The University of Missouri-Columbia

M Book

1976-77

University campuses are larger and more complex than they once were. Some say they are downright impersonal. Perhaps so, but UMC is working to change this. Services are offered on this campus that try to assist you in coping with your new environment. This book is designed to present the essential information you may need to become an important part of our community and to get the most out of your academic career at the University of Missouri.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Missouri-Columbia is committed to the total development of each individual in the academic community. In general, we believe that:

Through an education which is both exacting and flexible, students can make provisional commitments to styles of thought or adopt them in a more permanent way. I do not mean to imply that all students ought to become academics or intellectuals. But I do maintain that every young person should grow to adulthood with a style of intellect and sensibility which he has freely chosen in order to express his own needs, thoughts, and feelings in an appropriate and spontaneous way. The life of the mind should be the possession of every man and woman.

(Robert Paul Wolff, The Ideal of the University, Boston, 1969)

STUDENT SERVICES AND BASIC INFORMATION

THE CENTER FOR STUDENT LIFE

"... The next major step in higher educational reform must be to look for ways in which the total college experience will preserve for an ever-increasing number of American students their youthful idealism, refined and hardened, perhaps; by the fires of realism, but not burned out."

The Hazen Foundation Report on
The Student in Higher Education

When you become a student at UMC you will bring many ideas and interests concerning your college experience to the campus. These ideas and interests will grow, change, and develop during your life at the University. The college experience will offer opportunities for the development of academic and social competence, personal and interpersonal skills, and the promotion of a sense of purpose and identity within each student. The Center for Student Life, located in Read Hall, is concerned with facilitating the total campus experience by assisting students, faculty, and administration in unifying the entire educational life of all UMC students. Your first acquaintance with the Center for Student Life and its staff will be during the new-student orientation program, "Summer Welcome '77."

The Center for Student Life concentrates its efforts in the following major program areas designed to promote student growth and development:

- 1. Student Governance: advisement, leadership development, and consultative assistance.
- 2. International Student Programs: a wide variety of services for all students, staff, or faculty members who are not United States citizens and an expanding American Studies Abroad program.
- 3. Minority Student Programs: attempts to recognize and meet the needs of minority students on the campus.
- 4. Orientation: programs to acquaint new students with the campus and establish an educational frame of reference to maximize positive transition into the University community.

5. Consultative Assistance: assistance to other campus units in developing experimental learning activities and alternative learning models.

6. Intramural Programs: coordination of the wide range of informal sports programs, including co-educational recreation activities.

7. Travel, Wilderness Adventures, Craft Studio, and Photo Darkroom: individual and group programs emphasizing involvement in outdoor recreation experiences and craft programs.

8. Women's Programs: programs to meet the needs and interests of UMC women, with emphasis on changing women's roles in society. Programs include the Women's Center and the Student-Parent Center.

9. Student Activities: assistance in developing and accomplishing student-initiated programs for various student governmental and organizational entities.

10. Volunteer Programs: student programs and organizations working with community agencies, based on students' commitment to assist others on campus and in the mid-Missouri area.

11. Media Center: consultive and technical assistance for official student publications (Maneater and Savitar) and promotional needs of all recognized student organizations.

12. Sororities and Fraternities: assistance to sorority and fraternity members as they apply to cultural, recreational, educational, and leadership development.

Our goal is to have you as a student creatively involved with other students and to facilitate the development and accomplishment of your ideas and ideals. The staff at the Center for Student Life welcomes the challenge of working with you and is on hand to answer any questions on student organizations, help you find out more about a group that interests you, or, if you prefer, assist you in starting a new organization.

COUNSELING SERVICES

"We live but a fraction of our life. How few ever get beyond feeding, clothing, sheltering, and warming themselves in this world, and begin to treat themselves as human beings. If I am not I, who will be?"

Henry David Thoreau

Counseling Services offers students help in extending their understanding of themselves and others, planning for their future, gaining a perspective on troubling aspects of their lives, and developing skills to promote effectiveness as students. Individual and group counseling, personal growth groups, study skills and tutorial help, and various other programs are offered by Counseling Services.

Counseling Services also includes a Career Planning and Placement Center which helps students, who have not yet decided on vocational plans, choose major fields of study and decide upon career patterns after college. Vocational exploration groups form a part of this center.

There is a relaxed group atmosphere for exploring one's interests in various occupations, as well as the opportunity to investigate what various occupations are all about.

Counseling Services is located in Parker Hall on South Sixth Street between McAlester Hall and the Student Health Center. Students may call 882-6601 for further information. An appointment to see a counselor can be made through the receptionist on the second floor of Parker Hall on weekdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AIDS

The primary purpose of aids and awards at UMC is to encourage worthy students to obtain a higher education and assist those for whom college financing is a problem. This goal is accomplished through two means. First, where the best efforts of students and their families fall short of meeting the necessary costs, the aids program helps to make up that difference. Second, the various scholarships, fellowships, awards, and prizes give recognition for excellence in the various academic fields of study and related activities both in high school and at UMC.

The costs of attending UMC are kept as low as possible so that educational opportunities offered in its many divisions may be within the financial reach of all who earnestly desire an education. There are three types of financial aid available: part-time student employment; student loans; and gift aid in the form of grants, scholarships, fellowships, awards, and prizes.

Recipients of scholarships, fellowships, awards, and prizes are selected by the respective department, division, school or college. Only U.S. citizens are eligible for federal funds.

An application covering all types of financial aid available at UMC may be obtained from the office of Student Financial Aids, 11 Jesse. Separate applications are required for the Missouri State Grant, the federal Basic Educational Opportunity Grant (BEOG), and the Federal Insured Student Loan.

For further information on student financial aid at UMC contact the office of Student Financial Aids, 11 Jesse, or refer to the financial aid information in the General Information section of this manual.

TUITION, FEES, AND EXPENSES

Detailed information regarding fees and expenses is furnished in General Information and the Schedule of Courses. Also, the Cashier, 123 Jesse, will furnish on request the pamphlet, Tuition and Residence Rules.

UMC attempts to keep required expenses at a minimum. The following table gives an estimate of the necessary school expenses:

ACADEMIC YEAR (August-May)	Semester	Year
Incidental Fee*	$300	$ 600
Basic fee includes laboratory fees, library privileges, health services.
Student Activities Fee	22	44
Includes student government, student activities, programs, guest lecturers, etc.

1-3 hours inclusive	0

Applies only to out-of-state residents (and residents of Missouri for less than one year) attending the University of Missouri, and is to be paid in addition to the Incidental Fee.

(Married students have living expenses considerably different from those listed.)

Refund of Fees: Students leaving school or dropping courses for which they have paid fees will, subject to certain exceptions, receive upon written request to the Manager of Cashiering a refund of fees paid in accordance with the following schedule:

TIME OF WITHDRAWAL	AMOUNT OF FEE TO BE REFUNDED
16-Week Semester
Before day classwork begins	Full Refund (less $10 for cost of handling registration)
Within two calendar weeks from day classwork begins	70% Refund
After two calendar weeks and up to and including six calendar weeks	50% Refund
8-Week Summer Session
Before day classwork begins	Full Refund (less $10 for cost of handling registration)
Within one calendar week from day classwork begins	70% Refund
After one calendar week and up to and including three calendar weeks	50% Refund
After three calendar weeks	No Refund

For any session other than those specified the refund fee shall be calculated in the same proportion as the above schedule which is 70 per cent refund within approximately the first one-eighth of such session.

Deductions may be made from the above refund for any financial obligation due UMC.

A student who pre-registers and pays the regularly established fees but later reduces enrollment during the period established for free petitioning (with the result that fees are reduced) is entitled to a full refund of the difference in fees.

HOUSING

Students at UMC will find many kinds of housing available, the choice depending upon their classification, age, marital status, and personal preference. There are University-owned residence halls on the campus for graduate and undergraduate students, with some for graduate students only. One privately-owned hall accommodates both men and women students (living on separate floors). University-supervised housing also includes the sorority and fraternity houses, and cooperative units. Some students may prefer apartment living where they can prepare their own meals, study at their convenience, and in general determine their own "life style." Other students may prefer living in residence halls for the educational opportunities provided and the central location to the campus. Private rooming houses are available but scarce. The following information will be valuable in helping you to determine your "home" while attending UMC.

Students are not required to live in University-supervised housing, but may reside in any available housing they may select.

For regulations governing University housing and a list of priorities for married student housing assignments, refer to the Rules and Regulations section of this book.

UNIVERSITY-OWNED RESIDENCE HALLS FOR SINGLE STUDENTS

Room and board in residence halls are available to full-time students on a contract basis covering the entire academic year.

The residence halls at UMC are divided into three groups, each with an Assistant Director of Housing in charge. Each group houses approximately one-third of the total number of single students living in University-owned residence halls.

Each hall is supervised by a Head Resident whose staff are upperclass and/or graduate students selected to serve as members of the UMC administrative staff and designated as Resident Assistants. The Head Resident and staff aim to create an atmosphere which is conducive to the intellectual, social, cultural, and personal growth of the students living within their hall(s).

In addition, a Residence Hall Counselor is on duty in each of the three housing groups and is responsible for vocational, educational, and personal counseling in the residence halls. For students having academic difficulties or personal problems, these counselors provide assistance or referral to specialized services and serve as a source of information concerning academic regulations and procedures. They assist other staff members and residents in planning programs aimed at providing educational opportunities for students.

The residence halls are divided, by floors or sections, into units or "houses." Each unit elects its own officers and creates its own governing council or association, with the guidance and assistance of the residence hall staff. The elected officers assist in planning the social, athletic, and educational program. Representatives from each unit or "house" form group councils and help formulate rules and policies for the residence halls system.

At the beginning of the year, each resident is required to pay a fee of $7.50 which is used to finance the activities program.

Application Procedure: Students interested in University-owned residence halls can request that information (including a housing application/contract) through the UMC Application for Admission or by writing the Housing Office, 123 Jesse Hall. Requests should not be duplicated. Brochures and applications for single student housing are available the beginning of February. Applicants should carefully read the terms printed on the back of the application contract.

Room Assignment, Charges, and Payments: After an applicant completes all requirements for admission (including prepayment on the incidental fee when requested), the Admissions Office gives the student's name and student number to the Housing Office. If the Housing Office has—or later receives—a housing application from the student and determines there is available space in University-owned housing, the student is sent an "Assurance of Housing" which must be executed and returned with a specified first payment to hold the reservation. Mailing of "Assurance of Housing" forms for the first semester begins about June 1, and they are accompanied by a schedule of subsequent payments (including installment plans) required for residence hall contracts and a pamphlet containing the residence hall calendar.

Shortly before the beginning of the semester (by August 1 for the first semester), the Housing Office sends to the student an "Assignment of Accommodations" which indicates the assigned hall and room number and the contract rate for the academic year. Assignments are not made until the latest possible date, and students who have been assured of housing should not ask for information regarding their assignments in advance of receipt of the "Assignment of Accommodations."

UNIVERSITY-OWNED HOUSING FOR MARRIED STUDENTS

UMC has 360 unfurnished apartments for married students; 112 one-bedroom apartments and 56 two-bedroom apartments, renting for $85 and $100 per month respectively, are located in an area known as University Village. There are 52 one-bedroom apartments and 140 two-bedroom apartments, renting for $90 and $105 respectively, in two areas—University Terrace and University Heights.

Application blanks may be obtained from the Housing Office.

To be eligible for assignment to (or continued occupancy of) University-owned married student housing, the applicant must:

1. either be enrolled as a full-time student carrying a minimum of 9 credit hours of academic work or hold an appointment as a part-time member of the staff and carry such academic work that causes the combined classwork and teaching (or appointment in a non-teaching area that is classified as equivalent to an academic appointment) to make up substantially a full-time load; and
2. be accompanied by spouse or children. Part-time students and students living alone in Columbia are not eligible for assignment. The apartments are not large enough for families having more than three children.

Although apartment floor plans for University Village differ somewhat from those for apartments in University Terrace and University Heights, all apartments include living room, kitchen, bath, and one or two bedrooms. All apartments are unfurnished except for gas stoves and electric refrigerators. Each apartment is separately heated and each tenant pays for his own gas, electricity, and water. A deposit of $25 is required with the filing of each application. This deposit is held by the Housing Office during the entire tenancy of the student and is refunded at the end of the period of occupancy, provided no deduction has been made to cover damage to the apartment. The entire deposit will be forfeited by the applicant if he does not accept an assignment when offered to him.

MARK TWAIN RESIDENCE HALL

The privately-owned, air-conditioned Mark Twain Residence Hall, 515 South Fifth St., is divided to house both men and women. The owners operate this facility under the general supervision of the Housing Office and in accordance with rules and regulations pertaining to conduct and supervision in University-supervised housing. Since contractual arrangements regarding residence are entered into between applicants and the owners of Mark Twain, students must write directly to the hall management as the University takes no part in these contractual arrangements. The current rate for room and board, including taxes, is $1,720 for the academic year.

COOPERATIVE HOUSING

Women who live in cooperative houses have an opportunity to reduce room and board rates by sharing some of the work of the house. The cost of room and board in women's cooperatives is approximately $100 per month. Address inquiries to Templecrone, 1404 University Ave., Columbia, Mo., or Rochdale Co-op, 607 S. Fifth St., Columbia, Mo. 65201. Campbell-Harrison House accommodates approximately 30 women students enrolled in Home Economics. Application may be made directly to the president, Campbell-Harrison House, 1415 University Ave., Columbia, Mo. There are no cooperatives for men.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Fraternities and sororities are private, self-managed, and self-governed groups which have a University-approved resident director to provide assistance in management. The range of monthly house bills in fraternities and sororities is from $120 to $165. These charges do not include pledge fees, initiation fees, or building fees (if any).

There are 34 national fraternities and 16 national sororities on the Columbia campus. The groups are responsible, as are all student organizations, to the Committee on Student Organizations, Government and Activities.

Sorority membership selection is made by prospective members and sororities during Rush Week which precedes the beginning of school. Some pledging is also done throughout the school year.

Since most sorority houses are filled with returning members when school starts, very few of the new pledges can be housed in the sorority houses. Therefore, all registrants for sorority rush should arrange for housing for the school year before registering for rush.

For rush eligibility requirements and general sorority information, write the Panhellenic Adviser, 103 Read Hall, UMC, Columbia, Mo. 65201.

Fraternities select their new members throughout the year. Experience has shown that practically all men who have the opportunity to pledge a fraternity can live in the house. Therefore, men who plan to pledge a fraternity should not make commitments for residence halls or other housing unless they are willing to fulfill their financial obligations for such housing.

A comprehensive brochure on fraternities may be obtained by writing the I.F.C. Rush Chairman, 217 Read Hall, UMC, Columbia, Mo. 65201.

SPORTS PROGRAMS

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

A football Saturday in Columbia is like nothing else.

There is indeed something special about Coach Onofrio's football Tigers going against another collegiate foe on Faurot Field.

Fun, festivity, excitement, spectacle . . . It's all there as upwards of 60,000 fans converge on Columbia for an activity that is duplicated in countless collegiate arenas across the country. This fall there will be five gala weekends in Columbia when teams from Illinois, North Carolina, Iowa State, Colorado, and Kansas come to Tigertown.

Basketball takes over as the spotlighted sport from late November through early March. Coach Norm Stewart's proteges play 15 games, including the Show-Me Classic four-team tournament, in the 12,400-seat Hearnese auditorium—it's big league basketball at its best.

Track and wrestling events also are staged in the $11 million Warren E. Hearnese Multipurpose building—while baseball, cross-country, golf, tennis, and swimming complete the full spectrum of Tiger sports.

UMC's intercollegiate athletic plant includes Faurot Field, Simmons Field, football practice fields, six new tennis courts, indoor and outdoor track facilities, and an 18-hole golf course.

The indoor track in Hearnese is a 220-yard, eight-lane, tartan oval, while the outdoor facility is a red shale quarter-mile track located within Memorial Stadium.

All of Mizzou's athletic and administrative offices are located within the Hearnese complex which is located just east of the football stadium.

Group Seating: UMC student organizations or living units of 10 or more may request group seating, with a ticket limit of 125 per group.

All requests for football group seating are submitted to the Athletic Ticket Office in the spring. Specific group seating locations are determined later, based on a lottery supervised by the Center for Student Life and MSA representatives. The cost of a 1976 football season ticket for a student participating in the group seating arrangement is $20.

Deadlines for turning in ticket order payments and picking up the group tickets are as follows:

Football—payments for group seating must be made from August 25 to September 2. Tickets may be picked up from September 7 through September 10.

Basketball—tickets for all students are sold for a reserved area. All tickets for the student area are general admission.

Season Tickets: A student season ticket package for home football and basketball games is being offered again to Missouri students at a reduced rate.

Any student who orders the Bengal Pack (combined season ticket good for 5 football and 15 basketball games) pays only $37.50 for the package. It's a savings of $2.50 as opposed to buying both season tickets separately. A basketball season ticket, purchased separately, costs $20.

This season ticket package may be bought up until the Tigers' first home football game (Illinois—Sept. 18) and the student's receipt will permit the holder to participate in any seating arrangements. In addition, this year the option is included with the summer mailing—purchase can be made on the same fee slip with other University billings.

If they have not taken advantage of the summer mailing opportunity, students may buy the Bengal Pack, or either the football or basketball season tickets starting Sept. 4 at the Hearnese Ticket Office.

Order forms for the student ticket package are available at: Missouri Book Store, Brady Commons, Memorial Union; all residence halls, fraternities, and sororities; and the Athletic Ticket Office in Hearnese.

WOMEN'S INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

UMC fields eight varsity teams in the following sports: volleyball, softball, field hockey, basketball, track, swimming, tennis, and golf. Team members are selected by coaches on a try-out basis.

