

A daily rundown of news at the University of Missouri, presented by Mizzou Student Media.

View this email in your browser

THE MANEATER

Quick Eats

Monday, February 22, 2016

Today's Weather

Remember that beautiful weekend? Cherish those memories. It will be partly cloudy with a high of 53 degrees and a low of 33.

Have You Heard?

Two years, no progress: Revisiting the University Village collapse

On-campus child care and affordable university-sponsored housing options have long been demanded by graduate students. The conversation gained momentum when, two years ago, a walkway at the University Village student housing complex collapsed, killing Columbia firefighter Lt. Bruce Britt. On the anniversary of his death, we look at what progress has been made.

Slate drops out of Residence Halls Association presidential election

A little over a week after the slates for the upcoming RHA election were announced, one of the two slates dropped out. Voting is set to start March 2, but the RHA justices don't want Matt Bourke and Martha Pangborn to win by default. So now voters will be able to select either the Bourke/Pangborn slate or no confidence. How do you like them odds?

Office of Civil Rights and Title IX investigates vulgar email

One MU sophomore has apologized after a rather graphic email he sent about the women of Pi Beta Phi was leaked on social media. Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Cathy Scroggs called it disgusting, and Panhellenic Association executive board said it challenged the role of women in the Greek community.

For more news, see our top stories

Let's dig a little deeper

The University Village walkway collapsed two years ago today. Since then, graduate students have called for on-campus child care and more university-sponsored housing. Now, they are trying to unionize, but UM System officials are delaying the effort. The Maneater looked into progress made in the last two years and found little. University officials have recently talked about finding a private contractor to build another complex at the site of University Village.

However, Matt McCune, Graduate Professional Council director of communications, is skeptical of the new complex.

"Until it starts to be built, it's not likely," McCune said. "People can talk about it all they want. They can have all the meetings in the world. It doesn't change a thing until construction begins. Or until the university dedicates the funding."

For more reading, see our project on student parents

Real Quick from the Sports Desk:

- Missouri makes splash in SEC swim and dive championships

- Missouri wrestling defeats old-time rival Nebraska 19-14 in National Duals
- Missouri baseball falls to Seton Hall 9-1

And To Keep You Cultured:

brought to you by MOVE Magazine

- MOVE Quiz: Which MSA slate should you vote for?
- A Simple Exchange releases first album
- Four microwave friendly recipes to make in the residence halls

Watch this week's edition of E23 from MUTV

Need something to do today?

Today is the start of Service Week hosted by the Center for Leadership and Service. Events will range from a service trip to the humane society to the celebration of Mizzou Alternative Breaks' 25th birthday. If you want to get more involved, members from the center are tabling from 10 a.m. to noon in the Student Center. Get more information here.

Programming Notes

This daily newsletter is a product of Mizzou Student Media group, which is made up of The Maneater, MUTV and KCOU. We are working together to provide opportunities for students who work at these three types of media outlets as well as to provide better content for you to read.

Copyright © 2016 Mizzou Student Media, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
G210 MU Student Center Columbia, Mo. 65211 * (573) 882-5500

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Thanks for reading!

A daily rundown of news at the University of Missouri, presented by Mizzou Student Media.

View this email in your browser

THE MANEATER

Quick Eats

Tuesday, February 23, 2016

Today's Weather

It's going to cool down from last week's brief warm stint. Today there's a high of 50 and a low of 38.

Have You Heard?

MU honors National Eating Disorders Awareness Week with educational activities

The Counseling Center is hosting a ton of events for this important week. A quarter of college-aged women binge or purge to maintain their weight, so several centers and organizations on campus are banding together for some self-love and education.

Senator Claire McCaskill announces she has breast cancer

Senator Claire McCaskill took to Tumblr to announce her diagnosis. She said her prognosis is good, and she will be receiving treatment in St. Louis and will work from there.

