“For we stand upon the threshold of a world we’ve dreamed about”

As the year comes to a close, we depart not with a feeling of how much we know, but with the assurance that we have yet much to learn. The experiences which have been shared during the past months, both social and academic, have opened new horizons to each individual. The highlights of the year’s activities and events have been recorded in the pages of this annual. Your INVITATION TO REMEMBER is extended by the 1962 Kangaroo.

C A M P U S

The jiffy path between upper and lower campus; the quadrangle; —the pond, a legend in its own time. From the silent bell tower of Haag Hall to the new University Center — this is the campus of the University of Kansas City.

Students pause in the lobby for a minute or two of relaxation before going to their classes.

HAAG HALL

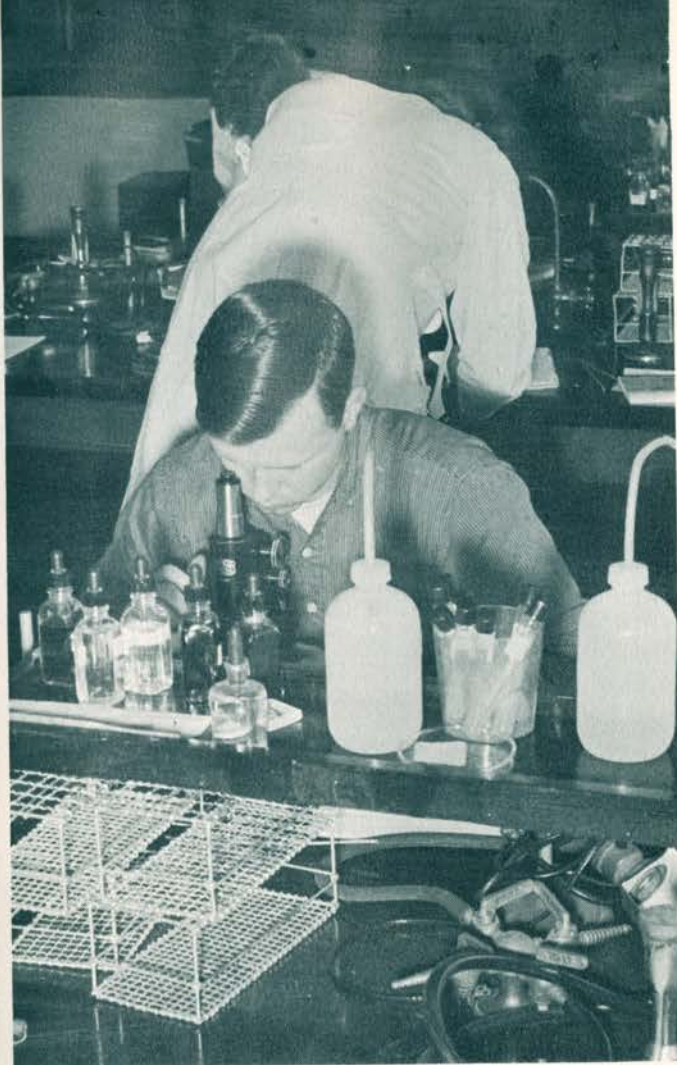

Ivy surrounding gleaming windows . . . grumbling after a "pop" quiz . . . the fragrance of pine from the just-mopped floors . . . slippery marble stairs . . . Mr. Eggers repeating, "Sociology is that science in which" . . . pledges reciting the Greek alphabet . . . posters boasting the queen candidates for Sno-Ball . . . thumbtacked test results everywhere . . . a building of pride, prominence, and perpetual stateliness, this is Haag Hall.

GARTER SNAPPING is a familiar subject to those students of Dr. Royall who spend their lecture periods in Room 117 Haag Hall.

