I saw a man

I saw a man pursuing the horizon;
Round and round they sped.
I was disturbed at this;
I accosted the man.
"It is futile," I said,
"You can never"---

"You lie," he cried,
And ran on.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We have no spirit at U-High. Isn't that the attitude that people are taking? Most people---not all. How do you expect spirit to arise in our school when everyone keeps cutting it down?

Cheerleaders do have spirit. They practice after school, plan pep assemblies, and yell their heads off for the team. What do they get? Criticism. Why can't we take pride in our school? Let's quit comparing ourselves to other schools and work with what we have got.

Nobody in this school has the place to be cutting others down. True spirit is to build our team up rather than cutting others down.

Let's show that we do have spirit at U-High. Come to games and we will have GREAT turn outs. We do have spirit --- so let 's prove it.

Stephanie Teel

Dear Editor:

Many articles written and published in the schools journalism paper don't amount to what the cows and horses on Farmer Gray's farm do. There are negative attitudes and cuts to clubs, organizations, and people deeper than the Atlantic Ocean.

I have yet to see more than two good editorials produced with something worthwhile to spread to the whole student body.

If I was an outsider and read some of those articles written, I would have been about as interested in U-High as my big toe! What's wrong?

Spreading negative attitudes produces negative people and that's what put U-High at the bottom of the city dump.

The Grey Squirrel

Like a small grey coffee pot
sits the squirrel.
He is not all he should be,

kills by dozens
trees, and eats
his red-brown cousins.

The keeper, on the other hand
, who shot him, is a Christian, and

loves his enemies,
which shows
the squirrel was not one of those.
