

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Monday, February 6, 2017

Yesterday's warm weather continues today, with a high of 57 degrees and a low of 52. Be sure to pack an umbrella and wear your rain boots, because there will be thunderstorms later in the day.

Daily Roundup

Eric Greitens | Courtesy of Wikimedia Commons

Gov. Eric Greitens withdrew two nominations from the UM Board of Curators, leaving five seats vacant

As of the first meeting of the year, the Board of Curators will be down five members out of the usual total of nine members. Gov. Greitens has yet to make his own nominations to fill the open positions. With the withdrawal of the nominations of Jon Sundvold and Patrick Graham, an MU senior, the board loses its student representation. The first meeting will still be held next week in Columbia with two curators — Donald Cupps and Pamela Henrickson — serving past their term expiration.

---

Sports

Courtesy of Wikimedia Commons

Recap:

THE SUPER BOWL

The Falcons opened the game strong against the team everyone loves to hate: the Patriots. By halftime, the score was 21-3 Falcons. The Patriots ended up coming out on top, finishing the game with a score of 34-28.

What to Watch:

The St. Louis Blues play the Philadelphia Flyers at 6 p.m. on NBCS.

---

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM

$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

MOVE

magazine

Courtesy of YouTube

This weekend proved to be jampacked:

Melissa McCarthy returned to SNL for a 7-minute sketch as Press Secretary Sean Spicer. The bit spread around the internet like wildfire, especially due to McCarthy's uncanny resemblance to Spicer. The sketch was a great addition to the night, which started with a cold open where Steve Bannon was the Grimm Reaper. Kristen Stewart accidentally dropped the f-bomb during her monologue, causing Kate Mckinnon to make one of the most gif-able moments of the night. Check out Melissa McCarthy on SNL here.

Lady Gaga's halftime show was less political than expected, but it still created some great memes. As soon as she descended from the ceiling of the stadium, Twitter was already ready to make as many jokes as possible. Lady Gaga performed all of her hits from her time on the pop charts but only played one song from her most recent album, "Joanne." But you'll definitely be seeing gifs of her jumping off the stage with a football for weeks.

Jack Dunlop ✓
@CouRageJD

Follow

Spongebob did it first

---

What to Do Today

- Frank Almond: A Violin's Life, 7-10 p.m. @ Missouri Theatre
- Free Advance Screening: Get Out, 7-9 p.m. @ Regal Columbia Stadium 14

---

Compiled by Regina Anderson

---

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Tuesday, February 7, 2017

The high tomorrow will be 56, and the low will be 31. It'll be cloudy in the morning but sunny in the afternoon.

Daily Roundup

A demonstration in front of Sen. Roy Blunt's Columbia office Monday (Columbia Missourian)

Demonstrators protested against Betsy DeVos yesterday on the eve of her confirmation vote

Columbia citizens opposed to the confirmation of education secretary nominee Betsy DeVos took to the streets Monday and demonstrated outside of Sen. Roy Blunt's office. The No. 4 Republican in the Senate was not in Columbia yesterday, but the demonstrators were ready to chant anyway. One sign read: "Grizzly bear, grizzly bear, what do you see? I see a highly unqualified secretary of education nominee!"

DeVos' confirmation vote is scheduled for this afternoon, and two Republican senators so far have said they will vote against her. If all Democrats vote against DeVos, the vote will be 50-50, and Vice President Mike Pence will have to break the tie.

CDS changes Tiger Plan marketing after getting student feedback

Campus Dining Services updated the website for the controversial off-campus dining plan to make the costs and uses of the plan clearer. Its landing page now includes "How to Maximize the Tiger Plan Value" and "Breaking Down the Tiger Plan." Additionally, students who signed up for the Tiger Plan will receive weekly emails from CDS clarifying how to use the plan, as well as a monthly balance email tracking where students are spending their money.

---

How well do you know the week's news at MU? Take our weekly news quiz and find out:

1/10

Super Bowl LI

We all know the New England Patriots came back and won Super Bowl LI in overtime. So, let's dig a little deeper. How many MU students are from the Patriots' home state of Massachusetts as of fall 2016, according to the Fall 2016 Enrollment Data Report?

50

120

70

Sports

Column: Sports offer the best distraction of all

Columnist Cole Bollinger breaks down a year of historic sports championships and the escape they provided.

Sports are meant to be an escape from the rest of the world. They give us an ability to exit our own real lives and dream the impossible.

In the past year, they have done exactly that.

On Sunday night, the New England Patriots defeated the Atlanta Falcons in the largest comeback in Super Bowl history. Down 28-3 with 8:31 remaining in the third quarter, Tom Brady and the Patriots found a way to pull off an improbable victory in overtime.