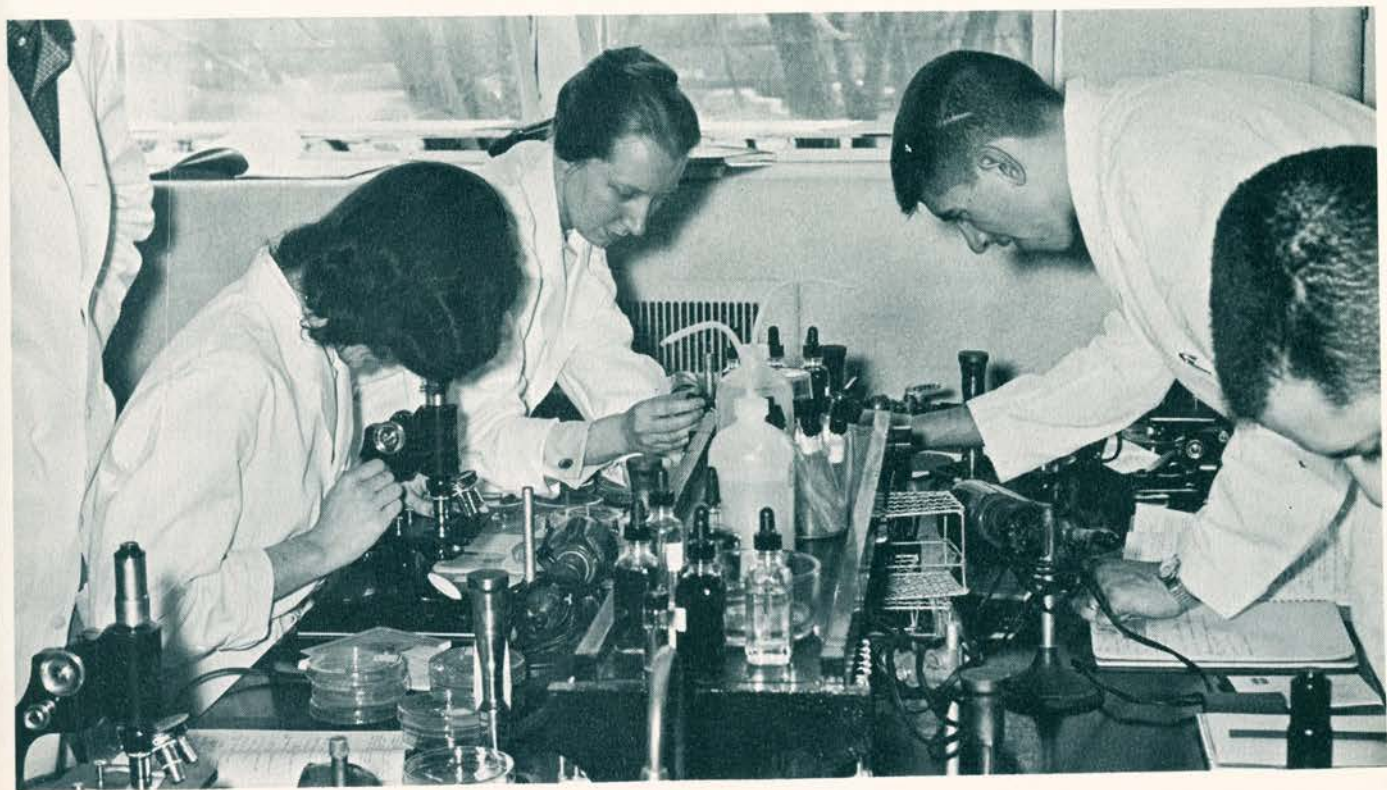

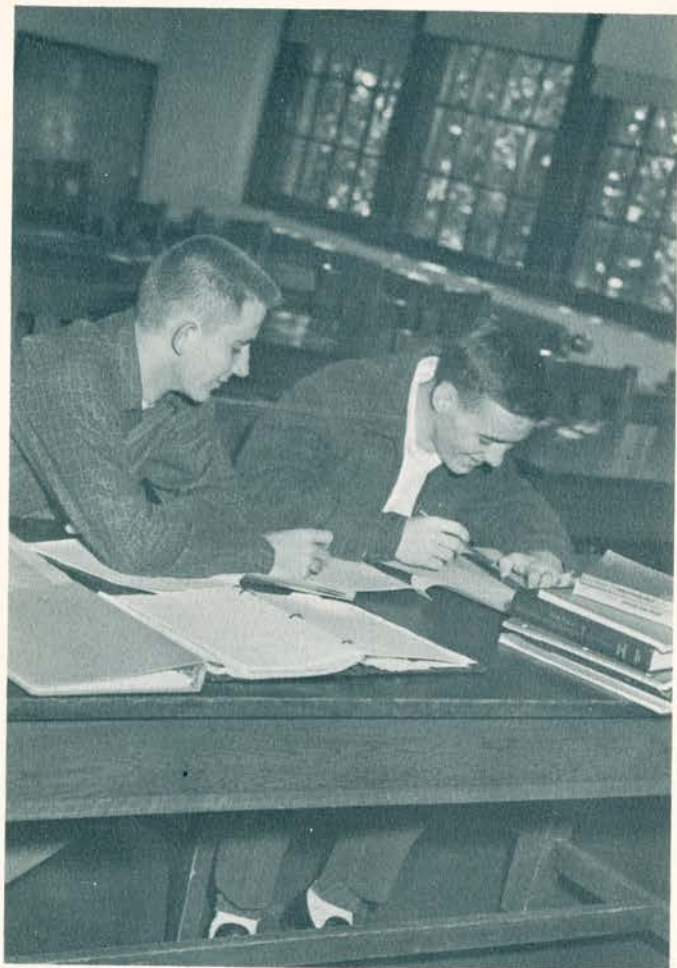

CHEMISTRY-BIOLOGY BUILDING

Bob Fain adjusts his microscope before examining the works of his watch to find out why it doesn't tick.

Microscopes and bunsen burners find ample usage during a Bacteriology lab session.

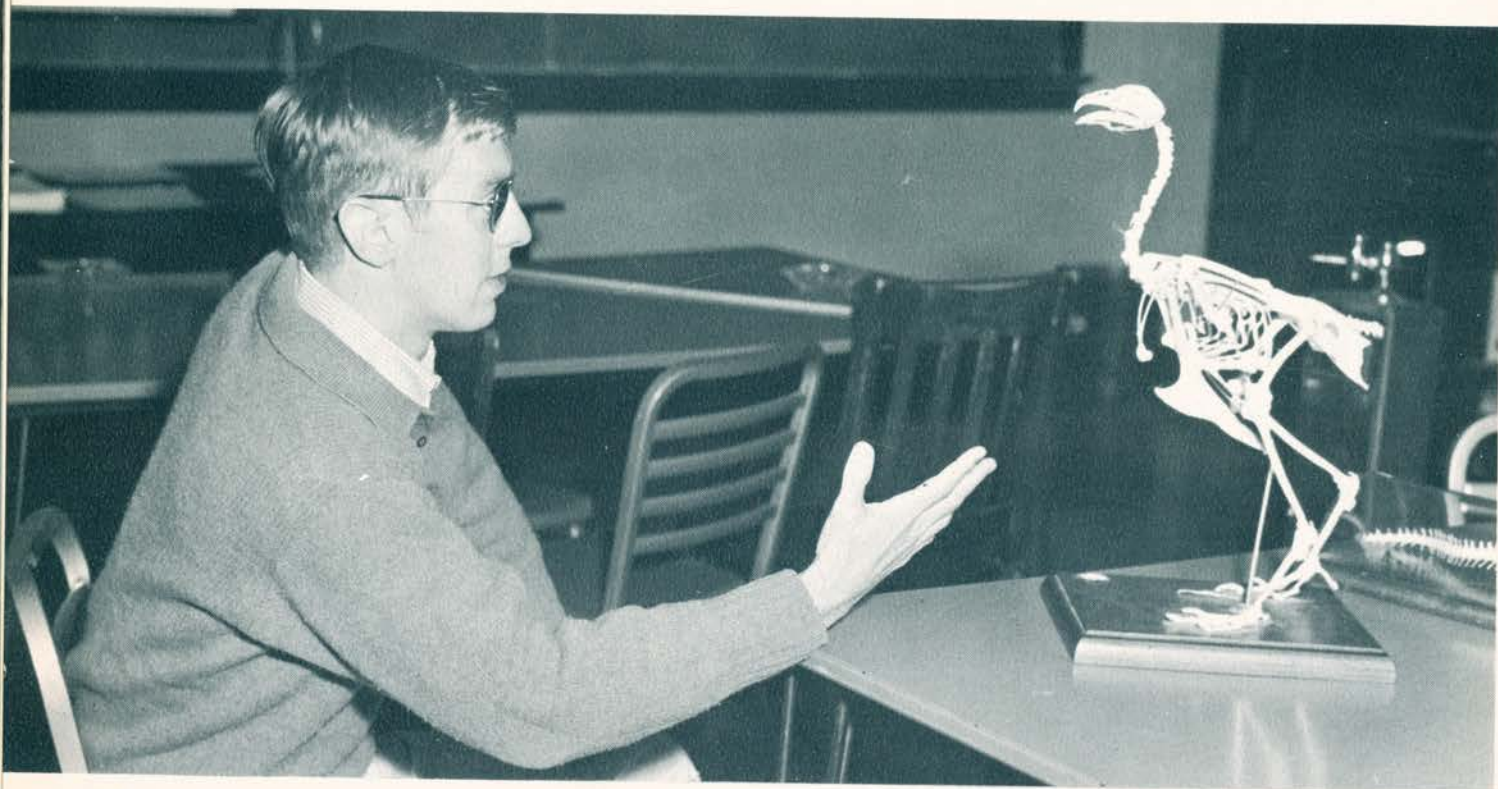

GEOLOGY-PHYSICS BUILDING

Twin staircases leading to a geology class . . . a big rock collection in a little hallway . . . abstract art with a thyroid condition . . . Dr. Royall explaining the evolution of man . . . chuckling from a world literature class . . . the sound of a slide rule . . . the confusion of maps, globes and atlases . . . The Nifty Nudies watching over all . . . an ivy-covered palace of diversified learning; this is the Geology-Physics Building.

THE THEORY OF OPTICS keeps these two eager students fascinated in a Physical Science lab.

BESTIVAL NAJOU and visiting professor A. Phylum Cordata discuss the possibilities of effects from atomic fallout. (Looks as if the professor may have had a rather feather-raising experience to back his contentions.)

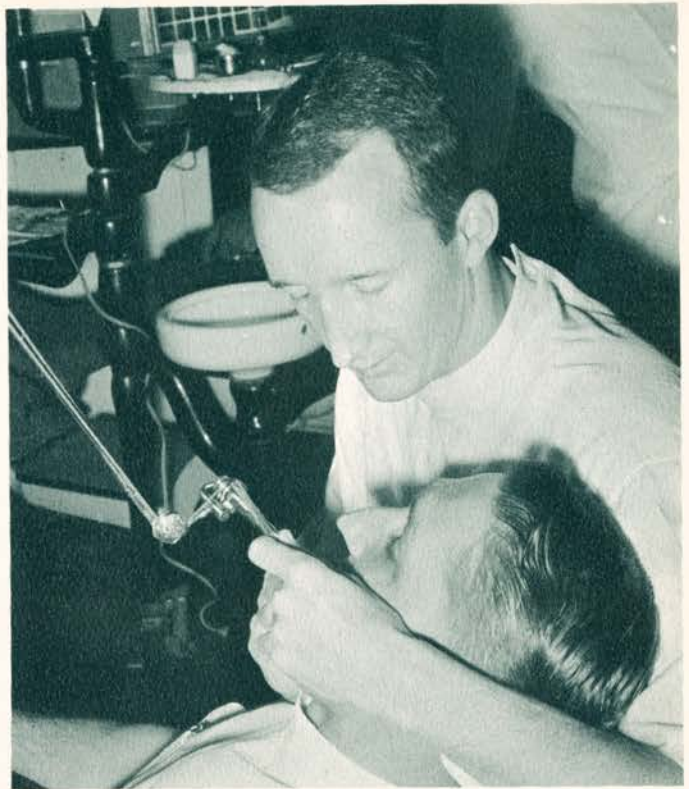

The Boys in White enjoy a coffee break after a lab session.

