

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Monday, January 23, 2017

It's going to be partly cloudy with a high of 46 degrees and low of 33. Wear layers, and you should be good to go!

Daily Roundup

People participate during Women's March on Washington. Courtesy of Mobilus in Mobili via Flickr.

The Women's March on Washington drew a larger crowd than the inauguration

People from across the country, including from Columbia, traveled to D.C. for the march Saturday. The crowd, according to the New York Times, was three times larger for the Women's March than for Trump's inauguration. The rally's attendance totalled to about 500,000 people, D.C.'s deputy mayor for public safety and justice said. Gloria Steinem, Sen. Tammy Duckworth, Scarlett Johansson and the march's organizers spoke to the crowd. At the end of the day, attendees left their homemade signs at the gates of the White House.

Matt Pearce @mattpearce · Jan 21

One of the Women's Marchers' final acts: leaving their protest signs in front of the White House.

↩ 205

↻ 19K

♥ 30K

Columbia hosted its own sister march, the Mid-Missouri Solidarity March

The march started at the Boone County Courthouse, where speakers addressed the crowd before the group began to march around downtown Columbia for about an hour. An organizer from Mid-Missouri Peaceworks said the crowd appeared to be about 3,000 people. The day ended with a rally back at the courthouse.

Katherine White @Kat_905 · Jan 21

Mid-Missouri Solidarity March and Rally in downtown Columbia, MO #WomensMarch ♀ @TheManeater

5

The U.S. wasn't the only place that had demonstrations

People around the world gathered in solidarity with the marches in the U.S. According to the Women's March on Washington website, there were 673 sister marches across the globe. Some notable ones took place in London, Paris and Edinburgh, Scotland. Trafalgar Square, in London, was packed so tightly that traffic had to be redirected. An estimated total of 3 million people across the US alone gathered Saturday as part of the movement that was started in Washington.

Sports

Recap:

The Atlanta Falcons will be playing the New England Patriots in Super Bowl 51. The Falcons dominated the Packers 44-21, and the Patriots beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 36-17.

Kansas City Royals pitcher Yordano Ventura died Sunday morning in a car crash in the Dominican Republic. Ventura was 25. Many players and team Twitter accounts shared their condolences about Ventura's untimely death.

 Kansas City Royals @Royals · 13h

We are heartbroken. #RipAce

411 32K 41K

What to Watch:

The Warriors take on the Heat at 6:30 p.m. Mizzou women's basketball takes on Arkansas on the SEC Network at 6 p.m.

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM
$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

Courtesy of Saturday Night Live

SNL mixed up their cold open and had Russian President Vladimir Putin, played by Beck Bennett, give a monologue about Trump's recent inauguration. Though we missed Alec Baldwin's President Trump impression, we got to see Kellyanne Conway, played by Kate McKinnon, give us her own rendition of "Roxie" from the musical "Chicago." Aziz Ansari's opening monologue was also a highlight of the evening. Ansari used his own brand of stand-up to put his spin on the traditional SNL monologue. Catch the highlights here.

What to Do Today

- MU Student Health Center's Noon Meditation, 12:15-12:45 p.m. @ Contemplative Practice Center

Compiled by Regina Anderson

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Have a question or comment?

Email us at editors@theman eater.com

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Tuesday, January 24, 2017

The warm weather is back! Today's high will be 56 degrees, and the low will be 37. Be sure to pack a jacket though, because it's going to be windy in the afternoon.

Daily Roundup

Courtesy of Columbia GSAPP

Angela Davis is coming to Mizzou as a guest speaker

Angela Davis is a prominent political activist who was involved in the Civil Rights Movement in the '60s. She worked very closely with the Black Panther Party and was a leader of the Communist Party U.S.A. Davis also co-founded Critical Resistance, which works to get rid of the prison-industrial complex. She previously worked as a professor at the University of California-Santa Cruz.

The event is honoring Martin Luther King Jr. Day, and Davis' recent speaking engagements include the Women's March on Washington. The free event at the Missouri Theatre has sold out, but there'll be an overflow area with a livestream in Keller Auditorium, in the Geology Building. Click below to see her speech from last Saturday.