The program is governed by the eligibility rules of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women. Team members must be full-time undergraduate students. Interested students are urged to attend organizational meetings which will be held in Hearnes Building on the following schedule:

Wed., Aug. 25—Field Hockey, 330A Hearnes
Wed., Aug. 25—Volleyball, 330B Hearnes
Thurs., Aug. 26—Tennis, 330A Hearnes
Thurs., Aug. 26—Golf, 330B Hearnes
Thurs., Aug. 26—Track & Field, 331 Hearnes
Mon., Aug. 30—Swimming, 330 Hearnes
Tues., Aug. 31—Softball, 330 Hearnes
Wed., Sept. 1—Basketball, 330 Hearnes

Further information on the program may be secured from office of the Assistant Director of Athletics in the Hearnes Building.

RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AND INTRAMURAL PROGRAMS

If you want to take a study break and go "shoot a few baskets," play a quick game of tennis, or get involved in a team sport, UMC offers recreational activities on all levels to help you keep in shape.

Many tournaments, club activities, and student recreation programs are sponsored by the Department of Health and Physical Education and the Student Activities Dept. Men and women students may sign up for intramural tournaments at Rothwell Gymnasium; students interested in co-educational intramurals should sign up at the Memorial Union ticket window.

Use the recreation facilities and most important, use your body!

Free Play. All physical education areas (Rothwell Gymnasium, Old Rollins Field, Research Park Fields, McKee Gymnasium and Field, Handball Courts and Tennis Courts) are used for classes (Monday-Thursday) until 3:30 p.m. and are reserved often for intramurals after 6:00 p.m. Whenever intramurals are not scheduled in any of the areas, they are available to students and faculty members on a first-come, first-served basis.

Open swim at the Natatorium is set for 7-9 p.m., Tuesday through Friday, and 2-4 p.m., Saturday and Sunday. Faculty swim time is set aside from 12:30-1:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Equipment. Students and faculty members may use their UMC ID cards to check out various types of game equipment, such as balls, bats, etc., in the locker room of Rothwell Gymnasium.

Camping and backpacking equipment may also be checked out in the basement of Read Hall.

Intramural Sports. The intramural sports program allows every UMC student to participate in competitive individual and team sports. Objectives of the program are to provide recreation and social contact, to develop permanent interest in sports, to develop group spirit, and to develop physical fitness.

Intramural Sports for Men. Policies and regulations concerning the men's intramural sports program are the responsibility of the Men's Intramural Sports Board, composed of three faculty members and four students.

All contests are governed by rules issued by recognized national organizations except that modifications are made to fit the abilities of students and to allow for differences in facilities.

Intramural Sports for Women. Organization and administration of the women's intramural program is handled by an Intramural Committee composed of the Women's Intramural Director, Assistant Director, and student representatives.

All activities are governed by the official rules of the National Association for Girls' and Women's Sports. Rule modifications may be made to insure safety of the players and to encourage participation.

Details of the organization of activities, eligibility, method of entry, practice periods, postponements, substitutions, and special rules concerning team membership are outlined at the August 31, 1976 meeting of the Intramural Board. This board includes one intramural manager from each sorority, residence hall unit, and independent group.

Further information concerning Women's Intramurals can be obtained from 106 Rothwell Gym.

The Co-ed Intramural Program is organized and regulated through an Intramural Board consisting of two staff members in the Student Activities Dept. and four students.

A complete set of rules is distributed to each team participating in a co-ed sport. These rules follow those issued by recognized organizations with slight modifications which provide for the uniqueness of a co-ed activity.

The Co-ed Intramural Program is not on the same point system employed by the men's and women's programs.

Further information about Co-ed Intramurals may be obtained at Read Hall.

Awards. A plaque is offered for each activity and is awarded to the group accumulating the most points in that activity. A trophy cup is given to the group accumulating the greatest number of points in all activities during the school year.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Health has an important relationship to a student's total educational endeavor. Students who are ill, incapacitated by accident, or in generally poor health are unable to study, attend class, and learn as effectively as they otherwise would. Consequently, the University offers a two-part health program consisting of (1) a Student Health Service and (2) a supplementary sickness and accident insurance policy.

MEDICAL INFORMATION

All students enrolling in UMC for the first time are required to submit satisfactory medical information by completing the Report of Medical History. In some instances the Student Health Service may require further information, in the form of medical reports from physicians who have treated the applicant. All medical information should be sent directly to the Director of the Student Health Service, since it is confidential. A delay in accomplishing this requirement may result in a delay in enrollment. The Report of Medical History form may be obtained from the Director of Admissions.

Facilities of the Student Health Service are located in the Student Health Center, west of Francis Quadrangle. The professional staff consists of a full-time medical staff with consulting specialists.

Clinic Hours are 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

Emergencies. Physicians are available for emergencies. In case of emergency, students may report to the Student Health Center.

Services Rendered. All students in residence at UMC for one hour of credit or more, except for employees on the Educational Assistance Program are entitled to Student Health Service care. This medical service will be provided only at the Student Health Center, and includes the usual ancillary services, such as laboratory, X-ray, and pharmacy. Medical care is provided at the Student Health Center for the usual and ordinary illnesses and accidents. The services provided are in accordance with established University regulations. Some of these services are provided at a minimal cost to the student.

Notification of Parents or Relatives. If a student is seriously ill the parents are contacted.

Immunizations Offered. Certain immunizations are given to students who must take special risks in their course of study.

Services Not Rendered. In circumstances where services are not provided at the Student Health Center, responsibility reverts to the student. However, the Student Health Service will assist in arranging these services if so requested by the student.

The following are examples of services not rendered at or by the Student Health Center:

1. Major surgery—both emergency and elective.
2. Major fractures and other types of trauma.
3. Any surgical procedure requiring a general anesthetic.
4. Refraction of eyes or fitting glasses. Eye testing for driver's license is not done at Student Health Service but is done at the License Bureau.
5. Dental service.
6. Obstetrical care or complications of pregnancy.
7. Care to chronically ill or disabled students. Supportive treatment will be provided within the resources of the Student Health Service; the student will be assisted and advised as to treatment available elsewhere.
8. House calls. Student Health Service physicians do not make calls to students' rooms.

Excuses from Classes. The Student Health Service does not routinely issue excuses for classes missed while attending the outpatient clinic. Unless acutely ill, the student should make every effort to visit the clinic during a free period. Recommendation for an excuse may be made in exceptional cases upon the request of the instructor or dean of the division.

The Student Health Service does not validate absences because of illness for which the student is not seen in the clinic.

Supplemental Sickness and Accident Insurance Plan. This plan, sponsored by the University of Missouri, is obtainable at a reasonable cost and will for the most part cover the student's needs for hospitalization, surgery, and emergency services for treatment relating to an accident. It includes inpatient medical and surgical treatment for students while at home over weekends, holidays, and during the summer vacation period. This insurance can be purchased to cover spouse and dependents at an extra cost. Details concerning this plan are available at the Cashier's Office, the Student Health Center, or the Business Office. It is strongly recommended that students purchase this hospital insurance if needed.

Use of Private Physician. A student may make arrangements for medical care with a private physician at his/her own expense.

Laboratory tests and X-rays may be made at the Health Service for students under the care of a private physician, subject to the approval of the Director of Student Health.

If a student develops a communicable or contagious disease or any other illness which might constitute a hazard to others, it will be necessary to provide the Director of Student Health with information indicating that proper medical care and precautions are being utilized to safeguard the health of the campus community.

Special Cases. The Director of the Student Health Service is authorized

1. to recommend to allow students to withdraw from the University at any time if they have medical conditions that significantly interfere with their attendance or progress at school, or

2. to require students to withdraw from the University at any time if they have medical conditions that constitute a hazard to themselves, to other students, or to the campus community.

In addition, students may be suspended if they do not comply with requirements concerning the medical information or special examination deemed necessary for the health and safety of the campus community.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

A primary concern of most students is an understanding of academic information and procedures. Your first interaction with these procedures occurred while you were being admitted. Complementary to admission is registration which occurs each semester. Registration is basically a simple procedure. Some knowledge about this procedure will help you considerably when you register. There are also some rules on class attendance, grade requirements, choosing a major and, finally, degree requirements which are important to know.

Since everyone who reads the M Book is already acquainted with some or all of these procedures, suffice it to say there are "tricks"—or shall we say "practical methods"—which can be learned and, if used, will hold your periods of frustration to a minimum:

1. To state it simply—Learn the rules. To be in personal control of your life in a large institutional environment, you must understand the framework of that environment. The regulations listed below under "Procedures" are general regulations which apply to all students. Some are more important than others, but most will touch your life at some point.

2. Before, during, and after the time you pick a major school or college, read and understand its Bulletin. Every division publishes its own Bulletin in which you will find detailed, official information regarding the regulations of the division and, especially important, the division's procedures and requirements for a degree. This information is vital to you; don't let ignorance preclude you from achieving your goal.

3. Don't be satisfied with advice from other students. We admit that many upperclassmen are extremely knowledgeable regarding the registration procedures; some graduate students are downright masters. But remember, you are playing for high stakes, and it is often impossible to know whether your "unofficial adviser" is an expert or an amateur. Most answers to questions about registration, class schedules, and the like can be obtained from the Office of Admissions and Registration. Ask your faculty adviser or your dean's office questions on academic regulations and advisement. The Center for Student Life and the Counseling Services are also helpful in these matters.

4. Insist on answers before the fact, not after the crisis has passed. Many difficulties encountered by students result from delaying important decisions. If you are not satisfied with what you are told, check it out with the faculty member or the administrative officer directly responsible.

5. Finally, don't panic. Having a 7:40 a.m. class three semesters in a row or finding out before your last semester that you haven't had that science course with a lab is really not the end of the world.

Regular Petitioning. At other times during the semester, usually limited to one week, students may drop or add courses contingent upon receiving the necessary permission from their dean. A $5 fee is charged for each petition filed at any one time. (Multiple changes can be made on one petition.)

The latest time a student may enter a new course almost never exceeds the first three weeks of the semester or the first week of the summer session.

Procedures. Students wishing to petition into or out of a course, "free" or otherwise, must secure the approval of their academic adviser and their dean. Blank petition forms and instructions are available in each dean's office. This process must be initiated by the student.

Changes in Sections. Petitioning is not required for changing from one section of a course to another. Students wishing to change sections of the same course must see the chairman of the department in which the course is offered. (No fee is involved in section changing.)

Arranged Hours. A student who is enrolled in a course that meets at an arranged hour (indicated in Schedule of Courses by notation "Arr") should go to the departmental office to ascertain the meeting time.

PROCEDURES

Registration

Permits to Enroll. A permit to enroll and official registration material are your tickets to register for classes each semester. Registration material can be picked up at your dean's office prior to regular or advanced (explained below) registration periods. They are made automatically for the winter semester for all students enrolled in UMC during the fall semester, and for the fall semester for all students enrolled during the winter. If you change divisions, however, you must request that registration material be made for you to reflect this change; this can be done at the Admissions Office, 130 Jesse.

In addition, undergraduate students who wish to enroll for summer school must request registration material from the Admissions Office prior to registration. Graduate students enrolled for winter will be automatically issued registration material for summer, as well as graduate students who were enrolled for the previous summer session.

Advanced or Preregistration. Each semester (except summer) enrolled students are given the opportunity to complete registration for the next semester's classes during pre- or advanced registration periods, usually held in November and April. Wide publicity is given to advanced registration. There are several advantages for you in registering this way, not the least of which is that you can handle your registration at your own pace and leisure. In addition, a wider selection of courses and times are available to you, and you can probably get a chance to discuss course requirements and content with the professor or department before signing up for a particular course.

Time of Payment of Fees. All University fees must be paid at the time of registration as a condition of admission to classes. Students who preregister must pay fees by the announced deadline or the advance registration will be cancelled and the student will be required to register again and pay fees during the regular registration period as indicated on the UMC calendar. Registration is not complete until all fees are paid.

Personal Checks. Personal checks in payment of fees or other obligations to the University will be accepted only when the amount of the check does not exceed the amount due from the student. A student who presents a check to the University in payment of student fees, which for any reason is not honored by the bank upon which it is drawn, will be reported to the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs for disciplinary action.

Credit Cards. Master Charge and BankAmericard credit cards are acceptable, within limits, toward payment of fees and other charges paid to UMC through the Cashier's Office. Other UMC departments accepting credit cards are: Athletic, Extension, Golf Course, Medical Center, Memorial Union, University Bookstore, and Veterinary Clinic.

Student Identification Cards. New students pre-enrolling or enrolling at regular registration will have available a student ID card when they make payment of fees. The ID will be revalidated each succeeding semester or term in which the student registers. Lost IDs will be replaced for a non-refundable fee of $5 paid to the Cashier's Office.

Late Enrollment. A student who registers after the close of official registration must pay a $25 late registration fee in addition to the regular fee.

Petitioning (Drop/Add) Into or Out of a Course. These terms are synonymous (withdraw from classes is also used) and this procedure causes a great deal of confusion. Many students believe that they are locked into courses once registration is closed. This is not necessarily true, and "petitioning" is the system used to change your courses or your schedules after classes actually begin.

Free Petitioning. The University provides a period of "free petitioning" ("free" here refers to money), which is held the first week of classes (fall and winter semesters only) and is open to all students. The latest and most accurate information about the availability of new spaces in, or sections of, courses is usually in the department offering the course.

ACADEMIC CREDIT, GRADING, PROBATION, AND TRANSCRIPTS

The following is basic information regarding UMC academic policies. Many of the Schools and Colleges add to these policies. All students should consult the Bulletin of their respective college.

Credit Hours. The unit of credit given in the University is the semester hour, which represents a subject pursued one period per week for a semester of 16 weeks. A two-hour course is one which meets two periods per week for one semester. The lecture or recitation period is 50 minutes; the usual laboratory period is one hour and 50 minutes.

Students may expect to spend an average of two hours in preparation for each hour of lecture or classwork and one hour in preparation for each two hours of laboratory.

Grades. University undergraduate work is graded by the following system: A indicates superior work; B indicates above average work; C indicates average work; D indicates below average work; and F indicates that the work done is undeserving of credit. There is no D grade for graduate students. Medical students and Law students are graded exclusively on Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U) basis.

S/U Grading System. On February 12, 1969, all courses were deemed open to election on an S and U grading system. The grade of "S" represents A, B, and C grades, and a grade of "U" represents D and F grades. However, beginning students and students on scholastic probation are not eligible to elect the S and U system. No student may elect the S and U grading system in more than one course in any semester or summer session. These restrictions do not apply to courses in which all students are graded on an S and U basis. In no case shall more than 20 per cent of the hours taken into account in determining the satisfaction of first baccalaureate degree requirements be hours passed under the S and U grading system. The faculty of any division may adopt additional conditions and restrictions with respect to the election of the S and U grading system.

Delayed Grade. A delayed grade may be recorded when the student's work is incomplete but otherwise worthy of credit, or when the instructor feels unable to assign a grade at the end of the semester. The student must finish this work, exclusive of research courses, within the next two semesters of residence or receive an F.

Excused Grade. See Withdrawal from Courses.

Grade Reports to Parents and Students. At the close of each semester and summer session, each student receives a grade report mailed to the student's permanent address. Grade reports are not mailed to the parents of students, unless the student files a written request in the Registration Office, 225 Jesse.

Changes in Record. After the close of the semester or term, changes in record may be authorized only by the Committee on the Revision of Records. For instructions on procedure, the student should go to his or her dean's office. A student who thinks that an error has been made in reporting a grade should see the instructor in the course.

Deficiencies. A student whose work is below average is considered scholastically deficient and may be reported as deficient to the divisional dean at mid-semester. Notification does not in itself guarantee satisfactory performance. A student should feel free to consult his/her adviser, instructor, dean, or Counseling Services for advice and assistance.

Grade Point Average, Cumulative Average, and Honor Points. The grade A gives 4 points; the grade B, 3 points, the grade C, 2 points; the grade D, 1 point. More complete information is included in the announcements of the various divisions. Students may quickly compute their own, though unofficial, grade points by dividing the total number of honor points earned by the number of hours carried. S/U grades, or delayed and excused grades are not included in this computation.

Scholastic Probation and Suspension. Students should consult their academic dean or divisional Bulletin for scholastic probation and suspension regulations appropriate to their situations.

Transfer students may be placed on scholastic probation at the University because of poor scholarship at the institution or institutions previously attended.

A student on scholastic probation receives written notice of probation, and the provisions for return to regular standing.

Transcripts. A student may obtain an official photostatic transcript of his/her record at the Office of Admissions. A charge of $1 is made for each copy. An official photographic copy costs 50 cents. A student is required to clear all indebtedness through the University before a diploma may be released or a transcript issued.

Attendance and Withdrawal. Attendance: Promptness and regularity in class attendance are expected of all students. Absences: Attendance and release of all students at the Student Health Center are reported to the divisional deans by the Director of the Student Health Service. Students who are going to be absent for more than two days should contact their divisional deans. Students should make themselves aware of departmental absentee requirements.

Withdrawal from the University. Students who wish to withdraw from the University before the close of the semester must do so at their respective dean's office. If reasons for withdrawal are so urgent that students cannot obtain official excuses, they should notify their divisional deans immediately and request to be officially excused. Students who withdraw from the University within the first six weeks of the semester may receive a partial refund of fees; the amount is indicated in the Schedule of Courses.

Partial Credit. The partial credit rule is now generally enforced and, until changed, will be enforced in this manner:

1. (a) No undergraduate partial credit is awarded to students enrolled in the College of Business & Public Administration, College of Arts & Science, College of Agriculture, College of Engineering, or School of Forestry, Fisheries, & Wildlife.

(b) Partial credit is not awarded in any course offered by the College of Agriculture, College of Arts & Science, College of Business & Public Administration, College of Engineering, School of Forestry, Fisheries, & Wildlife, or School of Law.