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

A stream of starched white gowns . . . the aroma of formaldehyde . . . snickering from a joke told in class . . . panic stricken expressions during one of Herbie's "snap" tests . . . clicking instruments in a handy-dandy tool kit . . . the Beaver Patrol called to order . . . mumbling during a memorization period . . . a building filled with instruments and intestinal fortitude . . . this is the Dental School.

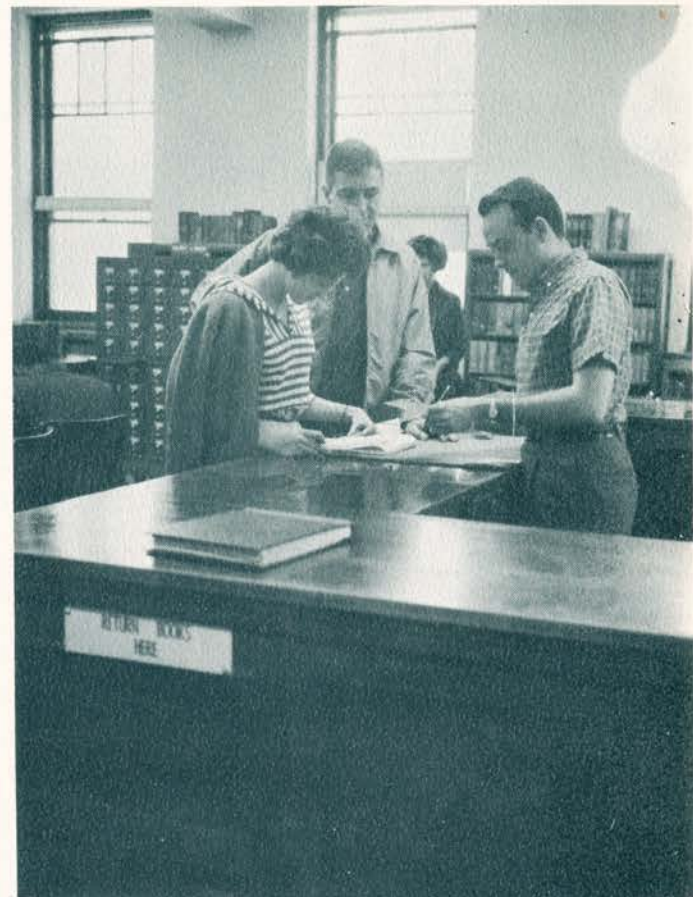

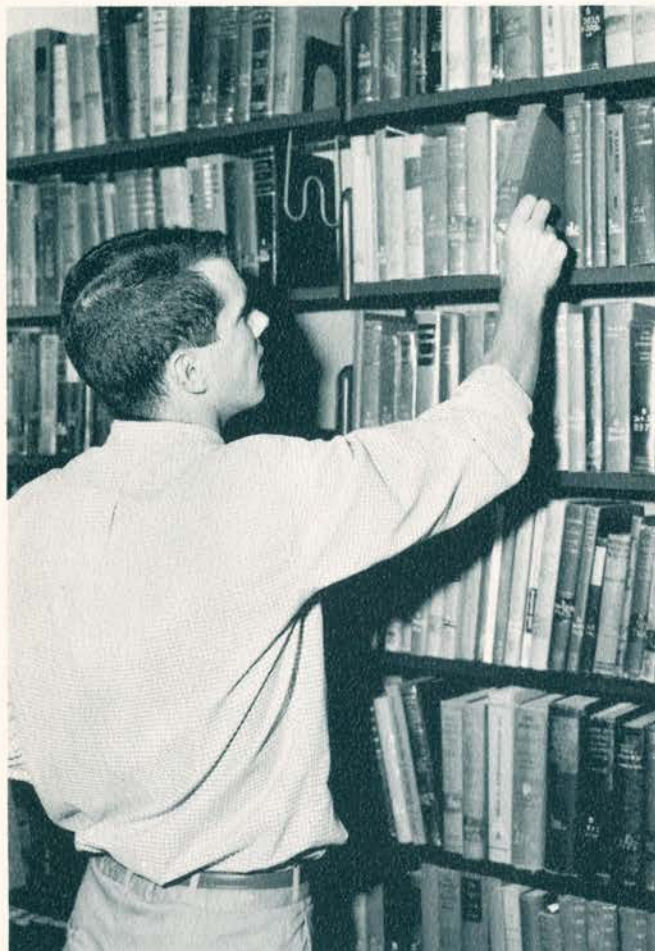

"Pardon me, young lady, but does that tickle?"

The Library furnishes a quiet place of refuge for those who have exams to study for or research projects to prepare.

The stacks, situated in that labyrinth under the main floor to which students are denied admission due to lack of adequate space, contain an amazing reserve of literature on which to draw.

Duana Bean and Ed Kriss take advantage of a bright, sun-shiny Saturday afternoon to do some heavy research on those massive term papers which always seem to appear with the first signs of spring.

THE LIBRARY

Smoke filled entrance halls . . . card files slammed in despair . . . worn out dictionaries with rumpled pages . . . students cramming before finals . . . longing gazes out the tall windows . . . Civil War maps and memories . . . freshmen girls whispering about upper-class boys . . . overdue books quietly slipped in the desk . . . Mrs. Bailey's patient smile at a lonely bookworm . . . a storehouse of filed knowledge; this is the Library.

"Students cramming before finals. . . ."

INFORMATION

THE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

A dimly-lighted lounge . . . typewriters banging out schedules . . . potted plants by the fireplace . . . Dr. Westermann's occasional chuckle . . . visitors at the information desk . . . a smooth marble staircase . . . a symbol of college dignity, this is the Administration Building.

GARY BELSHE wonders when the new Summer School schedules will be available.

REGISTRATION CAN BE A PAIN . . . "Yes, young man, you will have to go back to your faculty advisor for his signature."

THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Newly waxed floors . . . Heavy books of case studies . . . muffled debating in a corner . . . late nights in the library . . . Dean Lewis's voice rumbling forth from his office . . . an army of dark suits and derby hats . . . a few well-chosen cigars . . . a meeting place for the ambitious and aware . . . this is the University of Kansas City School of Law.

THE LAW LOUNGE furnishes many future attorneys, etc., with a quiet place to study, talk over cases, or tell jokes (!)

Joseph Cozad appears ready to accept requests on his guitar.

Jack Ralston, Conservatory Freshman, demonstrates the magnificent sound produced by the Conservatory's proudest possession—a grand old pipe organ which was the gift of a member of the community.

THE CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Conservatory of Music provides an excellent educational program for all who are interested in the field of music, whether vocal or instrumental, applied or pedagogy. The fine faculty and facilities have made the Conservatory one of the finest in the country, and students come from all points of the compass to take advantage of its study programs.

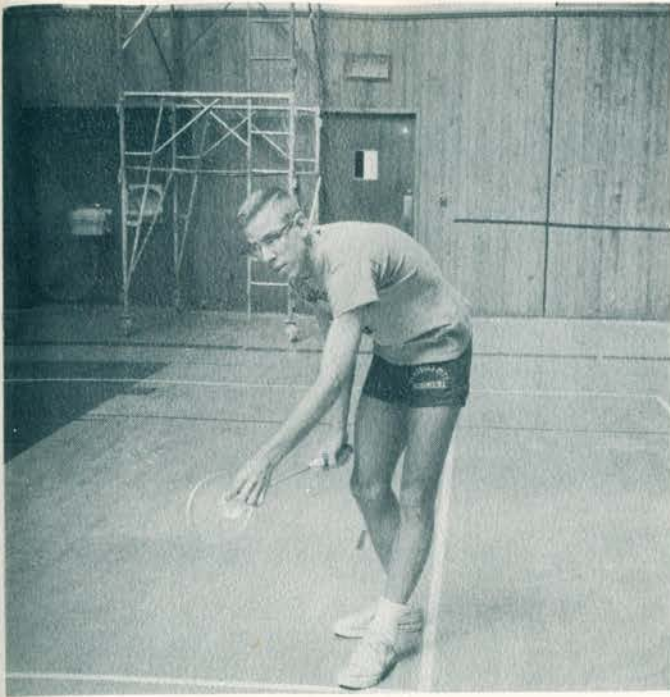

The Stolz twins, Rita and Ruth, are both Freshmen at the Conservatory. Their specialty is twin-piano duets.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
GRANT HALL

