

Alumni Board of Directors Meets

Dr. Herbert W. Schooling made his first public appearance as the permanent chancellor of the Columbia Campus January 28 at the winter meeting of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association in Columbia. Congratulating Schooling, in the photo at upper right, are Darryl Francis, Association president, left, and Dr. C. Brice Ratchford, president of the University, who also was a guest at the Association meeting.

At right, G. H. (Bus) Entsminger, University vice president for development and alumni relations, second from left, visits with three directors, left to right, Jerry Tiemann and John Schweitzer, both of Kansas City, and Howard Broemmelsick, of Memphis, Tennessee.

At lower right, Dr. Daniel Garvey, assistant professor of journalism, shows the movie on the Columbia Campus produced by students at J-School with funds provided by the Association. Incidentally, the film now is ready for showing at alumni meetings. The director pictured at left is Jack Cooper, of St. Louis.

Below, Vickie Behm, a student in Business and Professional Design of Home Economics, explains a plan for transforming a room on the third floor of Jesse Hall into an Alumni Association conference room. The Board appropriated $2,000 to finance the project.