(c) If the student in category (a) or (b) (above) withdraws from the University after the six-week period, or drops a course after the six-week period but remains enrolled in some other course or courses, he must receive either the grade of Exc., if making a passing grade (D or better), or the grade of F if work is not satisfactory quality. In some cases, exceptions are allowed on recommendation of the dean.

2. If paragraph 1 (a) or (b) (above) is not applicable, the student who drops a course after the proper date set for partial credit may be given partial credit in courses offered by divisions which grant partial credit.

Courses carried beyond the six-week date must appear on the student's official record card. If work in a course is unworthy of recognition the grade of F shall be reported; however, he/she may be reported Excused if that student is forced to withdraw from the University for the purpose of entering the armed forces of the United States. (Amended Section 7 of Article XI of the University By-Laws, October, 1965.)

When partial credit is given, only the grades A, B, or C are acceptable. The alternate options to this are Exc. or F in the full amount of credit for the course.

Withdrawal from Courses. No notation of enrollment in a course is placed on a student's permanent record if he/she drops a course within the first six weeks of the semester. Courses carried beyond the six-week date in a semester or three-week date in a summer session appear on the student's official record card.* If the student drops a course after the proper dates set for partial credit, but remains enrolled in some other course or courses, he/she should receive the grade Excused if making D or better or F if work is not of satisfactory quality.

Exception:* Graduate students may drop a 400-level course up to eight weeks into a semester (four weeks in the summer) and it will not appear.

NON-RESIDENT TUITION

Any student who is not a Missouri resident, or who has not been a Missouri resident for one year, is subject to payment of non-resident tuition in addition to other fees. The Cashier's Office, 123 Jesse, will furnish, upon request, up-to-date information regarding non-resident tuition.

STUDENT ACCESS TO RECORDS

1. "Educational Records" are those records, files, documents, and other materials which contain information directly related to a student and maintained by the University of Missouri-Columbia. Those records made available under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 are student financial aid, the student's cumulative advisement file, disciplinary records, the admissions file, and the academic record.

2. The Director of Financial Aid, the appropriate academic dean, the Dean of Student Affairs, the Director of Admissions, and the Registrar are the officials responsible for the maintenance of each type of record listed in Section 1.

3. University of Missouri-Columbia students will have access to the educational records identified in paragraph 1 and, in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the University of Missouri-Columbia will not make available to students the following materials:

A. Financial records of the parents of students or any information contained therein.

B. Confidential letters and statements of recommendation which were placed in the education records prior to January 1, 1975, if such letters or statements are not used for purposes other than those for which they were specifically intended.

C. Confidential recommendations respecting admission to the University, application for employment, and receipt of an honor or honorary recognition, where the student has signed a waiver of the student's rights of access.

4. University of Missouri-Columbia "Educational Records" do not include:

A. Records of instructional, supervisory and administrative personnel and educational personnel ancillary thereto which are in the sole possession of the maker thereof and which are not accessible or revealed to any other person except a substitute.

B. The records and documents of the University of Missouri-Columbia Police Department that are maintained solely for law enforcement purposes and are not available to persons other than law enforcement officials of the same jurisdiction.

C. In the case of persons who are employed by the University of Missouri-Columbia but who are not in attendance at the University of Missouri-Columbia, records made and maintained in the normal course of business which relate exclusively to such person and that person's capacity as an employee where the records are not available for any other purpose.

D. All records on any University of Missouri-Columbia student which are created and maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or para-professional acting in his/her professional or para-professional capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are created, maintained, or used only in connection with the provision of treatment to the student, and are not available to anyone other than persons providing such treatment, provided, however, that such records can be personally reviewed by a physician or other appropriate professional of the student's choice.

5. Students may, upon request, review their records and if erroneous information is included therein, may request the expunging of such information from their files. Such erroneous information will then be expunged upon authorization of the official responsible for that file.

6. University of Missouri-Columbia students desiring to challenge the content of their records may request an opportunity for a hearing to challenge the content of such student's education records in order to insure that the records are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of such student, and to provide an opportunity for the correction or deletion of any such inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate data contained therein and to insert into such records a written explanation respecting the content of such records.

The University official charged with custody of the records will attempt to settle informally any disputes with any student regarding the content of the University's educational records through informal meetings and discussions with the student.

Formal Proceedings. Upon the request of the student or University official charged with custody of the records the hearing required by Section 6 shall be conducted.

A. The request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing to the campus Chancellor who will appoint a hearing officer or a hearing committee to conduct the hearing.

B. The hearing shall be conducted and decided within a reasonable period of time following the request for the hearing. The parties shall be entitled to 10 days prior written notice of the time and place of the hearing.

C. The hearing shall be conducted and the decision rendered by an appointed hearing official or officials who shall not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.

D. The student shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the hearing.

E. The decision shall be rendered in writing within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the hearing. A copy of this decision and any other supportive materials shall become a part of the educational record.

F. Either party may appeal the decision of the hearing official or officials to the campus Chancellor. Appeal from the Chancellor's decision is to the President. Appeal from the President is to the Board of Curators.

7. The University of Missouri-Columbia considers "Directory Information/Public Information" to mean a student's name, address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.

8. The University of Missouri-Columbia will mail grade reports to students at their permanent mailing address only. Grades will not be mailed to parents unless the students have completed the necessary authorization in the Registrar's Office.

9. The University of Missouri-Columbia may permit access to or release the educational records without the written consent of the student to the parents of a dependent student as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. In accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, Subpart D, Section 99.31, information needed for the administration of financial aids will be made available to qualified requesters without prior consent.

10. If any material or document in the educational record of a student includes information on more than one student, the student may inspect and review only such part of such material or document as relates to him/her or to be informed of the specific information contained in such part of such material.

11. Students desiring reproduction of copies of educational records will be charged a nominal fee. Official copies of transcripts will be charged at the rate of $1.00 each and unofficial copies at the rate of $.50 each.

GENERAL INFORMATION

ALUMNI AND DEVELOPMENT

Students can be active in alumni relations and development work before they graduate from UMC.

They may become members of the Missouri Student Foundation, a unit of the Development Fund Board of Directors, or the Student Board, an arm of the independent Alumni Association.

The Student Foundation has the general goal of acquainting students with the work of the Development Fund, through which gifts are made to the University. The Foundation sponsors an annual bicycle race, as well as many other student events and projects to raise money for scholarships.

The Student Foundation is headed by a 12-15 member student executive board whose president and vice-president serve on the Development Fund Board of Directors. Membership in the Foundation is determined on the basis of leadership, interest, and ability.

The Development Fund is a department dedicated to obtaining private financial support for the campus beyond that provided by state appropriations and student fees. Such private support enables UMC to obtain and maintain such essentials as scholarships, teaching aids, distinguished faculty, research projects, and facilities that could not otherwise be provided.

Working with the Alumni Association through the Alumni Activities Department, 312 Jesse Hall, the Alumni Association Student Board (AASB) helps with planning and sponsoring homecoming festivities, class reunions, and special projects. They also travel to alumni meetings across the state, talking about student attitudes and activities, and they provide input for a job-hunting handbook distributed each year by the Alumni Association to graduating seniors. Students may become members of the Student Board through the MSA petitioning process. There are two student representatives on the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

A special rate of $5 for membership in the Alumni Association is given to students for one year after their graduation. Dues in the Association are $10 a year thereafter. Dues include a subscription to the Missouri Alumnus, the voice of the Alumni Association, published six times a year by the Alumni and Development Communications Department. The magazine contains many stories on student life and has consistently received national recognition from the Council for Advancement and Support of Education.

AMERICAN STUDIES ABROAD

French language classes in Paris, archaeology in the Mid-East, independent research on rural sociology in Ghana . . . such academic opportunities as these can add a new dimension of meaning, perspective, and challenge to your college years.

Undergraduates interested in study programs outside the U.S. can find information and counseling in the Office of International Programs, 110 Read Hall. Materials are available on a variety of programs sponsored by UMC, other colleges, private institutes, and foreign universities.

Early planning is essential to meet program deadlines and integrate your credit earned abroad into your study program at UMC. Freshmen and first semester sophomores should begin preparations to take advantage of a summer, semester, or academic year of study outside the U.S. As one returned student said of the program "this . . . is one of the best things I have ever done."

CASHIER'S OFFICE

The Cashier's Office, 123 Jesse, is open from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, to accept payments for parking tickets, library fines, registration fees, petitioning fees, and dormitory payments. After 3:30 p.m., students may deposit payments in the drop-box outside the cashier's windows in Jesse. Any questions concerning residency requirements and fees should be directed to the Cashier's Office. One important point, the Cashier's Office does not cash checks. Go to the University Book Store in the Brady Commons for that.

CONCERT SERIES

The UMC Concert Series presents performances by nationally- and internationally-known artists and orchestras. Reserved-seat tickets are free to students enrolled for six or more hours upon presentation of their ID cards. Season seat reservations are available upon presentation of ID cards and payment of $3 at the Cashier's Office, 123 Jesse. The concert schedule is available at the Office of Public Information, 223 Jesse.

DEBTS

Students are expected to make good all obligations contracted with the University. Students who fail to fulfill obligations to the University may be subject to disciplinary action. A student is required to clear all delinquent indebtedness through the University before a diploma may be released or a transcript issued.

DIRECTORY CARD AND STUDENT DIRECTORY

Students enrolling on regular registration dates complete directory information as part of the procedure. Students who register in advance for the fall and winter semesters are required to fill out directory information and have their ID cards validated by mail. The information, compiled into the Faculty/Staff/Student Directory which is published each fall, is on sale at the University Book Store. This information is also used by the Office of Public Information.

DIVISIONAL GOVERNMENT

Divisional Student Councils, formed in 1969, offer an opportunity for involvement and participation in campus governance concerning curriculum requirements, advisement, activities, and other academic concerns.

Presidents and representatives from each Divisional Council meet periodically to discuss information on student participation and influence in departmental and divisional matters, and Divisional Council projects.

Each semester one dollar of every student's activity fee ($22) is allocated to the respective Divisional Council budget. Divisional Councils undertake a variety of projects, including teacher evaluations, course description booklets and student advisement councils.

For more information on the functions and operations of your Divisional Council, check with your dean's office.

EXHIBITS, MUSEUMS AND COLLECTIONS

Permanent Displays

Agronomy, Mumford Hall basement, corridors and first floor—displays such as soil monoliths of soil types in Missouri, the nitrogen cycle in soil, maintaining soil organic matter, and items of interest in crop production.

Anthropology, 9:30-12 p.m. and 1 p.m.-4:30 p.m., 100 Swallow Hall—displays include items from both the Old and New World with emphasis on Missouri and North American archaeology and ethnology, the evolution of man, and a recently added Meso-American area display.

Art, the Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney collection, corridors and offices of Jesse Hall—a collection of 99 paintings called "Missouri, Heart of the Nation."

The Museum of Art and Archaeology, presently housed in various locations. The following exhibits will be moved to the Art History & Archaeology Building, Red Campus, by November 1976. For information about new hours, call 882-8363.

The Museum of Art and Archaeology, 2-5 p.m. daily, 4D11 Ellis Library until November—Greek and Roman art, art of the Near, Middle, and Far East; the Samuel H. Kress Study Collection of Renaissance paintings; modern and contemporary art and primitive art of Africa and Oceania.

Gallery of Casts, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Friday, first floor, Art History & Archaeology Building—a collection of full-size casts of Greek and Roman sculpture.

Botany Greenhouse, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. daily, near Tucker Hall—common and exotic plants including tropical jungle and desert plants.

Class and group tours by appointment, 882-6519.

Botany Herbarium, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. daily, 226 Tucker Hall—a collection of dried, preserved and classified plants, monocots, dicots, lichen and fungi, conifers, and ferns.

Entomology, Agriculture Building—a worldwide collection of over a million specimens, mostly of Missouri—mainly a research museum. Open by appointment, 882-7384.

Geology Museum, corridors of basement and first floor Geology Building—displays of fossils, rocks, and minerals from all over the world.

Herpetological Exhibit, Stewart Hall second floor—live snakes and lizards.

Home Economics, Home Management Center, Stanley Hall—furnishings and fabrics representing the work of many manufacturers and designers. Appointment necessary, 882-2620.

Journalism Historical Museum, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. (when not in classroom use), Mon.-Fri., located in the tower connecting Neff and Walter Williams Halls—early newspapers and historical documents. Antique presses on display in student lounge and Missourian lobby.

Missouri School of Religion Collection, 9th and Lowry—includes articles of different cultures and religions of the world.

Trophy Collections

Athletic Department, Hearnes Building; Agriculture Club and Block and Bridle Club, Livestock Center; the Department of Dairy Husbandry, Eckles Hall; the Department of Poultry Husbandry, T-14; ROTC, Crowder Hall.

Rotating and Traveling Displays

Department of Art, Fine Arts Gallery, 9 a.m.-3 p.m., Mon.-Fri., and 2:30-4:30 p.m., Sunday—a continuing series of paintings, sculpture, crafts, and design of past and contemporary work, national and international in scope. Also faculty and student exhibitions.

Home Economics, Stanley Hall—monthly exhibits of staff and student work and special displays from around the country. Gwynn Hall—first and second floors—display cases of rotating exhibits from various home economics departments.

Library, first floor Ellis Library—rotating exhibits from various departments and outside organizations.

MSA Art-Listening Galley, 10 a.m.-10 p.m. Tues.-Fri., 2 p.m.-10 p.m. Sun.-Mon., 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Sat., Brady Commons Gallery—includes art exhibits and headphones for listening to various styles of music such as jazz, rock, folk and so on.

EXTENSION DIVISION

Although most Extension programs relate to those off the campus, some of its services are available to students in Columbia. Among these are:

Center for Independent Study Through Correspondence (514 S. Fifth Street)

College credit through independent study is offered on both graduate and undergraduate levels. Credit earned may count toward a degree or certificate.

The Catalog of Independent Study Courses, free on request, gives full information about courses offered and regulations. Those especially relating to University students are:

1. Students taking work in residence at UMC are not allowed either to begin or to continue independent study work during a semester except by special permission of their deans and then only when they are carrying less than the maximum number of hours. This is to avoid possible loss of credit through over-enrollment. Students are held responsible for any violation of the rule.

2. At least 30 hours of approved independent study work may be applied to an undergraduate degree.

3. A student may apply a maximum of eight hours of appropriate credit taken in independent study courses toward a master's degree.

4. Students are not permitted to enroll in more than two independent study courses at one time except in very special cases.

Academic Support Center (505 Stewart Road)

Audiovisual and Communications. All types of audiovisual equipment and more than 7,500 sound 16mm motion picture films are located in the Film Library as a part of the Academic Support Center. They are available without charge to the faculty for classroom use, and on a rental basis to others. A catalog listing films suitable for various age groups and subject matter can be obtained at 505 Stewart Road.

Other Educational Materials include color video cassettes, slide, tape, and audio programs. These may be viewed at 505 Stewart Road or at the Learning Laboratory, 3 Arts and Science Building. The Learning Laboratory provides music listening facilities for classes and supplementary class materials of audio or video format as assigned by faculty. A catalog of educational materials may be found in 3 Arts and Science Building. The laboratory is open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday for convenience of students.

Credit Courses Administered through the Extension Division (105 Whitten)

Credit courses from the several academic divisions may be offered in off-campus locations or on campus through the University Extension Division. Subject to institutional regulations the credit earned from courses offered in this manner may be counted toward a degree. Courses offered under these circumstances are primarily for students unable to participate in a regular on-campus schedule of courses.

More detailed information concerning the foregoing may be obtained from the Extension Teaching Department, 115 Whitten Hall for all academic divisions except education. Information on College of Education courses offered through Extension may be obtained at 203 Hill Hall.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

A brochure covering all types of financial aid available at UMC may be obtained from the office of Student Financial Aids, 11 Jesse, Columbia, Mo. 65201.

Part-time Employment. There are 1,800 to 2,000 part-time jobs on the Columbia campus which are regularly filled by students who need to work in order to help with their college expenses. Compensation ranges from $2.21 per hour for a beginning freshman to over $2.50 for skilled upperclassmen. Jobs are available in the cafeterias, libraries, laboratories, and offices, and on the research farm. Advanced students frequently may find work on various research projects in the division of their major study. Make application at the office of the prospective employer.

Hundreds of part-time jobs are also available in downtown Columbia and throughout the community—in restaurants, hotels, stores, warehouses, theatres, and other business firms. Many householders employ students to do odd jobs and baby-sitting, usually during the afternoons and evenings and on weekends. Many job opportunities are listed on the employment bulletin board at the Financial Aids Office.

The College Work-Study Program. In 1964 the federal government authorized the College Work-Study Program. This program provides that the federal government will pay 80 per cent of the wages of students from low income families who need to work in order to earn money to attend college. The university will pay the other 20 per cent for jobs on campus and will assist in arranging other jobs off-campus on community projects and with non-profit organizations and agencies which work for the good of the public.

Full-time summer jobs of 40 hours per week at a minimum of $2.21 per hour enable students to save money for the following school year. Some can work during the fall months and arrange to start college at the beginning of the second semester.

In addition, part-time work on campus can be arranged to fit into the regular class schedule. Beginning wage rates depend upon skills and qualifications of the worker and are from $2.21 per hour and up. Jobs are available in libraries, laboratories, cafeterias, maintenance, offices, farms, etc. Jobs are assigned by the Student Financial Aids Office in accordance with the interest and experience of the eligible applicant.

Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants. Under the provision of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, grants from $200 to $1,000 annually are provided by the federal government to those students in greatest financial need. All under-graduate students are eligible for consideration.

This program is not limited to those in the top academic ranks. However, past scholastic record and test scores must show that an applicant is capable of maintaining satisfactory college work. Applications are obtained and submitted to the Student Financial Aids Office, 11 Jesse.

