SPOTLIGHT

In our spotlight this month is Mary Jane Lang,who teaches bookkeeping, typing, and shorthand. She is a very pleasant person and spends a lot of her time on the tedious problems of the Student Council, of which she has been sponsor for several years.

Since Miss Lang teaches bookkeeping, it would be appropriate for her to keep the school's books. She does. She also takes care of the financial end of school functions.

Last, but not least, Miss Lang tolerates the use of the typing room by the Tiger Tales Staff. We appreciate her patience and generosity.

Christmas #1956, #1946, or #1951, is a question which arises at this season among those who read space fillers. The careful reader of such fillers knows not only that the island of Pinang has an area of 110 square miles, he also knows that the date is off five years, but he can't ever remember which way. To clear up confusion, Tiger Tales prints this expose. Many years ago, some monk counted backward instead of forward, and wound up having the first Christmas in 5 B. C. However, this monk wasn't Rasputin, so this is one thing which can't be blamed on the Russians.

on the Russians. The only Christmas date that we at U High worry about, is the date to the Christmas Formal. This dance is one of our most sacred institutions, in one of our most sacred institutions. At times in the past, it was suggested that the dance might be held in either the Projection Booth, or in the Pump Room. The Projection Booth was immediately ruled

After a location was selected, the advertisements were put up. Again, this year, signs were used, ingtead of word of mouth. Because of this, one person intends to show up in jeans and with a pitch fork. He says that he has broken his glasses and had read the sign as "Christmas Farmall."

Those who come to a dance should expect to, but most don't, at least, not often. This year, the dancing will be to all types of music. There will be dancing to classics, dancing to "pop" classics, and dancing to the song the Crosbys sing while dumping their father into the vat of gelatin, "Bingle Jells."

With the playing of "Goodnight Sweetheart" for one hour and seven minutes, another Formal will sink slowly into the West. It shouldn't have been strapless.

What is it? You should know, you helped make it. It's the arm of a chair in our school. Not a very pretty sight, but you might say a historical one. Here can be found some of the facts of our school.

Let me tell you a few things that this pictorial chair says. First, its marred surface dates back at least five years to the height of the "Kilroy was here" time. Second, these years weren't very successful years for talented "Tit-Tat-Toe" players, for no one but cat ever seemed to win. E. Fern Green was still in her reign, and had her name plastered over everything. The chairs seemed to be rather uncomfortable then, for people were trying to put rockers on them in their imagination, and in their pictures. Romance was, and still is, a big factor in school and social life. I am also glad to say that, from the historical drawings found here, one can tell that people had developed heads. eyes, and noses much like ours today. The last idea that I received from these marks was that school wasn't enjoyed as much as play in these years, for here on the chair arm is drawn the sun going around the world, frowning during the school hours and smiling during the play time.

I'm sure this is very entertaining, but of all these things none are of any importance. How much more these students would have accomplished if they could only have learned the lesson of appreciation for other things, instead of spending their time improving their lack of artistic ability.

The basketball team has begun what seems to be another great season. Their first victory was a 60-51 decision over Glasgow. Cooper was high scorer for the night with 29 points. In the "B" game, U.H.S. gained a 44-38 win.

Jamestown, next on the U.H.S. schedule, suffered a 69-46 drubbing. Cooper led both teams with 26 points. The junior high teams played a close game, with U.H.S. finally winning, 32-30.

finally winning, 32-30. In the Boonville Tournament, the Cubs started with a 50-15 victory over Boonville Catholic. Boonville was a tougher, but not unbeatable, opponent as U. High won 41-35. The Cubs were beaten by Hickman 42-29 in the finals.

In the next game, at home, the Cubs outscored New Franklin 60-44. Cooper was high scorer with 25 points. The preliminary game was won by New Franklin's junior high team, 32-21.