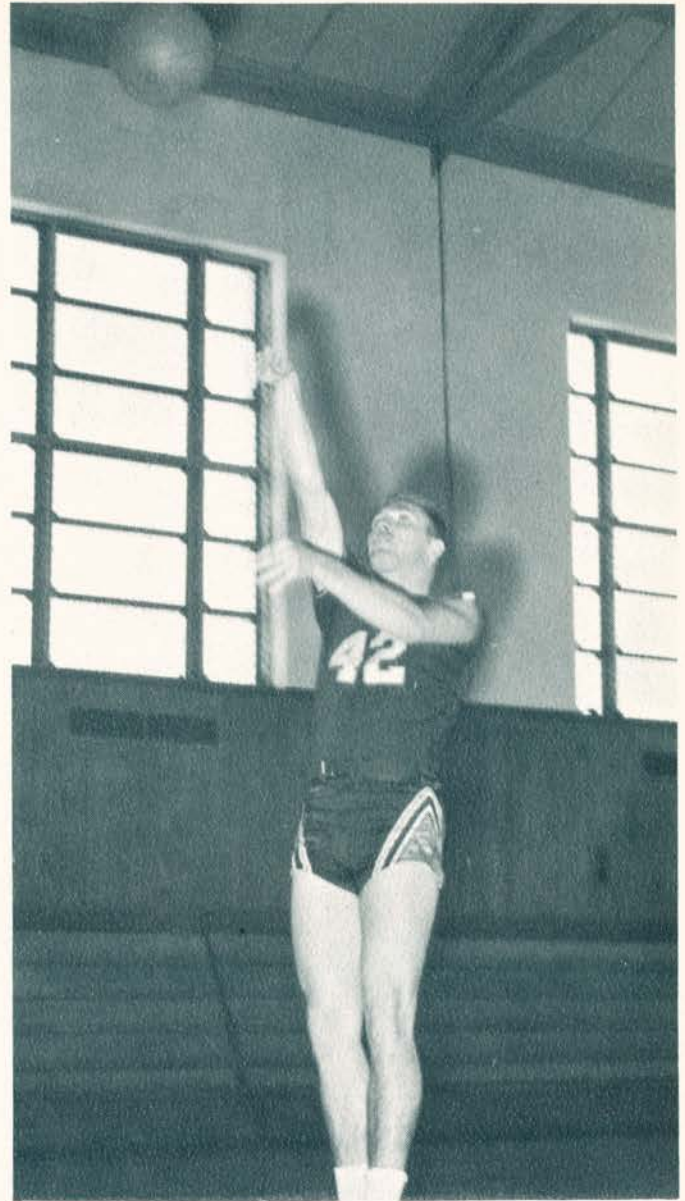

Crumpled gym clothes thrown in a locker . . . a janitor opening the creaking windows . . . shouts from the shower rooms . . . black silhouettes reflected on the studio mirror . . . Mr. Reid calling "Keep your head down" . . . tumbling mats and trampolines . . . a once-crowded dance auditorium . . . a building for sportsmanship, this is the Swinney Gymnasium.

RIGHT: PAT SHANNON drives home a long jump shot for the intercollegiate basketball club.

CENTER: Denny Vold exhibits his somewhat unorthodox return.

RIGHT: Okay, you guys, you can throw it back down now!

DALLAS ZIEGENHORN takes time out to read the funnies before his morning trudge to class.

ABOVE: Mrs. Keeler, one of the head residents at the Dorm. (The boys lined up for mail call are Rick Shore, Bob Prather and Shelly Dambrot.)

UNIVERSITY RESIDENCE HALL

Nodding heads over book-filled desks . . . names echoing over the intercom . . . perfume floating down from fourth floor . . . quick kisses on the stairway at 12:59 Friday and Saturday night . . . welded air vents . . . letters from the girl back home . . . "Man on the floor!" . . . a building of fun and frustration—the Residence Hall.

STUDY TIME is any time in the Residence Hall. Bob Luetkemeyer, Bill Isehour, and Martin Schaefer burn midnight oil over a knotty (no doubt) problem.

EPPERSON HOUSE

Beautifully carved interior . . . empty coffee cups . . . a slippery driveway to a slippery parking lot . . . sticky fingers in the Arts and Crafts workshop . . . bewildered students leaving Dr. Levit's class . . . Teacher's Now Training progressive education's pros and cons a building full of ideas . . . this is Epperson House.

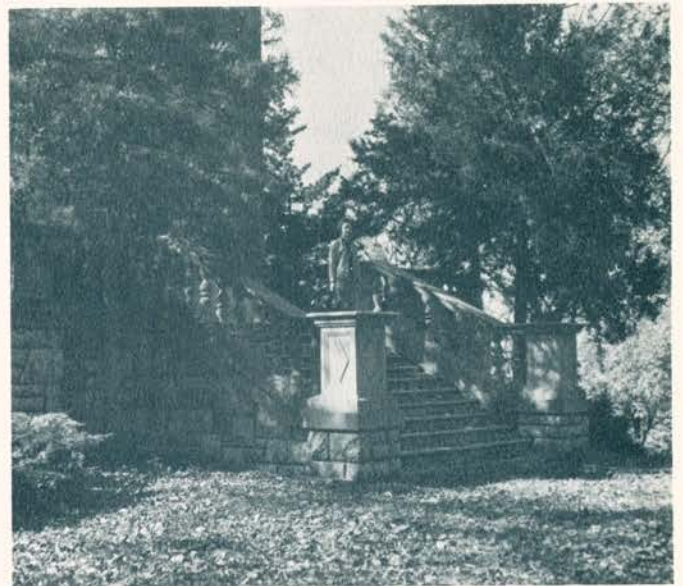

All work must stop temporarily to read the latest cartoons on the wall.

The office staff works on the Education School division of the student directory.

The steps at Epperson House provide a quiet place for the Kangaroo editor to contemplate the work still undone.

THE UNIVERSITY CENTER

The University Center, opened to students last September, has become the meeting place for all phases of campus life and students from all schools. Facilities include Cafeteria and snack bar, a barber shop, ping pong and billiard games room, lounges for relaxing and listening to your favorite stereo or hi-fi selections, and many others. The Pierson Hall addition provides a beautiful setting for dances and banquets, which the campus has long needed. The Center has given a new impetus to all campus activities, and students have shown their appreciation and pride through renewed efforts and participation.

"Listen, fellow, for $2.00 you can at least check to see that it's flat with your T-square."

DENTAL STUDENTS find many forms of relaxation to pass the time between Herbie's lectures.

PAT WILKINSON explains the finer points of oil painting to fascinated onlookers Rick Nash, Beverly Gamber, and Tom Talbott.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Opening wide the doors of learning, they seek to mold the student of today into a citizen of tomorrow. The administration and faculty stand guard over that which separates the slave mind from the free — the privilege of the search for knowledge.

JOHN A. MORGAN
Chairman, Board of Trustees

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

During this academic year, the Board of Trustees continued their fine work of guiding the future of the University. Under the leadership of Chairman John A. Morgan, the Board alleviated an extreme financial crisis and, together with the Deans of the separate schools, formulated a workable 1962 budget for the University. A great debt of gratitude is owed for the dedicated work of these men.

L. to R., Myron Ellison, John A. Morgan and Dr. Carleton Scofield confer during a meeting of the Board of Trustees.

DR. CARLETON F. SCOFIELD
ACTING PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

The current year has seen an exciting and gratifying change in the tempo of life on our University campus. This has been reflected in increased activity among the students and the faculty in both social and intellectual pursuits. Equally gratifying has been the change in the climate of opinion of the University in the community. For the first time in its history the University seems to have caught the imagination and the interest of the citizenry of Kansas City. Undoubtedly, the opening of the University Center and of Pierson Hall has contributed substantially to these changes. The availability of such splendid facilities has stimulated a high quality of leadership in those administratively responsible for activity programming and in the students themselves.