Sports

Recap:

Josh Moore, a defensive lineman for Mizzou, announced on Twitter his decision to transfer. He said on Twitter that he wanted to “follow other opportunities academically and athletically.”

Despite the loss, Mizzou football picked up a new quarterback. Taylor Powell originally committed to Wake Forest but switched to Missouri less than 24 hours after he received an offer.

Mizzou wrestling won against Central Michigan. The Warriors lost 105-102 against the Heat.

What to Watch:

The Bulls play the Magic at 6 p.m. on FSFL. The Blues play the Penguins at 6 p.m. on NBCS. The Blackhawks take on the Lightning at 7:30 p.m. on CSNC.

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM
$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

MOVE
magazine

Courtesy of BagoGames

Watch out for Oscar nominations this morning. The nominations were announced starting at 7 a.m. After a “La La Land” sweep at the Golden Globes, the film unsurprisingly tied with “Titanic” and “All About Eve” for most nominations. It received 14 nominations in all, including Best Picture, Best Actress and Best Actor. Other movies that did very well were “Moonlight,” “Hidden Figures” and “Manchester by the Sea.”

What to Do Today

- Welcome Back Swing Dance, 7-9:30 p.m. @ Mark Twain Ballroom, Memorial Union

Compiled by Regina Anderson

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Wednesday, January 25, 2017

Get your layers ready, because today is going to be cold and windy. The high today will be 39 degrees and the low will be 29.

Daily Roundup

Photo by Lane Burdette

MU will lose out on about $20 million due to budget cuts after $700 million state spending restriction

These cuts from Gov. Eric Greitens mean that MU has to deal with a $36.3 million fall in tuition revenue. The loss in tuition revenue came from a 21.1 percent decrease in freshman enrollment for the 2016-17 school year, but the cuts haven't just affected MU. Over half the budget cuts that Greitens announced Monday will be taken from public college and university budgets.

Journalists share their experiences covering the Women's March on Washington

Senior Kayla McDowell, along with other student journalists at the Columbia Missourian, traveled to Washington, D.C. to cover the protests. Senior Michael Cali, a photojournalism student, also went to cover the march, as well as the inauguration. McDowell focused her story on Columbia women in the march.

“It was an amazing experience,” McDowell said. “It changed me as a person. I just hope that I can continue growing and knowing what it means to be a journalist, but also a journalist with morals.”

Quoted and Noted: Angela Davis speaks at Mizzou

Photo by Bailey Valadez/Staff Photographer

- “If there is a way to make America great, it must be in the future.”
- “Black women are the most sophisticated people in the electoral process.”
- “You can only shatter the ceiling when you are all the way up there in the first place.”

Mizzou Diversity
@mizzoudiversity

Follow

"Organizing & teaching are not so much about getting people to listen, but about encouraging people to ask questions themselves." #MIZDavis

RETWEETS 6 LIKES 14

6:21 PM - 24 Jan 2017

Mizzou Diversity
@mizzoudiversity

Follow

"You can always find a spark of hope. I think that's what we do as human beings." #MIZDavis

RETWEETS 5 LIKES 11

6:18 PM - 24 Jan 2017

Sports

Recap:

The Bulls won 100-92 against the Magic. The Blues beat the Penguins 3-0 and the Blackhawks lost 5-2 against the Lightning.

What to Watch:

The Avalanche takes on the Canucks at 8:30 p.m. The Cavaliers play the Kings at 6 p.m. on FSOH. The Warriors take on the Hornets at 7 p.m. on CSBA.

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM

$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

Courtesy of BagoGames

While some Oscar-nominated movies are still enjoying their time at the box office, others are already available online for your enjoyment. Many of them are available to rent or watch on streaming services. Netflix has documentaries “13th” and “The White Helmets” and animated movie “Zootopia.” The documentary mini-series “O.J.: Made in America” is on Hulu Plus and “Life, Animated” is on Amazon Prime. To get a full list of movies available for rent online, click here.

What to Do Today

- Queer Spring Fling, 6-8 p.m. @ MU LGBTQ Resource Center
- FREE Wednesday Film: Hacksaw Ridge, 8-10 p.m. @ Wrench Auditorium

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Thursday, January 26, 2017

The cold continues, so bundle up. The high today will be 33 degrees, and the low will be 24.

