TIGER VARSITY NIPS OVER-THE HILL GANG

The weather was dreary, and the day wasn't too bright for the varsity either as the alumni held the young Tigers to a 3 to 0 victory in a tight defensive battle. The alumni, coached by Don Faurot, were inside the varsity five on a couple of occasions, but could never quite push the ball over. Greg Hill's accurate toe provided the victory, as it did so many times last season.

Jack Lordo, who also appears on the cover, played for the Tigers in the late forties and early fifties.

Ray Thorpe, who played halfback in 1966, now coaches at Alton, Ill., High School.

Coach Al Onofrio visits with three former players before the contest, Dennis Poppe, Steve Kenemore and Terry McMillan. All played on the 1969 Orange Bowl team.

John Meyer, who played in 1967, will graduate from Med School this spring.