Basic Educational Opportunity Grants. Starting in 1973 the federal government is offering grants to students who began their post-high school education after April 1, 1973, to encourage them to extend their educational training after graduation from high school. These grants are cash gifts which do not have to be repaid. They are available to all under-graduate U.S. citizens who qualify. Applications may be obtained from the office of Student Financial Aids. Submit applications to the address listed on the self-addressed envelope accompanying the application.

Missouri Educational Grants. These grants are provided by the state of Missouri for under-graduate students, who are Missouri residents, are working toward their first baccalaureate degree, and need financial help to attend college. The amount of the grant at the University cannot exceed $250, or the amount of the student's need, whichever is less. Applications can be obtained from the Student Financial Aids Office. Applications are submitted to 1130 East Elm St., Jefferson City, Mo. 65101.

Student Loan Funds. The University of Missouri-Columbia student loan funds have come as gifts from alumni, business firms, foundations, trusts, and friends of UMC. These monies have been entrusted to UMC for the purpose of aiding worthy students to obtain a higher education. The loans are handled without charge to the donor in such a manner as to be of greatest benefit to the largest number of students. Applications are obtained from and submitted to the Student Financial Aids Office, 11 Jesse.

National Direct Student Loans. Title II of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 (Public Law 85-864), as amended, provides funds for student loans on very favorable terms. The loan fund is composed of money provided, 90 per cent by the federal government and 10 per cent by the University.

The usual maximum loan is $1,000 per year for undergraduate study, $1,500 for graduate study. Repayment begins nine months after leaving school with 3 per cent interest starting then. There are some cancellation provisions for teaching in schools in some areas and/or under certain conditions of service in the Armed Forces of the U.S.

All student loan funds at UMC, including those available under the provisions of the National Direct Student Loan Program, are administered in the office of Student Financial Aids under the direction of the Student Loan Committee appointed by the Chancellor. Applications are obtained and submitted to the Student Financial Aids Office, 11 Jesse.

Loan Funds for Medicine, Nursing, and Veterinary Medicine. The Health Professions Act of 1964, as amended, provides funds for loans to students in the School of Medicine who need assistance. Loans are repayable after the medical education, including internship, is completed; ample time is allowed for repayment.

Students in the School of Nursing in need of financial help may borrow under the provisions of the Nurses Loan Program which is very similar to the NDSL loans for teachers. After graduation all or part of the loan is cancelled for each full year of service as a nurse in a public or non-profit institution or agency.

In 1967, loans under the Health Professions Act were made available for students in the College of Veterinary Medicine. No interest is charged while the student is in school and the loan is repayable in monthly installments after graduation.

All borrowers under the above program must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Applications are obtained and submitted to the Student Financial Aids Office, 11 Jesse.

Federal Insured Student Loans. Since the loan funds listed above are insufficient to meet the ever-increasing demands, UMC is participating in a Federal Insured Loan Program. Under the provisions of this program a student may arrange a loan of reasonable size with the hometown bank, or other eligible lender, and the note will be endorsed by the federal government. Thus the student need not provide collateral and the lender is assured that it will sustain no losses on student loans. The federal government pays the interest while the borrower remains in school and up to nine months thereafter. At that time the borrower begins repayment with an interest rate of 7 per cent. There is no cancellation feature associated with this loan program. Applications may be obtained from the Student Financial Aids Office or your local lender, and submitted to the Student Financial Aids Office for certification.

Programs for Scholars. UMC offers the following three programs (for Missouri residents only) in recognition of the fine scholar, and as an incentive to maintain academic work at a high level: Curators Freshman Scholars, University Scholars, and Curators Waiver-of-Fees Program. Curators Freshman Scholars and University Scholars are designated automatically. The Curators Waiver-of-Fees Program requires an application, provided one maintains a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better. Applications may be obtained from the Student Financial Aids Office.

HANDICAPPED STUDENT SERVICES

To assist handicapped students, UMC is equipped with cut-down curbs, ramps that bypass stairways, elevators, automatic doors, and modified restrooms and drinking fountains. Buildings so equipped include the Memorial Union and Brady Commons, Ellis Library, Counseling Services and Speech and Hearing Clinic (Parker Hall), Student Health Center, Read Hall, cafeterias, residence halls, and most classroom buildings. Special services include wheelchair repair, a study center for the handicapped with tape recorders and low-vision aids for the visually handicapped, modified physical education courses, and lift-equipped buses.

A special office in 125 Gentry Hall is maintained to assist handicapped students and to coordinate campus services available to them. This office is a section of Counseling Services and Center for Student Life. Students may contact the office by calling 882-3839.

WARREN E. HEARNES MULTIPURPOSE BUILDING

Located just east of Memorial Stadium, the Warren E. Hearnes Multipurpose Building is one of the largest structures of its type on a university campus. It provides auditorium seating for 13,000, conference facilities, and a modern home for Intercollegiate Athletics. The parking areas adjacent to the building accommodate more than 2,500 cars.

The building was designed and is being utilized for a wide variety of purposes. These include educational and entertainment activities offered for the benefit of UMC students, faculty, staff and the public; scheduled activities of the Department of Conferences and Short Courses; scheduled activities of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, and other authorized purposes which conform to applicable rules and regulations of UMC.

LECTURES

The University Assembly Lectures and the Missouri Students Assn. Speakers Series schedule speakers and symposiums throughout the year in cooperation with various student groups, departments, and divisions of UMC. The Office of Public Information uses local media to announce these lectures, presented free to students, faculty, and staff members.

LIBRARY INFORMATION

Area Libraries

Units are set up primarily by subject. The area librarians are the information specialists in their respective subjects.

Within the Ellis Library building there are Science; Social Science; Education-Psychology; Language and Literature; Art, Archaeology, and Music; Geography, History, and Philosophy libraries; Library Science, plus the Undergraduate Library.

Interlibrary loans are made through the subject-area librarian for graduate students writing theses and for faculty members. Student requests must be approved by the faculty adviser.

Reserve Books are present in most of the branch libraries and in the Undergraduate Library.

The Special Materials Department houses rare books, newspapers on microfilm, the Universitiana Collection, and most materials from one or another microform.

The Undergraduate Library aims to provide what the beginning college student will need: reference books and reference service, help in using the card catalog, a collection of magazines most used as sources for undergraduate term-papers, i.e., those indexed in Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature, and other books for recreational or supplementary reading. This library serves as the general reference and information center.

General Reading Facilities

There is a collection of general magazines and books in the Undergraduate Library.

New Books: Most reading rooms and branch libraries have a "new books" shelf.

Newspapers: The Journalism Library receives many American and foreign newspapers; The State Historical Society, all Missouri newspapers; Undergraduate Library, several local and state papers. Special Materials contains backfiles of many newspapers on microfilm. Consult the Serials Catalog in the lobby for holdings and locations.

Copying Facilities

Xerox copies from books are made for 10¢ a copy; 20¢ a copy for microform materials in room 104, 1st floor central. Hours: 8:15 a.m. to 4:50 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Electrostatic copies may be made by individuals on the coin-operated machines in the basement for 5¢ a copy.

Typing: Areas for typing are provided in the central stack area on each stack level and typewriters are available in Room 408.

Information and Reference Help

An Information Desk is staffed at the card catalog in the lobby most hours the Library is open. Request assistance here in use of card catalogs, location of materials, and services. Consult librarians in any of the nine reading rooms in the Library:

1st Floor: Science, Undergraduate

2nd Floor: Social Science, Education/Psychology, Language & Literature

3rd Floor: Geography-History-Philosophy

4th Floor: Art-Archaeology-Music, Special Materials, Library Science

Eight branch libraries also provide information and other services: Law, Medicine, Veterinary Medicine, Mathematics, Engineering, Geology, Journalism, and Research Park.

Borrowing Materials

In the Ellis Library building, materials may be borrowed at three checkpoints: Circulation Desk in the main lobby; Reserve Desk in the Undergraduate Library—reserve books only are checked out here; Art-Archaeology-Music Office; 4th Floor—records may be checked out here.

Inquire at the Circulation Desk concerning fines, lost books, and overdue materials.

Study Facilities

The Main Library contains seating space for over 1,600 individuals.

Seminar Rooms: These are small reading rooms located throughout the building that contain collections of materials selected for use in various graduate courses. These books should be read only in these rooms. Check at the Information Desk for locations.

Listening Rooms: Located in the AAM Library, 4th Floor East, these rooms are for listening to records or tapes only. Information on use is available in the office of AAM.

Study Carrels: Available for graduate students working on doctoral dissertations. Applications and assignments are made in Room 4F52.

Lockers: For a $3 deposit, lockers may be leased for storage of books and personal belongings. Applications and assignments are made in Room 4F52.

Microfilm Readers: For various types of miniaturized materials, special reading machines are located in several areas: Special Materials, 4th Floor West, houses the bulk of all microform items and provides readers of all kinds. Education/Psychology Library has microfiche readers for ERIC materials. Social Science Library has a reader for Government documents on microcard. Undergraduate Library has two microfilm readers for its collection of New York Times on microfilm. State Historical Society, on the ground floor, East wing, has several microfilm readers for its Missouri newspaper collection.

Miscellaneous Information

Lost and Found. The security guard on duty at the South exit, Conley Street side, handles the lost and found department in the library.

Handicapped Student Services. Handicapped students may use the South entrance and elevators at all times that the Library is open. A special telephone at this entrance may be used to call for assistance if that door is locked during open hours. The Library Center for the Handicapped is located on the 4th floor, Room 4E61.

Public Telephone. Located in the lobby, main floor of the library, and at the back entrance.

Book Return After Hours. The front outer lobby of the library which is always open has a return chute that may be used to return books to the library at any time.

Library Tours and Orientation. Formal tours of the library for new students are scheduled at the beginning of each semester by the Undergraduate Librarian, Room 108. For further information, inquire at the office of the Associate Director, Room 4F52, 882-4701.

Special Problems, Requests, Complaints, Suggestions. May be referred to the Associate Director, Room 4F52, 882-4701.

MARITAL STATUS

Students registering in the University must indicate their marital status on the registration blanks. Students who marry must notify the Director of Admissions, 130 Jesse within five days, and record any necessary name change.

MISSOURI STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

Every student is a member of the Missouri Students Association (MSA), the student government at UMC. MSA programs activities, coordinates student services, and gives you a voice in decisions relating to students.

The MSA President and Vice President manage activities on the executive level, with the help of three departments—Student Activities, General Services, and Student Information. You can become a member of any of the departmental committees by filling out an application at the MSA offices, 201 Read Hall.

The Senate, MSA's legislative branch, sets MSA policy and budgets over a quarter of a million dollars each year. Every on-campus living unit is represented in the Senate, and off-campus students may become members by collecting signatures on an official petition.

The Association provides many services—films, concerts, a craft studio, wilderness adventures, a photo darkroom, and much more.

For the kind of educational and leadership experience you'll never get in a classroom, drop by 206 Read Hall, pick up the MSA booklet filled with information about how to get involved, and talk with someone who can help you find a position that's right for you. MSA is a government of students working for students, and it cannot operate without your help.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT PROGRAMS

Music Department faculty members and students present a wide variety of music throughout the year to interest all tastes. Concerts and recitals feature music ranging from medieval and Renaissance songs to contemporary music and electronic music compositions. Additional information or monthly calendars are available from the Music Department, 140 Fine Arts Building.

PLACEMENT OF GRADUATES

Approaching graduation, you'll undoubtedly be looking for a job. Each division operates a placement office to assist students in making contacts with prospective employers. The offices in each division are listed below.

Business & Public Administration: 121 Gentry. Assists students and alumni.

Agriculture: 2-64 Agriculture.

Arts & Science: 210 Jesse and offices of the departmental chairmen. For positions in business, industry, and government, students are referred to Business Placement Office, 121 Gentry, and for positions in schools (public and private), 111 Hill. Additional placement information may be obtained from the University Counseling Center in Parker Hall.

Business & Public Administration: 121 Gentry. Assists students and alumni.

Education: 111 Hill.

Engineering: 1010 Engineering. Available to graduating engineers, and students in chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics, and computer science.

Forestry, Fisheries & Wildlife: 1-28 Agriculture.

Home Economics: 114 Gwynn.

Journalism: 102 Neff.

Law: 110 Tate.

Medicine: M228 Medical Sciences.

Public and Community Services: 7th Floor Clark Hall. Department of Recreation & Park Administration, Department of Regional and Community Affairs, School of Social Work.

Veterinary Medicine: 104 Connaway.

PUBLICATIONS

Attention artists, writers, photographers, editors, humorists! Release that creative energy and sign up to help with the Savitar, the school yearbook, or the Maneater, the school newspaper. These two official campus publications are produced under the supervision of the Committee on Student Publications and the Maneater Board. Student members on these committees are recommended by MSA and appointed by the Chancellor.

The committees meet regularly to consider policy and regulations regarding student publications produced for general distribution on campus. The committees are responsible for editorial and business supervision of each recognized student publication and for each it selects an editor and business manager. Other staff members are chosen by the editor and business manager of each publication.

All publication offices are located in the Center for Student Life. Application to establish a new recognized publication must be forwarded to, and approved by, the Committee on Student Publications. This committee will be concerned with the need for such publication and the resources for its support. Those desiring to sponsor such a publication must be prepared to provide the committee with all the information it will need in reviewing the application for approval.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The University realizes the importance of religion in the life and education of students. Student congregations of local churches or of recognized denominations or sects, although not technically recognized campus groups, may use the Memorial Union or Brady Commons under the same regulations that apply to recognized campus organizations, provided that these facilities are not used for purposes of religious worship or religious teaching.

Article 1, Section 7 of the Missouri Constitution has been strictly construed to forbid aid, service, or use of facilities or equipment belonging to the state or any agencies thereof for the benefit of any particular religion or denomination. In conjunction with this the Board of Curators has adopted the policy which prohibits the use of University buildings and grounds for religious worship services or religious teaching.

The A. P. Green Chapel, located adjacent to the Memorial Union, is open daily to individuals of all faiths for meditation and prayer. The chapel may be used for devotional services of a special and occasional nature by any group having University affiliations (with the understanding that such services by any one group may not be regularly recurring); and for memorial services, funerals, or weddings of persons having University affiliations.

UMC students may enroll and receive credit, with the approval of their deans, for courses in Religion taught at the Missouri School of Religion, Missouri Baptist Chair of the Bible, and the Newman Center, all located near the campus.

The UMC Young Men's Christian Association and Young Women's Christian Association are open to all students and faculty. Intercollegiate activities, leadership training, service projects, and religious, national, and international programs are scheduled on a regular basis.

The student centers of many Columbia churches offer programs of interest to students. Special consideration is given to make worship services interesting to the student community. An ecumenical ministry in higher education is located at 813 Maryland Ave. The advisers to Campus Religious Groups form an inter-faith organization of campus religious workers. The primary purpose of the organization is to act as the liaison body between UMC and the various campus ministries. The organization meets regularly to conduct business of mutual concern pertaining to UMC and to benefit from programs of common interest. The organization consists of a chairman, a secretary-treasurer, and the advisers listed in the UMC Faculty/Staff/Student Directory.

For a complete list of religious groups and their locations see Schedules and Directories section.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Since 1967, the University has maintained Special Services to Students, an office in 219 Jesse. This office is organized and staffed to furnish interested students with advice, assistance, and necessary certification for Selective Service, Veterans Administration (G.I. Bill), Social Security, Civil Service or Railroad Retirement. In addition, the office is prepared to furnish information and counseling in military service matters, including options available for meeting service commitments and military service educational assistance programs. This office also assists foreign students with special admissions procedures.

As the name signifies, the office is highly student-oriented and is dedicated to serving the students within the limitations of existing laws and procedures. Students are encouraged to contact this office for assistance. You will receive prompt and courteous attention. If the office can not solve your problem, it will refer you directly to a proper source of information or assistance.

SPEECH ACTIVITIES

For students who want to have a "voice" in campus events, the Department of Speech and Dramatic Art offers opportunities for students interested in forensics, including debate, oratory, discussion, and extemporaneous speaking. For further information regarding forensic tournaments, speech honoraries, etc., contact the Forensics Office, 326 Switzler. The office is open daily during the school year. Reading hours, Readers Theatre, and the Spring Hawthorn Festival are open for students with interests in oral reading. Information may be obtained in 115 Switzler.

There are several groups that welcome volunteer involvement from students who want to obtain extracurricular experience in radio, television and film production: Office of Student Information, 312 Read; University of Missouri Broadcasters, 204 Swallow; KBIA-FM, fourth floor Jesse; KCOU/FM, Pershing Lounge; and KOMU-TV, Highway 63 South.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The State Historical Society of Missouri shares Ellis Library Building and occupies most of the ground floor. The Society has separate entrances on Lowry and Conley streets, separate rules, and a separate staff and collection. Students who want to use the facilities of the State Historical Society may inquire at the Society's Reference Library in Room 6, East Wing, Ellis Library Building.

The Society has a library for reference and research which contains 400,000 publications pertaining to Missouri or written by Missourians, as well as manuscripts and maps. There is also a large library of Missouri newspapers from 1808 to the present, an extensive collection of U.S. personal census schedules on microfilm, and a microfilm copy of the Draper Manuscript Collection.

Other features are the J. Christian Bay Library of Middle Western Americana, the Mahan Memorial Mark Twain Collection, and the Eugene Field and Bishop W. F. McMurry collections. The Art Gallery of the Society includes paintings of George Caleb Bingham and Thomas Hart Benton, original drawings of cartoonists Daniel R. Fitzpatrick, Don Hesse, Bill Mauldin, and S. J. Ray, and the Contemporary Artists Collection.

STUDENT-FACULTY COMMITTEES

There are approximately 30 standing, campus-wide committees reporting in an advisory capacity, either to the Chancellor and other administrative officials, or to the University faculty. The committees are concerned with such subjects as facilities, campus planning, and housing. Most committees have student and faculty representation.

