The Program of Continuing Education Announces a new monograph series, "Language Learning Difficulties Among the Culturally Different," by Neila Pettit.

Mrs. Pettit reviews relevant research and literature and discusses factors related to educational problems of the culturally different.

This series contains papers on five aspects of education for the culturally different student. It offers a convenient guide for teachers and professional people who are interested in improving their local educational programs for students from culturally different backgrounds. The papers include rather extensive annotated bibliographies to assist the educator in further study. This publication series is designed as a resource tool.

TOPICS COVERED ARE:

1. Identification and Characteristics of the Culturally Different
2. Linguistic and Verbal Aspects of the Culturally Different
3. Sociological and Psychological Aspects of the Culturally Different
4. Language Arts and Reading Instruction for the Culturally Different
5. Programs and Teaching Techniques Used with the Culturally Different

As a service of the University of Missouri-Columbia, copies of these publications are available at cost of printing and handling. Individual copies may be purchased for 50¢, or the complete set of five at $2.00.

See the order form for mailing address. Make all checks payable to the University of Missouri.