Human rights activist Romeu Monteiro speaks on how he came to love Israel

Monterio spoke about his experiences growing up in Portugal, how he relates to Anne Frank and his changed opinion on Israel. He originally had a negative view due to news coverage but after learning more about the issues, he "realized Israel is a democratic, tolerant, multi-ethnic, multi-religious, rapidly-developing nation."

Let's dig a little deeper.

Some of the events for Eating Disorder Awareness Week are Stitch 'N Bitch's "EDAW Edition" meeting and a viewing of the Fattitude film. Active Minds Mizzou will also put on an event called Magic Mirror on the Wall where participants write body-positive phrases on mirrors. The Student Health Center will also host More Than Skin Deep, where participants play on an 8-foot tall Operation board, removing stereotypes of eating disorders. Celebrate #selflove because you're #flawless!

Real Quick from the Sports Desk:

- Take Five: Quick thoughts on Cox grabbing his 100th victory and more
- Columbia Missourian: Missouri men's basketball looks to continue growth against Mississippi
- Columbia Tribune: SEC Notes: Parity could cost SEC on Selection Sunday

And To Keep You Cultured:

brought to you by MOVE Magazine

- Nerd Report: Take a look at your daily dose of 'Star Wars' trivia
- Review: The perks of being a Puritan
- MUTV: Netflix's new show 'Love' is on fire

Need something to do today?

Learn how to be well-prepared in the case of an active shooter or violent intruder at the Citizens' Response to Active Threat training. Here, you'll learn strategies on how to deal with immediate threats incorporating your environment, technology and communication, law enforcement's response and action at 6–8 p.m. at the MU Police Department.

Programming Notes

This daily newsletter is a product of Mizzou Student Media group, which is made up of The Maneater, MUTV and KCOU. We are working together to provide opportunities for students who work at these three types of media outlets as well as to provide better content for you to read.

Copyright © 2016 Mizzou Student Media, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
G210 MU Student Center Columbia, Mo. 65211 * (573) 882-5500

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Thanks for reading!

A daily rundown of news at the University of Missouri, presented by Mizzou Student Media.

View this email in your browser

THE MANEATER

Quick Eats

Wednesday, February 24, 2016

Today's Weather

Today's high is 43 degrees, and there's a 20 percent chance of rain. It's supposed to be windy, which is kind of dis-gust-ing.

Have You Heard?

UM System faces \$8 million in proposed cuts

The UM System could lose some funding next year if the budget proposed yesterday by Budget Chairman Rep. Tom Flanigan, R-Carthage, goes through. His proposal would cut $402,059 from MU, which is the exact amount of the combined salaries of assistant communications professor Melissa Click, communications department Chairman Mitchell McKinney and College of Arts and Science Dean Michael O'Brien.

RHA to allow another slate to enter the presidential election

Want to be the next Residence Halls Association president? You still have a chance! RHA decided to allow another slate to enter the election in a special Congress meeting Monday night. The Roberts/Aiken slate had previously withdrawn from the race, leaving only the Bourke/Pangborn slate in the running. New candidates will have until 6:30 p.m. Feb. 26 to collect 50 signatures and be approved as an official slate, and voting will be open from March 2–4.

Proposed bill could diversify Board of Curators by profession

All six members of the UM System Board of Curators are currently lawyers, but that could change if House Bill 2179 passes. The bill, which is currently going through the Select Committee on Education, states that no more than two curators with the same profession could be on the board at the same time. Rep. Dean Dohrman, R-La Monte, one of the sponsors of the bill, said he has nothing against lawyers, but he hopes people with different backgrounds will help the board think outside the box.

Let's dig a little deeper.

The proposal would also cut $7.6 million from the UM System, specifically targeting administrative salaries. State Rep. Flanigan said the cuts are supposed to target university administration without harming students, comparing the UM System to “a vast bureaucracy that rivals the Pentagon in terms of red tape and delays.” Interim UM System President Mike Middleton responded to the proposed budget cuts in a statement, saying the Board of Curators would keep demonstrating the value of the system administration to taxpayers.