Daily Roundup

Student studies at Ellis Library / Maneater File Photo

MSA considers a $35 student fee to go toward campus resources, such as the library and Counseling Center

The fee was proposed at last night's Missouri Students Association meeting. The intention is to split up the money among the library, Counseling Center, student unions and technology, as well as campus activities and leadership and service programs. The fee could help bring back 24-hour weekday library access if passed.

MU colleges step up recruitment efforts after enrollment decline

Freshman enrollment dropped 21.1 percent compared to fall 2015, according to the Fall 2016 Enrollment Summary Report. The School of Journalism felt the largest drop, when broken down by college, at 30.79 percent. The school has increased its focus on existing recruitment activities, such as tours, communication with prospective students and families and recruiting trips around the country, Dean David Kurpius said in an email to Director of Admissions Chuck May.

Editorial: State cuts to MU funding put students' education at risk

“Public education is supposed to be for the good of the people. In fact, the motto of MU is, ‘Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law.’ With higher tuition every year, and talk of even removing the tuition cap to make up for state funding cuts, some students who decided to attend school in Missouri are worried.”

Read more here.

Sports

Recap:

The Avalanche lost 3-2 to the Canucks. The Cavaliers lost to the 116-112 against the Kings. The Warriors beat the Hornets 113-103.

What to Watch:

The Lakers take on the Jazz at 9:30 p.m. on TNT. The Blackhawks play the Jets at 7:30 p.m. on CSNC and the Blues take on the Wild at 7 p.m. on NBCS.

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM
$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

MOVE magazine

Courtesy of Wikimedia Commons

Actress and icon Mary Tyler Moore died yesterday at the age of 80. She was most well-known for her role on “The Mary Tyler Moore Show,” where she broke barriers by playing a single, career-focused woman at a time when most women were delegated to the role of housewife. Her presence on television inspired many women who came after her,, including Oprah Winfrey, who credits Moore for majorly influencing her life and career. The first three seasons of “The Mary Tyler Moore Show” are currently on Hulu.

What to Do Today

- Multicultural Hour — Spring Semester Welcome Party, 4-5 p.m. @ Memorial Union
- Mizzou women's basketball vs. Auburn, 7 p.m. @ Mizzou Arena

Compiled by Regina Anderson

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Friday, January 27, 2017

Even though it'll be cloudy early in the day, the sun will come out in the afternoon. The high today will be 37 degrees, and the low will be 27.

Daily Roundup

Morgan Porter | Photo by Julia Hansen/Staff Photographer

Mizzou gymnast Morgan Porter injured her Achilles during the Arkansas meet, ending her season

The sophomore hurt herself while warming up for her routine at the meet. The gymnastics team has been having one of its best seasons yet, which has been mostly driven by its younger competitors. Porter was named SEC Freshman of the Year and is looking to redshirt this season because of her injury.

Potential Energy Cafe, in Lafferre Hall, will have a grand opening event Feb. 9

The new cafe, which has been serving food since the beginning of the semester, sells Kaldi's Coffee and Harold's Doughnuts. Both businesses are owned by MU graduates. The College of Engineering first started planning for the cafe when it received funding to renovate Lafferre Hall nearly two years ago. At the grand opening event on Feb. 9, you'll be able to win free prizes and meet Truman the Tiger.

Sports

Recap:

The Lakers lost 96-88 against Jazz. The Blackhawks played the Jets and lost 5-3. The Blues lost 5-1 against the Wild.

What to Watch:

Mizzou wrestling takes on Oklahoma State from 7-10 p.m. at Hearnes Center. Tickets are $5.

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM

$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

Eric Church | Courtesy of Townsquare Media

Country star Eric Church is coming to the Sprint Arena in Kansas City this Tuesday, Jan. 31. Columnist Cassie Allen has the essential songs you need to know. If you're not a huge country fan, check out "Springsteen," which is about the nostalgia of summer loves and Bruce Springsteen. Two other songs that would be good to check out: "Record Year" and "Give Me Back My Hometown." Read more about Church here.

