

TIGER TALES

SENIORS LEAVE TODAY

Katy Sears

"What are your parting thoughts of leaving U-High?"

Mike Teel: Yes.

Mrs. Mitchell: I'm sorry to leave, but happy to go.

Mary Webb: I'm going to miss it.

Bernie Grice: No comment.

John Atton: When I came here, I was only a child. Now I'm leaving as a man.

Sean France: Never thought I'd make it.

Jackie Harper: It's sad but it's nice.

Melvin Lee: Great sorrow.

Old Bowmaker: It's a nice place to visit, but I wouldn't want to live there.

John Ritchie: It's been a hell of an experience.

Randall Vemer: I'm free at last! It's what I've been waiting for since first grade.

Rich Lichte: Don't ask me that question.

Maye Odor: I've had good times, and I've had bad times. But I've had more bad times than I've had good.

Andy Douglas: I'll be glad to get out.

Pinney Allen: I dread leaving it, in the sense that I fear leaving protective surroundings, but I see it as a necessary step, so I welcome it.

Ann Thompson: ARGH.....

Bill Fisher: When I leave, everybody should leave.

Phyllis Humphreys: Sorrow, happiness, ecstasy, and good riddance.

Susan Kintunen: Joy.

Ann Weidelich: A lot more joy than sadness, but a itay-bitsy, tennie-weenie, yellow polkadotted sadness.

Good Bye AND

Good Luck!

Teen Center Needs UHS Volunteers

by C. Dunkin

"30,000 students in town and nothing to do." How many times has that been said?

A very small percentage of these 30,000 students (Note: no UHS students were involved) did something about this situation; they gained the use of the hangar at the old Municipal Airport.

One U-High student attended the city council meeting when they approved the use of the hangar. Three U-High students worked during the 2nd of 3 weekdays. This is typical of U-High's apathy-caused isolation.

U-High could easily be barred from using the teen center (although it is unlikely they will) since only 2% of the student body has shown interest in it.

I strongly urge that any student desiring something to do this summer show some enthusiasm and some elbow grease for the center and show that U-High students are not the "creeps" that people might think we are.

Students Compete At State

by Pinney Allen

U-High students competed in the State Speech Festival last Friday and Saturday. Friday featured competition in individual events and on Saturday there was play competition and debate. On Friday, Carol Eggers received an excellent in prose reading. Pinney Allen and Rita Gabis both received Superior ratings in extemporaneous speaking and storytelling, respectively. Ann Thompson also Saturday, Vovere Gabis, Goef Brooke, Rich Lichte, and Cindy Douglas received a superior rating for "Offending the Audience". Also on Saturday Pinney and Ian competed in debate. They ended the day with a disappointing 2-2 record, but ended the season with only one loss on the affirmative which came early in the season. All those who competed in state qualified at the district tournament in Kirksville in April.

Play Performed by Drama Class

by David Kintner

If you haven't heard yet, Arsenic and Old Lace was one of the biggest hits the school had this year with some really great acting from yours truly and the other cast members. The lighting was outstanding from Glenn Pickett. John Ritchie stole the play with his acting as a dead body. Directors of the play were Mr. Blankenship and E.J. Croarkin. Make-up was great from Nancy Kiehl and David Straight who took our minds off the play. The total amount that the play made was around $40.

Cubs Take Second At District

by Mark Russell

U-High track surprised everybody at the district meet by finishing a strong second. Probably the greatest surprise was the mile relay, which had been mediocre before but shined brightly in the district by running 3:43 for the first place victory. People who will be in the state meet for U-High are Charlie Evans in the mile and 880, Tim Graham in the two mile, Roger Eastman in the shot put, Teel in the low hurdles, Harris in the pole vault, and Grant, Victor, Teel & Evans in the mile relay.

Clubs Conclude Business

by Jim Pfander

As the end of school draws near, clubs are busy concluding business: collecting late dues, electing new officers, and planning trips and fund raising activities.

Pep Club completed a successful fund drive with a car wash in Gibson Parking Lot last Saturday. Next year's president is Joanne Folks.

Honor Society has been selling candy to raise money for a trip to Chicago, later this month.

Key-Club completed business for the year with the annual District Convention. New Members will be elected next year.

Photo-Club has been busy taking and developing pictures for the Yearbook. As you might know, they got the money for by the new enlarger.

G.A.A. elected new officers. Paige Vemer was elected president, Sandy Crowson vice pres., and Jenniew Spencer will take the minutes.

After a productive year all these clubs look forward to success in 1972-73.
