OLD TIGERS JUST DON'T FADE

Gary Lane, who led the Tigers to the Sugar Bowl in 1965, hit 10 of 20 passes for 90 yards during afternoon.

Alumni Coach Don Faurot goes over offensive strategy with Terry McMillan. Faurot, who retired as head coach in 1956 and athletic director in 1967, retires again this summer as assistant director of alumni activities, having reached the mandatory retirement age of 70. He will have a desk in the Hearnes building, still.

Returning to Columbia to see many of his former players was Dan Devine, now coach of the Green Bay Packers. In the center, Bill Beck, St. Louis Post-Dispatch; at right, Bob White, of the Mexico Ledger.

Before the game, some were referring to the alumni as the "over-the-hill gang." When the contest was over-the first varsity-alumni clash in more than 20 years—it was clear to everyone that time alone is not enough to take the fight out of a Tiger. The varsity won the game, 14 to 0, but the alumni moved the ball well, largely on the passing of Gary Lane to Conrad Hitchler, and the defense was its traditional self. Former Coach Dan Devine, watching from the press box, commented, "Don Faurot is the only coach in America who could put a team together in two days."

John Henley, Missouri's all-time leading receiver, hauls in a pass for the alumni.

. THEY COME BACK TO PLAY

Identifiable on the alumni bench are Number 53, Max Moyer; 33, Jerry Boyd; 48, Ty Walls; 63, Jack Lordo.

John Kadlec, the varsity's offensive line coach, crossed to the other side of the field to greet the alumni. No. 30 is Roger McCoy; 71, Dave Gill; 52, Ed Manda.

A PRETTY GOOD FOOTBALL GAME