What to Do Today

- \$1 Weekend Film: Arrival, 7-9 p.m. @ Wrench Auditorium
- Mizzou After Dark: Be a Kid Night, 7-10 p.m. @ Stotler Lounge

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

the
MOVE
groove

In celebrity lives: During his live-streamed anti-Trump art installation, He Will Not Divide Us, Shia LaBeouf got into a physical quarrel with another protester and was arrested Thursday in NYC. According to E! News, LaBeouf was “released after being charged with misdemeanor assault and harassment.”

In music: Music legend Elton John and playwright Paul Rudnick will be writing a musical adaptation of book and blockbuster smash “The Devil Wears Prada” (yes, you read that correctly). According to the New York Times, “producers did not announce a timeline for the project but said it was being developed for Broadway.”

In dystopian novels: George Orwell’s classic 1949 novel “1984” topped the best-seller list on Amazon this week, according to NBC News, after “incorrect or unprovable statements [were] made by President Donald Trump and some White House aides.” Other novels incorporating similar themes, such as Sinclair Lewis’ “It Can’t Happen Here” and Aldous Huxley’s “Brave New World” have also experienced an increase in sales.

Maneater file photo

If you like art and other cool, innovative things: Mizzou undergraduate students will be presenting their art and applied design projects at the Visual Art & Design Showcase next week, Monday through Friday in Jesse Hall. The showcase will also include panel discussions and a keynote address by Sarah Leen, National Geographic director of photography. Find out more about the showcase here.

If you like theater: Jasmine Guy and the Avery Sharpe Trio will star in “Raisin’ Cain: A Harlem Renaissance Odyssey” on Friday at the Missouri Theatre. According to the University Concert Series, the performance is “inspired by the classic 1923 Jean Toomer novel ‘Cane’ and works by the musicians, composers, poets and actors of the Harlem Renaissance.” The show is at 7 p.m., and tickets are $20-30.

If you like physical activity: Rockin’ Against Multiple Sclerosis (RAMS) will be holding Runnin’ Against MS, a 5K from which all proceeds will go to Columbia’s MS Institute. The race is Feb. 4 at Stephens Lake Park from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and registration is $30. Sign up or donate here.

Photo courtesy of Wikipedia Commons

If you like Netflix: A ton of movies and TV programs will be added to and dropped from Netflix this February. Among those being added is the first season of “American Crime Story: The People v. O.J. Simpson.” 1995 classic “Clueless” is among those being dropped (ugh, as if!). Check out a list of the best of both categories here.

If you like cooking: Mini chicken pot pies. You’re welcome. Eat a few for dinner and the rest throughout the week.

If you like wine: A bold, dry white, such as a Chardonnay, will pair beautifully with your mini chicken pot pies.

Copyright © 2016 MOVE Magazine, All rights reserved.

This weekly newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine in coordination with Mizzou Student Media. Compiled by Victoria Cheyne.

MOVE

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

MOVE: Music. Outings. Venues. Events.

View this email in your browser

The Sports Report

From The Maneater Sports Desk, everything you need to know about the week in sports, at Mizzou and beyond.

The week in Mizzou sports

Jordan Barnett attacks the rim. (Photo by Emil Lippe | Senior Staff Photographer for The Maneater)

Men's basketball losing streak extends to 12 games

By Nick Kelly

South Carolina left little doubt as to why it holds the No. 1 spot in three-point defense in the country on Saturday.

The Gamecocks made the Tigers' three-point game disappear in their 63-53 win in Columbia, holding Missouri to one three-pointer on 17 attempts. South Carolina's efforts halted the three-point momentum Missouri had gained in recent games, going 11-25 a week ago.

"They certainly padded that stat tonight," Tigers coach Kim Anderson said.

The non-existent three-point game is just the latest way Anderson's team has found a way to lose a game. Missouri lost its 12th straight game on Saturday to South Carolina at Mizzou Arena. With the loss to the No. 23 Gamecocks, Anderson still has not defeated a ranked team in his time with the Tigers (5-15, 0-8).

Read the rest of the recap at theman eater.com

Women's basketball sweeps the week

Women's basketball put another impressive week together, winning at Arkansas and beating Auburn at home for their fourth straight win. Before the game, Sierra Michaelis was honored for joining Mizzou's 1,000-point club and added nine more points in the game along with nine rebounds. Cierra Porter led the way with 27 points and nine rebounds. Read the full recap here.