Another first place trophy now adorns the U.H.S. showcase since the Cubs won the Glasgow Tournament. In doing so, our "A" team defeated New Franklin, 66 to 35, Glasgow, 52-41, and Fayette, 47-40, in the finals. The "B" team came home with a trophy, also. They copped third place in their division. After they lost to New Franklin, 36-31, the team came back to trample Alma, 59-36.

What's this about our editor, BOB CLATANOFF, and LIZ ROBERTS? (Idle gossip. Editor's note.)

Now that DOUG LAY has moved, MARTHA'S attentions have been turned toward DUB. BOB F., NOR-MAN, KIRK, and GEORGE will have something to say about this.

BEVERLY JOHNSON is that way over BOB LONGWELL. They see a lot of each other in orchestra while playing the flute, side by side. (Toot sweet. Ed.)

SAM M. seems to have forgotten all about NORMA NELL since he has gotten interested in ANN WALLIS.

Seen together this year, as last, are BILL E. and JULIA D.

Why is it that JOHN MCCLEARY has been going around declaring that "Texas is the best state in the union"? (Hallucinations? Ed.)

"OH, WE'RE GETTING ALONG FINE, BEEN HAVING A WONDERFUL TIME, she won't even speak to me."

Ask GARY JOHNSON about a certain new Sophomore named JEAN.

It seems that CARL MCNEIL has been going with a certain Hickman girl. (Some 200 more to go. Ed.)

BOB CHANEY says that he doesn't like SALLY NEWLAND, but Snoop has seen them talking together too many times.

Unconfirmed rumor ties up JENS and HENRIETTA.

Who is this cute blond from Mexico who has captured the affec-tions of SHIRLEY BURTON, and why does she play "Because of You" at Gaeb's so often? Any one knowing the answer, please con-tact Snoop at once. Aw, SHIRLEY, don't get mad.

(Is the record stuck? Ed.)

NANCY DECKER seems to be headgver-heels about JOHN HANSEN. Good luck, NANCY.

SUELLEN DAVIS--GREG PIERCE. AHA :

An exclusive: ANN ATHERTON is just wild about TOM BRADY. NANCY H. thinks that he's cute, too, but Snoop hasn't been able to contact TOM about his intentions

Who are all the boys that SARAH BELL writes to in American History every day? We here that she has quite a correspondence. How about it, SARAH? (Post Office? Ed Ed

"Here's a picture of Joe, the handsome Georgia boy, and this is Charles, the Oregon football hero, and this is John, the muscular Californian, and this etc.,etc.,

Latest reports say that SUSIE DUNSCOMBE is much interested in DON ROY. This will shatter the dreams of a certain junior girl. For more information, DON, contact Snoop.

IBBY HARRIS and JIM HARDIN are doing fine. IBBY says that she has "liked him for ages."

DAN and RUSTY are really hitting it off well, lately. (Baseball, eh? Ed.)

At present, the Sophomore Romeo is TERRY BLADOW. Among prospec-tive Juliets are: JUDY PALMQUIST, JAN ATTEBERRY, LESLIE and others.

Why has LARRY HOGAN been seen so much at Gaeb's lately? Easy! For those who haven't heard, the answer is: MARTIE.

Snoop just can't resist writing about this NANCY H.- DAVID BALLEW stuff. From various sources, we learn that each is crazy about the other, but it seems that neither is aware of the other's interest. Let's get together on this, shall we?

We are wondering if those "older women" have gotten over their boredom with the boys of their class and given up the junior and senior boys. Didn't work out very well, did it, girls? (Comb my beard and grease the wheel-chair. Ed.

"Gaeb's is hiring rather strange waiters, don't you think?"

The Thristmas Story

St. Matthew

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem 2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. 5 And they said unto him. In

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, 6 And thou Bethlehem, in the

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. 11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

St. Wuke

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger: because there was no room for them it the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.
10 And the angel said unto them,

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in sweddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away fron them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And ell they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
19 But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart.
20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them