The University faces many problems, the financial one not the least of them, but in our Deans and Directors, our Faculties, our Students, and in the quality of our educational program lie all the ingredients of greatness. This potential must be realized; I am convinced it will be.

Of the students in all divisions of the University I am very proud—proud of their capacity for work and for play, of the maturity of their interests and their behavior, of their patience in the face of frustration, of their leadership in many facets of our University community, of their loyalty to the University of Kansas City.

STUDENTS

Another graduating senior class, and another group of young citizens prepare to assume the responsibilities which await them. As they build their lives, they carry the University with them. As it has shaped their futures, they will in turn leave their marks on the America of tomorrow.

ALL STUDENT ASSOCIATION STUDENT COUNCIL

This year has seen the Student Council take its most active part in campus administration during the past several years. Guided by an entirely new constitution, the Council was able to organize and carry out its duties more efficiently, and still have time and funds to expand the entertainment programs for the students. For the first time, the Council sponsored an all-University Dinner Dance, which was indeed one of the highlights of the social season. In connection with the University Center and the Conservatory of Music, the Association presented on a season-ticket basis an excellent program of music, speakers, and other entertainment. The First Annual Student Council Recognition Dinner took place on April 28th, as an expression of appreciation for a job well done by a council of hard working students from every school of the University. It is the sincere wish of every member of this year's council that next year's officers will meet with the cooperation and opportunities which made the term such a successful one for them.

RICHARD REPLOGLE, President of the All-Student Association. Dick handled a difficult job with calm efficiency, and deserves a special note of gratitude from the entire student body.

THE ASA DINNER DANCE, held in Pierson Hall, drew quite a crowd. It was the first all-University Dinner Dance to be held on campus in many years.

LEFT: Duana Bean, representative from the School of Education, seems to be wondering if the meeting will ever end.

I don't care what your mother told you, Counselor, the Easter Bunny does not lay eggs!

If one must take time out from the more pleasant of life's pursuits, for such mundane activities as study, a little fresh air and sunshine can help to make it somewhat bearable.

Spring

"Spring is here, the grass is riz—I wonder where da birdies iz?" With March going out like a lamb and April promising even sunnier days to come, the campus was invaded by a general feeling of spring fever and lack of desire for more scholarly endeavors than picnicking, bicycle riding, or buzzing the Center in a convertible (with the top down, of course!). But with finals looming on the horizon, the golden days had to be replaced with all-night study sessions and No Doze. Will June ever get here (and will the yearbook ever go to press?).

If you don't have a bicycle built for two, the next best thing is to rent a couple from the Center, as Pam Patrick and Bob Vorce seem to have discovered.

Threat of April showers doesn't seem to worry Fuzz (member in good standing of the great white army) or the cocker spaniel kid.

ACTIVITIES

Slimy mudholes; holiday dances on the parquet floor of the new Pierson Hall Ballroom; Greek festivities; University Center Programs—the activities program at the University of Kansas City provides a varied selection for all students.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST DANCE

Each fall the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity sponsors its annual Beauty and the Beast Ball, a charity benefit event. A big attraction of the evening is the coronation of a campus co-ed as "Beauty," and the introduction of the "Ugly Man" for the season. This year the happy recipients were Miss Norma Herbertson and Gary Rucker, sponsored by TEKE and WRA respectively.

LAST MINUTE VOTING makes the evening exciting as students hurry to get their ballots registered for the queen candidates.

Susie Hogg, also a queen candidate, seems as happy as her sorority sister, who has just been announced as the Beauty of 1961.

Newly crowned Norma Herbertson receives congratulatory kisses from the members of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, her sponsoring organization.

SNO-BALL

The Sno-Ball, a Christmas dance sponsored by the Pan Hellenic Council, is an annual affair. This year an added attraction was the appearance of the Les Elgart Band, which delighted those in attendance with its renditions of the latest dance tunes, as well as the old favorites. Miss Patricia Wilhoit was crowned Sno-Ball Queen at intermission, and a beautiful queen she is indeed.

LEFT: The Elgart Band was able to cut short "vacation plans" to appear at the Sno-Ball.

ALL EYES ARE ON THE FLYING FRINGE as the twist takes over the dance floor.

ABOVE: As intermission draws near, tables buzz in suspense. Who will the 1961 Sno-Ball Queen be?

BELOW: The crowded floor made dancing a hazard, but couples enjoyed the evening in spite of such minor calamities as mashed toes.

THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT seemed to descend upon all those present. Dancers were reluctant to leave, as the dance drew to a close.

MISS PATRICIA WILHOIT, SNO-BALL QUEEN.

MAN, this Elgart is really a kick!

ABOVE: Dancers spilled into the pouch and hallways, as the Osage Room filled to overflowing. BELOW: Hey, has anyone seen Winnifred?

TALENT SHOW

The talent show has become a more or less annual affair at UKC, gathering the talented from all areas of the campus into an evening's entertainment. Winner of the individual act this year was Chuck Morrison, for a monologue. The group prize went to Gene Bollinger and Rick Nash, the "Lonesome Two," who sang their way to victory with such favorites as "Sail Away."

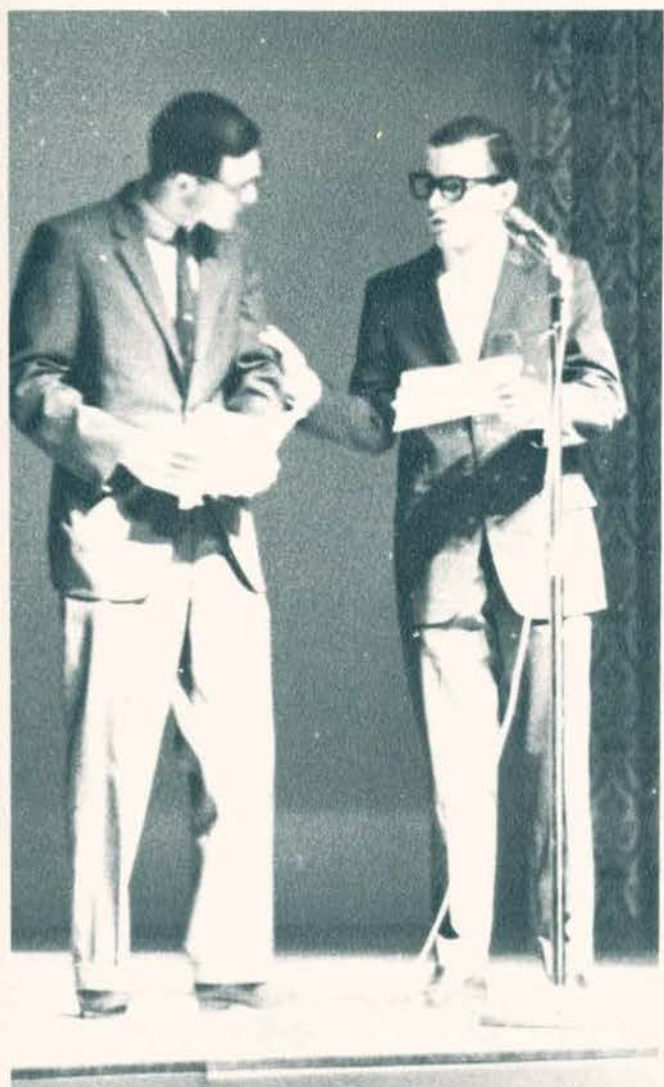

LEFT: Gene Bollinger adds a new twist to the legend of Paul Revere. Vive l'France!

BELOW: Jina Ramsay and Kathy Kubis donned kitten costumes for their modern dance number.

JOANNE CLARK demonstrates the fine art of baton twirling.

CHUCK MORRISON AND BOB McCLURG, worthy emcees of the talent show.

WINNIFRED delighted the audience with a tap dance to an original tune called "The Ballad of Vegetable Soup" by Dan and Marilyn.

THE OLD MASTER'S music is preserved by his original band members.

