety Children's Hospital, Miami, and has an extensive private practice. He is married and has a 15-months-old son.

ARNOLD W. HEARN, 218-A Harrison St., Princeton, N. J., is instructor in the department of religion, Princeton University. He and his wife (ELINOR SCOTT) have two children, Stephen, 3½, and Timothy, 1. Next year he will become an instructor in philosophy of religion and systematic theology at Union Theological Seminary, New York.

DULCIE ANN WITT Lawrence, Rt. 3, Missoula, Mont., is married to a physician; they have three children: Robin, 4, Joseph, 3, and Christopher, 1. Besides looking after her family, Dulcie is active in League of Women Voters, Community Theater, and newspaper and radio work. We don't know how she gets it all done.

DAVID J. COLYER, Jr., 10240 S. Julius Ave., Downey, Calif., is district manager, the Duriron Co. Inc. He married FRANCES H. WIGGINTON.

ARTHUR TOSHIHISA ISEMOTO is civil engineer of the Department of public works of the County of Hawaii. With his wife, the former Marjorie Yoshiho Shintaku, and daughter Karen Toshiko, 5, and son, Marc Hisachi, 3, he lives at 648 Pulani St., Hilo, Hawaii.

W. E. FENNEL, 615 Oswego, Ann Arbor, Mich., is working on his Ph.D. in zoology at the University of Michigan.

ADDISON A. HARRIS, 2745 Telegraph, Stockton, Calif., teaches in the elementary school. His wife, ALICE RAWLINGS, is now getting her degree in home economics. They have two children.

DONALD SATER has been elected superintendent of R6 schools of Pierce City, Mo. for the coming three years. The new Central School was erected since he became superintendent, and he is building a new home near it.

47 The Rev. LEWIS H. McADOW, for the last nine years pastor of the University Park Christian Church in Indianapolis, Ind., has accepted a call to the Bethany Christian Church in Houston, Tex., a church with 1200 members and a physical plant valued at more than $750,000. He is on the executive committee of the International convention of the Disciples of Christ, the board of managers and board of trustees of the United Christian Missionary society and the board of higher education of the Disciples of Christ.

ZOE WILEY has served for two terms as superintendent of Chariton County, Mo. In addition to her school duties, she is president of her county branch of the American Association of University Women and has served with the Northeast Missouri County Superintendents' Association and is now president of the Northeast Missouri State Teachers' Association. She has been associated with the county schools for 15 years.

FRANK M. HARLAN, Rt. 2, Glendale Dr., Hot Springs, Ark. is district traffic superintendent of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

WILLIAM P. ARNOLD, 5649 N. Parker, Indianapolis, Ind., is a buyer for ladies coats and suits, L. S. Ayres Co. He is married and has a son, Steve, 5, and a daughter, Alice Lee, 3.

ALBERT W. AYLING, Jr., 5074 Niagra Ave., San Diego, Calif., has moved to Ocean Beach. He works for the city in the water department.

Mrs. Louis M. Arnold (LORETTA KEMP) moved with her family from Los Angeles, to Seattle where they live at 3607 36th West. The Arnolds have two children, Vicki, 4½, and Richard, 2½.

A "friendship gavel" was presented to University President Elmer Ellis by Edward W. Sowers, member of the Athletic Advisory Committee, at the Phelps County Alumni banquet in Rolla last month. The gavel was made from historic wood by J. H. Bowen, retired School of Mines and Metallurgy professor.

GUY W. STEAGALL has been appointed director of advertising and public relations of the Mercantile Trust Co., St. Louis. He has been a member of the bank staff since 1954. Previously he was assistant advertising and sales promotion manager of the Mechanical Goods division of the U. S. Rubber Co., New York. His wife is the former MARILYN DALE JOHNSON.

DOROTHY M. WORSTELL, 5809 Cleveland Ave., Apt. 5, Riverdale, Md., formerly Research Associate in Dairy Industry, began work in February at the Human Nutrition Research Branch at the Agricultural Research Center, Beltsville, Md.