Students serve on a committee for a year, and faculty appointments to these committees are made by the Chancellor on recommendations from the Faculty Committee on Committees. The faculty makes deliberate efforts, by way of an annual questionnaire, to determine which faculty members are interested in service on the various standing committees.

The Chancellor also makes all formal appointments of students to the various committees.

In the spring a petitioning period opens in Read Hall, where interested students fill out an application containing their choice of committee post and their qualifications for that post. At the close of the petitioning period, representatives interview each applicant. The student government makes every effort to select only the most interested and qualified persons.

The MSA President submits to the Chancellor a list of MSA recommendations for University Committee student members.

Extensive review of the Campus-wide Standing Committee system is under consideration, and revisions in the number and format of the committees may be forthcoming.

STUDENT SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Definition of Social Function. A social function is any on-campus activity sponsored by or in behalf of any recognized student organization. A business meeting, coffee hour, discussion group, or similar activity held in an organization's housing facilities at which student attendance is limited to members of the organization is not considered to be a social function.

Registration of Functions. Any student group proposing to hold a social function at any on-campus location other than a University-owned and operated residence hall or dining hall shall observe all procedures for Use of Facilities. (Applications for Use of Facilities may be obtained at the Center for Student Life or the Business Office.)

All decorations used at any event must be non-flammable or treated to make them fire-resistant. Decorations also must be inspected and approved by the Columbia Fire Department prior to the event.

THEATRE PRODUCTIONS

The University Theatre, an area of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Art, stages the University Theatre productions, the Readers Theatre production, a Children's Theatre production, and a series of original one-act plays. As well, student-directed productions in Gentry Hall are held throughout the year.

Auditions are open to any UMC student. Tickets for University Theatre productions are available at the box office in the Fine Arts Building.

TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

Any student attending the University of Missouri-Columbia who possesses, operates, or maintains a motor vehicle in or about the city of Columbia (Boone County) must register the vehicle with the University Police, Traffic Division, 816 Conley Ave., within 48 hours of the arrival of said vehicle. There is no fee for this registration, but there is a $50 penalty for failure to do so. The registration certificate must be properly displayed on the vehicle within 24 hours; there is a $25 penalty for failure to do this.

A registration certificate does not entitle one to any parking privileges. UMC has a pay-parking system. Authorized parking permits are required on all University parking facilities at all times during the entire 12 months of the year.

Traffic and parking rules and regulations are enforced by the UMC Police during breaks and vacations.

Detailed regulations concerning operation and possession of a motor vehicle may be obtained at the Traffic Division, 816 Conley Ave.

UNION AND COMMONS

For a cup of coffee, a quick meal, a game of chess, billiards or bowling, or meeting with a few friends or a large group, the Union and Commons are popular with students, faculty, staff members, and their guests. The Union offers meeting rooms of various sizes, an auditorium, a large student lounge, and three food service areas—the Cafeteria, Bengal Lair, and Hawthorn Room—each with its own special menu and atmosphere.

The Commons offers, in addition to meeting rooms and food facilities, an 8-table billiard area; a 16-lane bowling facility; a television lounge; game tables for cards, checkers, and chess; and rooms for on-going activities sponsored by the Center for Student Life and MSA, including a short-wave radio station, an art gallery, a crafts center, and a photographic darkroom.

The Union and Commons are operated for the convenience of students from a "pre-7:40 a.m." breakfast to a late night coffee break. Hours are posted in each building and modified when classes are not-scheduled.

THE UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE

The University Book Store is in the Brady Commons. The first level features paperback books, trade books, supplies, magazines, records, a U. S. Post Office substation and a check cashing service.

A complete section of textbooks is available on the second floor.

The Candy Shoppe, Etc. is open beyond regular store hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday) and on the weekend to provide periodicals, newspapers, candy, and minimal-check cashing service.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT UMC

One of the things a student at UMC often lacks is a sense of the traditions and history of the institution. Many of the things we are concerned about today have been at issue for decades, and will continue to challenge us far into the future. In order to acquaint the student with the rich heritage of this University, we present the following synopsis of little-known facts about UMC.

- 1811, 1820, 1833 or 1839—the founding of the University of Missouri.
- 1840—cornerstone laid for Academic Hall, first building on the campus.
- 1843—first commencement exercises held; the two graduates, both named Robert Todd, give the valedictory and salutatory addresses in ceremonies which last three hours.
- 1853—Board of Curators decides that not enough teaching is being done and orders each faculty member to hold six lectures daily.
- 1854—all-time high in pre-Civil War enrollment: 181 students.
- 1857—a student is charged with setting off a firecracker in the Christian Church and threatened with dismissal. He rallies the support of the student body.
- 1861—students steal the clapper from the college bell four times in as many weeks and the president orders that it not be replaced, causing considerable inconvenience for students and faculty.
- 1862—Morrill Act is passed, providing for land-grant universities with colleges of agriculture.
- 1862—University buildings occupied by Federal troops—their marching, drilling, and drumming disrupt classes for several weeks.
- 1862—Civil War, partisan politics, and stupendous debts force the closing of the University.
- 1863—classes resume, though many students are engaged in guerrilla warfare in their home counties and cannot return to Columbia.
- 1863—Samuel S. Laws, later to be named President of the University, invents the stock ticker in New York.
- 1868—the University undertakes a “very bold and hazardous measure” and admits 22 women. Their first names and Columbia addresses are withheld from University records, and plans are begun to establish a “University College for Women” to “prepare women for their particular sphere in society.”
- 1868—University students stage Columbia’s first team baseball game.
- 1869—the state legislature passes its first University appropriation and the administration complains that it has insufficient funds to complete its plans for the year.
- 1869—the University’s first greek-letter social organization is started.
- 1870—the College of Agriculture is founded.

- 1870—the University publishes its first list of rules for student conduct, making it clear that the University is for “the good and virtuous young men of the state, not for the idle and disorderly, the vile or vicious.” Students were prohibited:
1. To enter a billiard or drinking saloon upon any pretext whatever, or to carry concealed weapons, or to use profane or indecent language, or to indulge in intoxicating drinks of any kind.
 2. To smoke in the buildings or on the campus.
 3. To leave town, or to change a recitation which has been assigned, without the permission of the President.
 4. To receive an honorable dismissal when under a charge, or failing to pay all University dues, or not returning all library books.
 5. All things which tend to deteriorate moral character and to prevent intellectual and moral advancement.
- 1870—students raid and plunder the University wine cellar several times—to the consternation and ire of the faculty and administration.
- 1875—the state legislature comes to the aid of the University in its fight against student drunkenness by passing a law forbidding the sale of liquor in quantities of less than one gallon within three miles of the University. The rationale for this action is that no student can drink a gallon at a time and that if he attempts to bring it on campus he will be detected and punished.
- 1877—the “Principal of the Ladies Department” rules that women students shall wear uniforms to class. The uniform, consisting of black suit, tie, skirt, and long overcoat, is praised because it separates “those who belong to the University . . . from all others, and all being dressed alike, criticism and extravagance are disarmed, and economy is consulted as well as looks.”
- 1878—Mizzou students on their annual April Fools Day lark march en masse to Stephens College. President Laws gives chase and drops his pistol in the street where it is snatched up and carried away by a sharp-eyed student.
- 1880—newspaper editorial asks freshmen to think of new pranks. It stated that the cannon had been rolled into the lake 874½ times, foot-stamping in chapel was passé; night prowling, pulling down signs, and carrying off gates were all old hat. The only thing new under the sun was the placing of a stuffed cow atop the dome of Academic Hall.
- 1880—state legislators complain that some of the University’s more advanced students are “incredibly ignorant about certain subjects that should have been learned in the elementary schools.” A system of examinations is begun in order to find the truth about the matter.
- 1881—the faculty tries to stamp out academic dishonesty by requiring that each class paper submitted be accompanied by a written and signed pledge of authorship and authenticity.
- 1883—Jefferson Monument donated to the University, as the most appropriate location for it, the first university in the Louisiana Purchase Territory. The monument now stands west of the north entrance to Jesse Hall.
- 1885—Jefferson Monument is dedicated at commencement exercises.
- 1886—President Laws buys a dead elephant from a passing circus, asks the legislature for funds to have it stuffed, and is required to eat a large portion of crow.

- 1888—Members of the agricultural faculty arrange to have the University General Catalog entitled “Missouri Agricultural College and University.” Students protest by parading before visiting legislators with placards, pitchforks, hoes, shovels, and cowbells.
- 1889—Board of Curators rules that there are to be no student meetings without the consent of the President, and meeting to criticize the government of the University will be grounds for dismissal.
- 1890—the first intercollegiate football game is held on Thanksgiving Day. On a muddy field in St. Louis, Mizzou is defeated 28-0 by Wash. U. The name Tigers was first used as a symbol of the University.
- 1892—Academic Hall, the University’s first and most important building, is destroyed by fire. Students climb to the roof of the President’s home on the Quadrangle to save it from the flames. Next morning only the columns remain.
- 1893—compulsory chapel is abolished. Girls are no longer required to wear uniforms.
- 1893—in order to stop the charges that members of the Tigers football team were professionals, the University requires that each team member take an oath that he is a “bona-fide student” and that he does not plan to leave school after football season.
- 1895—dedication of Jesse Hall held at commencement.
- 1895—faculty defeats proposal to require military training of all students.
- 1895—first Savitar yearbook is published.
- 1895—words for the Alma Mater “Old Missouri” composed by a professor in the English department to a tune of unknown origin:

Old Missouri, fair Missouri
 Dear old Varsity,
 Ours are hearts that fondly love thee,
 here’s a health to thee!
 Every student, man and maiden,
 Swell the glad refrain
 Till the breezes, music laden,
 Waft it back again.

Chorus

Proud art thou, in classic beauty, of thy noble past:
 With thy watchwords, Honor, Duty,
 Thy high fame shall last.

- 1898—University Council changes original colors of the University, crimson and old gold, to gold and black.
- 1901—first caps and gowns worn at graduation.
- 1904—Board of Curators decides that the University was founded in 1839.
- 1905—the first automobiles come to Columbia; students begin to leave the campus without the President’s permission for the first time.
- 1905—the worst epidemic of typhoid fever in the history of Boone County devastates the student population.
- 1910—students are given free hospital privileges for the first time.
- 1910—students are allowed to found their own bookstore, offering supplies and books at a considerably reduced rate. The store prospers until its incorporation in 1940 as the University Book Store.

- 1910—physical education and military training are made mandatory for all students.
- 1915—cornerstone from the original Academic Hall is laid in the Gateway (opens from the south end of Eighth Street to the older area of the campus), constructed with funds appropriated by the Congress as compensation for damages resulting from the occupation of University Buildings by Federal troops in 1862.
- 1919—resuming their intercollegiate debate activities after World War I, Mizzou students defeat the University of Kansas in a unanimous decision. The topic, supported in the negative by Mizzou, is the question of universal military training.
- 1922—speculation continues as to the reasons for the inability of the Missouri Tigers to win a football game.
- 1929—the American Association of University Professors investigates the University after two professors and a graduate student are dismissed for circulating a “sex questionnaire” which upsets the city of Columbia.
- 1931—two stone lions are donated to the School of Journalism and placed on the west steps of the building.
- 1932—violence on the campus. Engineering and Law students, who have been rivals for many years, hold a St. Patrick’s Day Massacre. Law students capture the St. Pat’s queen, hold her captive until the ball. After the ball is over, law and engineering students brawl in the streets.
- 1936—Board of Curators orders that the manufacture of hog cholera serum by the Veterinary Department be stopped.
- 1939—University celebrates its 100th anniversary, thanks to 1904 ruling of Board of Curators.
- 1946—a two-week delay in the beginning of the fall semester is caused by the influx of veterans on the G.I. Bill. Housing and dining facilities for the vets are provided by the erection of 224 war surplus barracks and quonset huts and 165 government-owned trailers on the campus.
- 1950—the University ends the policy of “separate but equal” education and admits three black graduate students—this after a campaign for the admission of blacks that had lasted 20 years.
- 1951—first M-Book published (then called the “Deskbook of Information.”)
- 1952—north wing of the Memorial Union Building, dedicated to University men who died in World War II, completed and attached to the Tower, which was dedicated in 1926 to the 111 University men who died in World War I.
- 1952—freshmen women were allowed to stay out later on Friday and Saturday nights, although they had to be in their dorms by 7:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.
- 1963—the University of Missouri becomes a four-campus university with the addition of the Kansas City, St. Louis and Rolla campuses to the system.
- 1965—the rule requiring all students under 21 years of age to live in a University residence hall was abolished and replaced with the restriction that only freshmen under 21 years of age were required to live in dorms.
- 1973—restrictions on women’s hours abolished to fall in line with laws dictating nondiscrimination based on sex.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

ADDRESSES

Students must provide the Registrar with current Columbia and permanent addresses by the opening of class each semester and subsequently notify the Registrar of any change of address within 48 hours after the change. Failure to do so will subject the student to disciplinary action under Section 6.0111 of the Collected Rules and Regulations of the University.

In cases where official written notification of the student is required (e.g., disciplinary hearings), the University's obligation of notification will have been satisfied when such notification is made to the current address listed with the Registrar's office.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

1. The University of Missouri-Columbia lends its full support to all state and federal laws and local ordinances regulating the sale and possession of alcoholic beverages.

2. The possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages by students or their guests on UMC property or on the premises of university-supervised housing is prohibited.

3. University organizations, a substantial number of whose members consist of students under the age of 21, shall not permit the drinking or serving of alcoholic beverages at any social function or meeting of the organization and shall not permit the attendance at such social function or meeting of any person under the influence of alcohol.

4. It is the responsibility of each organization to see that those in attendance at their social functions and meetings conduct themselves in accordance with UMC regulations.

5. An organized house, such as a fraternity, sorority, or cooperative, shall be held responsible, as an organization, for violations of UMC regulations committed on the premises under its control.

FUND-RAISING PROJECTS

Guidelines for recognized student organizations are hereby established for functions and activities on the UMC campus where the activity involves fund-raising.

These guidelines do not apply to the Hearnes Multipurpose Building.

A. University Regulations Having Implications for Fund-Raising Activities by Student Organizations

1. University buildings or grounds may not be used by student organizations or enterprises which declare a dividend among their members or from which members derive financial profit except by permission of the Board of Curators.

2. The sale of anything, the soliciting of subscriptions, or the collection of dues is prohibited in the University buildings and upon university grounds without prior authorization of the Business Officer or Chancellor.

3. Recognized student organizations may not solicit subscriptions or collect dues from prospective students or guests of the University when such guests are in University buildings or on University grounds.

4. The University shall not be used for commercial or promotional advertising purposes; nor will the name of the University be identified in any way with the aims, policies, programs, products, or opinions of any organizations or its members; but an exception may be made by the Board of Curators upon the recommendation of the President of the University.

5. Written permits for the temporary use of University grounds, buildings or rooms therein for any purpose other than regularly scheduled classroom work must be secured in advance from the Business Officer, in accordance with rules for such use made by the Chancellor.

6. All classes, meetings or assemblages of any sort held in University buildings or on University grounds are subject to all U.S. and Missouri laws and University ordinances, rules and regulations. In addition, it is expected that proper care will be taken of the facility and that the simple rules of courtesy, decency and good manners will be observed at all times. Any failure to abide by these requirements may cause the permission for the use of the facility to be withdrawn at any time, or for future permission for use of any University facilities to be denied.

B. Procedures to be Followed by Student Organizations Seeking Approval to Engage in Fund-Raising Activities

1. Submittal of Request. A recognized student organization desiring to engage in a fund-raising activity on the University campus must submit to the Coordinator of Student Organizations, in the Center for Student Life, no later than three weeks prior to the proposed date of the activity a "Request for Permission for Fund Raising Project" form including:

- (a) a description of the activity
- (b) the proposed date and location
- (c) a detailed budget of all anticipated costs and projected income
- (d) a written proposal of how the net income is to be spent.

2. Reservation of Facilities. After tentative approval of the activity from the Coordinator of Student Organizations, a reservation for use of the desired facility should be submitted to the University Business Office. The appropriate reservation form should be signed by the Director of the Center for Student Life and the Coordinator of the facility which is to be used for the fund-raising activity. In cases involving the use of the Memorial Union or Brady Commons, reservations should be made through the reservations clerk at the Union.

3. SOGA Recommendation. The student organization will be notified of the next SOGA or SOGA subcommittee meeting and should plan, if possible, to have a representative on hand to answer any question which might arise concerning the proposed activity.

4. Final Approval or Rejection. Following a recommendation from SOGA, the request will be forwarded to the Business Office and the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or his designee for final approval or rejection.

5. Cancellation of Reservation of Facilities. Should the request be rejected or the activity be cancelled, the student organization should contact the University Business Office to cancel the reservation for use of the facility. In cases where space is being held in the Memorial Union or Brady Commons, the Union reservations clerk should be notified of the cancellation.

6. Tickets. If the request is approved and tickets are involved in the activity the ticket manager or treasurer of the student organization must contact the Auditor of Student Organizations before ordering the tickets.

7. Financial Report. Following the conclusion of the fund-raising activity the treasurer of the organization must complete the "Financial Report" form furnished by the Coordinator of Student Organizations and submit this form to the Auditor of Student Organizations for audit.

C. Costs and Other Requirements of the Sponsoring Student Organization

1. Student organizations conducting fund-raising activities in the Hearnes Building and the Livestock Center shall pay a use fee for the use of such facility. The use fee for the Livestock Center is to be negotiated.

2. The sponsoring organization will be responsible for any cost incurred on the part of the University, including clean-up, special construction and set-up costs, and extra security as deemed necessary by the University Business Office.

3. If food products are involved in the fund-raising activity, the sponsoring organization must receive special investigation and approval by the University's Health Sanitarian.

4. The recognized student organization must show cash available in an amount adequate to cover contract, set-up and other costs prior to approval of the activity.