MUSIC FOR THE YOUNGER GENERATION is no stranger to the Dorsey players. Even the twisters found tunes designed for their particular specialties.

Strains of "Sleepy Lagoon" float over the Pierson Hall Ballroom, enveloping dancers with a dreamy mist of music.

THE JIMMY DORSEY DANCE

CAMPUS DANCE ADVOCATES turned out en masse to the Jimmy Dorsey Dance, the first event scheduled for Pierson Hall, the ballroom-auditorium in the new University Center.

THAT DISAPPROVING LOOK can mean only one thing—Dean Bloch wonders if the twisters will ever take over student government.

ONE MORE FLASH from that strobe unit, and we'll all be blind!

DERBY DAY

DEAN LEWIS crowns Miss Beverly Vaughan with the traditional derby crown, which is to be worn for a period of one week.

A LOCKET was presented to Miss Vaughan at the luncheon to commemorate the occasion.

Derby Day, the annual Law School celebration in honor of graduating seniors, is a traditional day of pomp and circumstance for eager young law students. Starting the day's activities with a baseball game with the Dental Students, last year's Law Day proved to be very eventful. The boys in black defeated the Great White Wave, winning a traveling trophy. Miss Beverly Vaughan was unanimously elected by the seniors to represent them as their Derby Day Queen, and did so with all the graciousness of any queen. She was honored by a luncheon given by the Law School, and wore her derby crown for a period of one week, in compliance with tradition. Despite an exchange of more or less mock raids on each others domains, the Dents and the lawyers all seemed to enjoy the occasion immensely, and all agreed that Derby Day 1961 was a great success.

RED CARNATION

The 1962 Tau Kappa Epsilon Red Carnation Ball, held again this year at the Bellerive Hotel, sparked the spring social season. The announcement of the new TEKE Sweetheart, Miss Sharon Williamson added excitement and glamour to an evening of good food and dancing. The after-dinner speaker was Mr. Richard (the leprechaun) Shoemaker, who appealed to the fraters assembled to keep their standards and ideals always high. A good time was had by all.

CO-CHAIRMAN of the occasion, Dave Kasper, wonders if Winnifred will really turn into a pumpkin at the stroke of twelve.

MISS PHYLLIS ALLBRITTEN, last year's Sweetheart, awaits the announcement of this year's choice.

CHAPTER PRESIDENT, Rick Nash, crowns the happy newcomer to TEKE's collection of royalty, Miss Sharon Williamson.

MISS SHARON WILLIAMSON, TEKE Sweetheart.

Bushwhacker Ball

The annual Formal affair of the School of Dentistry is the Bushwhacker Ball, held early in the spring following mid-terms. The dance is sponsored by the Junior Class in honor of the graduating Senior Class, whose ranks they hope to join during the following year. During intermission skits spoofing classes, faculty, administration, and classmates entertain those assembled. The crowning of the Bushwhacker Queen, always the high spot of the night's activity, found Miss Marla Hepp on the throne of this year's dance.

Marla Hepp, Queen of the 1962 Bushwhacker Ball, is carried to the royal throne by a rickshaw by a genuine "Coolie."

BUDDHA himself was on hand to add to the festivities. Eighteen feet of solid idol made quite an impression on those arriving from the pre-parties, which (I'm told) began rather early in the afternoon.

"By Heaven, you will cough up that Toffelmeyer, or my name isn't Dr. Muscle!"

PRESENTATION OF THE 1962 BUSHWHACKER QUEEN, Miss Marla Hepp.

KENT SHACKLETT, President of the Junior Class, presents the "Best Instructor" trophy to Dr. Wayne Harvey.

The band seems to be getting a kick out of something—wonder if it's that purple passion the kids were brewing this afternoon.

MISS MARLA HEPP, 1962 Bushwhacker Queen.

Spring Carnival

The annual Spring Carnival brings a gay evening of activity to the campus each year. Organizations build booths, to which they hope to lure customers willing to part with their negotiable tickets. The crowning of the Spring Carnival Queen is always an exciting event of the evening, and this year the honor went to Miss Sandy Crowley, whose service to the University has endeared her to the hearts of all. Dreamy-eyed couples danced till the wee small hours, drawing to a close another successful and fun-filled carnival.

THE KAPPI PSI RAT BOOTH is always a popular attraction at the annual carnival.

MISS SHIRLEY CAPPS, the 1962 Law Day Queen.

In accordance with nation-wide recognition of May 1st as Law Day, the Kansas City Bar Association and the University of Kansas City School of Law sponsored a day of festivities beginning with a breakfast at the University Center, and ending with a gala ball at the Muchlebach Hotel. Justice William O. Douglas made a memorable after-dinner speech following the banquet that evening, and the celebration was highlighted with the announcement of Miss Shirley Capps as the 1962 Law Day Queen at the luncheon that afternoon. Miss Capps was crowned at the dance by Bruce Houdek, a senior law student.

BUM FRIDAY

With the arrival of spring on the University campus comes a phenomenon known to those of the inner circle as Bum Friday. This holiday includes a multitude of activities, designed to entertain, and in general, to cover each participant more or less completely with a layer of good old swamp mire, commonly referred to locally as "mud."

THE RUSH IS ON! Long, white-draped tables were the scene of much frenzied activity as students and faculty lined up for the barbecue.

THREE-LEGGED RACES, rooster races, slipper-kicking contests, and bicycle relays made an exciting afternoon for the more athletic-minded.

PREXY MAKES BIG SPLASH! Newly elected ASA president, Roger L. Hilsabeck, seems to be taking his job rather seriously. That's what I call getting right into the thing!

HEY FELLOWS, is this where they're serving the cream of chicken soup?

'Nuff said!

MR. FASCINATION, Tom Talbott, spent the afternoon trying to fight them off (somewhat unsuccessfully, as you can plainly see!)

LEFT: Walter Hook shared his vocal talents with an admiring audience to begin the day's events.

TO THE WINNER BELONG THE SPOILS. President of the victorious Cho-O's, Miss Sandy Crowley, accepts the trophy which her group won in the skit contest.

THE KINGSMEN provided the musical background for the dance held in Pierson Hall. (Did somebody leave the Old Homestead unlocked tonight?)

MISS BEVERLY GAMBER,

1962 Bum Friday Queen.

Bum Friday Formal

Following the excitement of the day's altercations, each muddy faced co-ed is suddenly changed into a regally gowned beauty for the ball. Tempers relax (usually) and foes of the day become friends again. Winners of the various contests are traditionally announced at intermission. This year's winners were: Skit contest, Chi Omega; Talent number, Rick Nash and Gene Bollinger; Most Fascinating Man, Tom Talbott; Bum Friday Queen, Beverly Gamber.

TWISTERS of all shapes, sizes, and ages were in abundance. (Wonder where Winnifred is hiding?)

TOM TALBOTT, Most Fascinating Man.

JIM FULBRIGHT had undoubtedly the prettiest date at the dance. This is called the Father-Daughter Twist!

SURPRISE, surprise!

and received a minimum of student support. The reward for their efforts was physical exercise—they did not even receive school letters. These men have shown that a desire to compete will keep intercollegiate athletics alive at UKC despite any and all obstacles.

CENTER GAMES ROOM DRAWS CAMPUS ATHLETES

The opening of the University Center Games Room vastly enlarged the sports spectrum. Under the leadership of Irvin Lance, major tournaments were held in table tennis, billiards, pocket billiards, checkers, chess, and snooker. The school's finest ping-pong players entered a city league and competed against teams from various business firms. These same players entered a five state regional tournament held at UKC.

The men's doubles team took third place and Lily Lim easily won the woman's regional championship. A similar tournament was held for pocket billiards and the University's men's doubles team and the women's doubles team took third place in the five state region. These achievements have been spectacular considering this is the first year of game's room operation.

Lily Lim, women's singles champion.

Mr. Robert Welch, Pocket Billiards Champion, receiving his award from Mr. Jimmy Caras.

Refik Guran, men's singles table tennis champion.