48 JAMES R. POLLARD has been named coordinator of guidance services for the secondary division of the Springfield, Mo. public schools. He assumes his new post at the beginning of the next school year. He has been assistant principal of the Springfield high school for the last four years. He has two children, Richard, 8, and Susan 7.

DEAN B. MAHIN has been appointed a Foreign Service officer, class four, by President Eisenhower, which gives him the rank of consul. After he left the University, he entered the School of Advanced International Studies, Washington, D. C. He is assigned to the European area. He is married and has three children, Melanie, 3½, Christopher, 2, and Thomas Dean, 9 months.

JAMES W. REYNOLDS, director of the St. Joseph Market Foundation, has been named extension assistant professor of agricultural economics for the Missouri Agricultural Service. He succeeds Wendell Holman, who resigned to become agricultural adviser for the Boone County National Bank.

RAY SAGEHORN is the new manager of the Norclay Home and Auto Supply, 318 Armour Road, North Kansas City, Mo. He and his family live at 2512 East Sixty-second St., North Kansas City.

MARY G. GRAVES, 421 N. Rutherford, Macon, Mo., is county superintendent of schools and first vice-president of the State Association of County Superintendents of Schools.

Mrs. W. R. Gladstone (JEAN M. TOMMERAASON) has settled down with her family at 626 Saginaw, Norway, Michigan, where her husband Dr. William Gladstone is now established in general practice. She says it is wonderful to be settled at last after four years in Montreal, and various periods in other towns in this country.

CARL R. ARMENTROUT breeds registered Hampshire sheep on his farm near Norborne, Mo., and teaches vocational agriculture at Malta Bend.

Lt. Com. Z. W. NEFF, USNR, who has served in the COMNINE Legal Office for the past two years, has elected to be released to inactive duty to serve as Commissioner on the Court of Military Appeals in Washington, D. C. Serving as a fighter carrier pilot for 5½ years during World War II, he holds the Navy Cross, the Air Medal with eight gold stars, and the Presidential Unit Citation with star. He and his family will make their home in Bethesda, Md.

GUY W. STEAGALL, '47

DAVID M. ROSEN is now assistant buyer at Associated Grocers, Inc. He was formerly sports editor of the St. Joseph Gazette. His new address is 3303 Newport Road, St. Joseph, Mo.

DONALD J. AMELON, 312 W. 2nd St., Salisbury, Mo. is a teacher of industrial arts and driver training.

Mrs. Harold J. Esser (LORRAINE J. ANDERSON), 1111th at Wornall Road, Kansas City 14, Mo., is a secretary.

JACK ANSELL, Jr., 1902 Spencer Ave., Monroe, La., is commercial manager of Station KNOE-TV.

49 Shelby Marie came into this world on Feb. 1 to delight her parents Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES A. BADE. Her father is an oil jobber who manages the Bade Oil Co., distributors of D-X products. The family gets mail at Box 65, Owensville, Mo.

GENE CRAVENS has gone to Mansfield, Mo. to become vocational agriculture instructor. He has taught at Mountain Grove for the past seven years. His family consists of his wife and small daughter.

ARCHIE D. ALLEN has been vocational agriculture instructor at Perry, Mo. since 1951.

EWELL RAINS is employed by the Lunkenheimer Co. in Cincinnati as staff assistant to the president. He is married and has a two-year old son, Garry.

CARL H. NIEWOEHNER, P.O. Box 561, Poteau, Okla., tells us that he will have a freshman for us in 1953, as Eric M. made his appearance on Feb. 26 in the Niewoehner family, their first, too. Carl is chief engineer, Plasteck, Inc., (plastic products.) Well, we'll be looking for that boy.

FREDERICK G. TEUBNER, Jr., was recently made assistant professor of horticulture at Michigan State College, where he has been instructor. He received three degrees from the University of Missouri and for three years served as assistant instructor.

DOROTHY HIRST Spicer and DON L. SPICER, '50, welcomed a little daughter, Ann Hirst on February 27 at 3558 Bayshore Blvd., Shore Acres, St. Petersburg, Fla.