5. The sponsoring organization must plan its fund-raising activity, including any proposed contractual agreements, with the Center for Student Life. Contractual commitments are to be made by the organization and not by the University of Missouri.

6. The activity may not be held in places or at times where in the opinion of the Chancellor such activity would constitute a clear and substantive interference with the conduct of classes, study, business, pedestrian or vehicular traffic, or other University functions.

D. Types of Allowable Fund-Raising Activities

1. Either the intent or the method of the fund-raising activity must be shown to be in keeping with the appropriate goals and objectives of the sponsoring organization.

2. A fund-raising activity which involves outright solicitation of funds with the donor receiving no tangible return, such as a commodity, program, service, etc., shall be restricted to locations inside the Memorial Union, and/or the Mall area outside of Brady Commons, and not more than two locations may be used at any given time.

3. Activities involving the outright solicitation of funds must take place at a manned table or booth rather than through roving solicitors collecting monies throughout the area via containers, etc.

4. A fund-raising activity involving the on-campus sale or solicitation of a commodity, product, form of entertainment, food, or service of any type must receive final approval of the University Business Office and the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or his designee. In addition, the location of the activity must be approved by that office.

5. No fund-raising activity shall be permitted to take place for a duration of longer than five (5) days, except by special permission.

6. A recognized student organization shall be permitted to engage in no more than two fund-raising activities during the academic year, except by special permission of SOGA.

7. No proceeds from any type of fund raising-activity held on the University campus shall go to support any political candidate or political party, nor shall any such proceeds go for the support, either directly or indirectly, of a religious faith, denomination, or sect.

8. Any on-campus fund-raising activity which is judged to compete with any University auxiliary enterprise shall be prohibited unless approved by the Business Officer. Fund raising activities which are judged to compete with Missouri Students Association-Student Activities shall be prohibited unless approved by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or his designee.

HOUSING

1. Although the University recommends that unmarried freshman men and women reside in University-supervised housing, all students may reside in any available housing they may select: (a) University-supervised housing or (b) off-campus housing.

2. University supervision of student housing is limited to:

a. residence halls operated by the University of Missouri-Columbia (UMC);

b. houses operated by groups (cooperatives, fraternities and sororities) recognized as student organizations by the Committee on Student Organizations, Government and Activities; and

c. the privately-owned residence hall (Mark Twain Residence Hall) whose owners have agreed to provide supervisory personnel satisfactory to UMC and to enforce in their facilities the same rules and regulations regarding conduct that are observed in facilities operated by UMC.

3. Closing Hours in University-Supervised Housing

a. All living units are considered to be closed to the public (persons other than residents and authorized guests) after the following hours:
Sunday through Thursday 11:30 p.m.
Friday & Saturday 1 a.m.

b. Living units will be locked at the hour they are closed to the public and may be opened after 6 a.m. each morning.

c. The owner of each living unit is responsible for maintaining a security program which enables residents to enter the unit after it is locked.

4. Guests and Visiting Hours

a. Except for events approved and supervised as "Open Houses," members of the opposite sex—other than a parent or guardian of the student concerned—may not be guests in a student's room in University-supervised housing.

b. Women Guests in Men's Houses

(1) Women may be guests in fraternity houses and men's residence hall lounges (except house lounges in Mark Twain Residence Hall and Hatch, Hudson, Cramer, Graham, and Stafford halls) from 8 a.m. daily until the regular closing hour for University supervised residences.

(2) In the public lounges, including vestibules of Bingham, Blair, Pershing, Rollins, and Loeb Halls, women may be guests daily until the regular closing hour for University-supervised residences unless otherwise posted.

(3) Women may be guests in the men's house lounges of Mark Twain Residence Hall, and Hatch, Hudson Cramer, Graham, and Stafford halls only during functions that have been scheduled at the request of the majority of the residents of the house concerned and have been approved by the resident director or head resident. The resident director or head resident shall determine the rules and supervision for such functions.

c. Men Guests in Women's Houses

(1) Men may be guests in the public lounges of University-supervised housing from 8:00 a.m. daily to regular closing hours.

(2) Men may be guests in women's house lounges in Mark Twain Residence Hall and UMC women's residence halls only during functions that have been scheduled at the request of a majority of the residents of the hall or house concerned and have been approved by the head resident or resident director. The head resident or resident director shall determine the rules and supervision for such functions.

d. A living unit that has obtained approval of a special lounge program that permits coeducational use of the unit's lounge during other than regularly scheduled hours may have guests of the opposite sex in the lounge in accordance with the provisions of the lounge program and applicable guidelines recommended by the Housing Committee and approved by the Chancellor. A current copy of these guidelines will be maintained, available to students, by the head of the living unit and the head officer of that living unit as well as the appropriate administrative offices for housing and student affairs. These guidelines shall contain sufficient protections to insure compliance with all University rules and regulations and the University of Missouri Housing Policy adopted by the Board of Curators. Any irregular conduct or infraction of guidelines or regulations may result in a modification or suspension of the lounge program.

e. Guests of the same sex may stay overnight in University-supervised living units only if arrangements have been made in advance with the head resident or resident director. The visitor should be the guest of a specific resident in that living unit and should register according to whatever procedures the unit has established.

f. Open Houses—An organization may hold on its own premises an Open House at which members of the opposite sex may be guests in students' rooms by complying with appropriate guidelines recommended by the Housing Committee and approved by the Chancellor. The guidelines shall contain sufficient protections to insure compliance with all University rules and regulations, and the University of Missouri Housing Policy adopted by the Board of Curators.

g. Individual house units may elect to reduce the number of visiting hours stated above or in guidelines. Any irregular conduct or infraction of guidelines or regulations may result in a modification or suspension of visiting hours.

h. Special Situations—Parents, guardians, and close relatives of students of the same or opposite sex may be admitted to the student's unit subject to individual house rules and the discretion of the head of the living unit.

5. Students shall not bring (or arrange to have delivered) any alcoholic beverages on the premises of University-supervised student residences; and the storage or consumption of alcoholic beverages by students or guests in such student living accommodations, or on the premises, is forbidden.

6. Firearms, bows and arrows, other weapons, fireworks, ammunition, or explosives of any description shall not be brought into University-supervised student living accommodations at any time.

7. University-supervised housing accommodations shall be open for inspection by Columbia Campus officials at any reasonable time. If there is reason to believe that a student has violated UMC regulations, UMC officials reserve the right to authorize an inspection of the student's possessions in accordance with published guidelines pertaining to the entry of student rooms. Except in cases in which circumstances make it impossible or impracticable for the student to be present, any inspection of a student's possessions shall be made in the presence of the student.

Recognition or continued recognition by the University of Missouri-Columbia of any organized student group which controls its own premises shall carry with it as a condition of such recognition the right of proper University of Missouri-Columbia officials to enter onto the premises of the organization for the purpose of inspection which may be incident to or required for safeguarding the health and welfare of the students using and occupying the premises and for the enforcement of regulations of the University of Missouri-Columbia. Recognition on the Columbia Campus shall be withdrawn from any such organization upon its refusal to permit such inspection . . . (statement of the Board of Curators, adopted September 20, 1957).

8. Every fraternity, sorority, cooperative, or other group recognized as a student organization by the Committee on Student Organizations, Government and Activities (SOGA) and operating a house, shall employ a resident director. Before employing a resident director the organization must receive approval from the Center for Student Life, of the individual and of the terms of employment. Every student group operating a house must notify its resident director(s), in writing by April 1 of that year, of its intention with regard to offering a contract for the following school year. If the resident director(s) are invited to return, the contract should be completed as of this date. A copy of the contract is to be filed with the Center for Student Life by April 1.

Resident directors in organized houses are required to be present during those hours when the house is open for guests of the opposite sex unless a suitable substitute has been provided with the approval of the Center for Student Life. Suggestions as to substitutes for resident directors may be requested from the Center for Student Life.

9. Report Prior to Vacations and Holidays. Prior to any vacation or holiday, an organized living unit must submit to the Center for Student Life a written report of its plans for operation of the house during the vacation or holiday period, giving such information as the Center for Student Life may require.

Only the Center for Student Life may approve the opening of a group house during the summer months or during vacation periods and, if open, the person or persons to provide supervision. While a group house is closed, it shall not be accessible for use by any person except with permission, in each case, from the Center for Student Life.

10. Unless the Director of Housing grants permission for the housing of non-students, rooms in University-supervised housing shall be rented during an academic year or summer session to students only. Upon request, the Director of Housing may grant approval for the housing of non-students, provided the owner can give satisfactory assurance that the non-students will be so located that they will not disturb student residents.

11. Any contractual arrangements concerning residence in any facilities, including Mark Twain Residence Hall, that are not owned by the University are entered into between students and the owners of the facilities, and the University shall neither take part in the contractual arrangements nor attempt to arbitrate any financial disputes that may arise therefrom.

12. If a private owner or recognized student organization requests that its housing facilities be classified as "University-supervised," the decision regarding the request shall be made by the Housing Committee.

13. If, at any time, the Housing Committee determines that a University-supervised housing facility has not been maintained or operated in a manner satisfactory to the Committee, the Committee may withdraw the classification of "University-supervised" and, if deemed necessary to protect the health or safety of residents, the Committee may direct that facilities operated by recognized student organizations be closed and/or residents vacate the premises.

Priorities for Married Student Housing

In general, date of receipt of application and $25 deposit will determine, within the priorities shown below, the order in which applicants will be assigned apartments.

1. Veterans of the Armed Forces who have at least one child, are residents of the State of Missouri, and have been discharged from active duty within one year prior to the beginning date of the semester or summer session for which housing is requested will be given first priority for assignment if they apply prior to April 15 (November 15 for second semester, April 15 for summer session). As used herein, the term "veteran" refers to a person who has completed more than 180 days active duty (unless discharged earlier because of a service-connected disability) and whose discharge from active duty has been other than dishonorable. A reservist's duty for training purposes is not considered to be active duty. Until the applicant files with the Director of Housing a copy of his Department of Defense form DD 214, any priority of assignment given because of military service listed on the application for housing will be tentative. Veterans who do not meet all the above qualifications required to receive first priority of assignment will be given priority over nonveterans within the other categories of priority that are listed below.

Students who are severely handicapped physically also will be given first priority of assignment to the extent that the Housing Office is able to offer accommodations that will meet the student's needs.

2. Married students (with or without children) who have not resided in Columbia during either the preceding semester or summer session (preceding semester if application is for the second semester or summer session) and who have been, or will be, officially appointed to part-time classroom, laboratory, or research duties will be given second priority for assignment, if they apply prior to April 15 (November 15 for second semester, April 15 for summer session). Full-time staff members are not eligible for assignment to married student housing.

3. Graduate students who have a child or children and who have, or will have, part-time appointments listed under 2 above—but who have lived in Columbia during the preceding semester or summer session—will have third priority for assignment if they apply prior to April 15 (November 15 for second semester, April 15 for summer session).

4. Married students who have, or will have part-time appointments listed under 2 above—but who do not have a child or children and have lived in Columbia during the preceding semester or summer session—will have fourth priority for assignment if they apply prior to April 15 (November 15 for second semester, April 15 for summer session).

5. Other students who are residents of the State of Missouri and who have a child or children will have fifth priority for assignment, if their applications are received by May 31 (December 1 for second semester, May 15 for summer session).

6. Other students who are not residents of the State of Missouri and who have a child or children will share sixth priority of assignment with Missouri residents who do not have children.

7. If a student who would be entitled to priority of assignment fails to file an application in time to obtain such priority, his/her application will be filed (by date of receipt of application and deposit) in the group having the next lower priority, or, if that group has already been assigned, in the group then being assigned. If a student is first notified of his award of a part-time appointment after the applicable aforementioned priority date has passed, his application will receive the highest priority that it is then possible to grant, dependent upon existent conditions.

8. All married student housing applications received after May 31 (December 1 for second semester, May 15 for summer session) will be considered for available assignment strictly according to date of receipt of application and $25 deposit, without regard for the above priorities.

In general, families with two or three children will be assigned to two-bedroom apartments and families with one or no child will be assigned to one-bedroom units.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

In addition to the following rules and regulations, deviations from standard playing rules are announced in detail at the start of each tournament. Additional adaptations may be made by the committees which administer the program.

Competition Units. Organizations entering team sports are divided into five units:

The Women's League consists of teams from sororities, women's residence halls, and off-campus participants.

The Fraternity League is composed of teams from houses recognized as social fraternities by the Intrafraternity Council.

The Residence Hall League consists of teams from men's residence halls.

The Campus League is open to all other men students, including fraternity and residence hall members who do not wish to represent their living groups.

The Co-ed Teams (there are no leagues in co-ed recreation) consist of men and women from any living unit.

How to Enter Intramural Sports. Within the time limits specified in the list of tentative dates for entries (see schedules in back of this book), managers must enter teams, or individuals must enter their names at the Intramural Office, 106 Rothwell Gymnasium, for men's intramurals, 104 Rothwell Gymnasium for women's intramurals, and the Memorial Union Ticket Window for the co-education intramurals. Pairings and schedules will be available several days after the date that entries close. At that time, team managers submit rosters, typed or printed in ink, of the players on their teams. After pairings and schedules are posted, the responsibility of reporting for contests lies with the manager or individual.

Schedule Information. In every activity, as many contests are scheduled as time and facilities allow; all matches are scheduled by specific hour and date; all scheduled contests are played on designated UMC courts and fields under the jurisdiction of the intramural sports officials; in all individual matches, participants may be required to play two matches the same day in the early rounds of competition; in scheduling, the objective—recreation—is kept in mind and emphasis is placed on evening hours and weekends; and team managers' meetings are called periodically, usually before major tournaments begin, to distribute detailed information and discuss playing rules and eligibility regulations.

Eligibility. All students, graduate and undergraduate, enrolled in UMC are eligible to participate. The following exceptions are listed:

1. Athletic letter winners from any university or four-year college are ineligible for the sport in which they lettered, or an associate sport, e.g., touch football-football, softball-baseball.

2. Students who have participated in a sport professionally will be ineligible for that sport or its associate sport.

3. Any student who has a physically handicapped condition must present written permission from the Director of Student Health before participating in Intramural Sports. Arrangements for this permission must be made by the student.

4. Using an assumed name renders a person ineligible.

5. Participating on two teams in the same sport renders a student ineligible.

6. Fraternities can be represented only by pledges and actives. Students intending to represent a fraternity must have an affiliation card on file in the Center for Student Life or Intramural office before the final entry date for a particular sport.

7. Residence hall teams can be represented only by students officially listed as members of that house in the UMC Housing Office before the final entry date for a particular sport.

8. Campus League teams may add new players until the second contest in a particular team sport.

Practice. When time and facilities permit, practice sessions are allocated in all sports. To obtain practice periods, teams and individuals must apply at the respective Intramural Office. These sessions are supervised and game equipment is furnished.

Postponements. No contest is postponed without unanimous agreement of both managers and the Supervisor of Intramural Sports. When a contest is postponed by the Intramural Supervisor because of weather or some other unforeseen conflict, new dates for the contest are posted on the bulletin board outside the respective Intramural Office.

Substitution and Interchange. In individual sports elimination tournaments, a substitution or interchange of pairings of one team (fraternity-residence only) is allowed in the first round. The substitution or interchange then becomes permanent for the remainder of that tournament. Individuals must report the substitution or interchanges to the clerk of the tournament.

Penalties. A team must forfeit any contest in which it uses an ineligible player; any player violating eligibility rules will be barred from the sport involved for the remainder of the season; teams or contestants failing to appear within ten minutes after scheduled time for contest shall forfeit that contest; any team which forfeits two scheduled contests will be eliminated from further competition in that sport; participants removed from a game for unsportsmanlike conduct are ineligible for the two succeeding contests; and other penalties may be assessed by the Intramural Sports Board after hearings concerning alleged violations (protests), or suspected violations (observed or called to its attention). Participants shoving, jostling, striking and/or hitting officials are suspended immediately, and become liable to suspension from intramural sports.

Game Officials. In order to obtain the best administration, all students who wish to gain experience in officiating are given a course of instruction and assigned periods for practice. All students are welcome to officiate and should register at the respective Intramural Office well in advance of the sport season in which they wish to work.

Protests. Protests dealing with violations of eligibility and playing regulations must be submitted by the team manager, in writing, to the Intramural Supervisor within 24 hours after the contest in question. Matters involving an official's judgment will not be accepted as grounds for protest.

Residence Hall and Fraternity Point Systems. In team competition each house will be awarded 20 points for a win, 10 points for each loss, and minus 10 points for each forfeit.

For individual sports competition, houses will be credited with 5 points for each victory, 2.5 points for a loss, and penalty of 2.5 points for each forfeit. In doubles tournaments, the points schedules are: 10 points for a win; 5 points for a loss; and minus 5 points for a forfeit. Byes in all tournaments will be credited as a victory. In track and field, and swimming and diving meets a team will be credited with 2 points for each member participating (up to a total of 12 men), plus the points scored in the events. The first five places in an event shall count 10, 8, 6, 4, 2.

Awards

Campus Competitors. Medals are presented to each member of the Campus League champions in touch football, basketball, volleyball, softball, and soccer; and to winners in each of the individual sports tournaments.

Residence Hall and Fraternity House Competitors. A plaque is awarded to the house in the Residence Hall League and one to the fraternity winning the championship in touch football, bowling, basketball, volleyball, softball, and soccer. The house accumulating the most points in its respective league receives an all-year championship plaque. Men in the Residence Hall and Fraternity leagues are eligible for a championship medal given to the winner of an individual sports tournament.

Women's Leagues and Co-ed Teams. Medals or T-shirts are presented to each member of the winning team and to winners in each of the individual sports tournaments.

A plaque is awarded to the house or living unit winning the championship in each sports tournament.