Wrestling falls to No. 1 Oklahoma State, 20-16

By Joe Noser

After clawing back from an early 11-0 deficit to tie its contest against the No. 1 Oklahoma State Cowboys 16-16, the No. 7 Missouri Tigers entered the last match of a dual meet on Friday night at Hearnes Center with a chance to come away with a major upset.

However, such an upset was not in the cards, as redshirt freshman heavyweight Austin Myers lost his match 9-1 to No. 6 senior Austin Schafer, and the Cowboys escaped with a 20-16 victory.

Oklahoma State improved to 9-0, while Missouri fell to 9-3 on the season.

Read the full recap here.

Mizzou men's basketball manager team moves to No. 8 in the country

The men's basketball Manager Team moved up to No. 8 in the KPI Sports manager rankings after beating South Carolina 94-72 on Friday night. The Tiger managers improve to 4-1 on the year and 4-0 in SEC play. Their only loss was to No. 2 Western Kentucky.

SEC Standings

Men's Basketball

1. #4 Kentucky (7-1 SEC, 17-4 overall)
2. #23 South Carolina (7-1, 17-4)
3. #25 Florida (6-2, 16-5)
4. Alabama (6-2, 13-7)
5. Arkansas (5-3, 16-5)
6. Mississippi State (4-4, 13-7)
7. Georgia (4-4, 13-8)
8. Tennessee (4-4, 13-8)
9. Texas A&M (3-5, 11-9)
10. Ole Miss (3-5, 12-9)
11. Vanderbilt (3-5, 10-11)
12. Auburn (3-5, 14-7)
13. LSU (1-7, 9-11)
14. Missouri (0-8, 5-15)

Women's Basketball

1. #5 South Carolina (8-0 SEC, 18-1 overall)
2. #4 Mississippi State (6-1, 20-1)
3. Kentucky (6-2, 15-6)
4. Texas A&M (5-2, 15-5)
5. Missouri (5-3, 15-7)
6. Auburn (4-3, 14-7)
7. Tennessee (4-3, 13-7)
8. LSU (3-4, 14-6)
9. Alabama (3-5, 15-6)
10. Georgia (2-5, 10-10)
11. Arkansas (2-5, 13-7)
12. Ole Miss (2-6, 13-8)
13. Florida (1-6, 10-10)
14. Vanderbilt (1-7, 11-10)

The week ahead

J'den Cox celebrates after defeating Cornell's Jeramy Sweany 24-9. (Photo by Katherine Knott | Senior Staff Photographer for The Maneater)

Today: Tennis travels to Berkeley, California, to take on Old Dominion at 3 p.m.

Monday: Tennis will play either California or Xavier in California. Women's basketball hosts Kentucky at 6 p.m. on the SEC Network.

Wednesday: Tennis plays at Utah State at 11 a.m.

Thursday: Men's basketball travels to Gainesville to take on No. 25 Florida at 6 p.m. on ESPN2.

Friday: Tennis is at BYU at 11 a.m. and Gymnastics is at LSU at 7:30 p.m.

Saturday: Softball has its Black and Gold Game at 2 p.m. Wrestling hosts Northern Illinois at 2 p.m. Men's Basketball plays Arkansas at 5 p.m. on the SEC Network for their Rally for Rhyan Game.

Pro Sports Recap

- The Atlanta Falcons and New England Patriots advanced to Super Bowl

LI after both won their conference championships. The Falcons defeated the Green Bay Packers 44-21 to win the NFC, and the Patriots defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 36-17 to win the AFC.

- The NBA released the reserves for the 2017 All-Star Game in New Orleans this week. Isaiah Thomas, John Wall, Kevin Love, Kyle Lowry, Paul George, Kemba Walker and Paul Millsap will play for the Eastern Conference. For the Western Conference, Russell Westbrook, Klay Thompson, Draymond Green, DeMarcus Cousins, Marc Gasol, DeAndre Jordan and Gordon Hayward will play.
- The St. Louis Blues went 1-1 this week. The Blues won at the Penguins 3-0 on Tuesday but fell at the Wild 5-1 on Thursday. The Chicago Blackhawks went 1-2 this week. They started their week with a 4-2 win over the Canucks on Sunday but fell against the Lightning on Tuesday and the Jets on Thursday.