PAUL SULLIVAN is teaching at Birch Tree (Mo.) High School, and has taught in the rural schools and high schools of Shannon County, for the last seven years. He is living on a farm in the Delaware community. He is married.

50 SYBIL JANE HARRISON became editor of her hometown paper, "The Christopher (Ill.) Progress" in February. The paper was sold at that time by VICTOR C. LEIKER, '47. Before she came back to Christopher, Sybil edited the Glen Ellyn (Ill.) News, and for 3½ years was editor of the Carrier Mills (Ill.) News. She says of the four full-time employees on the Progress the average age is 23½.

KATHRYN HOSMER Allen, 20 Park St., Waltham, Mass., is a part-time reporter for the Waltham News. Her family, consisting of her husband WALTER E. ALLEN, '51, buyer for Raytheon Manufacturing Co., and daughters, Debbie, 4, and Diana, 2, really keep her busy.

CHARLES STEERS has become bureau manager for the Columbia Basin Herald, at Moses Lake, Washington, the first daily in this newly irrigated area. He will live with his family at Ephrata, Wash.

HARRY N. BRIGGS has been appointed assistant director of men's affairs for the University. He has been traveling representative for the Delta Upsilon fraternity and was secretary to Congressman William C. Cole in Washington, D. C. for a year.

RAYMOND E. KINDER is employed at the Remington Arms Plant near Independence, Mo. He has taught in schools in Iowa and Missouri.

Army 1st Lt. CHARLES W. DIEKROEGER, Jr., is a member of the 600th Area Service Unit at Fort Lewis, Wash. He entered the army last July. His home formerly was at 310 Woodside, Kirkwood, Mo.

GEORGE DALE ANDERSON, Box 441, Pratt, Kan., is manager of the Petroleum and Farm Supply Cooperative. He was trained in Kansas City for this job. He has a three-year-old daughter.

51 HERB WAITS, of the Davison Chemical Company, Joplin, Mo. was featured at a Marshall meeting when he spoke on the use of fertilizer and means of making more profit per acre, illustrating his talk with a movie on plant growth and nutrition.

LEONARD J. BASSETT, Jr., after completing three years with the United States Marine Corps, is sales trainee for the Phillips Petroleum Co. You can write him at 109 S. 51st St., Omaha, Nebr.

The little son who was born to Mr. and Mrs. HAROLD ROSS WEIR, Jr. on Feb. 26 has been named Mark. Harold is basketball coach at Eldon, Mo.

LARRY SPRINGER, with the MFA Mutual Insurance Co., has been transferred from Hallsville, Mo. to Crete, Nebr. He is married and has two daughters.

52 DAVID GROTTJAN, Salisbury, Mo., has been employed as assistant county agent for Atchison County. He is a World War II veteran of three years' service. Since his discharge he has been employed by the Platte Pipeline Co.

HENRY C. COPELAND is hanging out his shingle in the building north of the Citizens Bank of Rock Port, Mo., where he will practice law. He has lived in Rock Port since 1951.

Sgt. WILLIAM CHARLES LANGFORD, whose permanent address is 323 Epperson, Moberly, Mo., may be reached until June at ER 17 844 434, HQ. CO. IRD 8057th AU (RTO) APO 971, San Francisco. Takes us back to both wars, doesn't it, all those mysterious letters. He is on duty with the army in Korea, located at the Inchon Replacement Depot "Gateway to Home," which is near Bup-yong, Korea, half way between Seoul and

WILLIAM H. VOSS, '52

Inchon. His present duties of train commander carry him all over Korea. He is due for a discharge in August and looking forward to coming back to the land of the "fighting Tigers."

Army Cpl. WILLIAM H. VOSS, a clerk in the 95th Engineer Combat Battalion's Headquarters and Service Company, is taking part in Exercise Desert Rock VI at the Atomic Energy Commission's Nevada Test Site. His home address is Rt. 5, Jefferson City, Mo.