If you have been following sports over the past year, this level of excitement is nothing new. The championships have been some of the best in each of their respective sports' history, which has made this one of the best sports years in recent memory.

Read the rest here.

NBA trade rumor roundup:

- The New York Daily News reported yesterday that LeBron James has asked the Cleveland Cavaliers front office to pursue a trade that would send Kevin Love to the New York Knicks for Carmelo Anthony, one of James' friends. "I just want the best for my friend, no matter what it is," James said of Anthony on Friday.
- The New Orleans Pelicans are discussing a trade for Jahlil Okafor with the Philadelphia 76ers. Okafor is a good candidate to be traded before the deadline because of the excess of young big men on the Sixers.
- Sacramento Kings general manager Vlade Divac says the team will not trade All-Star center DeMarcus Cousins this year.

What to Watch: In college basketball, LSU visits No. 15 Kentucky on ESPN at 6 p.m. In hockey, the Los Angeles Kings take on the Tampa Bay Lightning on NBC Sports at 7:30 p.m.

---

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM

$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

MOVE magazine

Our friends at The Post from Ohio University tried out Chipotle's new burger chain at its only location in Lancaster, Ohio. The food got mixed reviews from their staff, but they praised the restaurant's low prices and fresh ingredients (click below for their video review). It's unclear how fast and how much the restaurant will expand, so for now, we'll just focus on having the nation's second-closest Chipotle to a college campus.

What to Do Today

- Bargain Book Sale, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at The Mizzou Store
- Off-Campus Housing Fair, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the basement of the Student Center
- Mizzou New Play Series, 7:30-9:30 p.m. at the Corner Playhouse

---

Compiled by George Roberson

---

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Wednesday, February 8, 2017

It's going to be colder today than it's been in the past week, with a little bit of wind. The high today is 36 degrees, and the low is 19.

Daily Roundup

Professor emeritus Boyd O'Dell (right) and professor emerita Grace Sun | Courtesy of Grace Sun

100-year-old biochemistry professor still follows his passion for learning

Professor emeritus Boyd O'Dell still does part-time research on campus, even though he retired in 1988. Born in 1916, O'Dell originally began working as a teacher in a one-room schoolhouse, teaching first through eighth grade. He continued his education at MU and was eventually invited back to be a professor. O'Dell is currently researching the importance of zinc in maintaining calcium channels.

Read more here.

Column: Sometimes it's OK to say no

Columnist Kennedy Horton writes a reminder to not worry about people-pleasing all the time. "Realize that you are your own friend. Understand that you cannot do it all. Give yourself a break. Start small, and remind yourself that being assertive doesn't mean being aggressive. Most importantly, be honest with the people you care about."

Read more here.

---

Sports

Recap:

In college basketball, LSU lost 92-85 against Kentucky. In hockey, the Los Angeles Kings lost to the Tampa Bay Lightning 0-5.

What to Watch:

The Blackhawks play the Wild at 7 p.m. on NBCS. The Bulls take on the Warriors at 9:30 p.m. on ESPN.

---

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM
$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

---

MOVE
magazine

Bailey Valadez/Photographer

Columbia's Nasty Women Art Exhibit is being hosted at ARTlandish Gallery as one of many exhibits nationwide. It is organized by Artists for Social Justice, and all proceeds from the exhibit are going to Columbia's Planned Parenthood. The goal of the group is to put on four exhibits a year and donate to different groups each time. The exhibition will last until March 3.

"The Cat Tugger" was one of the pieces featured in the exhibit, depicting Donald Trump dragging a cat behind him in reference to a soundbite of Trump in 2005 saying how he can "grab [women] by the pussy."

---

What to Do Today

- Bargain Book Sale, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. @ The Mizzou Store
- Black Cinema: The Help, 7-9:30 p.m. @ Gaines/Oldham Black Culture Center
- Free Wednesday Film: The Edge of Seventeen, 8-11 p.m. @ Memorial Union South

---

Compiled by Regina Anderson

---

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Thursday, February 9, 2017

Today's the last cold day before the warm weekend. The high today will be 33 degrees, and the low will be 28.

Daily Roundup

True/False | Courtesy of KOMU on Flickr

True/False lineup announced yesterday

The documentary film festival is taking place from March 2-5 in Columbia. A big movie being shown this year “I Am Not Your Negro,” is directed by Raoul Peck. The film covers James Baldwin’s observations on race relations in the civil rights era and his friendships with Martin Luther King Jr. and Malcolm X.

Check it out here.