LIBRARY

Borrowing Privileges. Students must have a validated ID issued by the University before books can be borrowed.

Length of Loans

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS:

Books—due in 1 month, unless recalled.
Journals—due at 8:45 the next day, or 2:45 p.m. on Sunday. No renewal.

GRADUATE STUDENTS:

Books—due in 4 months, unless recalled.
Undergraduate Library books are due in 1 month, unless recalled.

Journals—due at 8:45 a.m. the next day, or 2:45 p.m. on Sunday. No renewal.

RESERVE BOOKS

Two-hour—due at the end of two hours or at 8:45 a.m. on an overnight loan (2:45 p.m. on Sunday). Overnight loan begins two hours before closing time of the reserve desk.

Three day—due at 8:45 a.m. in three days (2:45 p.m. on Sunday).

One Day—due at 8:45 a.m. the next day (2:45 p.m. on Sunday).

Call-in Procedures. A call-in request may be made for any book on loan to another borrower or placed as a hold on any book out to the bindery. Books may be recalled two weeks from the date of loan. Journals may be recalled one day from the date of loan. Books needed for reserve or for seminar are immediately called in and are immediately due.

If you wish to call in a book, fill out a call-in request at the Circulation Desk with complete book information and your name, address, and ID number. You will be notified when it is received.

Call-ins must be returned in 4 days after a notice is sent. If books are not returned within that time, final notices are sent informing borrowers that they will be billed for replacement cost of each book, accrued fines, and a billing charge of $5 per book if the book has not been returned by the end of one week from the day the second notice was sent. Fines and billing charges are not refunded if the book is returned after billing.

Provision has been made for emergency borrowing of a book checked out to another borrower. Please contact the head of circulation or her assistant in the main library, or contact the head of a branch library if you should require this service.

Look-up Procedures. A look-up may be requested at the Circulation Desk for any book not in place in the stacks and not on loan according to the circulation records. Check the correct stack location for the book and the return shelves in the area. Have a circulation desk attendant check the printout of loans to see if the book is on loan or is located in another area. If the book is not accounted for, fill out a look-up request with complete book information and your name, address, and ID number. You are notified if the book is found and it is held for you at the Circulation Desk until the date specified on the notice sent. If it is not found, it is declared missing from the library and you are notified.

Fines. Fines are assessed solely to encourage the prompt return of books. Undergraduate and graduate students are fined for overdue materials. Fines are charged according to the following schedule:

Home use loans	$.25 per day
Journals	1.00 per day
Reserve books (2 hour)	1.00 1st hr., $.25 each additional hr.
Reserve books (1 day)	1.00 1st hr., $.25 each additional hr.
Reserve books (3 day)	1.00 per day
Recalled books	1.00 per day

Overdue notices are sent as a courtesy, but may not be received before a fine begins to accumulate. Failure to receive a notice will not eliminate a fine.

Fines should be paid immediately at the Cashier's Office, 123 Jesse Hall. Unpaid fines are submitted to Registration by the Cashier's Office. Enrollment cannot be completed or transcripts released until the charges are cleared.

Lost Books. Books not returned after notices have been sent are considered lost and are billed for replacement price, accrued fines and a billing charge of $5 per book. All library charges are paid at 123 Jesse Hall.

NON-UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS

SALE AND DISTRIBUTION ON CAMPUS

Definitions:

Non-University publications—any publication not officially published by the University or by a University-recognized student organization.

Distribution—the dispensing or making available through means other than U. S. Mail, whether by sale or otherwise, by persons or agencies other than official University divisions, departments, and offices.

Distribution Rules

Distribution of non-University publications shall be unrestricted on the Columbia campus provided:

1. the publication is intended primarily for dissemination of news, opinion and information, and not for promoting sales of goods, products, or services; and,

2. the publication is not distributed at places or times where in the opinion of the Chancellor such distribution would constitute a clear and substantive interference with the conduct of University classes, study, business or other functions or activities, nor with pedestrian or vehicular traffic (in general, this provision will be interpreted as prohibiting distribution of publications within buildings); and,

3. unless the publication to be distributed is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the distributor mails two copies of each issue of the publication he intends to distribute on campus via the U. S. Post Office to the University General Counsel's Office, University Hall, Columbia, Missouri, prior to the commencement of such distribution; and,

4. the publication carries the name and address of the publisher, and the names of the several editors and the officers of the publication; and,

5. the publication does not in any manner state, infer or imply that it is connected with or under the auspices of the University; and,

6. distribution of the publication does not constitute a violation of applicable state or federal laws; and,

7. written permission to distribute the publication is obtained from the Business Officer prior to initial commencement of distribution.

The sale and/or distribution of non-University publications by the Memorial Union, Brady Commons, and University Bookstore shall be in accordance with criteria established by the Bookstore Committee and in keeping with good business practices.

PROCEDURES FOR RESERVATIONS, USE OF FACILITIES

In addition to other rules and procedures regarding use of physical facilities, the following rules apply to the use of UMC facilities by student groups:

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Written permits for the temporary use of University grounds, buildings, or rooms therein for any purpose other than regularly scheduled classroom work must be secured in advance from the Business Officer, in accordance with rules for such use made by the Chancellor.

2. University buildings or grounds may not be used by individuals or organizations not connected with the University except by written permission of the Chancellor.

3. No University buildings or grounds, except those specifically designated by the Board of Curators, may be used by an organization or enterprise which declares a dividend among its members or for which members derive financial profit.

4. No University buildings or grounds (except chapels as herein provided) may be used for purposes of religious worship or religious teaching by either student or non-student groups. Student congregations of local churches or of recognized denominations or sects, although not technically recognized campus groups, may use the facilities of the Memorial Union or the Brady Commons under the same regulations that apply to recognized campus organizations, provided that no University facilities may be used for purposes of religious worship or religious teaching. The general prohibition against use of University buildings and grounds for religious worship or religious teaching is a policy required, in the opinion of the Board of Curators, by the constitution and laws of the State and is not open to any other construction. No regulations shall be interpreted to forbid the offering of prayer or other appropriate recognition of religion at public functions held in University facilities. This provision does apply to such buildings as may be designated under provision of part A-3.

USE BY STUDENT GROUPS

1. In addition to the general rules and procedures, the following rules apply to use of University facilities by student groups.

2. University buildings and grounds may be utilized for programs involving off-campus speakers, who are invited by an officially recognized student organization, to address its own membership and other interested staff, provided that such programs meet the criteria established by the Board of Curators for such events and further that the organization file a written request for approval of the program at least 10 days prior to the event. The Chancellor or his designated representative is authorized to make an exception to the 10-day rule in special circumstances.

3. A recognized student organization may hold a meeting which is open to the public by obtaining written permission of the Chancellor under such conditions as he may prescribe, including having the written permission at least 10 days in advance of the meeting unless a waiver is secured in writing from the Chancellor or his designated representative.

4. University buildings or grounds may not be used by student organizations or enterprises which declare a dividend among its members or from which members derive financial profit except by permission of the Board of Curators; but student organizations or enterprises may use facilities designated under part A-3 under the same conditions as non-student groups.

5. It is recognized that from time to time ad hoc groups or students may wish to use University facilities for purposes of meetings or social events. Such groups may do so only by written permission of the Chancellor or his designated representative and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

RESERVATION PROCEDURES

Now, let's get down to specifics in planning for the use of Jesse Auditorium and other facilities.

Resources and assistance in program planning are easily obtained at the Center for Student Life. Here are some basic steps to help you complete the process of reserving facilities.

To Reserve Jesse Auditorium

1. Get blue card (application for use of Jesse Auditorium) from the Center for Student Life (Read Hall) or from the Business Office.

2. After the card is filled out, it must be signed in the Center for Student Life (for all student organizations).

3. Take the card to the Business Office, 311 Jesse Hall, where it will be signed and approved. The administration reserves the right to cancel the reservation if necessary.

4. Applications must be submitted to the Business Office not later than 48 hours preceding the date requested.

To Reserve a Room or Building or Auditorium other than Jesse or Memorial Union (including McAlester Park)

1. Get gold card (application for use of room or building) from the Center for Student Life (Read Hall) or the Business Office at least 72 hours before date requested.

2. After completion of card, have it signed in the Center for Student Life (for all student organizations).

3. Each building on the campus is assigned a coordinator who is responsible for approving usage of the facility assigned to him/her. Find the appropriate building coordinator by inquiring in the Center for Student Life or the UMC

Business Office, and then get his/her signature on the reservation card.

4. Take the card to the Business Office, 311 Jesse Hall, for a signature and final approval. The administration may cancel the reservation if necessary for another use.

Union and Commons

Except for reservation procedure, University regulations pertaining to the use of buildings apply to the Union and Commons.

Facilities which may be reserved will be assigned only to:

1. those student organizations recognized by the Committee on Student Organizations, Government and Activities,
2. departments of the University, and
3. official University functions necessary in the conduct of its business.

Student organizations with regularly scheduled meetings may request space on a semester basis at the beginning of each semester. Space for other meetings or functions should be requested at any time during office hours but at least 48 hours in advance. There is no charge for use of facilities. No admission charge or solicitation of donations may be made by an organization assigned a room in the Union or Commons for its program, except for services requested from and provided by the Union's catering department which is solely responsible for all food and beverages catered in the building.

Reservations may be made through the reservations secretary, Room S105, Union, from 8 a.m. until noon and from 1 to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

STUDENT CONDUCT REGULATIONS

Students at the University have certain rights and responsibilities. Included in the responsibilities is an awareness of the standards of appropriate student behavior. The University expects each student to exercise self-discipline which will enhance the individual's educational experience and the total learning environment of the University.

Violations of student conduct are handled through the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Office, together with the Committee on Student Conduct. Each case is handled on an individual basis, with the intent being to help students develop as self-disciplined rational beings, while preserving the educational purposes of the University. An attempt is made to balance carefully the welfare of the student and the welfare of the University in a fair, just, and consistent manner.

ORGANIZATIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

It is the responsibility of each organization to see that those in attendance at their social functions and meetings conduct themselves in accordance with UMC regulations.

An organization, including organized houses such as fraternities, sororities and cooperatives, shall be held responsible, as an organization, for violations of UMC regulations committed on the premises under its control or at functions sponsored by the organization.

SECTION 6.01
COLLECTED RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY,
ENACTED NOVEMBER 7, 1969

(Section 6.01 replaces the previous general standard of student conduct which was set forth in Article V, Sections A and B, of the By-Laws of the Board of Curators.)

6.01 Standard of Conduct. A student enrolling in the University assumes an obligation to conduct himself in a manner compatible with the University's function as an educational institution. Misconduct for which students are subject to discipline falls into the following categories:

- .0101 Dishonesty, such as cheating, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information to the University.
- .0102 Forgery, alteration, or misuse of University documents, records, or identification.
- .0103 Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary procedures, or other University activities, including its public service functions, or of other authorized activities on University premises.

- .0104 Physical abuse of any person on University-owned or -controlled property or at University-sponsored or-supervised functions, or conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any such person.
- .0105 Theft of or damage to property of the University or of a member of the University community or campus visitor.
- .0106 Unauthorized entry or use of University facilities.
- .0107 Violation of University policies or of campus regulations, including campus regulations concerning the registration of student organizations, the use of University facilities, or the time, place, and manner of public expression.
- .0108 Use, possession, or distribution of narcotic or dangerous drugs, such as marijuana and lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD), except as expressly permitted by law.
- .0109 Violation of rules governing residence in University-owned or -controlled property.
- .0110 Disorderly conduct or lewd, indecent, or obscene conduct or expression on University-owned or -controlled property or at University-sponsored or -supervised functions.
- .0111 Failure to comply with directions of University officials acting in the performance of their duties.
- .0112 Conduct which adversely affects student's suitability as a member of the academic community.

RULES OF PROCEDURE IN STUDENT DISCIPLINARY MATTERS, ADOPTED
NOVEMBER 8, 1968

Preamble

The following Rules of Procedure in Student Disciplinary Matters are hereby adopted in order to insure insofar as possible and practicable that the requirements of procedural due process in student disciplinary proceedings will be fulfilled by the University, that the immediate effectiveness of Article V of the By-Laws of the Board of Curators relating to student conduct and discipline may be secured for all students in the University of Missouri, and so that procedures shall be definite and determinable within the University of Missouri.

These Rules of Procedure shall be followed in any disciplinary proceedings commenced after the beginning of the second semester 1968-69, subject to the constitutional authority and legal obligation of the Board of Curators and the authority delegated to the President of the University to exercise jurisdiction over all or any disciplinary matters of the University.

Definitions

As used in these rules, the following definitions shall apply:

Appeal: The exercise of the right to review by the student or Dean of Student Affairs of the full record of the Student Conduct Committee or the Chancellor where discipline of expulsion, dismissal or suspension is imposed.

Dean of Student Affairs: As used in these procedures, "Dean of Student Affairs" is charged with the primary responsibility for the administration of these disciplinary procedures and refers to either the person on each campus with that title (or an appropriate or similar one) or the individual specifically designated by him to act for him.

Disciplinary Dismissal: An involuntary separation of the student from the institution for misconduct apart from academic performance. Dismissal differs from suspension in that it does not imply or state a minimum separation time.

Disciplinary Expulsion: Disciplinary dismissal of a permanent nature.

Disciplinary Probation: A status resulting from misconduct apart from academic performance. The student remains enrolled but under stated conditions.

Disciplinary Suspension: An involuntary separation of the student from the institution for misconduct apart from academic performance for a specified period of time. Suspension differs from dismissal in that after the stated time period the student is eligible to be readmitted.

Discipline Panel: A panel of students appointed by the Chancellor, from which shall be selected by the Chairman, upon the request of a student charged before the Student Conduct Committee, not more than three students to serve with the Student Conduct Committee.

Review: The exercise of the right to request the review of the Chancellor by the student or Dean of Student Affairs whether or not discipline is imposed and when the discipline imposed, if any, is other than expulsion, dismissal or suspension.

Student: A person having once been admitted in the University who has not completed his course of study and who intends or does continue his course of study in or through one of the campuses of the University. For the purpose of these rules, student status continues whether the University's academic programs are in session or not.

Student Conduct Committee: As used in these procedures, "Student Conduct Committee" is that body on each campus which is authorized to conduct hearings and to make dispositions under these procedures or a Hearing Panel of such body as herein defined.

PROCEDURES

Section 1. Dean of Student Affairs

The Dean of Student Affairs on each campus or his designee is designated the primary officer for administration of discipline for unacceptable conduct or which involves infraction of University rules and regulations and will initiate disciplinary action in accordance with these regulations.

Section 2. Preliminary Procedures

The Dean of Student Affairs shall investigate any reported student misconduct before initiating formal disciplinary procedures and give the student the opportunity to present his personal version of the incident or occurrence. The Dean of Student Affairs may discuss, consult, and advise with any student whose conduct is called into question, and students shall attend such consultations as requested by the Dean of Student Affairs, and shall be given a copy of these procedures. The Dean of Student Affairs, in making his investigation and disposition, may utilize student courts and boards to make recommendations to him which he shall consider in exercising the authority vested in him.

Section 3. Informal Disposition

The Dean of Student Affairs, after investigation, and when acceptable to the student, shall have the authority to impose appropriate discipline. Where the disposition proposed by the Dean of Student Affairs in the preliminary proceedings is not accepted by the student in writing, the student shall have the rights of notice, hearing, and formal procedures as hereinafter set forth before the Student Conduct Committee. The Dean of Student Affairs shall fix a reasonable time within which the student shall accept or reject a proposed informal disposition. A failure of the student to either accept or reject such proposed disposition within the time fixed shall be deemed to be an acceptance, and in such event, the proposed disposition shall become final upon expiration of such time. If the student rejects informal disposition, his signed statement shall be forwarded to the Committee. The Dean of Student Affairs, at his discretion, may refer cases to the Student Conduct Committee without first offering informal disposition.

Section 4. Temporary Suspension

Either the President or Chancellor of a campus may at any time temporarily suspend or deny readmission to a student from the University pending formal procedures when he finds and believes from information coming to his attention that the presence of a student on campus would seriously disrupt the University or constitute a danger to the health, safety, or welfare of the University. The suspending officer shall promptly notify the Dean of Student Affairs to initiate the appropriate disciplinary procedure within five days.

Section 5. Formal Procedures and Disposition

A. Student Conduct Committee: (1) The Student Conduct Committee shall be appointed by the Chancellor and shall have the authority to impose appropriate discipline upon any student or students appearing before it, including, but not limited to, probation, suspension, dismissal, or expulsion. (2) The Committee, when appropriate or convenient, may be divided by the Chairman of the Student Conduct Committee into Hearing Panels, each panel to be composed of at least five members present at the hearing, including a designated chairman. A Hearing Panel has the authority of the whole Committee in those cases assigned to it by the Chairman of the Student Conduct Committee. The Chairman of the Committee or of a Hearing Panel shall count as one member of the Committee or Hearing Panel and have, in addition to his rights as Chairman, the same voting and other rights as other members of the Committee or Hearing Panel. (3) Each Chancellor shall appoint a panel of students for his campus, to be known as the Discipline Panel. Upon written request of a student charged before the Student Conduct Committee, made at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the hearing, the Chairman of the Committee or Hearing Panel shall appoint from the Discipline Panel not more than three students to sit with the Committee or Hearing Panel for that particular case. When students from the Discipline Panel serve at the request of a student charged, they shall have the same rights as other members of the Committee or Hearing Panel, including the right to vote.

B. General Statement of Procedures: A student charged with a breach of University rules or regulations or conduct in violation of the General Standard of Student Conduct is entitled to a written notice and a formal hearing unless the matter be disposed of under the rules for informal disposition. The procedure set forth below shall be interpreted and administered to accomplish this objective and provide for prompt consideration and disposition of student conduct cases. Disciplinary proceedings are not to be construed as judicial trials, but care shall be taken to comply as fully as possible with the spirit and intent of the procedural safeguards set forth herein. The Office of the General Counsel shall be legal adviser to the Student Conduct Committee.