DOROTHEA SMITH is production chief in the editorial department of the Webster Publishing Company, St. Louis. When she is not at her office, she may be found at 915 De Mun, Clayton 5, Mo.

RALPH L. CORDES was recently graduated from the Naval Pre-Flight school at Pensacola, Fla. He lives at Robertsville, Mo.

BILLIE ALBERTI DENNY may be reached at Rt. 3, Box 337-D, Greensboro, N. C. She has a daughter, Carol, who blew out the candle on her first birthday cake on January 22.

Sgt. WARREN A. KELSAY was recently graduated from the Army Information School at Fort Slocum, N. Y. He is a veteran of duty in Europe and England, but was recalled to active duty September, 1954.

FRANK BAKER has been named as administrative assistant to the school superintendent at St. Joseph, Mo. His place as vice-principal of Lafayette High School is to be taken by BASIL HEOHN, '53, who is assistant coach at the school.

ROBERT L. BREEDEN, assistant professor of journalism, has joined the editorial staff of the National Geographic magazine in Washington, D. C. When Bob gets settled in his new work maybe he'll send the Alumnus a roundup of the Mizzou grads who are now with the National Geographic Society. There are quite a few of them there.

53 Dr. BETTY RUTH GLASGOW, 633 Lauricella Ave., New Orleans, La. is biochemist with the Endocrine Research Laboratory, Ochsner Foundation, New Orleans. We put her under '53, because she seemed to favor it, although she took her first degree from the University in '46, her second in '50, but we do not blame her for feeling that '53 was the important year, since that was the year she first was addressed as Doctor (Ph.D.) Dr. Glasgow sends us news of two of her '53 classmates (and we are always pleased when our alumni act as our reporters). Mrs. IVAH CAMPBELL GLASGOW is now teaching in one of the elementary schools of New Orleans, and ANNABEL GLASGOW Bevezin, 5243 S. Kenwood, Chicago, is psychological counselor, Wrights Teacher College, Chicago.

In Germany, Pfc. HOWARD W. FRENCH, Smithville, Mo., was recently graduated from the Army's European Engineer School at Murnau, and Cpl. FREDERICK L. KREISLER, Clinton, Mo., recently participated in Exercise Sting Ray, a maneuver to test communications and planning under simulated combat conditions.

From Fort Carson, Colo. comes news of four of the '53'ers. JOSEPH B. MOORE, 3720 Oakmount Dr., Normandy, Mo. was recently promoted to first lieutenant and serves as reconnaissance and survey officer in Battery C. of the 97th Field Artillery Battalion. DALE E. KLAUSMAN, Creve-Coeur, Mo., DAVID KENT TOALSON, Farmington, Mo., and GEORGE MORGAN, 225 E. 72nd Terr., Kansas City, also had silver bars pinned on their shoulders. David is assistant operations and training officer in the 269th Field Artillery Battalion's headquarters; George is a member of the 538th Field Artillery Battalion's Service Battery; and Dale is reconnaissance and survey officer in the 97th Field Artillery Battalion.

DALE KLAUSMAN, '53

KENT TOALSON, '53

Lt. DICK ADAMS has been coaching a German-based Air Force basketball squad, which has entered the Austrain-German final playoffs. His team has a record of 24 games won and four lost. The team is stationed at the Spangdahlem, 10th Air Force Base near Frankfort, Germany. They have played in London, Paris, and other large cities in the past two years. Dick was the outstanding player of the Austrian conference last year and was flown to the United States after the conference games were over. At the University he was, as one admirer put it, a "sweet player" on the varsity basketball team.

At Tokyo Cpl. CHARLES A. GRAVES, 2823 St. Paul St., Denver, recently spent a week's leave from his unit in Korea. He is clerk in the 7th Infantry Division.

Pvt. PETER C. EVANS was graduated not long since from the Army's Quartermaster School at Fort Lee, Va. His home is at 15 Glenoak Pl., Webster Groves, Mo.