Editorial: Columbia police chief needs to acknowledge and address racial profiling

“To not recognize a problem with this data is to turn a blind eye to an obvious issue affecting community members. It is reasonable to think that a police chief may not recognize an internal problem to protect his own officers, but to deny the problem is to put the reputation of the police department over the well-being of the community that the department is serving.”

Read more here.

Students can attend the public portions of the MU Board of Curators meeting. This year's first meeting is tomorrow, starting at 10 a.m. and the agenda can be found here.

---

Figure out which film you should see at True/False this year with this MOVE quiz:

---

Sports

Recap:

The Blackhawks won against the Wild 4-3. The Bulls lost 123-92 against the Warriors.

What to Watch:

The St. Louis Blues take on the the Maple Leafs at 6:30 p.m. on FSMW. In the NBA, the Cleveland Cavaliers play the Oklahoma City Thunder at 7 p.m. on TNT.

---

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM
$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

MOVE
magazine

Courtesy of YouTube

Hop on The Magic School Bus to childhood nostalgia. Netflix announced who the new Ms. Frizzle, everyone's favorite grade school teacher, will be voiced by — Kate McKinnon. McKinnon isn't new to children's programming. She most recently was in "The Angry Birds Movie" and had a small role in "Finding Dory." The role of Ms. Frizzle was originally played by Lily Tomlin, who currently stars on the Netflix comedy "Grace and Frankie." You can find the entire original series of The Magic School Bus on Netflix.

---

What to Do Today

- Mocktails and a Masterpiece, 4-6 p.m. @ The Shack
- RSVP Educators Roundtable Discussion: Stalking and Social Media, 5-6 p.m. @ RSVP Center
- Free Swing Dance Lesson, 7-9:30 @ Mark Twain Ballroom, Memorial Union

---

Compiled by Regina Anderson

---

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

The Maneater Daily

View this email in your browser

The MANEATER Daily

Friday, February 10, 2017

The warm weather is back! The high today will be 63 degrees, and the low will be 46. Be sure to bring a jacket, though. It's going to be windy throughout the day.

Daily Roundup

Students, faculty and patrons alike gathered at Ellis Library. | Emil Lippe/Senior Staff Photographer

Author Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor spoke about black liberation during a visit to Mizzou

Taylor is an assistant professor of African American studies at Princeton University. She discussed her most recent book, "From #BlackLivesMatter to Black Liberation," during an event hosted by the departments of Black Studies and Peace Studies. She critiqued multiple areas of the political process and the current climate in American politics. This event was one in a series being hosted for Black History Month.

“We must be clear about how we got to this point,” Taylor said. “And in doing so, it is critical to remember that embedded inside of every right-wing backlash is the failure of the liberal establishment to provide a better way.”

UM System Board of Curators began its first meeting of 2017 yesterday, and they discussed budget cuts and future of the board

The board approved increases to the cost of room and board at all four UM System universities. MU will see a 3.3 percent increase from fiscal year 2017 to fiscal year 2018. The board also voted unanimously to add diversity, equity and inclusion amendments, including implementation of a system-wide preferred name policy for students and statements about nondiscrimination. Members discussed the board's plans for today's part of the meeting. The Board is still short five members, whom Gov. Eric Greitens needs to nominate or appoint.

---

Sports

Recap:

The St. Louis Blues won 2-1 against the Maple Leafs. In the NBA, the Cleveland Cavaliers lost to the Oklahoma City Thunder 118-109.

What to Watch:

The Chicago Blackhawks are playing the Winnipeg Jets at 7 p.m. on CSNC. The Golden State Warriors take on the Memphis Grizzlies at 7 p.m. on FSSE.

---

WANT YOUR AD HERE?

CONTACT US
ADVERTISING@THEMANEATER.COM

$10 per day, or $50 for 7 days

MOVE

magazine

Courtesy of NYtimes.com

Column: From Disney to long-distance, love is a game of pinball

“What I failed to realize, however, is that movies leave out so much about realistic love. Stirring false hope in the hearts of little girls, Disney forgot to mention that sometimes Prince Charming just doesn’t show up. Sometimes Cinderella is a blithering mess, and the fairy godmother may not be around to wave her magical wand.”

Read more here.

---

What to Do Today

- \$1 Weekend Film: Fantastic Beasts, 7-9 p.m. & 9:30-11:30 p.m. @ Wrench Auditorium
- Mizzou After Dark: Valentine’s Day Dinner and a Concert, 7-8 p.m. @ Stotler Lounge
- Mizzou New Play Series, 7:30-9:30 p.m. @ Corner Playhouse

---

Compiled by Regina Anderson

---

This daily newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

the MOVE groove

In art: After 21 days, Shia LaBeouf's art installation has been shut down by the Museum of the Moving Image in New York, where it was displayed. The actor's piece, a livestream of a wall that read "He will not divide us," was closed for "serious public safety hazards." It was originally scheduled to be open for all four years of Donald Trump's presidency.