C. Notice: The Dean of Student Affairs shall initiate disciplinary actions by arranging with the Chairman to call a meeting of the Student Conduct Committee and by giving written notice by certified mail or personal delivery to the student charged with misconduct which shall set forth the date, time and place of the alleged violation, the conduct to be inquired into, and the date, time and place of hearing before the Student Conduct Committee. Notice by certified mail may be addressed to the last address currently on record with the University. Failure by the student to have his current correct local address on record with the University shall not be construed to invalidate such notice. The notice shall be given at least seven (7) consecutive calendar days prior to the hearing, unless a shorter time be fixed by the Chairman for good cause. Any request for continuance shall be made in writing to the Chairman, who shall have the authority in his discretion to continue the hearing if he determines the request is timely and made for good cause. The Chairman shall notify the Dean of Student Affairs and the student of the new date for the hearing. If the student fails to appear at the scheduled time, the Committee may hear and determine the matter in his absence.

D. Conduct of Hearing: The Chairman shall preside at the hearing, call the hearing to order, call the roll of the Committee in attendance, ascertain the presence or absence of the student charged with misconduct, read the notice of hearing and charges and verify the receipt of notices of charges by student, report any continuances requested or granted, establish the presence of any adviser or counselor of the student, and call to the attention of the student charged and his adviser any special or extraordinary procedures to be employed during the hearing and permit the student to make suggestions of or objections to any procedures for the Student Conduct Committee to consider.

(1) Opening Statements:(a) The Dean of Student Affairs shall make opening remarks outlining the general nature of the case and testify to any facts his investigation has revealed. (b) The student may make a statement to the Committee about the charge at this time or at the conclusion of the University's presentation, at his election.

(2) University Evidence: (a) University witnesses are to be called and identified or written reports of evidence introduced as ap-appropriate. (b) The Committee may question witnesses at any time. (c) The student or, with permission of the Committee, his adviser or counselor may question witnesses or examine evidence at the conclusion of the University's presentation.

(3) Student Evidence: The student shall have the opportunity to make a statement to the Committee about the charge, and may then present further evidence through witnesses or in the form of written memoranda as he desires. The Committee may question the student or witnesses at any time. The Dean of Student Affairs may question the student or witnesses.

(4) Rebuttal Evidence: The Committee may permit the University or the student to offer any matter in rebuttal of the other's presentation.

E. Rights of Student Conduct Committee: The Student Conduct Committee shall have the right: (1) in cases involving more than one student which arise out of the same transaction or occurrence to hear such cases together, but in that event shall make separate findings and determinations for each student; (2) to permit a stipulation of facts by the Dean of Student Affairs and the student involved; (3) to permit the incorporation in the record by a reference of any document, affidavit or other thing produced and desired to be incorporated in the record by the University or the student charged; (4) to question witnesses or other evidence introduced by either the University or the student at any time; (5) to hear from the Dean of Student Affairs about dispositions made in similar cases and any dispositions offered to the student appearing before the Committee; (6) to call additional witnesses or require additional investigation; (7) to dismiss any action at any time or permit informal disposition as otherwise provided; (8) to permit or require at any time amendment of the Notice of Hearing to include new or additional matters which may come to the attention of the Committee before final determination of the case; provided, however, that in such event the Committee shall grant to the student or Dean of Student Affairs such time as the Committee may determine reasonable under the circumstances to answer or explain such additional matters; (9) to dismiss any person from the hearing who interferes with or obstructs the hearing or fails to abide by the rulings of the Chairman or the Committee on request; and (10) to summarily suspend students from the University who, during the hearing, obstruct or interfere with the course of the hearing or fail to abide by the ruling of the Chairman of the Committee on any procedural question or requests of the Chairman for order.

F. Student Rights Upon Hearing: A student appearing before a Student Conduct Committee pursuant to formal notice of charges and disciplinary hearing shall have the right: (1) to be present at the hearing; (2) to have an adviser or counselor of his choice appear with him and to consult with such adviser or counselor during the hearing; (3) upon timely request, to have students from the Discipline Panel sit with the Committee or Hearing Panel in his case; (4) to hear or examine evidence presented to the Committee against him; (5) to question witnesses present and testifying against him at the hearing, (6) to present evidence by witness or affidavit of any defense the student desires; (7) to make any statement to the Committee in mitigation or explanation of his conduct in question that he desires; (8) to be informed in writing of the findings of the Student Conduct Committee and any discipline it imposes; and (9) to appeal to the Chancellor or Board of Curators as herein provided.

G. Determination by Committee: The Student Conduct Committee shall then make its findings and determinations in executive session out of the presence of the Dean of Student Affairs and the student charged. Separate findings are to be made (1) as to the conduct of the student and (2) on the discipline, if any, to be imposed. No discipline shall be imposed on the student unless a majority of the Committee present is reasonably convinced by the evidence that the student has committed the violation charged and should be disciplined therefor.

H. Official Report of Findings and Determination: The Committee shall promptly consider the case on the merits and make its findings and determination and transmit them to the Dean of Student Affairs and the student charged forthwith.

I. Other Procedural Questions: Procedural questions which arise during the hearing not covered by these general rules shall be determined by the Chairman, whose ruling shall be final unless the Chairman shall present the question to the Committee at the request of a member of the Committee, in which event the ruling of the Committee by majority vote shall be final.

J. General Rules of Decorum: The following general rules of decorum shall be adhered to: (1) All requests to address the Committee shall be addressed to the Chairman. (2) The Chairman will rule on all requests and points of order and may consult with Committee's legal adviser prior to any ruling. The Chairman's ruling shall be final and all participants shall abide thereby, unless the Chairman shall present the question to the Committee at the request of a member of the Committee, in which event the ruling of the Committee by majority vote shall be final. (3) Rules of common courtesy and decency shall be observed at all times. (4) An adviser or counselor may be permitted to address the Committee at the discretion of the Committee. An adviser or counselor may request clarification of a procedural matter or object on the basis of procedure at any time by addressing the Chairman after recognition.

Section 6. Record of Hearing

A taped or stenographic record of the hearing shall be maintained. The hearing record shall be maintained and kept as long as the discipline imposed shall be in force, or for five (5) years, whichever is earlier. The notice, exhibits, hearing record and the findings and determination of the Committee shall become the "Record of the Case" and shall be filed in the office of the Dean of Student Affairs and for the purpose of appeal be accessible at reasonable times and places to both the University and the student.

Section 7. Right of Appeal

A. When a student is expelled, dismissed, or suspended from the University by the Student Conduct Committee, the Dean of Student Affairs or the student may appeal such decision to the Chancellor of the campus or his designated representative by filing written notice of appeal with the Chancellor within ten (10) consecutive calendar days after notification of the decision of the Student Conduct Committee. A copy of the Notice of Appeal will contemporaneously be given by the student to the Dean of Student Affairs or by the Dean of Student Affairs to the student. The appealing party may file a written memorandum for consideration by the Chancellor with the Notice of Appeal, and the Chancellor may request a reply to such memorandum by the student or Dean of Student Affairs.

B. The Chancellor or his designated representative shall review the full record of the case and the appeal documents and may affirm, reverse, or remand the case for further proceedings and shall notify the Dean of Student Affairs and the student in writing of his decision on the appeal.

C. The Dean of Student Affairs or the student may thereafter appeal to the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri by filing a written Notice of Appeal with the Chancellor, the President, and the Secretary of the Board of Curators and giving notice to either the student or Dean of Student Affairs, as appropriate. Such Notice of Appeal must be filed within ten (10) days of the notification of action by the Chancellor. Upon the filing of a Notice of Appeal to the Board, the Chancellor shall cause the record of the case, including any written memoranda received during his consideration, to be promptly filed with the Secretary of the Board through the Office of the President.

D. The appealing party may file a written memorandum for consideration by the Board of Curators with the Notice of Appeal if he so desires, and the other party may file a written reply within ten (10) consecutive calendar days.

C. The Board of Curators shall take such action on the appeal as it deems appropriate and may require a hearing de novo on the issues made on the appeal. The Secretary of the Board shall notify the student, the Dean of Student Affairs, the Committee Chairman, the Chancellor and the President in writing of the decision of the Board.

Section 8. Right to Petition for Review

A. In all cases where the discipline imposed by the Student Conduct Committee is other than expulsion, dismissal or suspension, the Dean of Student Affairs or the student may petition the Chancellor of the campus or his designated representative in writing for a review of the decision within five (5) consecutive calendar days after notification of the decision of the Student Conduct Committee and by serving a copy of the Petition for Review upon the nonappealing party within such time. The Petition for Review shall state the grounds or reasons for review, and the nonappealing party may answer the petition within five (5) consecutive calendar days if he so desires.

B. The Chancellor or his designated representative may grant or refuse the right of review. If the Chancellor or his representative reviews the decision, the action of the Chancellor shall be final unless it be to remand the matter for further proceedings or unless the action of the Chancellor be to impose discipline of expulsion, dismissal, or suspension.

C. If the Chancellor imposes discipline of expulsion, dismissal, or suspension, the Dean of Student Affairs and the student shall have a right to appeal to the Board of Curators as provided under Section 7. In all cases where the Petition for Review is refused, the action of the Student Conduct Committee shall be final.

Section 9. Status During Appeal

In cases of suspension, dismissal, or expulsion where a Notice of Appeal is filed within the required time, a student may petition the appellate authority in writing for permission to attend classes pending final determination of the appeal. The appellate authority may permit a student to continue in school under such conditions as may be designated pending completion of appellate procedures, provided such continuance will not seriously disrupt the University or constitute a danger to the health, safety, or welfare of the University community. In such event, however, any final disciplinary action imposed shall be effective from the date of the action of the Student Conduct Committee.

Section 10. Student Honor Systems

Forums under student honor systems established for investigating facts, holding hearings, and recommending and imposing sanctions are authorized when the student honor code or other regulations, containing a well defined jurisdictional statement and satisfying the requirements of Article V of the By-Laws of the Board of Curators, have been reduced to writing and have been approved by the Chancellor and the Board of Curators and notice thereof in writing has been furnished to students subject thereto. Procedures shall satisfy the requirements of the Board of Curators By-Laws, Article V, and shall contain procedures hereinbefore stated insofar as appropriate and adaptable to the particular situations and shall be approved by the Chancellor and the General Counsel. Students subject to student honor systems shall have the rights of appeal as set forth in Section 7, 8 and 9 of these Rules of Procedure.

Note: As of Fall, 1975, the position of Dean of Student Affairs has been changed to Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES FOR STUDENTS

For Student Grievance Procedures, please contact the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, 211 Jesse Hall.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION PROCEDURES

The Committee on Student Organizations, Government and Activities (SOGA) has established a few simple procedures to enable student organizations to operate on a systematic basis and, at the same time, to provide opportunity for organizational responsibility.

SOGA Committee. Article XII of the By-Laws of the University Faculty delegates the responsibility and authority for formulating policies and regulations regarding student organizations and the enforcement of these standards to the Committee on Student Organizations, Government and Activities, a standing committee for Student Affairs. Students recommended by Missouri Student Association and appointed by the Chancellor serve with faculty members on the SOGA Committee. The Center for Student Life administers these policies.

Types of Student Organizations

1. The student government, MSA, and subordinate student governments such as IRHA, IFC, Panhellenic, divisional and departmental student governments, and Graduate Students Association.

2. Student-organized living units which function as University-supervised housing such as residence hall houses, fraternities, sororities, and co-ops.

3. Student interest groups organized around some unified factor of common interest.

Recognition of Student Organizations

1. "Recognition" of a student organization provides access to University and MSA facilities, and assistance with financial records from the auditor of student organizations.

2. "Procedures" for gaining recognition include obtaining and completing recognition forms from the Center for Student Life on which the organization's name, purpose, program, officers, faculty adviser, and basis for membership are included. The completed forms must then be returned to the Center for Student Life.

The MSA Senate Rules Committee reviews these forms and sends them to the MSA Senate with recommendations, and the Senate considers the recognition request. Upon Senate approval, the request is forwarded to SOGA for a final decision. Temporary recognition may be granted in special cases.

Faculty Advisers. Full-time members of the UMC Faculty or staff may serve as faculty advisers. Advisers should acquaint themselves with the constitution and the statement of aims of the organization; keep themselves generally informed about the activities of the organization; and consult with members of the organization, Center for Student Life, and SOGA as necessary.

Activities and Programs. Organizations are responsible for developing and conducting their own programs and activities. Recognition of the organization by SOGA Committee enables the use of University facilities and auditing services.

Special Events

1. Public Meetings. When student organizations wish to sponsor meetings or events open to the general public, arrangements must be made at least ten days prior to the event—check with the Center for Student Life for details.

2. Fund Raising. When a student organization wishes to have a fund-raising activity on campus, a request for approval must be made to SOGA. Additional information may be obtained in the Center for Student Life.

3. Parades. A person shall be appointed by the organization requesting to have a parade to insure that all participants are properly instructed concerning the prescribed route and plans of the parade. Parade permit forms may be obtained from the Center for Student Life. Copies must be approved by the Columbia Police Department and the UMC Police Department, and filed with the Center for Student Life. Parades must be registered three days prior to the activity, and conform to all city ordinances regarding parades.

Use of Facilities. University facilities are available for approved programs and activities of recognized student organizations. University policy in regard to use of facilities is outlined in another section of this Bulletin (see Index). When use of facilities is considered, organization members should consult their guidelines.

Audit of Student Organizations. SOGA has established procedures to enable student organizations to operate on a business-like basis and, at the same time, provide opportunity for development of student responsibility in handling organization funds. Treasurers of each recognized student organization should contact the Auditor of Student Organizations (Gentry Hall) for the procedures and for any advice concerning their financial transactions.

Student organizations and their subsidiaries recognized by the Committee are required to have their records audited annually by the Auditor. Organizations that are required to report annually to the Internal Revenue Service are audited as of the same date each year; other organizations are audited at various times as requested by the Auditor.

Annual Reports. After the beginning of the academic year, each student organization shall file in the Center for Student Life the names and addresses of officers, and change in constitution or statement of purpose. Student organizations are reviewed annually by the Center for Student Life and an annual summary is presented to the SOGA Committee. Forms are available in the Center for Student Life.

Responsibility for Conduct. Responsibility for the general conduct at a student organization's social function shall be fixed upon the executive officer of the organization holding the function, or if the group has no officer, upon the person designated on the application as being in charge.

Disciplinary Hearing. In the event organizations are alleged to have violated University policies or regulations (see Index), the SOGA Committee will hold hearings in accordance with the procedure outlined by legal counsel of the University and disposition of the case will be made. Copies of the hearing procedures are available in the Center for Student Life.

Appeal Procedures. Student organizations have the right to appeal decisions made by student courts or governments to SOGA. Decisions made by SOGA may be appealed to the Dean of Student Affairs, the Chancellor, and the President of the University.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

6.0701 Approval of Student Organizations. (Bd. Regs. 12-49, p. 82, as amended).

- .1 (Bd. Min. 9-8-50, p. 5375). Regulations of the University require that campus organizations receive official approval and that they limit their membership to students enrolled in the University. These

- organizations, fraternities, sororities, co-ops, discussion groups, etc., are voluntary organizations and choose their own members. The University requires that they administer, fairly and justly, their own regulations which are filed with the University before approval for campus recognition is granted. The University does not concern itself with the basis for membership in these organizations other than to require that members be students enrolled in the University. Any group of students in the University of Missouri proposing to function as a student organization or as an organized student activity in a field where supervision is not otherwise provided for by the Board of Curators or by the Faculty of the University shall submit such evidence to the Committee on Student Affairs as that Committee may deem reasonable and proper in order that it may determine whether recognition shall be granted or denied to the organization or the organized activity.
- .2 Any student organization or organized student activity which has been recognized by the Committee on Student Affairs shall, whenever ordered to do so by that Committee, submit such evidence as the Committee may deem reasonable and proper in order that it may determine whether or not recognition of the organization or the organized activity shall be continued.
 - .3 The Committee on Student Affairs is hereby authorized to make due inquiry into the purposes and program of any organization or organized activity which includes or proposes to include students of the University of Missouri in its membership or as participants in its program and to approve or disapprove of such student membership or participation.
 - .4 Any student in the University of Missouri who becomes or continues a member of any student organization or a participant in any organized student activity which is not recognized by the Committee on Student Affairs or by some other appropriate agency of the University or any student in the University of Missouri who becomes or continues as a member of an organization or a participant in an organized activity, student membership or participation in which has been disapproved by the Committee on Student Affairs shall be reported by that Committee to the appropriate Committee on Discipline of the University for such disciplinary action as the latter Committee may deem reasonable and proper.
 - .5 At such time or times during each session of the University of Missouri as the Committee on Student Affairs shall designate, each student organization and each organized student activity, whether recognized by the Committee on Student Affairs or by some other University agency, shall file with the Committee on Student Affairs the names and addresses of its officers and such other information as the Committee may require.
 - .6 Any student in the University of Missouri who is or becomes a member of any organization which, in fact, encourages its members to violate the high standards of ethical and moral conduct expected of all University students shall be reported by the Committee on Student Affairs to the appropriate Committee on Discipline of the University for such disciplinary action as the latter Committee may deem reasonable and proper.

The University of Missouri is one university with four campuses—Columbia, Kansas City, Rolla, and St. Louis. Established in 1839 at Columbia (oldest and largest of the four campuses), the University is recognized as the first state university west of the Mississippi River. Designated a land-grant university in 1870, it has extended its educational benefits to all sections of Missouri in addition to its traditionally assigned tasks of teaching and research within the campus settings. The University is governed by a Board of Curators. The President of the University and his staff coordinate programs of all four campuses. The Chancellors are the chief academic and administrative officers for their respective campuses.