Gerry Wigginton, winner of the Men's Novice Table Tennis Championship. The novice event was open to all students who had never participated in a table tennis tournament.

Miss Barbara Murray, women's pocket billiard champion, is receiving her award from Mr. Jimmy Caras.

Miss Jo Wagner, second place winner in women's pocket billiards, gets expert advice from professional Jimmy Caras during his exhibition in the games room.

The games room facilities and the tournaments it sponsors are not limited to experts or even the male segment of the population. By setting up separate classes that allow beginners an equal opportunity to achieve success, future champs are given a chance to develop properly. An example of such classification is the novice class in table tennis. Women are also encouraged to participate in activities usually considered foreign to their gender.

David and Joan Miller prove that marriage creates unity by linking their talents to take the mixed doubles table tennis crown.

The American Pharmaceutical Association (APhA) is the governing body of the School of Pharmacy. Chartered in 1947, it was the first national pharmacy organization for the school. During National Pharmacy Week, three displays concerning pharmacy were placed on campus. One of these placed third in the National College Contest. Jo Wagner received the Third Place Award at the National APhA Convention. It was the first time the chapter has entered the national contest. APhA served host to students from Kansas University and St. Louis College of Pharmacy at the Tri-School Meeting in the fall. Raymond Kennett and Mary Alice Kessler headed the delegation of eight students to the National APhA Convention in Las Vegas. UKC had one of the largest student delegations attending the convention. The highlight of the year was the spring Alumni-Student banquet held at the Party House. Awards were made to graduating seniors and the new APhA officers were installed.

The fall semester was launched with several rush activities. A party was held at the home of Mr. Austin Speers, a well-known PAD of the alumni chapter. The Annual Alumni Bar-B-Que was held on October 21 at Lake Lotawana with the active chapter and pledges as special guests. The Christmas Party was held at the home of Mr. William Elliott, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The Tri-Chapter Initiation was the most important function of the Spring Semester. The event was held in Lawrence, Kansas, this year, and the PAD chapters from Washburn, Kansas University, and UKC all participated, making the occasion a fine time for all.

CENTER HIGHLIGHTS 1961-1962

September 29, 1961, Grand Opening Day for the University Center, commenced what is hoped to be a long and productive tradition of Center activities for students, faculty and community. The festivities included a ribbon-cutting ceremony, Center tours, billard and table tennis exhibitions, a dance, and floor shows by such vocal groups as the Surf Riders and the Kippers, as well as the showman-magician, C. Shaw Smith. Two months after the opening, the Center hosted the Region 8 Association of College Unions' Convention, which included 280 delegates from fifty college union boards in Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. The year's activities, administered by the Program Council and executed by the Committee Chairmen, included art exhibits, motion pictures, TGIF Dances, an all-University talent show, Musical Comedy Hours, coffees, the Know-how Jamboree, book reviews, faculty and guest lecturers, panels and forums, and billard, table tennis, bridge and chess tournaments.

Newman Chaplain's Residence, 5221 Rockhill
"So, that's how you twist!"

Newman Club, the Catholic Religious Organization, began the school year by putting the finishing touches on the new Chaplain's Residence located at 5221 Rockhill. The club met there every Monday night to carry on the various club activities. The events which were a regular feature for the sixty members were: accredited classes in Church History, Logic, and Theology; guest speakers twice a month; Communion Breakfasts on the first and third Sunday of the month; and a Chaplain's coffee hour held periodically throughout the year.

A Halloween dance was held in addition to several mixers after meetings. The chapter was honored by being chosen as co-host for the Central States Province Convention held at the Muehlebach Hotel. Approximately 400 Newman members from Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri were present for the convention. A Day of Recollection was held at the Chaplain's residence on May 13th. The annual picnic at Swope Park marked the completion of another successful year.

Isenhour and Cohen won championships at Colorado State College and the University of Nebraska, as well as a first-place tie at the District qualifying tournament for nationals. Along with Isenhour and Cohen, Bill Crawford and Ed Kriss provided the nucleus of the varsity unit. Jim Fulbright, a graduate assistant in the speech department, acted as assistant coach this year. Other participants in the forensics program included Rory Ellinger, Dan Koden, Steve Sturdevant, Bervin Fisher, Liz Jensen, Marcia Myers, Charlotte Hill, Mike White, and Rick Hansen.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

The University of Kansas City

MISS MARCIA MYERS, Editor,
the UNIVERSITY NEWS.

The 1961-62 U-NEWS with a sizable and unbelievably creative staff, served the student community as dissenter, propagandist, antagonist, philosopher, commentator, and satirist. Circulation reached an all-time high this year, just as controversy reached an all-time high. The imaginations of Editor Myers, Pat Hoff, Mike White and Phil Brimble, Assistant editors, combined to create the uproarously funny, bitterly sarcastic, and frighteningly truthful '61-62 U-NEWS. Budget problems and radical student groups proved no drawback, as the paper reigned and prospered in the face of any and all opposition. Every issue provided the opportunity and a duty to print the courageous and true, to rise above the mediocre and conventional, to appeal to the independent part of the university community and to rise above the fear of partisanship and popular prejudice. The staff now moves on to greater horizons, having spent the year giving to its readers the invitation to be informed, to think, and to act.

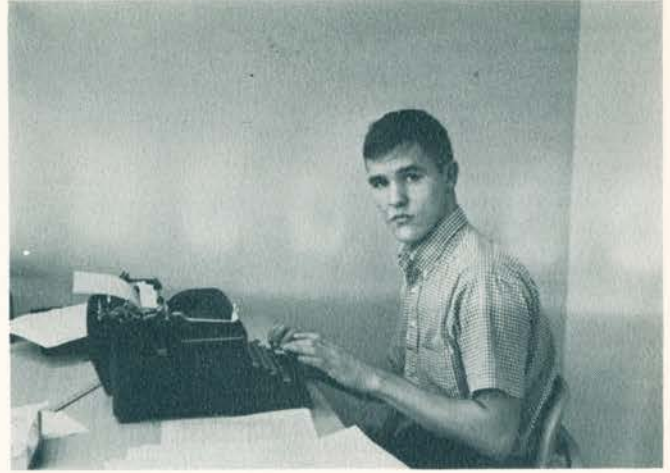

LEFT: RICK NASH, Business Manager of the U-NEWS for the year 1961-62.

BELOW: Burning the midnight oil is John Ralston, services on the paper proved invaluable.

MISS PATRICA HOFF, Assistant Editor.

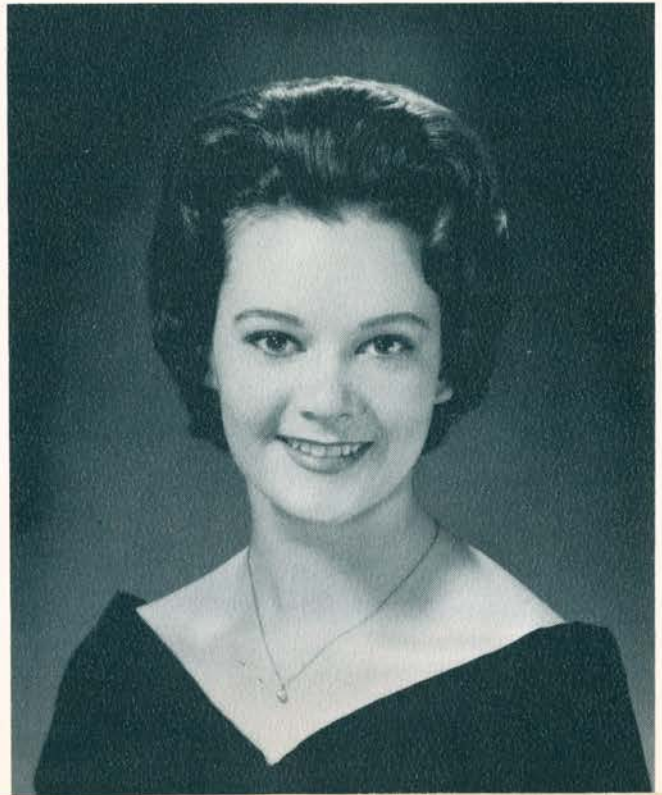

MIKE WHITE, busy assistant editor of the 1961-62 UNIVERSITY NEWS.