Read today's print issue here

Real Quick from the Sports Desk:

- Missouri falls to Ole Miss in foul fest
- Senior Morgan Stock rallies back after knee complications
- Mizzou baseball: Five takeaways from opening weekend
- Cox shows consistency, hard work in becoming fastest Missouri wrestler to 100 wins

And To Keep You Cultured:

brought to you by MOVE Magazine

- Authentic British eats find a home in CoMo at Ye Olde Lady & Pint
- Hoodie Allen's loyalty to fans shows in his concert performance
- Listen to This: How to create a diary playlist

Need something to do today?

As part of Sexual Responsibility Week, SHAPE is hosting an event where you can test your sexual health knowledge, pick up free sexual health barriers and get a free T-shirt. It's from noon to 3 p.m. on the main floor of the Student Center.

Programming Notes

This daily newsletter is a product of Mizzou Student Media group, which is made up of The Maneater, MUTV and KCOU. We are working together to provide opportunities for students who work at these three types of media outlets as well as to provide better content for you to read.

Copyright © 2016 Mizzou Student Media, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
G210 MU Student Center Columbia, Mo. 65211 * (573) 882-5500

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Thanks for reading!

Sent:

Thursday, February 25, 2016 6:00 AM

A daily rundown of news at the University of Missouri, presented by Mizzou Student Media.

View this email in your browser

THE MANEATER

Quick Eats

Thursday, February 24, 2016

Today's Weather

Spring last week was just a tease. Columbia will be throwin' some shade today with the weather being cloudy and in the 30s.

Have You Heard?

Concerned Student 1950 reissues list of six remaining demands to be met

Most of Concerned Student 1950's demands made in October have yet to be met. Yesterday, the group released a Prezi presentation explaining the remaining demands more in-depth with their expected deadlines.

Flaws in MSA highlighted by 2015 election

No, the student government drama has not stopped. Last week, resigned Missouri Students Association President-elect Haden Gomez sent out a timeline accusing interim MSA President Payton Head of favoring the Syed Ejaz/Heather Parrie slate. Both Head and Ejaz admitted that Head told Ejaz to run. Gomez argued that Head broke the senior officer neutrality clause of the MSA Constitution, which would be grounds for impeachment.

Curators finalize presidential search committee

The UM System Board of Curators decided on the members of the search committee for the next UM System president, which will include all six curators, two faculty members, two students and one staff member. If any more curators are appointed to fill the three vacancies, they would join the committee immediately.

Let's dig a little deeper.

Students are #StillConcerned after only six of Concerned Student 1950's demands from last semester have been met. The more detailed demands released yesterday called for:

- - An academic bankruptcy program
- - A panel to interview applicants for the Office of Minority Students, which isn't currently listed under MU's Diversity Offices
- - Racial awareness and inclusion workshops during Summer and Fall welcome, which they said should be overseen by a board
- - An increase in black faculty to 10 percent
- - 10-year plan, which would increase the retention rates among "marginalized students" and require a diversity course
- - An increase in MU Counseling Center funding and resources
- - An increase in funding, resources and personnel for MU's social justice centers

Real Quick from the Sports Desk:

- Ryan Rosburg leaves lasting legacy in waning moments of his career
- Missouri pool receives praise at SEC Championships
- Missouri basketball provides hope for the future over mini win streak

And To Keep You Cultured:
brought to you by MOVE Magazine

- Gallery: 🎵 Hoodie Allen: 'Missouri you're my family' 🎵
- Las Vegas Review-Journal: Facebook 'Reactions' buttons now available for all users
- Vox Magazine: What you missed from New York Fashion Week

Need something to do today?

Going to be on campus for dinner? Scrap the Snack Pack pudding for dessert and trade it for some Japanese rice cake and green tea ice cream! The Asian Affair Center will be hosting Multicultural Hour from 4–5:30 p.m. in room 304 of Memorial Union South. If you go, you'll get to learn how to make the rice cake from 16 exchange students from Japan. Oh and uh, it's free.