In television: Hallmark is bringing its holiday magic back just in time for Valentine's Day. New movies are premiering all weekend. "A Dash of Love" and "Love at First Glance" are just two of the names to look out for. So grab some chocolates, friends and a blanket and enjoy the cheesiest movies on television.

In celebrity pregnancies: Queen Bey isn't the only pregnant A-lister right now;

George and Amal Clooney are expecting twins, and Lauren Conrad, Amanda Seyfried, Rosie Huntington-Whiteley and several others also have babies on the way. Check out the full list here.

Courtesy of Zach Baker.

If you hate love: Tonight, The Blue Note is hosting an anti-Valentine's Day retro dance party featuring hits from the '90s and '00s as well as ample Beyoncé jams. Admission is $5, and the shindig starts at 9 p.m.

If you like nature and movies: The Wild and Scenic Film Festival, which features insightful, inspiring films pertaining to the environment, is tomorrow at The Blue Note all afternoon. Admission is $12 for adults, $10 for students and seniors and free for children. All proceeds go to Missouri River Relief.

If you like date nights: If you forgot all about Valentine's Day and are in need of plans, you've still got some options. Ragtag Cinema is showing La La Land at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday. Take your date then cry all over them. Alternatively, the movie theater is also showing Jackie, Moonlight and the Oscar-nominated animated short films on Valentine's Day.

If you like Netflix: Season 2 of Crazy Ex-Girlfriend comes to Netflix today. Follow Rebecca Bunch to find out if she finds true love or not. Its timely release date lets you relate a little too well to her dating woes.

If you like cooking: Healthy meals don't have to be bland and boring. This grilled salmon with avocado salsa recipe from BuzzFeed Tasty looks completely ravishing.

If you like wine: Pair a full-bodied white wine with your grilled salmon. A Chardonnay will do the trick.

Copyright © 2016 MOVE Magazine, All rights reserved.

This weekly newsletter is a product of The Maneater and MOVE Magazine in coordination with Mizzou Student Media. Compiled by Victoria Cheyne and Bailey Sampson.

MOVE

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

MOVE: Music. Outings. Venues. Events.

View this email in your browser

The Sports Report

From The Maneater Sports Desk, everything you need to know about the week in sports, at Mizzou and beyond.

The week in Mizzou sports

Junior Jordan Barnett (Photo by Emil Lippe | Senior Staff Photographer)

Men's basketball defeats Vanderbilt for second straight home win

The Tigers have now won two of their last three games after defeating Vanderbilt 72-52 Saturday in Mizzou Arena. This was Mizzou's largest margin of victory in SEC play under coach Kim Anderson. Jordan Barnett led the way for the Tigers with 23 points and nine rebounds while coming off the bench. This also marked Anderson's 300th career victory.

Women's basketball falls to Tennessee in second straight loss

By Langston Newsome

Coming off a 70-53 blowout to Mississippi State, which killed Missouri women's basketball's five-game winning streak, the Tigers dropped a second consecutive Southeastern Conference game against No. 24 Tennessee on Thursday. Missouri fell to the Volunteers 77-66, its second straight loss by double digits.

The Tigers entered the game 0-3 in Knoxville against the Volunteers since joining the SEC, and Vols guard Diamond DeShields made sure that streak would continue. Tennessee's leading scorer had 22 points, six rebounds and three assists. Junior Jaime Nared added 18 points and five boards.

Mizzou sophomore Cierra Porter earned her 10th double-double of the year, chipping in 19 points and 10 boards. Senior Sierra Michaelis and sophomore Sophie Cunningham contributed 17 and 16 points, respectively.

Read the full recap here.

Gymnastics knocks off No. 14 Georgia Washington and No. 25 Iowa State

By Dru Berry

Missouri gymnastics bounced back in resounding fashion over No. 14 George Washington, No. 25 Iowa State and Lindenwood at Hearnes Center on Friday night. The victory comes after the Tigers dropped their last three meets, all to SEC schools ranked in the nation's top 15.

Home was a welcome sight for the Tigers after returning from a two-week road trip.

"It was so great just to be back in our home environment," sophomore Britney Ward said after the meet. "We were all just real excited to be back with our own fans and get our own energy. It was a lot of fun tonight."

Read the full recap here.

Women's tennis improves to 4-1 on the season

By Toby Lowe

The Missouri women's tennis team was home for some brief practice sessions this week before hitting the road for its matchup Friday against Kansas State. After falling behind in both doubles and singles competition, the Tigers rallied and picked up a 4-3 victory.