Pfc. JAMES M. SILVEY is a member of the 704th Tank Battalion, which won the Commander's sports trophy at Fort Hood, Tex. Mrs. Silvey (BILLIE HOPPER) lives in Temple, Tex., and is a clerk in the battalion's Company A.

DON and JIM RUTTER, '51, have begun a new business, the Rutter Farm Management, for the management of farms for non-resident owners. They now manage eight farms with a total of 3,000 acres. They are interested in farms within a radius of 50 miles of Shelbina, Mo., where they live. Real estate men have been instrumental in the Rutters starting this business, as more and more people are investing in farm lands.

ROWLAND ELZEA, 400 Westmount, Columbia, has been discharged from the army after two years in the service, a year of which was spent in Europe, where he visited all of the great art galleries when he was on leave. His mother, Mrs. C. F. Elzea (ELSIE R. PROCTOR, '25) spent one leave with him, when they toured the galleries together. Rowland was an art major as an undergraduate, and since his return has entered the graduate school of the University to major in art.

GLENN E. W. BARKS, '54

GEORGE MORGAN, '53

MARION HESLER is assistant public relations director for St. Louis University. She lives at 4244 California Ave., St. Louis 11.

CARL W. ERICKSON was a recent campus visitor. He is editor and publisher of the Seneca (Mo.) News-Dispatch.

Pvt. GAGE FREIBERGER, Fulton, Mo., has completed a chemical engineering course at Ft. Belvoir, Va., and been retained at the base as an instructor. Gage was one of the 250-member chorus from the base which gave a concert in Washington. He is pianist for the group and played several solos.

JEAN ADAM Knight, Box 1142, Ft. Wingate, N. M., is vocational home economics instructor, U. S. Indian School. She was married last June to RALPH M. KNIGHT, now in the Air Force in New Mexico.

54 The sculpture and ceramics of LELA HARTNETT Atteberry was presented in a show by the Art League of Bellingham, Wash. In the University, she wrote her Master's thesis on Ceramics Glaze and won prizes on sculpture and ceramics. Her husband, Pat Atteberry, is on the faculty of Western Washington College.

Army Pvt. GLENN E. W. BARKS, Cape Girardeau, Mo., operates a motion picture projector at Army Projectionist School at Camp Fuchinobe, Japan, from which he was graduated recently. He received his basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark., and arrived overseas in January.

Army Pvt. WEBB E. STEVENSON is pictured on this page repairing a helicopter at Camp Desert Rock, Nev., where he is taking part in Exercise Desert Rock VI, an exercise designed to familiarize military personnel with the effects of atomic weapons. His home address is 1037 N. Noyes, St. Joseph, Mo.

Second Lt. MORTON ANTELMAN recently reported at Camp Detrick, Md. for duty with the 9766th Technical Service Unit. He has been stationed at Fort McClellan, Ala. His home is at 25 Chester Ave., Irvington, N. J.

Second Lt. WILLIAM M. DOWLER is serving with the 71st Infantry Division in Alaska. He went to Ft. Sill immediately after his graduation, and from there was assigned to the 71st Division, known as the "Red Circle." His parents live on Rt. 1, Birch Tree, Mo.

Mrs. MARGARETTE WARMBRODT is completing her second year as music director in the public schools of Linn, Mo. She taught at Pilot Grove, Marshall, Kansas City and Boonville before going to Linn. Active in her community, she is secretary and treasurer of the Osage County Teachers Association, vice-president of the Linn PTA and chairman of the Advisory Board of the Girl Scouts of Linn. Her husband, John J. Warmbrodt, is athletic coach at Linn.

PETE LANG is assistant to the editor of the Colusa (Calif.) Sunday Herald.

MARILYN G. KUHS is working in St. Louis as publication editor of the Emerson Electric Manufacturing Co.

BEVERLY BERTRAND is doing secretarial work with the Kraft Foods Co., Chicago, and her address is 6250 Winthrop Ave. Her twin sister BARBARA (Mrs. Carl Vires) lives at 705 Missouri Ave., Columbia, and is employed in the University Admissions Office.

