A.B. Lord Fellowship in Oral Tradition

The Center for Studies in Oral Tradition is pleased to announce the first recipient of the A.B. Lord Fellowship in Oral Tradition, Ms. Agnieszka Matkowska, who is pursuing her doctorate in Linguistics at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland. Ms. Matkowska holds both an M.A. in Polish Philology and an M.A. in Ethnolinguistics, and has been awarded scholarships from the East-Siberian University of Technology in Ulan-Ude and the Wladyslaw Kuraskiewicz Fund, among other institutions. She is presently writing a dissertation entitled "Variation Limits in Oral Tradition Based on the Baikal Legends," a Buryat-Mongol oral tradition in the Irkutsk region of Russia. Ms. Matkowska will be resident at the CSOT for Fall semester 2011. More about Ms. Matkowska can be found by viewing her Curriculum Vitae.
