BANDS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI-COLUMBIA

The University of Missouri-Columbia Bands are Symphony Band, Concert Band, Varsity Band, Marching Mizzou, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Studio Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Lab Band, Mini Mizzou, Tiger Band, Fem-Mini Mizzou. Membership in UMC Bands represents many of the various majors across the campus.

SYMPHONY BAND: is the top concert band on campus. This performs on campus and on tour. They perform new works and standard band repertoire.

CONCERT BAND AND VARSITY BAND: offer varied musical experiences to Mizzou bandsmen.

SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE: is a select group consisting of one player for each part. Repertoire varies from octets to full band works ranging from 1600 to the present.

MARCHING MIZZOU: performed live before more than a half million people in 1983, and were on television 4 times, including the Holiday Bowl in San Diego and a Kansas City Chiefs game.

STUDIO JAZZ ENSEMBLE AND JAZZ LAB BAND: perform styles ranging from early jazz to the most contemporary jazz sounds. Students learn skills in improvisation and teaching jazz as well as preparing tight, exciting performances.

MINI MIZZOU AND FEM-MINI MIZZOU: perform at basketball games, alumni functions, and other events.

TIGER BAND: is a band from Marching Mizzou that performs at away football games, alumni functions, and pep rallies during football season.