BETTY MUSSELL lives at 537 West Melrose, Chicago 13, Ill.

55 PHILLIS TIEMANN, of Norborne, Mo. joined the secretarial staff of the Missouri Farmers Association after her graduation from the University in February.

Second Lt. WILLIAM E. MICHEL, Carthage, Mo., is now on extended active duty at Ft. Sill. He was first saluted as an officer in February, when his commission and his degree were handed to him.

RODNEY PITTS is in sales promotion work with Crete Mills, Lincoln, Neb. His home address is 1405 South St.

WEBB STEVENSON, '54

LETTERS

For the past fifteen years I have been teaching in the Department of Foreign Languages in the University of South Carolina, at Columbia. I am retiring at the end of the present academic year with "that special feeling of secret decay that can come from breathing chalk dust for something like sixty years" (to paraphrase an expression in Time, Mar. 21, 1955). I intend to remain in Columbia (not far from Aiken and Camden, winter playgrounds of New York millionaires—polo and all that sort of thing—who could afford to go to a better climate if they could find one) and do some research and writing on the side. My main business will be trying to figure out how to live on what a non-speculating school teacher can accumulate during his working years.

Not many Missourians find their way to this garden spot, it seems. Dr. Ernest A. Hedberg and "the Mrs." (Dr. Marguerite Z. Hedberg) are in the Department of Mathematics here and former Missouri Art teacher Edmund Yaghjian is now head of our Department of Fine Arts. It would be of interest to some of the "old timers" to know that the son of the late Professor of Classics, Dean of Arts and Science, and President John Carleton Jones, General Lloyd E. Jones, now retired from the Army, lives in Columbia.

I do not subscribe to the Missouri Alumnus. I have been graduated from four such institutions and never been able to afford membership in all the alumni associations. To choose one of the four would have been difficult, and anyway most of them stress athletics too much to suit one who is not particularly interested in that phase of college life.—Thomas Austin FitzGerald, '13, 3110 Wheat St., Columbia 5, S. C.

Our thanks to Professor FitzGerald for his newsy letter and our best wishes for an enjoyable retirement. Do Alumnus readers feel that the magazine or the association overemphasizes athletics?—Ed.

In November, 1951, I flew to Burtonwood RAF Station, England, for duty and my bride of three weeks followed in February, 1952. Almost exactly two years later, our first daughter arrived at the USAF hospital, South Ruislip, London, while we were stationed at Bushy Park RAF Station. And almost exactly three years later, 27 February 1955, our second child, also a girl, arrived at the US Army Hospital at Frankfurt am Main, Germany—we had been transferred meanwhile to bustling, prosperous Germany. Having begun our European tour as a "honeymooning" lieutenant and his bride, we are about to return stateside (in July 1955) in need of a vacation due to the demands and requirements of two very active young ladies who have attached themselves to us.

After my graduation in 1948, I was a

Here are Capt. and Mrs. Donald B. McBride with their two young daughters, Nancylee Claire McBride, born last February 27, and Patricia Marie McBride.

sales representative for a publishing firm specializing in children's books, until I was recalled to active duty with the U.S. Air Force in March, 1951. I've often wondered how many other members of the 1948 ROTC class at Missouri were called to active duty.—Capt. Donald B. McBride, '48, Box 32, 31st Communications Security Squadron, APO 757, New York, N. Y. (Formerly of Kansas City).

UNIVERSITY CALENDAR 1955-56 (For the Divisions at Columbia)

1955

First Semester

September 12—Monday, New Student Orientation begins 8:00 a.m.

Convocation for all new Students, 7:15 p.m.

(Attendance required)

September 13—Tuesday, Registration, 1:50:00 p.m.

September 14—Wednesday, Registration continued, 8-12 a.m., 1:50:00 p.m.

September 15—Thursday, Classwork begins, 7:40 a.m.

October 1—Saturday, Parents Day (Classes in session)

November 23—Wednesday, Thanksgiving vacation begins 12:30 p.m.