Programming Notes

This daily newsletter is a product of Mizzou Student Media group, which is made up of The Maneater, MUTV and KCOU. We are working together to provide opportunities for students who work at these three types of media outlets as well as to provide better content for you to read.

Copyright © 2016 Mizzou Student Media, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

G210 MU Student Center Columbia, Mo. 65211 * (573) 882-5500

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Thanks for reading!

This email was sent to diehlb@missouri.edu

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

The Maneater · G210 MU Student Center · Columbia, MO 65211 · USA

MailChimp

Sent:

Friday, February 26, 2016 6:00 AM

A daily rundown of news at the University of Missouri, presented by Mizzou Student Media.

View this email in your browser

THE MANEATER

Quick Eats

Thursday, February 26, 2016

Today's Weather

Columbia is looking to provide MU with another warm weekend! Friday will have a high of 50 degrees, followed by a high of 64 degrees on both Saturday and Sunday. Hold on Tigers; spring is almost here!

Have You Heard?

Melissa Click fired by Board of Curators

Following assistant communications professor Melissa Click's Jan. 27 suspension, the Board of Curators has decided to fire her with a 4-2 vote. Interim Chancellor Hank Foley said that her actions were not fitting of the university's values.

Foley responds to faculty complaints about Melissa Click's firing

After the Board of Curators announced the firing of Melissa Click, interim Chancellor Hank Foley spoke for 40 minutes at the faculty council meeting to answer questions and address concerns. Many faculty members found the board's decision unreasonable and later questioned their safety as employees of the university.

‘Racism Lives Here’ rally promotes multicultural unity

Students from various marginalized communities on campus gathered Thursday at Lowry Mall to speak on issues involving unity. Students announced they won’t stop being vocal until their voices are heard and MU becomes more inclusive.

Let's dig a little deeper.

In a closed meeting Wednesday, the curators voted 4-2 on assistant communications professor Melissa Click’s removal from the university with no pay or severance. Click will have the opportunity to appeal this decision if she feels the need to do so. The Board of Curators, along with interim Chancellor Hank Foley and interim UM System President Mike Middleton believe that her actions on campus did not live up to the expectations of students and faculty of MU, and that as a role model, she should not have put herself in that position.

“Dr. Click’s behavior was inappropriate and unacceptable,” Middleton said.

According to Foley, Concerned Student 1950 had nothing to do with the board’s decision.

Real Quick from the Sports Desk:

- Columbia Missourian: Senior day holds a different meaning for Missouri women’s basketball
- Columbia Tribune: Construction on new softball stadium to begin Monday
- MUTV: Missouri holds off FIU late to improve to 3-2

MOVE
EST. 2002

And To Keep You Cultured:

brought to you by MOVE Magazine

- Fashionably Late: Outfits you’ll see at a concert
- Nerd Report: Three superheroes who deserve an R-rating
- Vox Magazine: Best-selling essayist Roxane Gay comes to MU

Watch MUTV's weekly newscast

Don't have anything planned for this weekend? Don't fret. MOVE has recommendations on what you should do, see and read.

Need something to do today?

If you're looking for a fun way to spend your Friday night, look no further than Mizzou After Dark's Dinner and a Movie. Dinner will begin at 7 p.m., followed by your choice of "Mean Girls," "Dodgeball" or "Straight Outta Compton" at 7:30 p.m. Make sure to bring your own blanket to get cozy during the film. A DIY popcorn station will be available for anyone who attends. For more information, click here

Programming Notes

This daily newsletter is a product of Mizzou Student Media group, which is made up of The Maneater, MUTV and KCOU. We are working together to provide opportunities for students who work at these three types of media outlets as well as to provide better content for you to read.

Copyright © 2016 Mizzou Student Media, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

G210 MU Student Center Columbia, Mo. 65211 * (573) 882-5500

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Thanks for reading!

This email was sent to diehlb@missouri.edu

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

The Maneater · G210 MU Student Center · Columbia, MO 65211 · USA

MailChimp