LEFT: Linda Vials prepares copies of the paper for circulation to advertisers.

THE U-NEWS seems to deal with all sorts of services. (Hey, Rick, you have a piece of forsythia in your ear!)

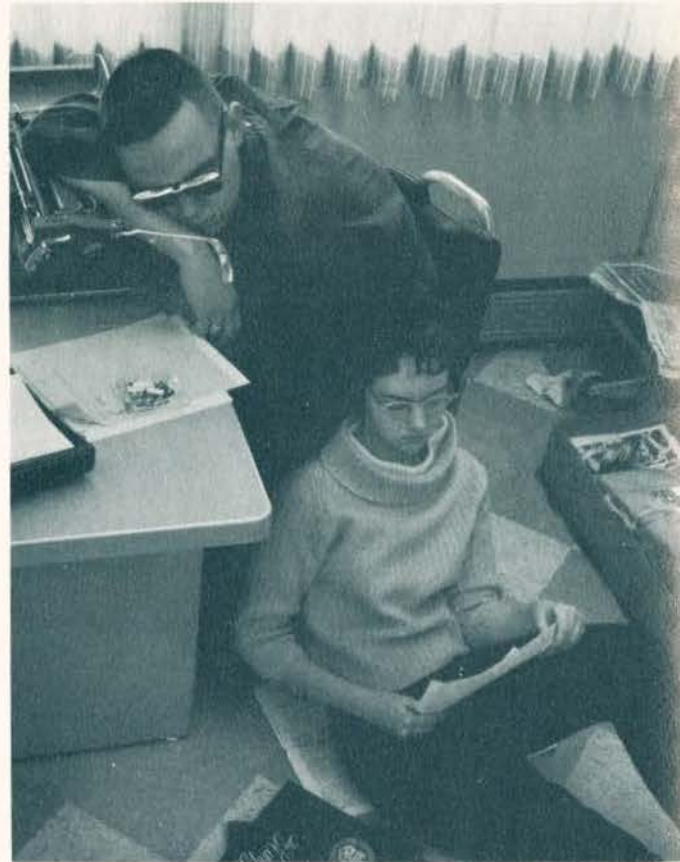

MISS KATHY WORRELL, named Kangaroo Co-ed in the contest, sponsored by the UNIVERSITY NEWS.

SPORTS EDITOR, Denny Vold, appears hard at work as deadlines draw near.

SPRING IS HERE, the grass is riz—I wonder where in far-nation the yearbook staff iz!

ABOVE: RINGING OUT THE OLD AND IN THE NEW. Next year's editor, John Ralston, seems enthralled (?) by the helpful hints being offered by the old timer.

LEFT: Seems as though there was always a cause to barnstorm or flagwave for—but really Mary, that slogan went out with Paul Revere!

THE KANGAROO

STAFF REPEATS 1961

"THE RETURN OF THE NATIVE(s)" might be an excellent title for the staff of the 1962 KANGAROO. The editor's position (for better or worse) was placed again in the hands of Sandra Tracy, senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, who also held the same position on the '61 edition. Carl Keller, who served the '61 administration as Copy Editor, played a return engagement as the Business Manager of this year's annual. Mary Siegfried, who was also a member of last year's staff, served again, this time as Assistant Editor. With all this experience, how could we lose? An even bigger job this year than last, publication seemed a thousand years away. But zero hour arrived at last, and success proved ever sweeter, the second time around. Many thanks to all who gave help, in thought, word, or deed. Special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hoyt, who made possible the lovely portraits of campus royalty. To Roy Allbritten, our right hand photographer, along with Mike Conrad and others (including in a pinch, Winnifred) belong the credit for the pictures with which we have filled the book, to bring to the students as complete a review of the year's events as was humanly possible.

SANDRA TRACY,
Editor, the 1962 KANGAROO

CARL KELLER, Business Manager

CHI OMEGA

On December 9, 1961, the Beta Chapter of the Cho Chin Sorority became the Lambda Zeta Chapter of the Chi Omega Sorority; the first national Sorority to be established at UKC.

On this day, 22 actives of the Cho Chin Chapter were initiated along with many of their alumnae. Activities of the chapter for the year were varied and widespread. The Sorority was represented on the Dean's List, Center Committees, and Student Council Committees. Chi Omegas were selected as Beauty of the Beauty and Beast Dance, Sno-Ball Queen, and Winter Carnival Queen. Two members of the Sorority attended the National Convention during the summer at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia. DELTA CHI

The Delta Chi Fraternity was founded on October 13, 1890, at Cornell University to promote brotherhood among college men. During the past year the Kansas City Chapter of Delta Chi finished first among fraternities in football and basketball. They finished first in their basketball league. Bev Gamber, Delta Chi's candidate for Bum Friday Queen, was selected winner and crowned at the Bum Friday Dance. In the A.S.A. Spring Elections, Delta Chi took three of the top five offices: President, Vice-President, and Secretary. Socially, Delta Chi successfully held their bi-annual Pair-O-Dice costume party. At this event, Sara Molln, the 1962 Delta Chi Sweetheart, was announced and the 1963 officers were presented. In short, the chapter enjoyed a very successful year while providing leaders for all phases of campus life.

"The purpose of this Fraternity shall be to assemble college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop leadership, to promote friendship, to provide service to humanity, and to further the freedom that is our national, educational, and intellectual heritage."

This marked another busy year for the APO's. Their Beauty and Beast Dance raised over $1,200 for the Catherine Hale Home for the Blind, and those attending watched while President

Dave Nelson crowned Norma Herbertson, Beauty, and Gary Rucker, Ugly Man. In December, 1962, the Chapter will play host to the National APO Convention in Kansas City. One of the highlights of the year was the APO canoe race held between Lawrence and Topeka on the Kaw River. APO chapters from five area schools participated in this event. The boys also helped in the United Fund Drive, Campus Day, and served as traffic guides at the Associates Dinner.

The Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity is a national social fraternity founded on November 7, 1913, at New York University. Its purpose is to help further the student's social education as well as his academic education. The aims are to build its men into well rounded persons, stressing scholarship, leadership, and social comity and propriety. The Kappa Mu Chapter of AEPi was one of the original three national social fraternities founded at the University. AEPi looks back on a year filled with accomplishments and activities. The Chapter continued its fine charity work at the Jewish Home for the Aged. AEPi supported Queen candidates for Beauty & Beast and Bum Friday. The social highlight of the year was the annual New Year's Party which everyone had looked forward to.

POLYCHROME COLORS make available new and distinctive concepts of physiologic characterizations in both porcelain and plastic anteriors. You now have your choice of Polychrome Porcelain or Polychrome Plastic for the creation of personalized full and partial dentures. In the extraordinary Polychrome colors, you will also perceive the "alive" markings that are characteristic of a normal dentition, beautifully reproduced deep within the teeth as enamel fractures, fillings, decalcifications, food and tobacco stains, etc.

They appear with incredible fidelity but also with such a delicacy that nature's normal imperfections are made to contribute to cosmetic effects.

ASK YOUR UNIVERSAL DEALER to demonstrate the Polychrome Color Selector — it is a practical, highly useful arrangement designed for experimental anterior set-ups at the chair.

CRAFTSMANSHIP

Our clients demand the finest in dental prosthetics . . . and get it! When they entrust their bridgework to us, the end result is more than just another restoration . . . for the secret of our processing success is CRAFTSMANSHIP, the invisible ingredient in superior dental service.

As master craftsman, we recommend vacuum fired porcelain fused to gold restorations. They combine the esthetic naturalness of translucent porcelain with the perfect fit and permanent strength of gold bonded to it underneath.

In performance, gold and porcelain restorations are shock proof, impervious to mouth fluids, and benign to tissue; in appearance, beautifully life like with perfect shade and anatomy permanently built in . . . truly a product of superior craftsmanship.

Vacuum fired porcelain fused to gold restorations have been accepted the world over as the finest in full coverage. Let us prove it to you.