November 28—Monday, Classwork resumed, 7:40 a.m.

December 20—Tuesday, Christmas Vacation begins, 12:30 p.m.

1956

January 3—Tuesday, Classwork resumed, 12:40 p.m.

January 21—Saturday, Final Examinations begin.

January 30—Monday, first semester closes, 5:00 p.m.

Second Semester

January 31—Tuesday, Registration and Orientation, 8-12 a.m., 1:50:00 p.m.

February 1—Wednesday, Classwork begins, 7:40 a.m.

March 29—Thursday, Spring recess begins, 12:30 p.m.

April 2—Monday, Classwork resumed, 12:40 p.m.

May 26—Saturday, Final Examinations begin.

June 1—Friday, Final grades for candidates for graduation due, 12 noon

June 3—Sunday, Baccalaureate Exercises (See note below.)

June 5—Tuesday, Second Semester closes, 5:00 p.m.

June 6—Wednesday, Annual Commencement, 10:00 a.m.

Summer Session

June 11—Monday, Registration and Orientation

June 12—Tuesday, Classwork begins.

July 4—Wednesday, Independence Day holiday

August 3—Friday, Summer Session closes, 5:00 p.m.

Summer Commencement, 8:00 p.m.

NOTE: The University offers its assistance and cooperation to the churches of Columbia which elect to hold Baccalaureate exercises for graduates in their student congregations.

A red-nosed Fokker slowly spun to earth

AT 4:35 P.M., on October 30, 1918, a lone Spad biplane, marked with the symbol of the "Hat-in-the-Ring" Squadron, hawked down through the quiet skies over Grande Pré. Seconds later, a twenty-round burst of its guns smashed full into the center of a low-flying Fokker and sent the German plane swirling earthward like an autumn leaf.

The C.O. of the squadron, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, had downed his last enemy plane of the war, setting a record for aerial combat never equaled: 26 victories in 7 months. It made him the American ace of aces.

A year earlier, his mother had written, "fly slowly and close to the ground"; but it was advice that Eddie Rickenbacker—like many of his fellow Americans—has never been able to take. His calculating courage, ingenuity and drive are typical of our greatest asset.

Which is not simply factories, farms, or gold—but millions of a particular kind of people called Americans. And it is these people—people like yourself—who stand behind what is probably the world's finest investment: U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

To buy United States Series E Savings Bonds is to join them in their proud confidence of their country and its future—and to protect your own personal security as well.

★ ★ ★

It's actually easy to save money—when you buy United States Series E Savings Bonds through the automatic Payroll Savings Plan where you work! You just sign an application at your pay office; after that your saving is done for you. And the Bonds you receive will pay you interest at the rate of 3% per year, compounded semiannually, for as long as 19 years and 8 months if you wish! Sign up today! Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

Safe as America—U. S. Savings Bonds

The U. S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. It is donated by this publication in cooperation with the Advertising Council and the Magazine Publishers of America.

Will Daddy be all right?

Your help can mean the difference between the "Yes" or the "No" that answers this child's frightened question. For the girl's father has Cancer.

Cancer plays no favorites. It strikes young as well as old, rich and poor, strong and weak. It lays its black finger on 1 out of every 4 Americans. But this terrible scourge can be conquered.

It will be conquered. If you help.

The American Cancer Society—through a legion of doctors, technicians, scientists, volunteers—wages endless war on our most dreaded disease. And every year some 75,000 men, women and children win their own personal victory in the fight back to health.

But too many are lost. Too many seek care too late. To fight this healing war takes money—money for education, research, drugs, equipment.

Will you help conquer Cancer? By a check—to help others. By an annual checkup—to help yourself. What you give today may mean the difference between "Yes" and "No" for yourself—or someone dear to you—in the days to come.

American Cancer Society

GENTLEMEN:

I want to help conquer Cancer.

- Please send me free information about Cancer.
 Enclosed is my contribution of $_____ to the Cancer Crusade.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Zone _____ State _____

(MAIL TO: CANCER, c/o your town's Postmaster)