Senior Cassidy Spearman led the Tigers, picking up wins in her doubles and singles matches.

Missouri fell behind early in the doubles matchups. In two of the three matches, the Tigers found themselves down 1-3. But they once again showed great resiliency, a word that has defined the early season for the Tigers. Spearman and fellow senior Bea Machado Santos battled back from their deficit, picking up a 7-5 victory.

Read the full recap here.

SEC Standings

---

Men's Basketball

1. #17 Florida (10-2, 20-5)
2. #15 Kentucky (10-2, 20-5)
3. #19 South Carolina (10-2, 20-5)
4. Arkansas (7-5, 18-7)
5. Alabama (7-5, 14-10)
6. Ole Miss (6-6, 15-10)
7. Tennessee (6-6, 14-11)
8. Georgia (5-7, 14-11)
9. Vanderbilt (5-7, 12-13)
10. Mississippi State (5-7, 12-13)
11. Texas A&M (5-7, 13-11)
12. Auburn (5-7, 16-9)
13. Missouri (2-10, 7-17)
14. LSU (1-11, 9-15)

Women's Basketball

1. #6 South Carolina (11-1, 21-2)
2. #4 Mississippi State (10-1, 24-1)
3. Texas A&M (8-3, 18-6)
4. Kentucky (8-4, 17-8)
5. #24 Tennessee (7-4, 16-8)
6. LSU (6-5, 17-7)
7. Missouri (6-5, 16-9)
8. Auburn (5-6, 15-10)
9. Ole Miss (4-7, 15-9)
10. Georgia (4-7, 12-12)
11. Alabama (3-8, 15-9)
12. Florida (3-8, 12-12)
13. Arkansas (2-9, 13-11)
14. Vanderbilt (1-10, 11-13)

The week ahead

---

Sophomore guard Sophie Cunningham (Photo by Emil Lippe | Senior Staff Photographer)

Today: Wrestling hosts Northern Iowa at 2 p.m. Women's basketball hosts Arkansas at 5 p.m. Tennis is in Kansas City. Swimming is in Ohio. Softball is in South Carolina. Women's golf is in Florida.

Tuesday: Swimming is at SEC Championships in Tennessee until Saturday.

Wednesday: Wrestling hosts Southern Illinois-Edwardsville. Men's basketball hosts Alabama.

Thursday: Women's basketball is at Florida.

Sunday morning read

---

Sports offer the best distraction of all

By Cole Bollinger

Sports are meant to be an escape from the rest of the world. They give us an ability to exit our own real lives and dream the impossible.

In the past year, they have done exactly that.

Outside of the sports world, people have made each other upset, angry and all other kinds of emotions. For many, it's been a pretty rough year.

But for sports fans, it has been one of the best years ever.

On Sunday night, the New England Patriots defeated the Atlanta Falcons in the largest comeback in Super Bowl history. Down 28-3 with 8:31 remaining in the third quarter, Tom Brady and the Patriots found a way to pull off an improbable victory in overtime.

If you have been following sports over the past year, this level of excitement is nothing new. The championships have been some of the best in each of their respective sports' history, which has made this one of the best sports years in recent memory.

The craziness all started with a simple phrase: "Jenkins for the Championship!"

Jim Nantz screamed those now-famous lines as Kris Jenkins of Villanova nailed a 3-pointer at the buzzer to win the NCAA Championship over North Carolina. A win that was perceived as an upset from people who weren't paying attention was almost universally dubbed as the greatest championship game in NCAA basketball history.

We should have known then that it was only the beginning.

Read the rest of the column here.

On deck and on TV

---

NBA: The San Antonio Spurs and New York Knicks play today at 2:30 p.m. on ABC. The Oklahoma City Thunder visit the Washington Wizards at 7 p.m. and the Atlanta Hawks take on the Portland Trail Blazers at 9:30 p.m. on TNT. The Boston Celtics visit the Chicago Bulls at 7 p.m. on TNT.

NHL: The St. Louis Blues will take on the Detroit Red Wings at 8 p.m. Wednesday on NBC Sports.

College basketball: UConn's women's basketball team seeks its 100th straight win against No. 6 South Carolina at 8 p.m. Monday on ESPN2. In men's basketball, No. 4 Louisville takes on Syracuse at 6 p.m. Monday on ESPN.

---

This sports newsletter is a product of The Maneater in coordination with Mizzou Student Media. Have a question or comment? Email us at [editors@theman eater.com](mailto:editors@theman eater.com).

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

---

Compiled by Cole Bollinger