Week 13 NBA Power Rankings

By Cole Bollinger

1) Golden State Warriors - The Warriors may have lost to the Heat on Monday night, but they are still the best team in the league. In their three wins this week, the Warriors won by an average of 25.33. The most impressive win coming against the Clippers by a score of 144-98. (Last Week: No. 1)

2) San Antonio Spurs - The Spurs are going to Spurs. They also lost a random road game, and like the Warriors, they went and took care of business the rest of the week. As great as the Warriors have been this year, the Spurs are only 3.5 games back. (Last Week: #2)

3) Cleveland Cavaliers - The Cavs are struggling right now. They have lost six of their last ten, and some were to some bad teams. They will be fine come Playoff time but it's strange to see a LeBron led team struggle this much. Good thing they have an easy game coming up... oh, wait. They play the Thunder at 2:30 today. (Last Week: #3)

4) Boston Celtics - Don't look now but the Celtics have pushed themselves into a tie for 2nd place in the East with the Raptors. While the Raptors have been struggling as of late, the Celtics were able to chip away at their lead in the standings. A Wednesday night matchup at home against Toronto may go a long way in deciding who will wind up with the No. 2 seed. (Last Week: #7)

5) Houston Rockets - The Rockets didn't have the best of weeks, but it's hard to drop them past five when James Harden is playing like he is. Harden dropped 51 points, 13 rebounds and 13 assists in the Rockets win at the 76ers Friday night. (Last Week: #4)

Next Five: Oklahoma City Thunder, Washington Wizards, Los Angeles Clippers, Memphis Grizzlies and Utah Jazz.

Sunday morning read

Photo by Scott Halleran | Getty Images

Chiefs well represented in the NFL Pro Bowl with seven players headed to Orlando

By Chelsea Roemer

The 2017 Pro Bowl will take place this weekend, and despite the ugly end to their season, the Kansas City Chiefs have a lot to show for their season, as four Chiefs have been selected to represent the team in Orlando, Florida.

Chiefs quarterback Alex Smith, punter Dustin Colquitt, linebacker/special teamer DJ Alexander, tight end Travis Kelce, cornerback Marcus Peters, strong safety Eric Berry and return specialist Tyreek Hill were selected, the last four of which were named to the starting lineup for the AFC team. There are many reasons why each player is deserving of a spot in the Pro Bowl.

Tyreek Hill

Hill just completed his rookie season with the Chiefs and received attention for being one of the fastest kick returners in the NFL. This season, Hill was named AFC Player of the Month in December and received AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 14. Hill's talent made him a unanimous selection for first-team All-Pro as a punt returner.

Hill made a huge impact for the Chiefs, especially in scoring, putting up points both as a receiver and a kick returner. On top of that, he accounted for 384 kick return yards, 592 punt return yards and three return touchdowns.

Read the full story here.

On deck and on TV

NFL: Today, the AFC plays the NFC in this year's Pro Bowl at 7 p.m. on ESPN.

NBA: Highlights for the week include: Thunder at Cavaliers today on ABC, Bulls at Thunder on Wednesday on ESPN, Warriors at Clippers on Thursday on TNT and Cavaliers at Knicks on Saturday on ABC.

NHL: The Capitals host the Bruins at 8 p.m. Wednesday on NBC Sports. Also on Wednesday, the Kings host the Avalanche at 10:30 p.m. on NBC Sports. The Rangers play at the Sabres at 7 p.m. Thursday on NBC Sports.

College Basketball: Today, No. 1 Villanova hosts No. 12 Virginia at noon on Fox. No. 11 Butler hosts No. 16 Creighton at 6 p.m. Tuesday on Fox Sports 1. No. 2 Kansas hosts No. 5 Baylor at 8 p.m. Wednesday on ESPN2. No. 9 North Carolina hosts No. 14 Notre Dame at 5 p.m. Saturday on ESPN.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Compiled by Cole Bollinger